At Clerk Hook's Office.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record a deed made May 28, by Frederick Setzer and wife to Louisa Brill, for $800, the east half of lot 5 in A. H. Britt's subdivision of J. and J. R. Baker's addition.

A marriage license was issued to Donnelly Morris, aged twenty-seven, of Charleston, and Rose Mick, aged eighteen, of this city.

W. B. Baird was appointed administrator of the estate of William Brandstropp, deceased, and gave bond in $200, with F. C. Bode as surety.

A Good Time Assured.

The arrangement and amusement committees of the Retail Grocers' Association held a joint meeting at the office of Kirchbach & Helmbright last night, and perfected arrangements for the amusements at the picnic they will hold on June 10, at the Park. Among other things there will be a wheelbarrow contest, sack race, potato race, bologna contest, walking match, foot race, croquet and everything to make the day one of pleasure to those attending the picnic. That the amusements will be up to the standard is assured by the fact of its being in the hands of the "angels of commerce" of the different wholesale houses of the city.

In the Police Court.

Can a man with $78 in his inside pocket be convicted of vagrancy? was the conundrum generally asked about town yesterday. Mayor Sepbriest answered it in the morning by fining Myer Ziegler $10 and costs on that charge when he had that amount. He declined to part with any cash, and was sent to the hill for thirty days. A man and two women were fined $5 and costs each for disorder in East Wheeling, which they paid. George Miller paid $1 and costs for throwing a signal lantern into a pile of shavings, causing a big blaze. John Lynch, for disorder, went to the hill for thirty days in default of $3 and costs, and John Miller, on the same charge was dismissed.

In Judge Campbell's Court.

In Part I of the Circuit Court, Judge Campbell on the bench, yesterday, the case of W. L. Rees, an infant, by his next friend, against the Wheeling & Elm Grove railway company was continued to a jury of eleven, Juror Robinson being sick. The parties preferred to go on with eleven jurors rather than begin the case again with a new jury.

Jacob Heyburn, Charles Schell and Lewis Kraft, charged with unlawful breaking, were released on their own recognizance in the sum of $500.

In the case of the American Preserves Company vs. Joseph Speidel & Co., the defendant paid into court $36.45, claiming this was all the money due the plaintiff. The plaintiff objected to this plea.

In the case of L. W. Inglebright vs. Will P. Robinson, the defendant tendered certain pleas, and gave notice of offsets.

FOR EMBEZZLEMENT

Charles M. Eader, Ex-Cashier of the U. S. Express Company,

ON TRIAL ON THE SERIOUS CHARGE

Of Stealing Large Sums of Money from Express Packages in the Office. The Evidence for the Defense Now in Progress—Damaging Statements Made by the Counsel.

The trial of Charles M. Eader, ex-cashier of the U. S. express office in this city, charged with embezzling large sums of money while in transmission through that office, was put on trial in Part 11 of the Circuit, Judge Paul on the bench, yesterday to the following jury:

Alfonso Stenger, W. H. Taggart, Charles Sample, Henry Kalbitzer, S. B. Jefferson, William H. Long, William T. Crummie, Lewis Newman, Elmer Nicholls, A. C. Wagner, George Zoeckler and James Mansbarger.

Capt. Doverser, Col. Arnett and John J. Coniff appeared for the defense, while Prosecuting Attorney Howard is assisted by Col. Robert White.

In his opening statement Mr. Howard said the prosecution would not only prove that the prisoner had stolen $500 from a package sent by Martin Conley, of Doddridge county, to Rev. Father McMenamin, of Benwood, but also that on March 16, 17 and 21 he had failed to deliver money packages. On the first date he received $145.75, the second $110.30, and on the third date packages of $277.26 and $108.45.

Capt. Doverser made a very emphatic statement of the case for the defense. He said it would be shown that the Conley money might have been stolen from the package before it was sealed up, or after it had reached the Wheeling office, for, although it was true that Eader only had the combination of the safe, it was left open at all hours, when employees passed in and out and had every opportunity to steal from it. The captain also said the defense would show that several officers were in arrears, and the business of the company was in bad shape, and he charged that a conspiracy against Eader existed.

Mr. Howard, in response to the claim of good character made on his client's behalf by Captain Doverser, said that it would be proven, if necessary, that the accused had been guilty of embezzlement before, that he was dissolute and extravagant. The statements were enlivened by several cross fires between the opposing counsel.

After these formalities had been completed the jury was taken in a body to view the office and premises of the express company, and the court adjourned till afternoon.

STOLE AN UMBRELLA

While the Owner Was Inspecting a House. New Use for a Potato Masher.

Last Sunday evening H. N. Cumit was inspecting a house on the South Side preparatory to moving into it. William Blanche sauntered by, and seeing Mr. Cumit deposit his silk umbrella in the hall, quietly walked in and appropriated it. Constable Baker arrested him on the spot and Squire Rogers sent him to jail in default of bond. Yesterday he was tried and fined $10 and costs.

Porterfield Dolbeare yesterday swore out a warrant before Squire Rogers, charging John Emerson with having threatened to hit him with a potato masher. Both are waiters at the Stamm House. Emerson was arrested and fined $5 and costs. A suit brought by Dolbeare requiring him to give bond to keep the peace was dismissed by the justice.

ONLY A BROKEN LEG

The Result of an Accident which Might have Been Much Worse.

A very narrow escape from a horrible death under the wheels of a locomotive occurred in the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling railroad yards in Kirkwood yesterday just before noon. James Breedlove, a colored man twenty years old, was on his way to the Standard mill, taking dinner to a workman, and seeing the Cleveland, Lorain & Wheeling yard engine starting for Kennaville, he attempted to step on the front foot board or step of the engine, and in doing so fell directly in front of the wheels. The engineer saw him fall and applied the air so quickly that the locked wheels of the trucks together with the foot board, shoved the man along the track in front until the engine came to a halt.

Breedlove was taken from his perilous position with a broken leg. Dr. Cook was called and reduced the fracture.

Breedlove is an expert bridge and iron structure climber, and worked on the construction of the new addition to the Standard iron works. He was engaged to work on the World's Fair buildings at Chicago, where he expected to go soon.

This unanimity of the G. A. R. in patronizing THE HUB is the result of an investigation as to the relative merits of the offerings of the various clothing houses of this city. Experts who have examined the goods and prices have rendered the verdict in favor of THE HUB, whose goods were found the best in the market, every suit being Strictly All-Wool, Fast Color and of precise G. A. R. Regulation, while the prices were positively 15 to 25 per cent lower than the same qualities are sold elsewhere. The various G. A. R. Posts, also S. of V. Camps, individually or collectively, will therefore find it to their interest to buy new uniforms, white vests, etc.

TO BUYERS OF BOYS' CLOTHING:

You all know what trouble and annoyance a poor-fitting and badly-made boys' suit gives you, and you no doubt have come to the belief that all ready-made goods are that way. Come and try us, you will not only get nice-fitting, well-made garments, but you will be surprised to see how low our prices are. We sell goods on their merits, not on their looks. We have everything that is stylish and good whether it is a child's $2 Suit or a boy's $12 one, you will get what is fashionable and fully worth the money. Of one thing you can be satisfied, and that is whatever you get from us will be less in price than the same character of goods can be bought for elsewhere.
