The Intelligencer.

WHEELING, AUGUST 20, 1892.

NATIONAL REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- FOR PRESIDENT, BENJAMIN HARRISON, of Indiana. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, WHITELAW REID, of New York. "One Good Term Deserves Another."

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- FOR GOVERNOR, THOMAS E. DAVIS, of Taylor County. FOR AUDITOR, JACOB S. HYER, of Braxton County. FOR TREASURER, WILLIAM P. PAYNE, of McDowell County.

OHIO COUNTY REPUBLICAN TICKET.

- FOR SHERIFF, T. C. MOFFAT. FOR PROSECUTING ATTORNEY, SAMUEL O. BOYCE. FOR AMBASSOR, CITY DISTRICT, W. H. HORNISH.

A British View of the American Tariff.

The promoters of the McKinley tariff meant it to push forward the policy of America for the Americans. One method of realizing it was to keep all work within their own dominions.

REPUBLICAN victory in the coming election would retard for a long time the progress of the sound commercial doctrine that underlies the commercial greatness of Great Britain and alone maintain British ascendancy.

IN 1890 it was a conflict of predictions; now our adversaries must face trade statistics and press current.—President Harrison, June 21, 1892.

READERS of the Intelligencer going out of town for the summer can have the Intelligencer mailed to them for sixty-five cents per month, postage free.

Mr. Faulkner in Public and in Private The New York Herald is regarded by Democrats as a truthful independent Democratic paper. It is also a reliable newspaper.

DEPLORABLE as are the acts of the miners in Tennessee they are the outcome of a system which is repugnant to the spirit of modern civilization.

Demagogues and Labor. There has been a very bad brood of noisy demagogues in this country, hasty, officious, vehement and vindictive; and they have been devoting their malevolent and idiotic energies to two classes of people, the farmers and the laborers.

Stop the mouths of the demagogues and paid agitators and the relations between capital and labor will become more cordial. Their interests are mutual, and they are apt to arrange ship in the unfrequented roadways of ordinary commerce?—Benjamin Harrison.

Here is the latest outbreak of Henry Watterson, the especial champion of the Democratic tariff doctrine of this year: "Down with the thieving duties at the custom houses; down with the swindling reciprocity treaties; down with the cant about the wage-earners; down with the fraud that taxes make wealth; down with all the fallacies of protection, and up with the starry flag of the Union, Free Trade and Sailors' Rights!"

The "Force" Bill Bugaboo.

The "Force" bill issue doesn't seem to be working to suit our Democratic friends. They find the people better posted than they thought they were. It is an insult to the intelligence of American citizens to raise a cry for no other purpose than to arouse their sectional and race prejudices, or to frighten them into voting a party ticket.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

The state line monument, standing on the shore of Lake Michigan, marking the boundary line between Indiana and Illinois, was erected by the government in 1833. It is of soft limestone, and so worn by the elements that part of the inscription is illegible.

Why?—Are you good at arithmetic, Browne?

"Why?—Are you good at arithmetic, Browne?" Browne—"Good, my boy? I'm simply phenomenal at it. I can add a column of six figures up seven times and make it come out eight different ways."

Two Chinamen lately tried the holding-up process on a bank messenger near Hong Kong and robbed him of 200 taels—about $300—but they were caught and decapitated within forty-eight hours.

Grand Rapids has one man in the Michigan state prison serving five years for stealing five pounds of pork and another in on the same time for lugging off somebody else's umbrella.

More than 18,000 letters are put in the postoffices of the United States every day that, through misdirection or miscarriage of some kind, bring up in the dead letter office.

The tame buffalo which was recently killed by an unknown vandal in Kiowa county, Kansas, was valued at $1,500. It was the largest buffalo bull in the country.

The colored women of Minnesota have offered to assist in the decoration of the state's building at the World's Fair, and the offer has been accepted.

A medical man in Vienna asserts that diphtheria is thrice as prevalent among smokers as those who deny themselves the luxury of the weed.

Elizabeth N. J. now has one saloon for every 100 persons there, and seventeen new applications are about to be considered by the excise board.

A man while fishing in Lapwal creek, Idaho, hooked a rattlesnake three and one-half feet long that was swimming across the creek.

There are 37,000 women telegraph operators in the United States, and the number is constantly growing.

A Chinese leper was found in a Chinese laundry at San Francisco on Saturday.

Express trains in Russia rarely travel faster than twenty-two miles an hour.

Eight persons died every hour in New York city last week Thursday.

The town of Cumberland, R. I., boasts of a meeting house built in 1740.

Cider brandy made in 1820 is owned by a West Hartford, (Conn.) man.

A petrified woman is on exhibition in Hutchinson, Kan.

Natural gas has been struck in Tennessee.

The Regular Bourbon Way.

Chicago News-Record. The "dignified and gentlemanly campaign" opened in Alabama night before last, when a gentleman who presumed to make a public speech denouncing the Democratic nominee for governor was rotten egged and driven out of Florence.

A Mugwump Opinion.

Springfield Republican. For such a crowd of incapables and flibustiers as are now gathered in the chamber of the national house, we are almost inclined to admit that Reed rules are none too despotic.

THE only reason for Mr. Cleveland's nomination, and the thing that forced his nomination in spite of all the efforts of politicians, was the fact that, in the minds of the Democratic masses, he represents the idea of free trade.

Mrs. M. Schaeferberger, Beaver Dam, Wis., writes: "We have used Dr. Thomas' Electric Oil in our family for coughs, colds, croup and rheumatism. It cures every time."

CAN chronic diarrhoea be cured? Those who think not should read the following from Mr. Joseph McGuffin of Spaulding, Union county, Iowa. He says: "I was troubled for years with chronic diarrhoea and used many kinds of medicine; but nothing with permanent effect for good, until I tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I would say to every one in need of medicine for the ailment mentioned and kindred disease try the Remedy, and like myself, you will never be without it in your home."

Very Bad Sore Cured.

In the summer of 1889 I had a sore and a hole in my foot. It continued to get bigger and at last it was as big as a half dollar. I was completely helpless, unable to walk. After suffering with it for two and a half years, I tried everything, but without relief. I got the CUTICURA Remedy, and they were the only thing that cured my foot. CUTICURA is my friend forever and ever.

their differences on a peaceful basis, unless interfered with by politicians, who see in every clash about wages an opportunity to turn it to political account.

PUBLISHED interviews with the leaders of all political parties having presidential tickets in the field show that each is confident that his particular party will sweep the country. Since there is so much certainty that everybody is going to win why is everybody wasting so much valuable time and sacrificing so much peace of mind over the matter?

TIME TO SMILE.

Mrs. Gadder—"I'm happy to inform you that I have been converted—got religion, as they say." Mrs. Tawker—"I'm glad, and yet I'm rather disappointed, too." Mrs. Gadder—"Why so?" Mrs. Tawker—"Because I had a choice piece of scandal to tell you, and now I suppose it won't do for you to listen to it."

THE outbreak of the East Tennessee miners is a renewal of the trouble experienced a year ago.

Papa—"Well, Tommy, and how did you like it?" Tommy (who has been taken to church for the first time)—"Very much, indeed. Every one had to keep very quiet, but one man stood up and talked the whole time, and at last we all had to get up and sing to keep him quiet."
