A House Robbed.

Day before yesterday a house in the neighborhood of Elm Grove was robbed, under circumstances which pointed to a workman employed on a new house near as the thief. The police have since been searching for him, but he has so far eluded arrest.

A warrant was yesterday issued for Bert Higgs and Viola Ritchie, the Short Creek couple who eloped to Zanesville. They are charged with kidnapping Dora Belle Clark, aged 16, with immoral intent. Bellaire's Wild Italians.

At nine o'clock last night a bunch of Italians got into a fight in Wenzel's saloon, in Bellaire. Several revolver shots were fired, but no one was hurt. One or two bullets went through the window into the street, but fortunately struck no one. Five Italians were arrested, and the police were looking for a sixth.

Nailers Leaving Town.

Two Belmont nailers called at the INTELLIGENCER office yesterday and stated that the Register was mistaken yesterday morning in saying that there would be a number of the locked out nailers go on in a few days. Taggart's Forgeries Increase.

Every day new victims of the forgeries of W. S. Taggart, over the river, turn up, and his operations so far have reached close to $20,000. Yesterday $1,800 of forged notes not before known turned up. One note was for $1,000, and held by a Miss Douglass, whose entire possessions it represented, and the other note, for $800, was also held by a woman, a school teacher, who had no money but this which she had loaned to Taggart.

A Runaway Boy.

Information has been left at police headquarters of the disappearance of Allie P. Ralston, a lad aged about fifteen years, son of D. H. Ralston, of Belleville, Washington county, Pa. He disappeared on Monday, and there is no clue to his whereabouts. He has blue eyes, fair complexion and weighs eighty-two pounds. He was drunk, and his father proposed to prosecute the people who gave him liquor. To avoid testifying the lad left home. He has been here, but has probably left.

A Close Call for her Life.

Last evening as the Cumberland accommodation, due here at 4:50, was rounding the curve near beneath the Bellaire bridge at Benwood, the engineer spied a woman calmly walking upon the track in front of the locomotive. He at once whistled down brakes, and slackened up as speedily as he could, but he could not have avoided running over her, had she not heard the warning and stepped off the track in time. The locomotive caught the umbrella she was carrying and smashed it to bits. Had it not been for the engineer's prompt action, her life would have paid the penalty of her carelessness.

Pure and Wholesome Quality.

Commends to public approval the California liquid laxative remedy, Syrup of Figs. It is pleasant to the taste and by acting gently on the kidneys, liver and bowels to cleanse the system. ANNUAL ASSESSMENT

Of the Real Estate and Personal Property in Ohio County.

MORE VOTERS THAN EVER LISTED

In any Previous Year, which Shows that the Recent Alleged School Enumeration was not Worth the Paper it was Written on—Particulars as to Value of Real Estate and Personal Property.

Messrs. C. T. Blanchard and Noah Zane, the county assessors, have completed the annual assessment of the real estate and personal property in the county, and their books have been verified and the returns recapitulated.

The most interesting feature of the figures is that they show an increase, and a decided increase, in the number of voters over the returns of any previous year. In view of the apparent decrease of population shown by the recent school enumeration these figures are important, showing that the school enumeration is absolutely unreliable.

The number of capitations is stated as follows, these figures not including those who become voters hereafter, before November 8:

	White	Colored	Total
Washington	1,092	4	1,096
Madison	1,426	97	1,523
Clay	921	54	975
Union	1,010	11	1,021
Centre	684	1	685
Webster	1,513	0	1,513
Ritchie	1,341	0	1,341
Liberty	354	11	365
Richland	285	0	285
Triadelphia	721	23	744
Total	9,297	201	9,498

The personal property assessment by districts is reported as follows:

	PERSONAL PROPERTY.
Washington	$ 289,750
Madison	231,650
Clay	241,570
Union	411,200
Centre	255,770
Webster	225,230
Ritchie	350,000
Liberty	180,990
Richland	125,880
Triadelphia	228,099
Total	$5,188,110

In real estate the value of buildings alone and of buildings and grounds together was assessed as below:

	REAL ESTATE.
Washington	Buildings, $ 373,950; Land, $1,222,520
Madison	1,423,100; 2,303,050
Clay	1,891,600; 9,046,470
Union	1,266,100; 2,030,500
Centre	796,300; 1,120,300
Webster	1,311,000; 1,912,800
Ritchie	850,505; 1,514,150
Liberty	19,103; 126,560
Triadelphia	40,465; 411,440
Richland	15,949; 116,925
Total	$8,612,152; $13,904,225

On the whole there is a gratifying increase of taxable property shown over last year. The total value of taxable property here shown is $20,092,335, and this does not include the assessments of railroad property in the county, which are made by the State Board of Public Works, and reported by the auditor to the county authorities for the levy of taxes.

The U. S. T.'s to Break Camp.

The U. S. Terriers, who have been rusticated up the river for the past five weeks, will break camp Monday or Tuesday. If any camp that left the city had a good time the Terriers are certainly the camp. Their camping grounds resembled some famous pleasure resort most of the time rather than a fishing camp, if the number of visitors and the U. S. T.'s many devices for entertaining them goes for anything. They have entertained, by register, up to Thursday evening 503 visitors. Sunday the Terriers will be pleased to see all their gentleman friends, who can go up at 10 o'clock on the Powiky to Wilson's station. They expect and have arranged to accommodate anywhere from 150 to 175 visitors to-morrow. A big fish fry is on the programme.
