The very last desperate chance to make a few dollars. They will have their reward in tremendous cost; and they may see some legislation affecting them that will give them cause for still greater regret.

Another negro boggy scheme concocted by the Register is hit and hit hard. The news comes from Mercer county, which is giving the Democrats no end of trouble.

Another Bold "Register" Fraud. The Intelligencer will esteem it a favor to have a few moments of the Register's valuable time.

On this subject [financial], I am sure that I cannot be mistaken in ascribing our want of success to the undue continuance which has been afforded to the spirit of monopoly.

The message spoken of by Mr. Hart was President Jackson's second annual message, sent to Congress December 7, 1830.

We proceed to show that in this very article the Register has practiced on its readers another of its gross deceptions, presumably on the assumption that they will never find it out.

much larger than the public is given to think. The Hamburg returns are notoriously below the mark.

A Home Lesson. There is a tariff lesson in the white pine lumber industry. The Republican Congress, listening to the howl about "tariff taxed" lumber, reduced the duty.

According to the Democratic doctrine it is not constitutional to give this or any other industry any protection. West Virginia is largely interested in lumber.

Lieutenant Peary's voyage to the frozen zone seems to have been productive of less hardship and better results than some that have preceded it.

The meeting of the emperors of Russia and Germany at Kiel, a few months ago was indirectly the cause of the death of a child.

A Salt Creek (Ore.) farmer heard of the new scheme of turning sheep into the hop yards to eat up the lower leaves and incidentally at the same time the hop bugs, and turned in a band of goats, but the next morning, says the Sheridan Sun, he was almost delirious with rage to find that the goats had climbed the poles and eaten every vestige of the hops, vines and all.

A man found ill in a shanty on the outskirts of Sacramento was taken to the hospital, and when stripped for a bath each leg was found encircled with a garter made of canvas doubled and the edges sewed together.

An examination of the clothing of James Stewart, a pauper who recently died in a poorhouse at Belfast, Ireland, resulted in the discovery of nearly $10,000 in United States money and the certificates of twenty mining shares.

While workmen were deepening an old stock well on the farm of Andrew Vonderah, near Kokomo, they struck a flowing stream of water, which flushed out and overflowed a part of the farm.

The date of completion of the new navy of seventy ships of 316 tons displacement, carrying 540 heavy guns, was fixed for April, 1894, but so unexpectedly rapid has been their construction that all but one are expected to be about a year earlier.

A young man of Vermont, who probably wonders how it is that he can scarcely make both ends meet, recently hired a horse and buggy for $2 to drive to an adjoining town to have a dollar-and-a-half pair of shoes stretched.

Scientists have estimated that every year a layer equal to fourteen feet of the entire surface of all oceans and other waters is taken up into the atmosphere in the shape of vapor, to fall as rain and again flow back into the seas.

Attorney George Rowe, of St. Louis, undertook to catch Mr. Pumphrey, who was falling down stairs, and had his own leg broken.

Among the nobility of England twenty-one per cent have no children. There are thirty towns called "Washington" in the United States.

The royal standard of Persia is a blacksmith's apron. For the above occasion the Baltimore & Ohio Company will sell excursion tickets, September 12 to 17, inclusive.
