

AN ELOQUENT SPEAKER

Will Address the Voters of Wheeling in the Central Club Hall.

THERE SHOULD BE A GOOD TURNOUT

Hon. V. P. Dolliver's Eloquent Speech at North Benwood Saturday Night. The Issues Entertainingly and Convincingly Presented to a Large Audience.

Hon. V. B. Dolliver, of Iowa, arrived in the city yesterday afternoon from Sherrard, Marshall county, where he spent the night with an old friend after his speech at North Benwood Saturday evening. He is at the McLure house.

This evening he will address the voters of Ohio county in the Central Republican hall, in the Lutz building, on Market street just above the postoffice. This hall will hold at least a thousand people, and it ought to be packed full to-night. Mr. Dolliver is one of the most eloquent and brilliant orators heard here in this campaign, a man of fine presence, good voice and graceful delivery.

A vein of pleasantry runs through his argument and makes his truths palatable to those who do not agree with him in political doctrine. At Whiteman's Grove, North Benwood, Saturday night, he held a large audience in the chilly air by his eloquence and wit, and when he was done there were numerous cries of "go on." He made a remarkable strong speech, reviewing first the history of the two parties in the past, and advancing the idea that parties, like men, are influenced in what they are to-day by what they inherit.

The state plank of the present Democratic platform he said was the financial creed of the old slave power. It was one of the evidences of the revival of discreditable and exploded illusions. He showed the heresy of the cry of protected and unprotected industries, showing that Republican protection protects all alike.

As to the tariff, he said that had a protective tariff there could have been no Homestead. He discussed the "force bill" eloquently and in a way which kept the audience alternating between laughter and applause. It was one of the most enthusiastic audiences ever seen in this vicinity, and reflected great credit upon Mr. Samuel Sloan, who organized and arranged it.

MCKINLEY'S BIG BOOM.

The Town will be Full of People when he Comes, October 18.

It is just one week from to-morrow till McKinley day, and, as the time draws near, the indications become stronger that it will be the largest political demonstration ever held in the state. It will keep the home folks busy from now on to get ready for the reception of the many marching clubs from neighboring cities and towns that have accepted the invitation and will be here.

Among other clubs that have signified their intention of being here are the American club, Young Men's Republican Club, Conkling club, C. L. Magee Guards (six footers), Eleventh ward club, Fourteenth ward club, and Tariff Cadets, all of Pittsburgh; the Union Republican club, of McKeesport, Pa., the Young Men's club, of Washington, two clubs from Steubenville, the Young Men's club of Cameron, the Republican club of Wellburg, the Young Men's club of St. Clairsville, the McKinley club of Canton, besides clubs from Massillon, Urichsville, Dennison, Moundsville, New Martinsville, Martin's Ferry, Bridgeport, Bellaire, Barnesville and other points. The following letter received will explain itself:

YOUNGSTOWN, OHIO, Oct. 7, 1892.

M. H. McNabb, Esq., Secy Executive Committee.

DEAR SIR:—The Montgomery Republican club have received your invitation to participate in the McKinley demonstration on the 18th inst. We will be with you if possible, with every man in line. Wishing you a successful meeting and a grand victory in November, I am Very Truly Yours,

H. R. A. McCLAIN, Captain Montgomery Club.

This is a specimen of letters received from clubs every day, and it will take haulting to get ready to entertain them all.

It has been suggested, and the suggestion is a good one, that the Republican ladies take an active part just as they did eight years ago, and make arrangements to feed the visitors. It would not take much time and would be the graceful thing to do. The Central Republican hall on Market street would be the very place to entertain all the visiting clubs. Long tables could be erected at comparatively little cost and there are plenty of benches there. The only thing remaining would be for the ladies to solicit funds, etc., for the tables. Lots of merchants would be glad to donate coffee, sugar and bread, and anything else in that line that would help make the affair a big success. Let the Republican ladies get together at once and see what they can do.

The Escort club will entertain some of the Pittsburgh clubs at one of the hotels. The American club will be the special guest of this club, and the boys intend to show them a nice time.

Citizens should be getting ready for the demonstration and get their decorations ready to make the city look as gay as possible. Let all the Republicans in the city decorate their houses and do all in their power to welcome the gallant McKinley.

Governor McKinley will speak in Charleston on Monday, and immediately after the meeting take a special train for Wheeling, where he will arrive about noon. He will speak on the State Fair grounds, from a stand to be erected immediately in front of the grand stand. Should the weather be inclement the meeting will be held in the large machinery hall.

The big parade will take place in the evening, starting about eight o'clock, and will go over the principal streets, probably going as far south as Thirty-sixth street, and as far north as Eighth street. The route will be printed later on.

The captain and two lieutenants of all marching clubs in the county are called to meet at the county committee rooms in the new Hawley block, corner Tenth and Market streets, to-night at half past seven to attend to details of the monster demonstration. Every club should be represented at this meeting, as it is an important one.

The local clubs are getting ready and will no doubt turn out in immense numbers. It will be the "big day" of the campaign, and everybody should prepare for it. A number of industries will also be represented in the parade by having their teams and wagons in the parade, making it a sort of an industrial turn out.

Meeting at Fulton.

Hon. H. C. Hervey, Republican candidate for State Senator, will speak at Fulton to-night. The North Wheeling marching club will go out to attend the meeting, and the Elm Grove club will also come in. There will be a good meeting, and a good speech.

Praises for the Dead Post.

LONDON, Oct. 9.—The Prince of Wales will represent the Queen at the funeral of Tennyson. Lord Salisbury is expected to be among those present at the poet's interment.

According to promise, the Lord Bishop of Winchester preached the funeral sermon in the Haslemere church to-day. He referred to the dead laureate in eulogistic and feeling terms. In the course of his sermon the bishop said he would call the deceased poet an English Iheocrat, rather than a Virgil. In his completeness he seems to me to far surpass Wordsworth, and to almost match Shakespeare. He was as strong as Byron, without any of Byron's cynical and arrogant disdain.

S. B. DUFFEY, mate of steamer Arizona, had his foot badly jammed. Thomas' Electric Oil cured it. Nothing equal to it for a quick pain reliever. B&W

IN BERKELEY COUNTY.

A Sample Democratic Convention—The Picture of Harrison is Torn Down. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BERKELEY SPRINGS, W. VA., Oct. 8.—This was Democratic day in this place. After much contention it had been decided to place a county ticket in the field, to keep the faithful few in line, and for weeks the meeting was widely advertised and many attractions offered to secure the attendance of the few Democrats who are willing to support free trade. Among the attractions were the free trader Wm. L. Wilson, C. Wood Daily and a host of other speakers.

In the morning a hickory pole was raised with a broom on top, indicative that the Democrats had some cleaning up to do in their own ranks. A flag with the pictures of Cleveland and Stevenson was swung to the breeze. The brass band drew the people into the court room where the following ticket, which had previously received the endorsement of the Democratic executive committee was nominated: For sheriff, ex-Senator A. R. Ungor; assessor, John H. Fisher; commissioner, George W. Havermale; supervisor, William Atkinson.

The work was dispatched in such a half hearted manner that only one nominated received a second, the chairman putting each nomination to a vote before a second could be obtained.

In the afternoon the Hon. William L. Wilson, who misrepresents the Second district in Congress, opened his old free trade chestnuts.

Hon. C. Wood Daily then gladdened the hearts of the Democrats by a savage attack on protection, and when asked to explain Peck's report simply said it was burned up, and refused to discuss it. At the close of his speech the band played "God Save the Queen."

But the incident of the day was the removal of the picture of President Harrison from the court room, notwithstanding this picture had hung there many months. The acting chairman of the committee, Mr. Reimaine Hunter, removed the picture before the assembling of the convention, giving as one of his reasons for so doing that he feared it would be torn down and destroyed by members of the convention.

This disrespectful and unpatriotic act was soon noised abroad, and some of the young Democrats denounced the act in strong terms. One Democrat proposed to return the picture to its proper place, but was promptly told by Mr. Hunter that he would have to be a better man than he was to do so. It is needless to say the act aroused great indignation, and the party responsible for such an act will receive the severest condemnation from our loyal and patriotic citizens at the polls on November 8.

WOODFORD AT HUNTINGTON.

He Makes an Eloquent and Convincing Speech at that Point. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 9.—General Stewart L. Woodford, of New York, delighted twelve hundred people at Davis opera house Saturday night with a strong and eloquent argument in favor of the Republican party. During the course of his remarks he was interrupted by a local Democratic politician who sought to break the force of his arguments by interjecting questions.

General Woodford turned the tables completely on the interrupter by giving him respectful attention and answering every question, giving Republican argument sound and convincing which was received with thunders of applause from the audience. It was a grand speech to an enthusiastic audience and General Woodford left to-day for Knoxville, Tenn., firmly convinced that West Virginia will give its electoral vote in November to Harrison and Reid.

Hutchinson at Fellowsville.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

KINGWOOD, W. VA., Oct. 9.—The Hon. John A. Hutchinson addressed a big Republican meeting at Fellowsville yesterday. He was delayed somewhat by a late train, but for two hours he spoke, and each sentence enthused the Republicans of the banner Republican district. It was a big time for that community and much good was done.

Makes Votes For Caldwell.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Oct. 9.—"Soap Fat" Simpson spoke to the Third ward Democrats at the Canda house last night. His speech was mostly made up of abuse and vilification of Charley Caldwell. Nearly half his audience left during the harangue, evidently disgusted with both the speaker and his sentiments. Republicans here hope Simpson will continue his present style of campaigning. Every speech he makes creates additional votes for Caldwell.
