

UNION THEOLOGICAL SEMINARY.

President Hastings Makes a Statement Regarding the Endowment Controversy. New York, Oct. 20.—It was stated yesterday that an effort might be made to secure the forfeiture of at least a portion of the $800,000 in endowments of the Union Theological Seminary, made subsequent to the seminary's contract of 1870 with the Presbyterian general assembly...

"In the first place," said Dr. Hastings, "our endowments were all made without any conditions whatever, consequently they cannot be considered as dependent upon any action of the seminary. In the second place, not a single one of our donors, as far as I know, had any fault to find with our action in reference to Dr. Briggs."

"Of the $800,000 in endowments, $400,000 was bequeathed by ex-Governor Morgan, $300,000 by James Brown, $50,000 by the late Mr. Fayerweather, $5,000 by Russell Sage, $5,000 by Marcellus Hartley, and the balance came from various sources. John Crosby Brown, son of James Brown, is a member of our board of trustees, and voted with us."

"Now, as to the intimation that we have violated our pledge to uphold the Presbyterian faith by dissolving our contract with the General Assembly, we contend that we have upheld the Presbyterian faith ever since the foundation of the seminary in 1838, and that the abrogation of the contract with the General Assembly could not result in causing us to cease to be a Presbyterian body any more than did the mere signing of the contract make us a Presbyterian body."

"We purposely selected James C. Carter as our legal adviser because he was not a Presbyterian and had no connections whatever with any Presbyterian body. His opinion (published in last Monday's Herald) has been submitted to William Allen Butler, and he fully concurs in it. He will probably be asked to write an opinion on the subject in the near future. We have throughout acted under the best advice and a year ago were advised by ex-Judge Noah Davis that our action was entirely legal."

"But three members were absent from the decisive meeting last Thursday and all were necessarily detained. Dr. Hall was attending a wedding, William A. Wheelock was confined to his room by a sprained ankle and W. W. Hopkin had just returned from Europe."

A BOARDING HOUSE FIRED

At Homestead—It Contained Thirty Non-Union Men.

HOMESTEAD, Pa., Oct. 20.—The non-union boarding house of Mrs. O'Neill on Eighth avenue was set on fire last night and would have been destroyed had it not been for Deputy Sheriff Ferguson and Reporter Rumley, of the Times, who discovered the flames. Mrs. O'Neill's boarding house has long been an eye-sore in the minds of the disorderly element here and several attacks have been made upon the establishment. Workers in the mill have been frequently assaulted there and much alarm prevailed among the boarders. Owing to insufficient sewerage facilities, refuse is generally stored in back yards and this was the case of Mrs. O'Neill's. There were several barrels of waste in the rear of the house and they were on fire this morning. The barrels were so close to the house that the building caught fire and the establishment was filled with smoke, this stifled the thirty boarders and they would have been burned to death had not a warning been given. There is no clue to the incendiary, but a reward for his capture and conviction will be offered.

Two Homestead workmen returned to work this morning, they went to Pittsburgh and came up on the train. The presence and actual management of Mr. C. M. Schwab does not seem to effect the strikers and they are yet very firm, though they do feel very kindly toward the new manager.

The Street Railway Men.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 20.—The American Street Railway Association, composed of 206 street railway companies, went into session yesterday. Mayor Rose welcomed them in an address, which was responded to by the president, John C. Holmes, of Pittsburgh. Papers were read and discussed and Milwaukee was chosen as the next place of meeting. In connection with the convention there is a large exhibition of electrical street railroad appliances.

Withdrawn from the Canvass.

MEMPHIS, TENN., Oct. 30.—Colonel L. E. Dyer, Republican candidate for Congress in the Tenth congressional district, has withdrawn from the race on account of a fusion between the Third party people and the Republicans. This leaves the field to Hon. Josiah Patterson, Democrat, and Colonel T. V. Neal, Third partyite.

Tobacco Men Fail.

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 20.—Swisher Bros., dealers in leaf tobacco and manufacturers of cigars in this city, Newark and Lancaster, have asked for a receiver. The capital stock is $17,000. The failure of one member of the firm to meet his obligations to the same is alleged as the cause for the application.

Speaker Crisp May Speak.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—Hon. Charles F. Crisp, of Georgia, speaker of the house of representatives, arrived at the Hoffman House last night. He will remain in the city several days and is announced for a speech before the Wholesale Dry Goods Democratic club, at noon next Saturday.

B. & O. Dividend.

BALTIMORE, Oct. 20.—The Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company at its meeting yesterday declared a dividend of 2 1/2 per cent for six months ended June 30. The net earnings for September, 1892, were $1,030,863, against $816,000 for September, 1891.

Lorillard's Daughter Married.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—The engagement of Miss Maud, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Pierre Lorillard, to Mr. Thomas Saffern Tailor was announced at Tuxedo yesterday.

Cholera Figures.

BUDA PEST, Oct. 20.—Twenty-five new cases of cholera and nine deaths were reported in this city yesterday.

A Governor Licensed to Marry.

CINCINNATI, OHIO, Oct. 20.—A somewhat singular thing was the application here yesterday by the governor of a state for a clergyman's license to enable him to solemnize a marriage in Cincinnati. Governor Chase, of Indiana, made the application, and, after taking an oath to support the constitution of the state of Ohio, received a license. Miss Harriet E. Chase, daughter of D. W. Chase, of this city, and niece of the governor, was married by him last night to Mr. Schlicher C. Kuryca, of this city.

KNIGHTS OF ST. GEORGE.

The Trouble in the Banks. May be Settled in the Courts.

DETROIT, Mich., Oct. 20.—The fight in the uniform ranks of the Order of St. George will apparently never be settled short of the courts unless the supreme body of the order decides in favor of the Robinson-Walker faction. If it does this it will officially decide that the Order of St. George is an organization that has never officially recognized its uniform rank and is in no way connected with it beyond the fact that the uniform rank is a recruiting force of the order. The matter is now in the hands of a committee.

"We shall incorporate at once," said Adjutant General Graves, of the Robinson faction, "and as soon as we are incorporated, will bring proceedings in the courts and fight for the possession of all official documents and records now in Surles' hands."

The Surles people simply say that they have rested their case with the supreme body. The supreme officers deprecate the whole trouble and say it shall be settled.

TREND OF TRADE.

R. G. Dan & Co.'s Weekly Review of the Business Situation.

NEW YORK, Oct. 20.—R. G. Dan & Co.'s weekly review of trade:

There is still no cloud in the business sky, unless the state of foreign trade be one. All home trade is of enormous volume, making an aggregate of bank exchanges outside of New York thus far in October never equalled in the same month of any previous year.

Prices are low, but merchants are pressing for more business at the same rates. All domestic industries are crowded with orders and works as a rule are fully employed, many being pushed to over time by the urgent demands resulting from an unprecedented distribution of goods. Money markets are fairly supplied, and there is reason to hope that some return of gold from Europe is not far distant.

The money markets are nowhere stringent, notwithstanding the unusual delay of returns from the west or from Europe.

The textile manufacturers continue the extraordinary activity fully described in recent reports.

The iron industry feels the impulse of increasing demand and the market is stronger.

The Cincinnati Catholics.

CINCINNATI, O., Oct. 20.—The parade of the pupils of the Catholic schools of Cincinnati and suburbs this afternoon was deeply interesting. It showed how thoroughly the spirit of patriotism and of pride in the achievement of Columbus has taken hold of the Catholic schools, but in the more pretentious ceremonies set for to-morrow of a general character the Catholics have been leading spirits. To-day's parade was of enormous proportions. No estimate of the numbers had been in advance. The route was the same as that traversed by the pupils of the public schools yesterday. It required forty minutes for yesterday's parade to pass, to-day's was one hour and twenty minutes passing. It was easily twice as large as yesterday, estimated at 20,000.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

News Notes and Personals from Our Near Neighbor.

A silk handkerchief carried in the campaign of 1840 is on exhibition at the postoffice news stand. It is a grandfather's handkerchief and is twenty-eight inches square. The picture of General Harrison appears in the center, with this inscription below it: William Henry Harrison, commander of the northwestern army during the war of 1812. On the border appears the picture of a log cabin, barrel of cider, coons, men plowing, angel of peace, etc. On each corner is the American coat of arms and the words "Harrison and Reform." The handkerchief is quite a curiosity and is prized very highly by its owner.

Mr. S. B. Smith says he is being urged by several Democrats to become an independent candidate for justice of the peace. This he positively refuses to do. He says he was defeated fairly and squarely at the convention, will abide by the decision of the Republicans, and will not, under any consideration, run independently. Mr. Smith is a Republican.

Nearly all of the business houses will close at 11 o'clock to-day. The banks will not open and the postoffice will be open from 7 to 8, 11 to 12 and 5 to 6. Most of the factories will be idle. The parade will take place at 1 p. m. and not this morning, as has been stated.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

John Anderson, a colored man who has been working at the steel works for a long time, was locked up yesterday on suspicion. A sheriff from one of the inferior counties of New York arrived here Wednesday evening and announced that he was in search of a colored man who had committed murder in his county and escaped. With officer Strobel, he sighted round until he found the man, and as he answered the description of the man he wanted, Anderson was arrested. A Steubenville man, the sheriff thought, would identify him, but when the Steubenville officer came down and saw Anderson he said he was not the man. The sheriff, however, does not want to make any mistake, and sent for a colored policeman at Steubenville, who seems to know something of the fellow wanted, and when he passes judgment Anderson will be either released or held. Those who know Anderson say he is a quiet, inoffensive man, and at his boarding house it is stated that he was here at work at the time the sheriff says the murder was committed. It is in all probability a case of mistaken identity, but the New York officer says the murderer is somewhere in this vicinity.

The Columbian day celebration here to-day will be more elaborate than anything of the kind since 1876. All organizations in the city will participate, including the schools, in the parade, which will start promptly at 10 o'clock. The school children will assemble at the park stand at 9 o'clock, where a prayer will be offered by Rev. A. B. Williams, followed by a song by the pupils. "America," the President's proclamation will be read by Albert Myers and a recitation given by Miss Mattie Dawson, and then the pupils will fall in line in the procession. Chief George E. Morgan, assisted by Carl Dorer and John Strobel, has charge of the procession.

A WORD TO THE WISE. CERTAIN ADVERTISEMENTS FROM TRADE RIVALS, who fear the phenomenal success of Van Houten's Cocoa. In America, certain imitations against it, and appeal to the authority of Dr. SYDNEY KINGER, Professor of Medicine at University College, London. Author of the Standard "Handbook of Therapeutics." This eminent physician ACTUALLY writes as follows: "From the careful analysis of Professor Kingery and others, I am satisfied that Messrs. Van Houten's Cocoa is in no way injurious to health, and that it is decidedly more nutritious than other Cocos—it is certainly 'Pure' and highly digestible. The quotations in certain advertisements from my book on Therapeutics are quite misleading and cannot possibly apply to Van Houten's Cocoa. It is thus effectively repelled and the very authority cited to injure it, has thereby been prompted to give it a very handsome testimonial."
