A British View of the American Tariff.

The promoters of the McKinley tariff meant it to push forward the policy of America for the Americans. One method of realizing it was to keep all work within their own dominions.

REPUBLICAN victory in the coming election would retard for a long time the progress of the sound commercial doctrines that underlie the commercial greatness of Great Britain and also maintain British ascendancy.

IN 1890 it was a conflict of predictions; now our adversaries must face trade statistics and prices current.

NO one else furnished one penny in aid of the pretended colonization scheme except Senator C. J. Faulkner.

An Explanation That Didn't Explain.

In the course of his remarks the Senator held the INTELLIGENCER up by the tail—or rather, the INTELLIGENCER'S, or the Republican committee's—ten-column effort to make it out that Senator Faulkner was at the bottom of the Quay-Smith-Atkinson-Lindsey scheme to colonize the state with North Carolina negroes.

Will the Register please quote what the Senator said regarding the following points which the INTELLIGENCER called his attention to, and which were the important points in the article the Register refers to?

Then, again, senator, the people desire to have from you an unequivocal denial, or admission, of Lindsey's sly charge that you, with malice aforethought, conspired with him "to practice a deception upon your people, your constituents, your friends, and the country."

Either Senator Faulkner had this corrupt bargain with Lindsey, or he did not.

Senator Faulkner was as dumb as an oyster on this point, and until he explains how he, a United States senator, came to be indebted to Lindsey $600, and under obligations to give him a

$1,200 position in the house of representatives, the public will continue to believe that he has made out a very poor case for himself.

The Irish Vote.

Secretary Elkins, in his speech at Benwood last Saturday night, put the situation very plainly to those Irish voters who affiliated with the Democratic party, by telling them that they had no community of interest with that party.

No sooner did Wayne MacVeagh go over to the Democracy than he attacked the Irish people generally and Minister Egan in particular.

The Republican party is the friend of the Irish race, it always will be. Archbishop Ireland never uttered a greater truth than when he said:

"The future of the Irish race in this country will depend largely upon their capability of assuming an independent attitude in American politics."

In contrast with this injunction from one of the most eminent prelates of the Catholic church is the bitter and slanderous conception of Robert B. Roosevelt, the treasurer of the Democratic national committee, who has said:

The Irish-Americans owe it to themselves and to their adopted country to resent these insults at the polls. The defeat of Cleveland is a blow to England, and it should follow as a sequence of the McKinley bill, which certainly struck her hard.

A Case in Point.

The INTELLIGENCER has heretofore referred to the fact that Democrats are circulating in the southern part of the state a story to the effect that Hon. Thomas E. Davis, the Republican candidate for governor, is in favor of the establishment of "mixed schools" in West Virginia.

Every Democratic speaker, from Mr. MacCorkle down, in that portion of the state where the negro domination campaign is being industriously worked, is circulating this falsehood against Senator Davis in order to create race prejudice and injure his chances of election.

On the 15th of October the following letter was addressed to Hon. J. M. Sydenstricker, a Democratic politician of Greenbrier county. It explains itself:

LEWISBURG, W. VA., Oct. 15, 1892. Hon. J. M. Sydenstricker, Lewisburg, W. Va. MY DEAR SIR—Col. J. W. Davis, Republican candidate for prosecuting attorney, tells me that a few days ago he asked Mr. Henry Gilmer, Democratic candidate for prosecuting attorney, why he tells the people of Greenbrier county that Hon. Thomas E. Davis, Republican candidate for governor, is an advocate of mixed schools, and that Mr. Gilmer replied, "John M. Sydenstricker told me that while he was a member of the house and Davis a member of the senate it was generally understood that he (Davis) was in favor of mixed schools."

So far Mr. Sydenstricker has not thought it necessary to reply to this letter. His "silence speaks louder than words."

The Democracy is indeed desperate when it resorts to such despicable methods to create sentiment against the Republican ticket. The scheme won't work. The people of West Virginia are not fools.

While Mr. Cleveland is making hypocritical speeches about the purity of the ballot box placed under arrest in Albany and New York city for false registration. Many of them have confessed, some of them saying they have registered no less than fifty times at a many different precincts. Thus Mr. Cleveland's "campaign of principle" goes merrily on.

CONGRESSMAN WILLIAM L. WILSON, the most distinguished Democrat in West Virginia, and the only one who enjoys the distinction of being a national leader of his party, is, in his speeches, advocating the wild cat bank plank of the Democratic platform.

A DEMOCRATIC repeater has been arrested in Albany, New York, who had been registered fifty times. This patriotic individual, who was to cast fifty votes for Cleveland and reform, has confessed that he was to receive five dollars per vote. Now he won't get anything and will serve the state in the penitentiary.

New York Democratic papers are concerned over the fact that Senator Quay has been purchasing some fishing material with which he proposes to lure the wily tarpon from his lair after election. Neither as a fisher for tarpon nor men does Senator Quay seem to satisfy some people.

An immediate and thorough investigation of the Franzheim matter by the board of gas trustees and the Council light committee is demanded. Mr. Franzheim has asked for it. There should be no delay. There is no excuse for delay.

A "HARRY COUNTY DEMOCRAT" writes to his home paper to say that he "guesses" Wm. L. Wilson is not much worried over his prospects of re-election. The gentleman should guess again.

THE popular anxiety to know who struck William Patterson pales into insignificance compared to the eagerness with which news of the whereabouts of one John D. Alderson is awaited.

A LIBERAL reward will be paid by the First district Democratic congressional committee for the return in good condition of its candidate—lost, strayed or stolen. No questions asked.

THE Register still refuses to publish the Democratic tariff plank, together with the one rejected by the Chicago convention. The Register is afraid to lay the truth before its readers.

MR. WAYNE McVEAGH's private opinion of the Hon. David B. Hill would now make mighty interesting reading.

DEAR Senator Faulkner: Speaking of your denial of Lindsey's sworn charges—Where are you at?

A DEMOCRAT

Protests Against the Banner in Which Capt. Prince's Resolutions was Disposed of.

[The following communication was first offered to the Register and then to the Evening News, both refusing to publish it, giving as a reason that it was signed by a Democrat. The author is a well known Democrat of Wheeling.]

SIR:—Having noticed in the proceedings of council a few evenings since a resolution offered to investigate the methods of business pursued in the city gas office, and seeing the disposal of said resolution, permit me as a Democrat who voted for Mr. Franzheim in the primary, to say I think it was a move of justice, both to Mr. Franzheim and to the voters of the city of Wheeling and Ohio county. This resolution was offered by a good, substantial, tax-paying citizen of the city whom the reporter of the Register was pleased to characterize as "a man of straw." I consider this a great injustice, and protest as a Democrat against the manner in which the resolution was thrown aside. It was a motion to which no fair minded, honest citizen should oblige, especially a Democrat. It offered Mr. Franzheim a proper opportunity to vindicate himself before the people whose suffrage he expects. This is written in a spirit of justice to all concerned, and by giving it space you will oblige.

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT.

WHEREAS, God in his all-wise providence has seen fit to remove from among us by death our esteemed and worthy brother, Phillip Boos, we bow in humble submission to His will, knowing that He doeth all things well; and realizing as we do that the Lodge has lost a good and faithful member and his wife and family a kind and affectionate husband and father, yet we do hope that the loss sustained by Fort Henry Lodge No. 2, Shield of Honor, of which he was a member, and the greater one no doubt felt by his family, may be his eternal pain and that we may all meet in that Celestial Lodge above.

Resolved, That the members wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days and the charter be draped for same time.

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the minutes of the Lodge and also be printed in the INTELLIGENCER, Register, and the Evening News and a copy presented to the family of our deceased brother. W. C. MARLING, A. J. SCHULTZ, LOUIS DEAGEL, Committee.

Newspapers Endorse.

"Educators are certainly the greatest benefactors of the race, and after reading Dr. Franklin Miles' popular works, cannot help declaring him to be among the most entertaining and educating authors."—New York Daily. He is not a stranger to our readers, as his advertisements appear in our columns in every issue, calling attention to the fact that his elegant work on Nervous and Heart Diseases is distributed free by our enterprising druggists, The Logan Drug Co. Trial bottles of Dr. Miles' Nervine are given away, also Book of Testimonials showing that it is unequalled for Nervous Prostration, Headache, Poor Memory, Dizziness, Sleeplessness, Neuralgia, Hysteria, Fits, Epilepsy, &c.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER.

A Loving Husband and Father's Grateful Tribute.

His Words of Deep and Extraordinary Interest to Our People.

There is no Mistaking Their Meaning and They Carry Conviction.

Wife and daughter. There are no words in our language fraught with a greater depth of affection to the father of a family than these. They concentrate in themselves companionship, love, happiness, home.

Such has been the experience of the well-known J. W. Cottrell, Esq., of Matamoras, Pa., and his communications to this paper, which we publish below, is certainly a revelation as well as a hope and encouragement to all.

"My wife was confined to her bed," he writes, "for three months or more with inflammation about the womb. The local doctors were of very little use. It affords me greatest pleasure to say that Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy got her around. Indeed both my wife and little daughter were greatly benefited by its use."

"The little girl had a stroke of partial paralysis and was unable to hold the urine. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy cured her when the doctors could not."

"It gives me pleasure to add my testimonial in favor of this great remedy."

LITTLE LOTTIE MAY COTTRELL. Cured when the doctors could not. This is the record which we publish every day about this wonderful medicine. Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy. It is certainly the most remarkable cure of disease, and all sufferers should use it. It can be procured at any drugstore for $1, and it is purely vegetable and harmless.

It should not for a moment be classed with ordinary patent medicines, for it is the discovery of a great physician, the prescription, in fact, of the renowned Dr. Greene, of 35 W. 14th Street, New York, the most successful specialist in the cure of nervous and chronic diseases, who gives consultation and advice free, personally or by letter.

Use his great remedy and get well.

"Wait Till the Clouds Roll By."

This company appears at the Grand next Monday and Tuesday, October 31 and November 1. The Philadelphia Times says: Frank M. Wills and his merry comedians at the Arch Street. 'Twas a lively, spirited musical comedy, brimful of fun from start to finish, and found big favor with the large audience. The company is excellent, and contains a number of clever comedians and comedienne. Messrs. John B. Wills, Al. Feeley, Bert Wallace, George Gardner, Miss Norma Wills, Miss Jessie Domaine and Miss Jessie Oliviver, made decided hits. The singing and dancing were excellent, the costuming superb.

AN ECZEMA ON A BOY.

Suffering Intense. Head Nearly Raw. Body Covered With Sores. Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

I bought a bottle of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, one box CUTICURA SOAP, and one can of CUTICURA SOUP, for my son, aged thirteen years, who has been afflicted with eczema for a long time, and I am pleased to say that I believe the remedies have cured him. His sufferings were intense, his head being nearly raw, his ears being gone except the gristle, and his body was covered with sores. His condition was frightful to behold. The sores did the work, and my boy when I commenced was absolutely cured.

Stubborn Skin Disease.

I used the CUTICURA REMEDIES for about four months for the treatment of a very stubborn case of skin disease, something like eczema. I will state I tried a great many other advertised remedies and had been treated by local physicians, and all to no purpose. The CUTICURA REMEDIES did the work, and my body when I commenced was absolutely cured.

Cuticura Resolvent.

The New Blood and Skin Purifier, and greatest of Humor Remedies, internally to cleanse the blood of all impurities, and poisonous elements, and thus remove the cause; and CUTICURA, the great Skin Cure, and CUTICURA SOUP, an exquisite skin Beautifier, externally to clear the skin and scalp and restore the hair, speedily and permanently cure every species of itching, burning, scaly, crusty, pimply, scrofulous, and hereditary humors, from infancy to age, from pimples to scrofula.

WEAK, PAINFUL BACKS.
