

FUSION IN VIRGINIA

Between Republicans and People's Party an Accomplished Fact.

THE DEMOCRATS IN NEBRASKA

Advised to Vote for the Weaver Electors -- A Democratic-People's Combine said to Have Been Effected in South Dakota -- Many Disgusted Kansas Democrats Refuse to Register -- General Political Gossip.

RICHMOND, VA., Nov. 2.—Fusion between the Republicans and People's party has been accomplished in Virginia. The latter will support the electoral ticket of the former and they have had their ballots printed accordingly.

SITUATION IN NEBRASKA.

Governor Boyd Advises Democrats to Vote for Weaver Electors.

OMAHA, NEB., Nov. 2.—Governor Boyd has written a letter, it is said, urging Democrats to vote for the People's party candidates for presidential electors.

"I desire also to urge upon your attention the necessity of Democrats giving loyal support to the party nominees for the legislature. Particularly so where there is a possibility of election.

MANY KANSAS DEMOCRATS

Will Not Vote.—The Registration of That Party Extremely Light in That State.

TOPEKA, KAN., Nov. 2.—There is every reason to believe that the Democratic registration in Kansas has been unusually light. In one ward in Topeka over 500 Democrats failed to register because they take no interest in the election, there being no Democratic electoral or state ticket in the field.

A COMBINE

Said to Have Been Effected Between Democrats and Populists in South Dakota. HUDON, S. D., Nov. 2.—Instructions were given Democrats yesterday to forsake their electoral ticket and vote for the four Weaver electors.

COLLEGE POLITICS.

The Campaign is Very Warm at the Ann Arbor University.

ANN ARBOR, MICH., Nov. 2.—Recent attempts to swing the important colleges and universities into line on political action have aroused much interest here. The students are actively participating in the campaign.

A CLASH IN DETROIT

Between the City Council and the Democratic State Committee.

DETROIT, MICH., Nov. 2.—A special from Lansing, Mich., says: On behalf of Daniel J. Chapman, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, the supreme court was applied to this morning for a mandamus to compel the common council of the city of Detroit to set aside and rescind a certain resolution adopted appointing five inspectors in each precinct in the city.

WAR IN DAHOMEY.

The Dahomeyans Said to Be Led by Belgians and Germans.

PARIS, Nov. 2.—Mail advices received here show that while the French gunboat Opaté was returning from Koko, on September 30, it was suddenly attacked near Donkeli by six hundred Dahomeyans armed with quick firing rifles.

BEATING EVEN IN INDIANAPOLIS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 2.—Saturday night $1,500 even on Harrison's election was offered and taken. It is said that Thomas Taggart, chairman of the Democratic state central committee, offered $25 to $10 that the money would not be put up, but it was deposited Sunday morning.

QUARRELED OVER POLITICS.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Nov. 2.—Town Marshal Heath, of Corrydon, Ind., was shot and killed last night by Clabe Shuck, sheriff of the county. The two had long been friends. A dispute arose over an election quarrel resulting in the shooting. Heath was a Republican and Shuck a Democrat. Heath followed Shuck home and struck him with a club and the latter shot him.

BIG BETS

Made on the Election—Harrison Money Goss Begging With No Takers.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Seventy thousand dollars was offered in the Stock Exchange that Harrison and Reid would be elected. Only $20,000 was covered, and $50,000 went begging for takers.

There is no shrewder lot of men in the country than the brokers who trade upon the Stock Exchange. They are a class of men who study every situation and analyze to the closest detail everything on which they are willing to venture their money, whether for investment or speculation.

The Harrison men began yesterday to show how they regarded the registration in this state. Wagers came in thick and fast, until there was an aggregate of $70,000 offered. The Cleveland faction stood up to the rack for a short while, but were overpowered by the large amounts which came pouring in for Harrison.

The betting was even on the general result. The Cleveland men took six $500 bets shortly after the opening of the Exchange. M. B. Mendham had $10,000 to wager for some friends at even. Several Cleveland men made a combination and took this wager. This excited the Harrison men. A bet of $5,000 on Harrison and two of $1,000 were also taken.

A report was circulated that a syndicate in New Orleans was willing to bet $10,000 that Cleveland would be elected. In a trice a telegram was winding its way to New Orleans informing the syndicate that it could be accommodated on the New York stock exchange.

A Democrat who will vote for Harrison, PUEBLO, COL., Nov. 2.—John F. Dixon, one of the leading Democrats and attorneys of the state, who was a member of the national Democratic convention of 1888, which renominated Cleveland, and also a member of the platform committee of that convention, announces his intention of voting for the Harrison electors.

California's Increased Registration. SAN FRANCISCO, CAL., Nov. 2.—The total registration in California for the election of 1892 is 324,000. The total vote on the presidential election of 1888 was 251,000.

Democratic Electors Refuse to Withdraw. PORTLAND, ORE., Nov. 2.—The Democratic electors refuse to withdraw although requested to do so by both the national and state committee.

Caldwell Has the Call. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. PANKERSBURG, Nov. 2.—Even bets are being made here on Caldwell's election to Congress in this district.

LAKE STEAMER LOST

With All Hands—she Carried a Crew of Seventeen Men.

CLEVELAND, Nov. 2.—The steamer Gilcher left Buffalo last Wednesday with a cargo of coal bound for Milwaukee. She passed the straits Friday afternoon at 2:20 o'clock. The steel steamer Frontenac passed the same point an hour later, went to Escanaba, loaded a cargo of ore and carried with her a load of ore at Ashtabula yesterday morning. The Gilcher was due at Milwaukee Saturday afternoon and her owners have heard nothing from her since she passed Mackinaw.

Up to noon to-day no trip sheet nor anything else could be discovered which would tend to show the names of the seventeen members of the crew. There were no visitors aboard. The crew of the schooner probably numbered from eight to twelve men, and the total loss of life will prove almost as heavy as that of the Western Reserve. After unloading her coal at Milwaukee the Gilcher had been chartered to load ore at Escanaba for Ashtabula, after which she was to have loaded soft coal at Toledo for Lake Superior.

Chicago, Nov. 2.—A theory is suggested here that the missing Cleveland steamer, Gilcher, and the unknown schooner were wrecked at the Manitowish in collision, and that both boats received mortal damages. A possible clue to the time when the Gilcher probably foundered is contained in a piece of cabin partition, which Captain Jenks, of the steamer White, picked up. On the piece is written "James Riley (or Rider.)"

It is impossible to make out whether the name is Riley or Rider. Nine o'clock Friday night was about the time the Gilcher would have been off the Manitowish, and the inscription on the wreckage was perhaps made by some member of the crew before she went down. J. C. Gilchrist, one of the principal owners of the Gilcher, said to-day he was unable to find any clue to the steamer. He valued the boat at $200,000 and had an insurance on her of $180,000.
