The proposed permanent Republican club promises to be a big go. Many signatures have been put on the list. Rooms have been secured in the new Franzheim building, on Market street, above Twelfth. A meeting will be held Thursday evening in the Republican club hall, Lutz building, to take the preliminary steps to organize.

Fire in the Eighth Ward.

The frame residence of Mr. Smith, adjoining Wood Brothers' planing mill, on Chapline street, South Side, caught fire shortly after 8 o'clock last night. A general alarm was sent in, as it was feared the fire would communicate to the planing mill property, but before the up-town firemen had arrived on the scene Wheeling engine No. 4 had the blaze under control. The fire was first seen under the stairs, and was under complete control in about half an hour.

Bridgeport's Jollification.

The triumphant Democracy of Bridgeport held a jollification last night in celebration of their victory last Tuesday.

In the face of the sweeping victory just achieved by the national Democracy, it would be supposed that a celebration immediately after it would be a big success. On the contrary, the Bridgeport affair was a dismal failure. The street demonstration was made up of some thirty or forty members of the Bridgeport Democratic Club on foot, or twenty-five mounted marshals, aides and other bearers of titles, about thirty members of the Young Men's Democratic Club, of Wheeling, and twenty-five of the Keana Club. These, with half a dozen carriages, constituted the parade.

The streets were crowded with spectators a majority of whom were Republicans.

A Great Dramatic Event.

"The Lion's Mouth," from the gifted pen of the well known author, Henry Guy Carlton, with its poetic beauty, its grand diction, its magnificent scenic adornments and its commingling of laughter and tears, will be the vehicle that will introduce here the well known and distinguished exponents of legitimate and classic plays, Mr. Frederick Warde and Mr. Louis James, and a supporting company large and evenly balanced in number and ability whose artistic efforts have gained for them the proud distinction of being the foremost legitimate organization of America. The forthcoming engagement of the Warde-James Company, which will occur at the Opera House, will mark one of the most significant associations of the theatrical profession, as it places two well known tragedians at the head of one organization, and enables them to equally impersonate lofty characters that would be mediocre if in the hands of inferior artists. The reputation of the stars, play and company will be sufficient to gather a most brilliant assemblage at the Opera House on the night of their appearance.

"Jupiter" Saturday.

Reserved seats go on sale at House's music store this morning, for the Digby Bell engagement at the Opera House Saturday. The opera is tuneful in music, bright of dialogue, and picturesque in scenic effects and costumes. There are but two acts, the first laid in a public square in Rome, and the second representing the clouds of Mt. Olympus. The story hinges on the adventures of "Jupiter," who comes to earth, transforms himself into "Spurius Cassius," a cobbler, and as such is arrested and taken to jail, while the real "Spurius" usurps his kingdom on high. Mr. Bell plays both characters, and in them is said to have scored his greatest hit. He is accompanied by an organization numbering 65 people, among them Laura Joyce Bell, Louise Montagne, Josephine Knapp and J. Adrich Libby. During its production here "Jupiter" will be personally conducted by its composer, Mr. Edwards. Mr. Bell's is directed by Mr. Thomas W. Prior.

Gus Hill's New York Vaudevilles. On Thursday evening, November 17, Gus Hill's New York Vaudeville company will commence a three night's engagement at the Grand. This is said to be the greatest organization that Mr. Hill ever presented to the public, and numbers twenty of the best specialty artists in America. They have been doing a great business everywhere and are sure to do the same thing here. Those desiring to see this great attraction should secure their seats without delay at Genther's.

Muggs' Landing a Good Show.

The Muggs' Landing Company was welcomed by a large and appreciative audience last night at the Grand Opera House. The united efforts of Miss Lola Belle as Little Muggs, Ren Shields as the land agent, and E. L. Scott as the old soldier elicited continuous applause. The specialists, Messrs. Mackie and Walker, in their original descriptive songs, were received with marked favor by the audience.

The company will remain until tomorrow night, giving three more performances, including a Wednesday matinee.

OVER A MILLION OFF.

The Council Committee on Equalization and Appeals

WILL MAKE A VOLUMINOUS REPORT

At a Special Meeting of Council to be Held this Evening—Some Interesting Features of the Work of the Committee—Reforms Needed in the Matter of Assessment for City Taxes.

The final meeting of the Council committee on equalization and appeals was held last night to consider the assessment by the city revaluers. The work has stretched itself over week after week. Clerk Hanke last night presented a very neat statement, making sixteen sheets almost as large as the side of a room, and it was gone over by the members and examined as to its correctness by the members of the committee.

The recapitulation shows a reduction in real estate valuation north of the creek, from the assessor's figures, of $500,910, and an increase of $77,500, a net reduction of $427,410.

South of the creek the assessors' figures on real estate were reduced in the aggregate $434,900, and increased in all $11,265, a net decrease of $423,635, and a total net reduction on real estate of $851,195.

Personal property was reduced in all $214,812 36, and increased $23,000, a net decrease of $191,812 36.

This makes the grand total of the reduction $1,043,207 36.

Among the important reductions were the following:

Schnitzbach Brewery, reduced	$ 60,000
Hobbs Glass Works	12,000
La Belle Iron Works	19,700
Belmont Iron Works	35,000
Bloch's Tobacco Works	15,000
Riverside (old forge)	20,000
Riverside (factory)	12,000
People's Bank	2,000
Hotel Windsor	19,800
Public Library Block	8,100
W. & E. Bridge Co. (from $200,000)	100,000
Washington Hall	9,800
Instalment Co. lot	2,000
McLure House	7,700
Opera House	9,000
Melain Block	10,000

In addition to examining the report the committee audited some bills. Among these was $91 43 for printing, per diem for nine members at $3 per day for 25 days and for one member for 20 days, extra pay for the assessors for attending the committee's sessions, and $288 of other extra expenses.

After adjourning the committee directed that a special meeting of Council be called for this evening to consider its report and any other pending business.

There was then an informal discussion of reforms needed in the city assessment. It seemed to be the general opinion that assessors chosen for their fitness and paid an annual salary would be a great improvement over the present system, if it can be called a system.

MAIER IS CONFIRMED.

Mayor Seabright Intervenes for Executive Clemency for Him.

The impression seems to be growing and spreading among the people that William Maier was not mentally responsible for the crime in punishment of which he is sentenced to be hanged on Friday of this week. And the more this impression grows and spreads the more it is thought the ends of justice will be served by a commutation of Maier's sentence to imprisonment for life.

Mayor Seabright yesterday wired the governor as follows:

WHEELING, W. VA., Nov. 14, 1892.

Gov. A. B. Fleming.

It seems to be the general desire of our citizens that Maier's sentence be commuted to life imprisonment. By extending your clemency you will confer an act of justice.

C. W. SEABRIGHT, Mayor.

Mr. G. W. Atkinson, one of the condemned man's attorneys, left yesterday morning for Charleston, where he will present the case to Governor Fleming, it is thought with favorable chances of executive action in the matter.

Yesterday morning Maier was confirmed by Bishop Knain and Rev. Father McElligott, of the Catholic church.

In Olden Times

people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action, but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

Worked Wonders.

Such a boom as our business has had this fall. Study our stock in each department and you will find a reason for it. It is not our LOW PRICES ALONE, nor our SUPERIOR QUALITIES, nor our IMMENSE VARIETY, nor our EXCLUSIVE STYLES, but the GRAND, GLORIOUS UNION OF ALL THESE VIRTUES, and the real satisfaction with our RESPONSIBLE GUARANTEE.

We have searched the market over, gathering the Choicest Novelties that were growing in the Garden of Genius. Our house is full of Flowers of Fashion and we're strewing them among an applauding public.

SUITS.

Straight as a thread through the eye of a needle we have entered into every phase of fashion. When you make a change with us this fall it will be for the better. We have shaved the prices until only a tissue of profit covers the cost. Our line of cheapness has been drawn at $5, worth weighs light below that price, up to $35. Quality grows with every dollar. There is the highest perfection. Judge us as you find us. The Single and Double-Breasted Sacks, Three and Four Button Cutaway Frocks, Cheviots, Worsteds, Tweeds, Homespins, Meltons, etc., give us a variety that no three houses combined can equal. Don't fear of the fit, that is perfect, beyond improvement. Our aim has been to give you the biggest money's worth you have ever had, and we have succeeded. Success piles up success.

OVERCOATS.

Only the rich can afford to have an overcoat made to order, and they don't need to. The skill of such famous houses as Straus Bros., Hamerslough, Saks & Co., the F. B. Q. Clothing Co., have won a place among the best efforts of custom tailors. Price is their only resemblance to the regular ready-made garments shown you by everybody else. The more you see others the stronger will be your appreciation of ours. That's strange, we want you to look around, no style, or size or taste we have forgotten. We have them in Kerseys, Meltons, Homespins, Worsteds, Beavers, Chinchillas, etc., etc. Whether you are tall, short, slim or stout, it matters not, we can fit, and fit you perfect, both fall and winter weights.
