

TO NAVIGATE THE AIR.

Another Form of Air Ship Devised by a St. Louis Man.

GREAT RESULTS EXPECTED OF IT.

It Sails Equally Well in the Air or on the Water, and Can be Steered—Details of the Mechanism and Arrangements—A Cigar Shaped Thing Buoyed up by Gas.

St. Louis, Mo., Jan. 10.—Another air ship has been projected by a St. Louis inventor, and negotiations are now said to be under way with money men looking to the building of an experimental outfit and a probable sale of the patent.

The ship will be a cigar-shaped affair, 100 feet long and 30 feet in diameter. At the widest part it will hold 35,000 cubic feet of gas, and it will carry 2,800 pounds. The feature of this invention will be that it can be steered. There are several other mechanical innovations for which great results are promised.

THE DEMOCRATIC GOVERNOR of Illinois Inaugurated With Great Jubilation Yesterday.

SPRINGFIELD, ILL., Jan. 10.—At 1 o'clock this afternoon the blare of a trumpet was heard and the militant Democracy of Illinois began to form in line for the inauguration of the first Democratic governor in Illinois since before the war.

The victorious hosts came from all sections of the state, and the exuberance of spirit found vent in triumphant yells that reminded one of the most turbulent days of the campaign. The clubs marched to the capitol. Among the prominent personages in the halls and galleries were Vice President Stevenson, Gen. John C. Black, Hon. Potter Palmer, Judge Lambert Tree.

Governor Allgert's appearance was the signal for an outburst of wild applause. The new governor, after taking the oath of office in an impressive manner, stepped into Speaker Craft's place and delivered his inaugural address, which was listened to with the greatest interest.
