

the retailers of revolvers and pistols. The bill fixes the state tax at $50. By Mr. Koonz, relating to the descent and distribution of real estate. By Mr. Johnston, proposing an amendment to the constitution striking out the section prohibiting a registration law.

By Mr. Dandridge, for the prevention of cruelty to children. By Mr. Floyd, to provide for filing interrogatories to an adverse party or claimant in actions in law and in proceedings before commissioners of courts. By Mr. Thompson, of Jackson, to abolish capital punishment.

THE VOTE OF OHIO COUNTY for members of the legislature, and spoke at length in its favor. Mr. Koonz urged that the demand for a recount was justified by the fact that the Democratic majority in the house had charged in effect that the courts had given Mr. Smith a fraudulent title to the seat. Let the house decide the matter by counting the votes for itself. The Republican side was not afraid of a recount.

Mr. McCallister (Dem.) offered an amendment providing that Mr. S. G. Smith shall pay the cost of the recount and be required to advance the money. Judge Maxwell thought the investigation should be free and unbiased. Mr. Wilson, of Ohio county, declared the whole proceeding out of order as THERE WAS NO CONTEST.

Mr. Thompson, of Jackson, reminded the other side that during the debate on the question of seating Mr. O'Kane the Democratic side had said if a count of votes should develop that Smith was elected they would vote to seat him. Now they are opposing a proposition to count the votes. They were evidently afraid of a recount. The amendment was withdrawn and a vote taken on the resolution, which was rejected by a strict party vote: Ayes 31, noes 29, Mr. O'Kane not voting.

Mr. Smith, of Marion, offered a resolution instructing the committee on taxation and finance to consult with the board of public works relative to the purchase of a lot on which TO BUILD IN EXECUTIVE MANSION, which was referred. The speaker announced several committees. The committee on the judiciary reported unfavorably the bill requiring county clerks to make out tax tickets and taking that duty out of the hands of the sheriffs.

The committee on taxation and finance reported unfavorably the bill reducing the personal rate to 29 cents and increasing the school tax to 15 cents. The bill to establish a court of limited jurisdiction in Marion county and the bill fixing the liabilities of fire insurance companies, were favorably reported by the judiciary committee. The house then adjourned until to-morrow.

A NEW CONSTITUTION? There is considerable talk among the members of the legislature and other statesmen regarding the advisability of holding a constitutional convention. There is a division of opinion on the subject, but not on party lines. There are now before the two houses about a dozen amendments to the constitution, most of them proposing reforms which many persons believe are much needed, and thinking men are of the opinion that the lame places in the constitution could not be corrected by a patching process. Among these the feeling is that it would be far better to make a general revision in a regular way than to patch the instrument. Those who oppose the suggestion say that there is danger that an attempt to reconstruct the constitution might result in the production of a worse one.

It is possible that what bade fair to be a red hot fight between Captain Sam Matheson, Colonel Ashby and others for the CHARLESTON POSTOFFICE under the Cleveland administration will be settled in an unexpected way. To-day a movement was started in favor of giving the postoffice to Mrs. Kenna, widow of the late senator. It is well known that Mr. Kenna died not leaving his family in good circumstances, and leading Democrats believe that this would be a good way to provide for them, temporarily at least.

Political wire pulling and talk about pending legislation was suspended this afternoon when Bill Nye arrived at the Ruffner and proceeded to get acquainted with the West Virginia statesmen. The Nye-Burbank aggregation delighted a big audience to-night. THE WEST VIRGINIA STATE GRANGE is in session here, having met yesterday, and will adjourn to-morrow. The meeting is well attended and considerable interest is manifested in the work of the grange. The order is reported to be in a flourishing condition. The principal item of business to-day was the appointment of T. C. Atkinson, of Putnam county, H. M. Turner, of Jefferson, and E. S. Taber, of Berkeley, as a legislative committee to look after the interests of the bills before the legislature affecting the welfare of farmers. One of the most important of these bills, the passage of which the grange will urge, provides that mortgaged property shall be exempt from taxation to the extent of the mortgage. Several other bills looking to reform in the present methods of taxation and in the direct interests of the farming classes of West Virginia will be presented by the grange committee.

THE SOCIALISTS ENCOURAGED.

They are Using the Panama Scandal to Further their Interests. PARIS, Jan. 19.—The Socialists continue to make the Panama scandal a basis for revolutionary agitation. Citizen Guodé says in an interview to-day that the Panama developments are advancing the hour of a Socialist triumph.

"The revelations," he declared, "had as they are, have told our party nothing new. It has long been known that opportunists circles were tainted and falling to pieces through decomposition. The Panama affair is a scandal, but all great banks and industrial enterprises are in much the same condition, although the turpitude is hidden more deeply. The Panama exposures will help to enlighten the country. Small agriculturists, their eyes opened to the dishonesty of their deputies, will recognize that it is only the party that can furnish something appreciable, while asking nothing in return. In one sense the occasion has come with inconvenient suddenness. The year has ripened too quickly, and events find us in rather an unprepared condition. The Socialist ranks are not fully equipped for the coming elections. If we had a personal policy, sufficient for the present hour—if we had money, like the opportunists and reactionists, we would be certain to secure a majority of the next Chamber of Deputies. Unfortunately, we can contest only part of the electoral districts, but despite all disadvantages we shall return forty to sixty members from the rural districts and retain our hold on the towns, thus making a respectable minority through which, with perfected organization, we can attain victory within four years along the whole line. We are rather disquieted for fear the Panama developments may assist the reactionist coalition, and that the rural districts, knowing us imperfectly, may at this time be likely to give their suffrages to syndicates hostile to the republic. Yet we are certain to have complete success in 1897."

Public interest in the Panama trial is evidently increasing as the case draws to a close. To-day the defense opened and the court room was packed with people anxious to hear Maitre Barbeux speak in opening the case for his clients. He argued volubly and at much length that it was not alone moral conditions that had led to the arrest and prosecution of the accused. Political considerations, he declared, had much to do with the prosecution, and he emphatically insisted that the men he was defending should not be made scape goats for the advantage of any party or faction, or to advance the designs of ambitious men. He maintained that the probity of his clients was in no wise affected by the indictment on which they were standing trial. M. Barbeux eulogized M. Ferdinand Desloupes as a man of the highest character.

When Maitre Barbeux had finished the court adjourned until Tuesday. The Conte D'Haussonville, leader of the monarchist party and general representative of Conte de Paris, has formulated the Orleanist programme in a long letter to M. Eduard Herve, editor of the Soleil. After drawing a dark picture of the corruption revealed by the Panama investigation and the consequent consternation among the true friends of France, he denies the charge that the monarchists have tried to aggravate the scandal. The role of conspirator was congenial neither to himself nor to any of his friends. Nobody could doubt that the time had come when a strong hand and a strong will were needed at the head of the French people.

The attention of the nation at large, however, was absorbed by the men of the government now in power. The organization of the monarchist movement was complete, and the monarchists should now seek to make all conservative and liberal alliances possible, without distinction. Precise instructions would be issued before the beginning of the general elections.

When the people of France should tire of the republic, the monarchist party would be ready to defend the cause of law and order, to drive back the enemies of society and to place the institutions of France upon enduring foundations. In the chamber of deputies to-day M. Casimir Percer, the president, announced that M. Baihut, now under arrest in connection with the Panama affair, had resigned his seat. The debate on the budget was then taken up. An amendment was offered to abolish the embassy to the vatican, and the amendment was rejected.

HORRIBLE TRIPLE TRAGEDY.

A Teacher Kills his Wife, his Boy and Himself in a Shocking Way. LONDON, Jan. 19.—Intense excitement was caused to-day at Hlove, a suburb of Brighton, and in Brighton itself, by the discovery of a tragedy that had been enacted at the former place. Arthur Black, a teacher of classics and mathematics, his wife and his son, aged two years, were found dead in their home this morning by some of the neighbors who called at the house. The child was found lying in a disordered bed. He had been stabbed in the neck, and the bedding and the floor were drenched with his blood. The body of Mrs. Black with the head terribly battered was lying on the floor of a room above that in which the body of her son was found. The only garment on the body was a night dress. From the appearance of the wounds on the head it is thought she was beaten to death with a hammer.

On the floor above, the body of Black was found. He, too, was attired in only a night shirt. He had bled profusely from the nose and mouth, but there was no wound visible. On a table beside him were a bloody hammer and a table knife, also bearing bloodstains. A bottle that had contained poison was standing on a chair beside the table. It is the general opinion that Black murdered his wife and child and then committed suicide by taking poison.

There will be no Duel.

PARIS, Jan. 19.—M. Dupuy-Dutemps explained to-day that he had criticised the newspaper edited by Paul de Cassagnac and not M. de Cassagnac himself in connection with the Panama frauds. The duel is off. M. de Cassagnac is making some bitter remarks in the lobbies at the expense of M. Dupuy-Dutemps.

TO ENFORCE SUNDAY CLOSING.

Measures to Recover Appropriations Presented in Congress. WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 19.—Senator Pettigrow, chairman of the quadricentennial committee, introduced a bill in the senate to-day instructing the secretary of the treasury not to deliver any of the souvenir coins provided for in the bill passed at the last session, until the World's Columbian exposition shall deliver a good and sufficient bond, conditioned that if for any reason whatever the World's Fair is opened to the public on Sunday the corporation shall pay to the United States the sum of money it shall have received from the sale of the coin, not less than $2,500,000. Mr. Pettigrow also gave notice that he intended to offer this as an amendment to the sundry civil bill.

Mr. Ketcham, of New York, also introduced in the house to-day (by request) a joint resolution, a preamble to which calls attention to the appropriation of five million and a half dollars made to aid the World's Fair, on condition that the exposition should be closed on Sunday, and that the World's Columbian Exposition corporation is now seeking to evade compliance with this condition. The resolution refers these facts to the attorney general, and directs him to ascertain the facts in this relation, and if he be of the opinion that this corporation is not in good faith carrying out the condition and closing the exposition on Sundays, it is made his duty in the name of the United States to sue and recover from the World's Fair corporation the nominal value of all half dollar coins paid to the corporation and cover them into the United States treasury.

THE MICHIGAN ELECTORS

Will Again be Elected hereafter by the Usual State System. LANSING, MICH., Jan. 19.—The Republican senate to-day by a vote of 20 to 9 passed a bill repealing the celebrated Miner law, which provides for the election of presidential electors by districts instead of by the whole state at large. It was through this act, passed by the last legislature, which was Democratic, that the Democrats were enabled to divide the presidential electors with the Republicans at the recent election, electing five out of fourteen. This was the first time that a Democratic elector had been chosen in this state since before the war. As the house is also Republican the bill will doubtless go through it and be signed by the Republican governor.

Natural Gas Explosion.

RICHMOND, IND., Jan. 19.—A terrible natural gas explosion occurred last night, which completely destroyed the grocery store and dwelling house of Thomas Crabb, corner of Tenth and North streets. The cellar was full of ceapung gas when George Boyce opened the door and lighted a match, and the explosion followed. Four persons were injured. Mrs. Baker, eighty years old, skull fractured and four ribs broken, will die; Mrs. Thomas Crabb, leg broken and badly burned; Thomas Crabb, jr., arm mashed; George Boyce, arm and leg broken. The loss is about $3,000.

The general prospects of the trade are not very bright at present, but a change is looked for in the spring.

Sent Up for Swindling.

St. JOHN, N. I., Jan. 19.—Judge Peters this afternoon sentenced Dr. Randall and C. B. Welton to the penitentiary for five years. The prisoners were found guilty of defrauding insurance and benefit associations of the United States out of large amounts by effecting graveyard insurance upon a number of people in Nova Scotia.

A Negro Seducer Lynched.

BIRMINGHAM, ALA., Jan. 19.—Two nights ago in Pickens county, May Davis, a white girl, aged thirteen, gave birth to a negro child, confessing that James Williams, colored, was its father. Williams was arrested by officers, who, while taking him to Carrollton jail last night, were overpowered by a masked mob at Coal Fire Swamp, and the negro was taken and hanged to a tree. His body was then riddled with bullets.
