

THE RIGHTS OF LABOR

To Form Organization and Prevent Interference of Employers

GETS A BLACK EYE IN THE HOUSE.

The Bill is Killed by a Vote of Forty-four to Thirteen After an Obnoxious Amendment is Saddled to It—An Insurance Measure Aimed at Foreign Companies Introduced in the Senate—The Investigation of the University is Not Deemed Expedient—A Number of Bills Passed.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. CHARLESTON, W. VA., Feb. 1.—The Thomas bill, to secure to laborers and employes of corporations and companies the right to form labor organizations and to prevent their employers from interfering therewith, came up in the house this morning on a second reading. Mr. Gamble, of Hardy, offered an amendment to punish with fine or imprisonment employes who in any way attempted to interfere with others who may have taken their places.

Mr. Thomas made quite a lengthy speech against the amendment, saying its object was to destroy the effect of the bill. He said the working people were powerless to prevent the organization of trusts and combinations among capitalists, and the bill proposed to give the laboring people the same privileges as their employers.

A POINTED QUESTION. "The question, gentlemen, is, are you friends of labor, as you claim to be? If you are, show it by voting against the amendment." Mr. Thomas is said to be working up a little congressional boom in his district, and this was frequently referred to in the course of the discussion. Mr. Dandridge opposed the bill as a whole, and Mr. Clark, of Greenbrier, made a stirring speech in its favor. Mr. Gamble announced that his object in making the amendment was to kill the bill. He said he was opposed to class legislation; the bill was in favor of the classes against the masses.

CHARGES OF DEMAGOGY. Mr. Gamble's speech was a remarkable one.

Mr. Hall thought there was more demagoguery than patriotism in the whole thing. Differences between labor and capital could not be settled by legislation. Some people wanted to get some buncombe out of it and they were getting it. There was considerable cross-talking and the amendment prevailed. On the question whether the bill should be ordered to its engrossment and third reading, Mr. Thomas demanded the ayes and noes. The bill was defeated by a vote of 13 to 44.

THE DAILY GRIND

Of Legislative Grist—Another New Insurance Measure—Number of Bills Passed.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. CHARLESTON, W. VA., Feb. 1.—It seems that the insurance men are receiving more than their share of attention at the hands of the legislature. First was the bill providing for an insurance commissioner, which was killed, then Hon. Clarence L. Smith's bill, which has not yet been reported by the committee; the valued policy bill, which seems in a fair way to pass, and now Senator Sheppard comes to the front with one, providing that foreign insurance companies doing business in this state pay into the treasury 5 per cent of their gross receipts from premiums collected in the state and make sworn statements of the amounts. It also provides that in case of a failure on the part of the companies to pay this the auditor shall advertise the fact for four weeks in two newspapers published in the state. It was introduced by request.

Senator Peck, also by request, introduced, to establish a preparatory branch of the state university at Fayetteville, and appropriating $13,000 to be used with $2,000 raised by the citizens of that place.

The committee on finance reported adversely on the bill for the relief of Lewis Steenrod. The committee on education reported that it is the sense of the committee that the proposed investigation of the management of the state university is inexpedient.

BILLS PASSED. Mr. Gall's bill providing for counting the words in a legal advertisement by averaging the number of words in the first six lines; Mr. Scott's bill to create an independent school district at Elkins; Mr. Finley's bill to amend the boom law; Mr. Wiley's bill to prevent fraudulent practice in contest of speed and to encourage the breeding and improvement of trotting and pacing horses, and Mr. Watts' bill appropriating money to pay for the third edition of the code, were passed.

The bills prohibiting the furnishing of liquor to students; providing for depositing in the auditor's office certain records secured from the state of Virginia, and authorizing the adjutant general to have and to use an official seal, were ordered to their third reading.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS. In the house, outside of the discussion of the Thomas labor bill, all was quiet as a summer morn. At the afternoon session scarcely half the members were in their seats. The bill to amend the code relating to screening and weighing and weighing coal when received, was taken up this morning as a special order. Numerous amendments were offered and the bill was made the special order for 10:30 to-morrow. The committee on taxation and finance reported favorably on the bill appropriating money for monuments at Gettysburg, and the bill relating to the publication of records and official copies of certificates of incorporation.

The committee on education reported favorably on the bill amending the code concerning the duties of county superintendents and adversely on the bill relieving teachers of compulsory duty of attending teachers' institutes.

The committee on humane institutions and public buildings reported adversely on a bill for the prevention of cruelty to animals and children.

IN FAVOR OF ANNEXING HAWAII. Mr. Riley offered a resolution requesting our senators and representatives in Congress to do all in their power to secure the annexation of the Hawaiian islands.

Bills were introduced as follows: By Mr. Goad, providing that railroad taxes be distributed among the school districts of the counties according to the number of school youth. By Mr. Garnes, to regulate the grade and grading of public roads. By Mr. Thomas, amending the law concerning mine inspectors and the drainage, ventilation, etc., of mines. By Mr. Harmsayer, concerning the obstruction of public roads. By Mr. Pyle, concerning fiduciaries. By Mr. Hunter, making it unlawful for stock to run at large, providing that the offender of such stock shall be liable for all damages done by them, and that the person damaged may retain such stock until all damages are paid. Mr. Johnson, of Monroe, moved that the afternoon session be spent on bills on their first reading and a recess was taken to 2:30. No bills that had been reported adversely were read after the house bills on a first reading had been disposed of. Senate bills on a first reading were taken up and after their conclusion the house adjourned.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

The finance committee this afternoon decided in favor of an appropriation of $25,000 for the purchase of a gubernatorial mansion. It also has under consideration the claims of the Fairmont Normal school, asking for $16,000; the request of the state board of health asking for an appropriation of from $3,000 to $5,000, to quarantine the state against cholera, and the claim of the West Virginia Colored Institute for an amount not yet fully decided upon.

Hon. Stewart W. Walker has returned from a visit to Martinsburg and will occupy his seat in the house to-morrow. Roy Naylor, who has been representing the News here since the beginning of the session, expects to leave for his home in a day or two. S. G. Crouch will look after the News' interests until the legislature adjourns.

A bill will be offered to-morrow making the policies of all life insurance companies and associations incontestible from the date of the delivery of the policy to the assured, except for a failure to pay the premiums.

The finance committee has appointed a commission composed of Gov. Fleming, President of the Senate Wiley and Hon. C. W. Brockunier, and Clark, of Greenbrier, to act in relation to the securing of the gubernatorial mansion, the cost being placed at $23,600.

The West Liberty normal school building asks for an appropriation of $16,000 for a new school building, the old one being in an unsafe condition. The finance committee has the matter under consideration.

O. W. Brockunier's daughter, Miss Mara, and son, Hugh, will return home to-morrow after a pleasant visit with friends here.

Big Oil Suit.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Feb. 1.—A writ for the recovery of $56,000 was instituted in the United States court to-day by Judge J. G. McCluer. The title of the case is John Hannan and Daniel Hannan vs. T. N. Barnsdall, T. N. Barnsdall and F. M. Brown, partners, T. N. Barnsdall and F. W. Moore, partners, and Della Moore. The suit is for the recovery of supplies furnished for drilling oil wells for the defendants.

A Big Verdict Reversed.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Feb. 1.—Chief Counsel Archer, of the Ohio River railroad, received a telegram to-day that the supreme court in the case of a man named Gregory, who was killed near Friendly, Tyler county, in 1888, while in the employ of the company, judgment was reversed and a new trial granted. Gregory's administrator got judgment against the company for $6,000 in the Tyler county circuit court.

Gold Cure Institute Sued.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Feb. 1.—J. H. Lochary, a prominent attorney here, brought suit this afternoon against the local branch of the McMurry-Marion gold cure institute. He claims $5,000 damages because of injuries received through the explosion of a lamp while he was inmate of the institution.

Sent Up for Ten Years.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligence. HUNTINGTON, W. VA., Feb. 1.—Basil Marcum and John Roe, both young men in their teens, were sentenced at the Wayne court house to-day to ten years each in the penitentiary for beating and robbing an old woman.

Unscrupulous Publishers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1.—The following is published by request: 17 MADISON PLACE, WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 1, 1893.

The public advertisements of many biographies of James G. Blaine pretending to be "authentic and authoritative" compel me to state that no biography or life and works of Mr. Blaine is authorized, or approved by myself, or by any member of Mr. Blaine's family; that no manuscript by Mr. Blaine, or any private letter, or paper of Mr. Blaine's, or any material for biography has been given out to any one. If in the future any "authentic" or "authorized" biography should be prepared by competent authors it will be authenticated and authorized by myself. [Signed.] HARRIET S. BLAINE.

Many persons are unable to sleep on their left side. The cause has long been a puzzle to physicians. Metropolitan papers speak with great interest of Dr. Franklin Miles, the eminent Indiana specialist in nervous and heart diseases, who has proven that this habit arises from a diseased heart. He has examined and kept on record thousands of cases. His New Heart Cure, a wonderful remedy, is sold at Logan Drug Co's. Thousands testify to its value as a cure for Heart Diseases. Mrs. Chas. Benoy, Loveland, Colo., says its effects on her were marvelous. Elegant Book on Heart Disease free.

Kitty Fox of Entrhaven, Va. "When my daughter Kitty was about three years old, Eczema or Salt Rheum appeared on her face. It itched so badly she would scratch till it bled. We had seven or eight doctors, without the least shadow of benefit. When Kitty had taken half a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla she was better, and when she had taken 1 1/2 bottles she was perfectly cured and has shown no sign of Salt Rheum for almost four years. Her skin is now as fair and clear as any child's in town." Wm. Fox, Williams State Mangle Works, Fair Haven, Vt.

THE SMITHS SELL OUT.

The Porter Brick Combine Gathers in Another Opposition Firm. The Pittsburgh Dispatch thus describes a fire brick deal, by which the John Porter Company gets control of another opposition establishment: "S. G. Smith, of Wheeling; C. E. Smith and J. A. Smith, of New Cumberland, and H. H. Smith, of Toronto, registered at the Seventh Avenue yesterday. The Clifton Fire Brick Company, which is owned by Smith, Porter & Co., in which they are interested, was sold to the John Porter Company for $125,000. This gives the latter concern the practical control of the fire brick paying business in New Cumberland. The Porter trust, as it is sometimes called, own eight fire brick plants in the town, and the four remaining are small affairs. "John Mack, of Philadelphia, is the principal stockholder in the Porter company, and he was represented at the sale yesterday by De Haven Lance, of the Quaker City. Captain Porter, after whom the company was named, is still living, and was a pioneer in the business."

ADDRESS TO IRISHMEN.

A Crisis to be Met—The Home Rule Bill Not What is Wanted—A Call for Organization. NEW YORK, Feb. 1.—This circular has been sent out by the officers of the Irish National Land League of America:

"IRISHMEN:—The supreme moment has arrived in the history of our country, and we feel that in such a crisis silence on our part would be criminal. The great British statesman, the Rt. Hon. William Ewart Gladstone, will within the next few days introduce in the British parliament a home rule measure for Ireland. The character of this measure we now know. We have carefully studied its provisions and we have arrived at our conclusions regarding it.

"So hedged in is it with conditions that it falls short of even the measure of 1886. The Irish legislators provided for would be legislators merely in name, without power to interfere in the matters most concerning their country."

"Ireland cannot prosper as a mere agricultural country, and a parliament without the power to build up its trade would be worse than worthless. The proposed parliament would have no such power and would not be able to protect even the least of her interests. Any legislation whatsoever affecting the land question would be beyond its reach for years to come, and even in the matter of quarantine it would be for England to say whether or not Ireland should be a sort of British lazaretto. With the consent of the lord lieutenant the parliament at Dublin might build a bridge, construct a road, reclaim a bog, or legislate concerning gas, water and electricity. That is all. Have Irishmen fallen so low that they will accept such a measure as this from England. We think not. We believe that the national spirit is immortal and that our people will refuse to barter their nationhood. Strong in this belief and full of hope in the future of our country, we declare that the home rule proposals of Mr. Gladstone are inadequate and that the principle of independence only will satisfy the Irish people. We stand to-day at the parting of the ways, between resistance and conciliation. We have advised the latter until patience has ceased to be a virtue and further temporizing has become a crime. We call for an expression of the opinion of all Irishmen who remain true to their traditions as to the course we should pursue at this juncture. We advise the formation of clubs wherever there are Irishmen honestly desirous of improving the condition of Ireland. Even those who are the most inclined to underrate the resources of our race must recognize that if our scattered people could be welded into one homogeneous mass, working for Ireland's redemption, the task would be easy of accomplishment. To achieve this grand result is the goal of our ambition, and we call on you to join with us so that we may be able to round out the century by the fulfillment of our hopes. (Signed) M. V. CANNON, Omaha, President. JOHN P. SUTTON, Lincoln, Neb., Secretary. WILLIAM LAYMAN, New York, Treasurer.
