Kill This Bill

A meeting of the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce is called for this morning for the purpose of entering a protest against the passage of house bill No. 52 (known as the "inquisitorial" assessment bill), now pending in the legislature, having been introduced by Mr. Prince, of Raleigh county.

The measure is almost identical with that introduced in the last legislature by Col. White, of this city, which called forth such vigorous protest from the business men of the state, the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce passing resolutions strongly denouncing it and petitioning their representatives to vote against it.

Its provisions, if enforced, would be an infringement on the private rights of citizens, for they are designed, as was the White bill, to compel all persons, firms and corporations required by law to list their property, to state under oath their private indebtedness and money owing them, where contracted, when contracted, with whom contracted, when due and payable, and whether contracted for bona fide value or consideration, so that those purely private matters would be upon the public records and accessible to every one.

In 1891, in commenting on this monstrous proposition, the INTELLIGENCER had the following to say, which will apply with equal force to the present bill: "It would be hard to conceive," said the INTELLIGENCER then, "anything more unjust than a proposition to place upon public record the details of private business transactions, matters with which the public has and ought to have nothing to do."

The Populists of Kansas have not popularized themselves in public estimation by avowing that they intend to continue in their course in defiance of the courts and other regularly constituted authorities. If this is to be the policy of the new party everywhere the sooner it is disbanded the better.

Mr. CLEVELAND's prospective secretary of agriculture, Mr. Morton, declares that he favors the repeal of the state bank tax. With cabinet officers favoring the old wild cat system, it may be that the Democratic administration will be somewhat more in line with the Chicago platform than some people suppose.

The most novel election bot was that made by a young Republican in Illinois, who agreed with his mother that if Cleveland should be elected he would go to Sunday school regularly. He is paying the bet.

There are but twelve more days of this Republican administration, and then will come the great hair pulling match for the office.

BREAKFAST BUDGET.

While most cities and towns in this country are overrun with office seekers, Tampa, Fla., is minus men who will run for municipal offices. In a short time it will be necessary for that town to elect a mayor, city council and various other officials, but, as yet, only one man has signified his intention of running, and he desires to be tax assessor.

John D. Mann was killed by a falling rock in Dorchester, Mass., and his brother James, who came from Franklin to Hyde Park to arrange for the funeral, was himself killed at the railway station by a passing train. Six years ago the father of these men was killed by the cars in Hyde Park, he also having come there from Franklin.

When wooden ware is washed, such as bread boards, chopping knives, etc., they should never be dried by the fire, as they will warp and crack if exposed to dry heat while wet. If it is possible to dry them in the sun they will be so much sweeter and nicer.

The shah of Persia, who has 10,000,000 sterling stored in his palace, has been borrowing a sum from the state to defray the cost of his summer outing to the distant provinces of his empire. His suite comprises 10,000 people, including 300 wives.

In chopping down a tree in Lycoming county, Pa., woodmen claim to have found a dozen squirrels confined in it and several bushels of nuts, which had been stowed away for winter use by these little animals.

An intoxicated man recently fell a distance of forty feet to the ice below on the Willimantic river, at Willimantic, Conn., without sustaining serious injuries.

A child was recently born to the wife of Mr. Enders, of Kokomo, Ind., who weighed, with its clothes on, it is said, but one pound and eight ounces.

A pet dog, it is said, recently died at Elkton, Ky., from licking its mistress's cheek. She painted, and the poor dog died of poison.

Seven new planets, all small, the largest of the ninth magnitude, were discovered during January.

MORNING SMILES.

Mr. Hardpushed—"What in thunder's all this bill for dress materials—$45 17? I thought you were wearing last winter's dress, which you made over yourself—and it only cost $20 when it was new."

Wife—"Here's an advertisement in the paper that you had better look into. It says a man is wanted, and he won't be worked to death, and he'll get paid enough to live on."

Disgusted Passenger—"It's nothing but an outrage the way these street cars are packed and jammed every evening!" Conductor—"I know it is; but you see the company won't let us take the seats out. If the seats were only out there would be plenty of room to stand."

"Wonderful climate in Arizona," said the returned war-brave. "I knowed a feller to have twenty-seven bullets shot into him an' still get well as ever."

There is a Mrs. Polly in Greene county, Ky., who is 107 years old, has fourteen children, and it is painful to add, has used tobacco all her life. If she had not used tobacco she would doubtless have had thirty or forty children and be at least 147 years old by this time.

Father—"But you have no means and no prospects. If I give my daughter to you what is to become of her?" Suitor—"Well, sir, you are a wealthy man, and you are surely not going to see your daughter starve."

PERSONAL POINTS.

Lewis Carroll (as the author of "Alice in Wonderland," Rev Charles Ludwidge Dodgson, is known to the reading public) has not lost his love for children, and he constantly entertains groups of them, including the little actresses from the London theatres.

It is said that ex-empress Eugenie's villa at Cap Martin will be a very picturesque structure, as the interior is to be superbly decorated, Eugenie proposing to hang the principal sitting rooms with Gobelin's tapestry.

Pope Leo's family is very long lived. With the exception of his brother, the cardinal, who died a few years ago at the age of eighty-two, all his immediate relatives have lived to be more than ninety years old.

The old walnut bedstead on which Lincoln was laid after Booth shot him, together with the mattresses of the bed, have come into the possession of a Chicago relic hunter.

General Mahone lives at Chamberlain's, in Washington. He is the same quaint little man that he always was. He has a long beard and a long head.

General Lew Wallace says Gresham's appointment is "like putting live coals and boiling oil on the bald head of the Democratic party."

A handsome park in memory of Edward P. Roe, the late novelist, is to be laid out in Cornwall, New York.

Several times this winter I have suffered from severe colds on my lungs. Each time I have applied ALCOCK'S POROUS PLASTER, and in every instance I have been quickly relieved by applying one across my chest, and one on my back. My friends, through my advice, have tried the experiment and also found it most successful. I feel that I can recommend them most highly to any one who may see fit to try them.

It Took Trouble, But He Got It. About two or three months ago I purchased from you a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, put up in the Moines, Iowa. Such good results were obtained from its use that I enclose one dollar and ask that you send me two bottles by express.

To the Inauguration with the H. & O. R. R. For the benefit of those desiring to witness the inaugural ceremonies at Washington, March 4, the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad Company will sell excursion tickets to Washington and return from all stations on its lines at low excursion rates.

The round trip inclusive from Wheeling and all intermediate stations to Grafton is $10; from Morgantown $11. Correspondingly low rates from stations east of Grafton. Tickets will be honored to Baltimore.

THE CABINET.

If Cleveland had any hope of winning over the Populists with Gresham, he destroyed that hope when he made Hoke Smith one of his cabinet officers. It was Hoke Smith who stirred up the south against Weaver and Mrs. Lease and brought about that exhibition of southern chivalry which soiled their clothes and drove them from the state of Georgia.

More of the business of the department of the interior is done with the west than with any other section of the country, and its head should be a western man. Georgia is not the right locality to take a secretary of the interior from.

Mr. Cleveland recognizes the "eternal fitness of things" as distinct from partisanship but will continue to avoid making selections from the list of ex-Confederates who are patiently waiting to hear their names called.

Mr. Smith's appointment will be especially significant as the first appointment to high official position by either party of a southern man who has no connection with the ante-bellum period.

The appointment of Judge Gresham has now been officially announced, and the violation of party traditions and the slight to the Democratic party are accomplished facts.

Gresham has it, and he will make a greater secretary than Bayard if he can rise above personal pique and exalted ideas of self-importance.

In the make-up of his cabinet Mr. Cleveland has not forgotten the newspaper men. In this, as in many other things, he shows his good sense.

Considering the number of men who have refused secretaryships, Mr. Cleveland's cabinet should be called the cabinet of last resort.

In the absence of Mr. Smith, the Journal takes occasion to say that his appointment is very gratifying to the people of Georgia.

Postmaster-General Bissell will find great fun looking over "Billy" Sheehan's petitions for appointments for his friends.

Mr. Cleveland is sticking to his programme of getting the strongest officials around him the country can furnish.

Around the Board.

Mr. Henry G. Davis, president of the West Virginia Central and Pittsburgh Railway Company, entertained a party of friends at dinner at the Hotel Renner last night. Tables were spread in the private dining-room and covers were laid for fifteen guests.

That cure of Geo. W. Turner of Galway, N. Y., of scrofula, by Hood's Sarsaparilla, was one of the most remarkable on record.

The Trouble Over. A prominent man in town exclaimed the other day: "My wife has been wearing out her life from the effects of dyspepsia, liver complaint and indigestion. Her case baffled the skill of our best physicians. After using three packages of Bacon's Colery cure, she is almost entirely well."

The Wheeling Nightsoil Co. has the largest barrels and best facilities for moving nightsoil. O. W. Rixey, general manager, corner Chapline and Sixteenth streets. Telephone 15.

AT BEDTIME I TAKE A PLEASANT HERB DRINK. THE NEXT MORNING I FEEL BRIGHT AND NEW AND MY COMPLEXION IS BETTER. My doctor says it acts gently on the stomach, liver and bowels, and is a pleasant habit. The drink is made from herbs, and is prepared for use as easily as tea. It is called LANE'S MEDICINE.

JUDGE JACKSON CONFIRMED. And His Successor May Not Be Nominated by Harrison. WASHINGTON, Feb. 19.—It is asserted by a number of persons who ought to know what they are talking about, that President Harrison made a bargain with the Democrats if they would not further delay the confirmation of Judge Jackson as an associate justice of the supreme bench, he in turn would leave to Mr. Cleveland the appointment of a circuit judge to succeed Jackson.

It is whispered that Senator Quay voted no, as his friend Clark would also have voted had he been in the senate, but Senator Quay does not substantiate the statement. No senator is more conscientious than Quay in regard to divulging the secrets of the executive session, and one might as well offer up petitions to a stone wall as to ask him to give a tip on the performances behind the closed doors.

One of the most intimate official friends of President Harrison denied that the President had made any bargain in regard to the appointment of a successor to Jackson, and that a successor will be nominated within a few days and that he will be a Republican.

It is that the fact, the unlucky Republican successor will not have even as plain sailing as Judge Jackson, for the Democrats will fight any such nomination, tooth and nail.
