

THE BOYS MARCH HOME.

The Democratic Delegation Returns Home From Washington.

THEY ARE TIRED BUT VERY HAPPY.

Some Tales of Woo Told by Members of the Club on Their Return—They Made the Best of a Bad Situation. Royally Treated by Hon. W. L. Wilson Monday—The Great Free Trader a Good "Mixer."

The larger part of the Wheeling delegation to Washington returned yesterday afternoon via the Baltimore & Ohio road by a special train. The Tariff Students marched up town in citizens' clothes, headed by the Opera House band. Everybody waved at them and cheered.

The members of the clubs were all delighted with their trip and declared that in spite of the weather they had a good time. A member of the Tariff Students said to an INTELLIGENCER reporter last night that the best of a bad situation was made Saturday.

"Even if we had been able to wait in the cold until the time for our part of the parade to move arrived," said he, "we would not have reached the reviewing stand before seven o'clock at night, and the satisfaction we would have got out of that wouldn't have been worth the risk of us all coming home with well developed cases of pneumonia. So we put in the time enjoying ourselves in our own way. We set out on a serenading expedition. The Opera House band did its duty nobly, and when it played a couple of inspiring airs before a charity hospital the good sisters took us in out of the cold and fed us. You never saw such a crowd of grateful fellows as we were just then. We left that hospital gratefully cheered, blessing the kind sisters and feeling about a thousand per cent better. All our disappointments were forgotten and we were ready to begin our round of eight-wheeling.

"Every hour of Sunday and Monday was used to good advantage. Of course we all attended church in a body Sunday and the rest of the day we spent observing the Sabbath in a decorous manner. What are you laughing at? May be you think we didn't? I'll leave it to any fellow in the crowd if we didn't. Well, anyhow, on Monday we got up bright and early. We were the guests of Congressman Wilson that day, and maybe he didn't treat us white! We'd always heard Mr. Wilson wasn't much of a 'mixer'—too dignified and statesmanlike, you know, to be one of the boys. Well, we pretty soon found out our mistake. Talk about 'mixers'—why, Mr. Wilson is simply a prince of good fellows. He just took us boys in town and steered us around the city of magnificent distances in a way that caused all the other clubs in town to feel sorry they hadn't been named in his honor like we were. We paraded through the town part of the town with the band, and Mr. Wilson marched right in the ranks with us. We serenaded a lot of gents whose names I remember—senators, congressmen and other big guns—and that Opera House band made up for all the time lost Saturday. We had a splendid time, and Mr. Wilson looked kind of hurt when we were forced to decline his invitation to stay over until to-day and let him take us to the white house in a body and give us a personal introduction to his friend Cleveland. He seemed kind of proud of us boys, you know, and, to tell you the truth, we are proud of him. Say, you ought to have been with us. No, I didn't see the fireworks last night. My eyes were tired."

AN ILLEGAL TRIAL.

Justice a Farce in Mississippi When White Men are Accused of Shooting Negroes.

JACKSON, Miss., March 7.—News has reached here of a sensational killing and illegal trial in Simpson county. A negro who was suspected and against whom there was strong circumstantial evidence of having entered the bad room of a Miss Tullias with the purpose of criminal assault, was hunted down and shot to death by her three brothers. Justice of the Peace Slaughter tried the young men, giving them the benefit of a jury and of course acquitted them very promptly, as is the custom here in such cases. The illegal part of the proceedings is that the justice has no jurisdiction whatever.

SENSATION AT PITTSBURGH.

The Mayor Asks the Removal of the Chief of Police for Refusal to Obey Orders. PITTSBURGH, March 7.—Something of a sensation was caused to-day by Mayor Gourley transmitting a message to council asking for the removal from office of Chief Brown, of the department of public safety, and his indictment and conviction in the criminal court for refusing to obey the orders of his honor in regard to the suppression of disorderly houses. The message says the chief's theory in dealing with this vice is an utter abomination, and can easily be made the convenient cloak for the levying of blackmail by the police department.

Clara Morris's Visit.

Clara Morris, who has long been recognized as unequalled in the portrayal of the emotional drama, and to compare with whom no one has arisen, hardly needs an introduction to theatre-goers. The most extraordinary actress produced by the American stage, Miss Morris has always been directed by natural impulse and never controlled by a cold simulation of passion for stage effect. Her success has been achieved by the exercise of rare dramatic instinct and an astonishing degree of emotional force and natural passion. On Thursday evening, surrounded by an excellent company, she will give her famous portrayal of "Renée De Moray," a play she has made famous.

Marie Wainwright.

Marie Wainwright has won a deserved reputation for the splendid way in which she mounts and dresses her plays, and for the excellence of her supporting company. She herself is not surpassed in charm, intelligence and artistic finish by any actress on the contemporary stage.

On Friday, March 10, Miss Wainwright will visit the Opera House for a single performance of that brilliant and amusing comedy, "The School for Scandal."

ALMOST A RIOT.

British Sailors Insult American Tars at Honolulu and the Latter Recent It. HONOLULU, Feb. 15.—There was a narrow escape to-night from what might have been a serious fight between sailors from the American warships and the British cruiser Garnet. The English tars have boasted they could "do up" the Americans on the first opportunity, and this came to-night. A gang of the Garnet's men, all primed with whisky, began singing "Britannia Rules the Wave" in Nuuanu street, and when they had finished they made insulting remarks to the stars and stripes and one fellow challenged any American to take it up. Some of the Mohican's men were within hearing and if it had not been for the coolness of a petty officer there would have been a bloody fight. The Commercial Advertiser calls attention to the urgent need of strong police guard on this street to prevent any recurrence of the difficulty between English and American sailors.

The expected trouble with Great Britain over the Kynnersley incident did not occur. Kynnersley, who is a British subject, refused to recognize the provisional government and tore down a proclamation when the revolution was proclaimed. For this he was arrested. He threatened to appeal to Great Britain for protection. On February 13, however, when his case was called, Kynnersley was very mild and humbly apologized and took the oath of loyalty to the new government. The council thereupon dropped the whole matter.

M'LEOD'S DOWNFALL.

Only a Matter of a Few Days—A Blow About to Be Dealt.

New York, March 7.—A local paper says: Since the downfall of the Reading pool and McLeod's rapid approach to the breakers in which his ambitious schemes must inevitably be wrecked, he has been straining every nerve to keep afloat.

The lines are now being drawn so closely about him that in two weeks, or less, even the Philadelphia people may see that he has been shorn of his locks. A blow is about to be dealt that will land him high and dry out of his presumptuous control of the Boston & Maine. He has already received a strong hint to resign, but he has not taken it. This leaves him nothing in New England but the much "bottled up" New York & New England railroad, which is a candidate for a receiver, and which it is asserted Mr. McLeod may not be able to retain. In other words he will probably confine his attention to the territory west of the Hudson river.

A SAD DEATH.

Chief Justice Fuller's Daughter Dies From a Surgical Operation.

CHICAGO, March 7.—Mrs. A. L. Brown, wife of Archibald L. Brown, and the eldest daughter of Chief Justice and Mrs. Melville W. Fuller, died this morning after an illness of only two weeks. The immediate cause of her death was blood poisoning, resulting from an operation performed at the birth of her child two weeks since. Chief Justice and Mrs. Fuller did not arrive here from Washington in time to see their daughter alive, their train being delayed. The physicians in attendance did everything in their power to save their patient's life, or at least to prolong it until the arrival of her parents, but their efforts were futile. The death of Mrs. Brown will be a great shock to those who knew her. She was about twenty-eight years old. Her wedding, which took place at the capital two years ago, was perhaps the greatest social event of the season.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

The street railway people were down yesterday again looking after their interests in the matter of the franchise here. It is understood the option on the horse car line and privileges taken by Mr. Leyda for $1,000 expires to-day, and they have been anxious to have the change granted within the time of the option. The present owner, however, is not likely to quibble about an extension of the option or an outright sale at once. In the meantime there is no opposition to an electric road, but there is a great disposition to consider matters in connection with it very carefully.

Mr. David Lee, superintendent of maintenance of way of the B. & O. railroad, was in the city yesterday in his private car, looking after some of the details with reference to the removal of the bulk of the business to the other side of the river.

While several names are mentioned in connection with the nominations for members of the school board there are very few talked of for water works trustees. There are three of the former and two of the latter to name this spring.

Joseph Clements was drawn on the petit jury at St. Clairsville and began duty yesterday. He could have secured part of his pay as an accoucheur by claiming exemption on this score.

The stock books for the new preserving company were opened yesterday, and started off well. It is to be a strong company and make a general line of high class preserves.

Jack Baugh, senior and junior, declare that neither is a candidate for assessor in the Third ward, though one of them was nominated by the Democrats.

Miss Bessie Gallagher entertained the "Pickwick Club" at the home of her parents on Front street, Gravel Hill, last night.

Miss Lizzie Cummins left yesterday for a visit to Mrs. John D. Baker, at Findlay.

Mayor McGowan fined a number of saloon keepers this week for Sunday selling.

The Good Templars entertained a number of visitors at their meeting last night.

Deputy Internal Revenue Collector Samuel Dean was in town yesterday.

The Odd Fellows initiated two new candidates last night.

J. W. Coulson assigned his interest in the real estate.

GROWTH OF THE USE OF SOUND DISCS FOR DEAFNESS.

No Question Raised or Doubts Entertained in Medical Circles as to Their Efficacy.

In a number of medical journals there have recently appeared several interesting articles as to the value and practicability of the Sound Discs for deafness, invented by H. V. Wales, of Bridgeport, Conn. From data collected by men who may be looked upon, each as an expert in the treatment of diseases of the ear, it is learned that the Sound Discs are applicable only to cases of partial deafness, and do not in any way take the place of the ear trumpet, but that in those cases where the hearing is but partially defective they have been very successfully used in a large variety of cases. As there can be no harmful effects from their use, they are considered an important addition to the medical profession. Artists have been the first to feel the beneficial results of this invention, and in view of such facts, they consider it a part of wisdom to say nothing to discourage their use, as to do so would ultimately be a great impediment to the progress already made toward the relief of this most obstinate affliction. The public themselves are most profoundly interested in the progress and success that has already followed the use of this simple invention.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

News Notes and Personal from Our Near Neighbor.

Mrs. Nancy B. Smith died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. W. B. Dillion, on Clark street, Monday evening, infirmities of old age being the immediate cause. Mrs. Smith was born in Burlington, just above Martin's Ferry, in February, 1812, and in 1834 married Lewis Smith, who died in 1864, and who was captain of Company H, Eleventh West Virginia infantry. Her surviving children are: Mrs. Mauda Dillion and Mr. L. W. Smith, of the First ward; Mr. M. V. B. Smith, who is supposed to be in the west; Mrs. Margaret Tribby, of the Third ward; Virginia Evans Smith and Louisa Lemasters, who live in the Indian territory. The funeral will take place this afternoon at two o'clock.

The hearing of the condemnation suit of the Wheeling & Lake railroad against different persons along First street is set for next Tuesday. The defendants are Emma Helling, Charles G. McCord, Lewis Seabright, Mary B. Hobensack, William Lipphardt, F. Eick, William Mann, George W. Chessell, Thomas Mears, John Campbell, O. R. Wood and J. T. Hanes. Thirty-four summonses have been served.

Stephen Hopkins, jr., Theo. Moore and John C. Hayne left yesterday afternoon for Cleveland, where they went to examine the drawings of the new engines and pumps now being constructed for the water works here. Contractor Hughes was to have been here, but owing to sickness in his family was unable to leave home.

A slight accident occurred near the steel bridge yesterday morning. The kee-wagon driven by one of Thomas Mear's men was struck by an electric car, throwing the driver from his seat. The driver claimed that he waived for the car to stop but that the man on the motor paid no attention.

The new Baptist church is now ready for occupancy, and the congregation will meet in it for prayer and praise meeting this evening for the first time. Services will be held there next Sunday, at which time it will be announced when the formal dedication services will be held.

Men are at work setting the curb on Jefferson street, preparatory to putting down the new brick pavement.

J. T. Hanes will erect a large family monument in Weeks' cemetery for Judge Cochran next week.

Mrs. C. H. Dilley, of New York, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. W. Morrison.

Miss Clara Sheets, who lost a diamond ring last Friday night, had it returned yesterday.

Will Roberts, of Pleasant Grove, has moved into the Holl property, on Fifth street.

Mr. Robert Kerr has decided to locate at Fredericksburg, Va.

Mrs. J. P. Crowl, who has been sick, is convalescent.
