

SIX BLUSHING BRIDES

And Six Happy Grooms United in Holy Wedlock Yesterday.

JUNE EARLY ASSERTS HER SWAY.

A Cincinnati Lady Becomes a Wheeling Man's Bride and a Wheeling Lady Departs to make her Home in Pittsburgh—Two Country Marriages and two Noble Weddings in the City—Mr. B. S. Allison and Miss Tice Wed.

Telegraphic advices from Cincinnati announce the marriage in that city last evening of Mr. Benjamin Stanton Allison, of Wheeling, to Miss Anna Gertrude Tice. The wedding ceremony was performed at the beautiful home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Tice, Sanders street, Mt. Auburn, at 6 o'clock p. m. It was essentially a quiet home wedding, none but the relatives of the bride and groom and intimate friends being present, as witnesses of the nuptial services, which were performed by the Rev. Dr. Curtis, of the Mt. Auburn Presbyterian church. The attendants were Mr. William I. Ewing, of Wheeling, and Miss Laura Smith, of Cincinnati. Two little maids, aged ten years, Misses Maricle Lloyd and Virginia Thomas, escorted the bridal party to the parlor. At the conclusion of the ceremony a wedding supper was served by Caterer Roth, of the St. Nicholas hotel, after which Mr. and Mrs. Allison left for Old Point Comfort, and after a stay of two weeks at that celebrated resort they will depart for an extended tour of the Eastern cities. After July 1 they will be at home to their friends at the McLure house.

Among the guests present from abroad were Mrs. Mary and Mrs. Kate Allison, mother and sister of the groom; Mrs. J. D. and Mrs. Frank Statton, aunts of Mr. Allison, and Miss Ella McClure, all of this city.

Mr. Allison is one of the rising young men of the Wheeling bar, being the junior member of the law firm of Erskine & Allison. He has a host of friends here who will unite with the intellectuals in wishing for him and his wife that their future may run in the pleasant lines of life.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. O. F. Tice, of the large wholesale grocers' establishment of the West-Tice Company, Cincinnati, and is well known in the social circles of Mt. Auburn.

WATERHOUSE-HALLISY.

A Pretty Wedding at St. Joseph's Cathedral Yesterday Morning.

St. Joseph's Cathedral was the scene of a very pretty but quiet wedding yesterday morning at 9 o'clock, being the nuptial of Mr. Charles J. Waterhouse, bookkeeper of Waterhouse Bros., and Miss Katherine Angela Hallisy, the charming daughter of Mrs. Mary A. Hallisy. The large and handsome edifice was well filled with the friends of the popular young couple.

At the opening notes of the Mendelssohn wedding march, the bridal party entered the church, headed by the ushers, Messrs. Robert T. Devries, Jr., Edward J. McCowan, Charles Truschel, of this city, and Richard Welden, of Pittsburgh. These were followed by the bridesmaids, Miss Lotta Waterhouse, sister of the groom, who was attired in an Empire gown trimmed in Valenciennes lace and flowers, and Miss Dittman in white silk and lace. The maid of honor, Miss Katherine Kennedy, also wore white silk trimmed with emerald.

Miss Hallisy, who is one of Wheeling's most beautiful girls, looked even prettier than usual in a handsome gown of white bengaline, trimmed in Duchess lace. This was covered with a full bridal veil and wreath. She carried a bouquet of bride's roses.

The marriage ceremony was conducted by Rt. Rev. Bishop John J. Cain, and was very impressive.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse repaired to a carriage waiting in front of the church and were driven to the home of the bride on Fifteenth street. Here a reception was held and the happy couple received the congratulations of their numerous friends. An elegant wedding breakfast was also discussed. The parlors and dining room were much enhanced by the profuse floral decorations. The newly married couple left on the 1:25 o'clock train yesterday afternoon over the Baltimore & Ohio for Chicago, where they will remain for some time, prior to going on an extended eastern trip, taking in the larger cities. The bridal tour will last several weeks. Presents of great elegance were received from relatives and from intimate friends at home and abroad.

ROHRBOUGH-WOOD.

An Island Young Lady Becomes a Pittsburgh Man's Bride.

At the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wood, on South Broadway, Island, were assembled yesterday a large number of relatives and friends of the contracting parties to witness the marriage ceremony of Mr. William Rohrbough, of Pittsburgh, and Miss Hettie Wood, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wood.

In honor of the occasion the house was elaborately decorated with cut flowers and potted plants, each room appearing a tower of beauty. The ceremony was performed in the parlors by Rev. J. Henry Hess, pastor of the Thomson M. E. church. After the ceremony was completed and hearty congratulations had been extended, a most delectable wedding dinner was served. The bridal couple left on the 3:30 train for Chicago. After the bridal tour Mr. and Mrs. Rohrbough will make their home in Pittsburgh. The absence of the bride from this city will be regretted by her many friends, with whom she was very popular. She is a handsome brunette, and wore a becoming ing attire of white laces and lace, which greatly enhanced her appearance. The only attendants were Miss Carrie Naylor and Mr. F. A. Wood, a brother of the bride, who acted as best man.

Bachman-Bedman. Another of the series of June weddings that took place yesterday, occurred at the Zane street M. E. church at 8 o'clock last evening, Rev. J. A. Fulerton, D. D., the pastor of the church, performing the ceremony. The contracting parties were Mr. Harry E. Bachman, the popular young producer and commission merchant, and Miss Lillie Redman, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Redman. The edifice presented a very handsome and animated appearance with the numerous floral decorations and the large attendance of relatives and friends. The attendants were Messrs. Albert Hibberd, William Bowers and John Kinghorn, ushers; Messrs. James Haines and

William Exley, groomsmen; Miss Ella De Lang, of Brownsville, Pa., and Miss Jessie Bachman, a cousin of the groom, bridesmaids.

A COUNTRY WEDDING.

A Newark Minister Takes Home a Beallsville Belle as Bride.

Last evening there occurred at Beallsville, a pretty little town in Monroe county, Ohio, one of the largest and most fashionable weddings ever witnessed in the county. Miss Laura Amelia Hill, well and favorably known in Wheeling and vicinity, was married to Rev. Clarence W. Hill, of Newark, Ohio.

The marriage took place at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Hill, one of the largest in town, at 7:30, in the presence of about one hundred and fifty persons. The wedding march was played by Prof. George Dewese, of Cleveland. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George W. Hill, of Bowling Green, uncle of the groom, the ring service being used.

The bride wore a rich cream silk, on train, trimmed with Van antique lace and pearls and carried roses. She was the picture of loveliness. The attendants were Miss Amanda, sister of the bride and her cousin, Miss Flora Hutchinson, of Beallsville, and Mr. E. L. Booth, of Bellaire. Miss Nina Hill Thornberry, of Beallsville, who is a niece of the bride, acted as a flower girl. The two lady attendants were attired in beautiful cream silk. The former carried cream roses and the latter pink roses.

The house was elaborately decorated with flowers and plants and the supper was an elegant one. Among the many presents was a fine piano, the gift of the parents of the bride.

The newly married couple leave early this morning for Piqua, where they will be tendered a reception. They will be at home at No. 60 East Church street, Newark, after June 15.

Johnston-Gibson.

At the residence of the bride's parents, near Key's Point, this county, Mr. W. K. Johnston, of Limestone, Marshall county, and Miss Mary E. Gibson were united in marriage in the presence of their friends and neighbors. Rev. R. G. Campbell performed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. W. R. Thompson, and the marriage was one of the pleasantest that has occurred in the vicinity for some time.

A Parkersburg Wedding.

The State Journal says: The marriage of Miss Lulu Kendall to Mr. James A. Bryan will occur to-morrow night at 8 o'clock. The attendants will be Mr. Will E. Stone, of Wheeling, and Miss Blanche Kendall, sister of the bride, and the ceremony will be said by Rev. S. Ernest Jones, assisted by Rev. S. E. Idleman.

O. W. L. BOYS' EXCURSION.

The Club and Lady Friends Go to Wellaburg on the Phillips.

One of the pleasantest excursions that ever left the wharf was that which left on the steamer R. E. Phillips last evening, bearing the members of the O. W. L. Club and their lady friends. The evening looked anything but promising until the leaving time, but a short time after the boat had started the clouds disappeared, and the full moon added to the splendor of the evening on the water.

About twenty couples were on board and the time was spent dancing to the music of the Opera House Orchestra. Tempting refreshments were served at intervals, and the excursion was altogether a grand success.

The boat went up as far as Wellaburg, where the party landed, and the gentlemen and their ladies took a short promenade through the town. The boat returned about half past one, with a crowd well pleased with their evening's fun.

The next event to be given by the club will be their second annual outing, which takes place at the park Tuesday, June 20, afternoon and evening.

Hood's Cures

Owe all My Health to It

Cured of Sick Vomiting Spells, Dizziness, Neuralgia, Weakness.

Mrs. S. M. Waters, Georgetown, D. C.

"I have often seen statements from people benefited by Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I feel that I can not do justice unless my testimony is added. I have been suffering with sick vomiting spells for three or four years, with giddiness, most of the time almost perfectly prostrated. I had no appetite, and suffered also with neuralgia in my head and eyes. I was treated for two years by the best physicians, but found no relief. They would tell me my condition was

Owing to my Age and that I must have patience. But after two years I thought: patience ceased to be a virtue. I was growing so weak I could not sleep at night. And when I was able to go out, I was afraid to go far from home. I was constantly tired; I could not go up or down stairs or raise my arms above my head without giddiness, and was so afraid to look up that I became accustomed to holding my head down.

At Last I was persuaded to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and after using four bottles, my improvement in health is wonderful. I candidly believe I am cured of all my ailments. My appetite is good, can eat at any time, am free from neuralgia and other troubles. I never felt so well or as stout as now since I was married, and I am mother of nine children. I have increased from 125 to 145 pounds, I am perfectly well, go out every day. When my friends ask what has made such an improvement I tell them I owe it to Hood's Sarsaparilla and that I am made over again." Mrs. S. M. WATERS, 1218 1/2 Street, N. W., Georgetown, D. C.
