

"NOT GUILTY."

Lizzie Borden Triumphant Acquitted by the Jury.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT APPLAUDED.

End of One of the Most Remarkable Trials on Record.

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE TO THE JURY

In Miss Borden's Favor, Showing Plainly That He Did Not Believe the State Had Made Out a Case.

New Bedford, Mass., June 20.—There was less of a jam outside the court house this morning, although at the opening of court there was as many people in the room as at any time during the session.

The jury was polled and the district attorney picked up the thread of his argument for the prosecution where he dropped it last night. He congratulated the jury on the near approach of the end.

THE MURDER OF THE OLD MAN. Bridget was doing her work and the old man was taking the last walk of his life.

THE DRESSER. Mr. Knowlton argued that the silk dress produced by the defendant was not the dress worn at the time of the murder, as shown by Mrs. Churchill, Doherty and Bowen.

JUDGE BLATCHFORD WORSE. He is weaker and his family have given up hope.

Long Sentence for a Burglar. New York, June 20.—Frank Davis, the burglar who robbed Bradley Martins and other fashionable residents of this city, and who for a long time baffled the efforts of the police to catch him, has been sentenced for twenty-four years and six months imprisonment.

Patent to West Virginians. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—Patents granted: Henry St. Otter and N. J. Fortney, of Wheeling, copyholder.

where she could get and not hear anything. In all your observation have you ever heard of an attempt to create an alibi which was more strange than the circumstances of this case?

THE JUDGE'S CHARGE. The court came in promptly at 1:45, after recess, every seat in the room being occupied as usual.

Recall the case, the court said, put one part with another and see whether you can conceive at this time this defendant had toward her step mother a feeling that could be properly called hatred.

It was understood by the court that the government claimed that an essential fact was embraced in the note matter; that she had made statements which she knew were false when she was making them.

What motive had defendant to invent a story like this? Would not it be natural for her to say simply that her stepmother had gone out to make a call? Was it a natural thing for her to say, to invent that which at any time might be brought against her?

The jury was asked to bear in mind the supposed facts that the defendant had no blood on her clothes when seen first, and there was nothing to connect her with the murder so far as outward appearances went.

At the conclusion of the charge the jury took the case. It was just 4:30 o'clock when the spectators, who had kept their seats patiently during the retirement of the jury, noticed a movement indicating their return.

AN AFFECTING SCENE. Miss Borden's head went down upon the rail in front of her and tears came where they had refused to come for many a long day as she heard the sweetest words ever poured into her willing ears.

JUDGE BLATCHFORD WORSE. He is weaker and his family have given up hope. WASHINGTON, D. C., June 20.—Judge Blatchford is weaker to-day. His family have almost given up hope, and it is not thought that he can live until the end of the week.

THE ELKS' REUNION. A Big Time at Detroit—The Wheeling Delegation—Nine Thousand in Attendance. Detroit, Mich., June 20.—The grand lodge of the B. P. O. Elks convened to-day at 10 a. m. at the Lyceum theatre, and the largest number of grand lodge delegates ever assembled.

OUR STATE BUILDING

At the World's Fair Formally and Appropriately Dedicated.

THE THIRTIETH ANNIVERSARY

Of the State Celebrated at Chicago. The Exercises in the Assembly Hall Followed by a Reception—Oration of the Day by Hon. A. W. Campbell. Two Thousand People Visit the Building—The Pleasant Home for World's Fair Visitors From This State.

Chicago, June 20.—The West Virginia state building was dedicated to-day, it being the thirtieth anniversary of the admission of the state into the union. Governor MacCorkie was down for a speech, but he found it impossible to be present and participate, much to the disappointment of many.

There is a big fight for grand exalted ruler between Percy Williams, of Brooklyn, and A. Aferly, of Louisville, with the odds in favor of Williams. There will be a special excursion for the Elks to Mt. Clemons to-morrow. There are between 8,000 and 9,000 of the antlers in this city to-night.

JR. O. U. A. M.

The National Council Meets in Detroit—Wheeling May Get It Next Year. Detroit, Mich., June 20.—The national council Jr. O. U. A. M. met in twenty-fifth annual session to-day.

Past National Councillor Bobbets was agreeably surprised to-night, by being presented with a number of valuable books. For the next place of meeting Wheeling seems to be in the lead, closely followed by Omaha, Ashville, North Carolina, is also in the field, but it seems almost certain that Wheeling will win.

National Representative Hall got in this morning from Cleveland, and also did ex-Mayor Seabright and Jim Richardson, who are here to take part in the Elks' convention.

MAY BE BLACKMAIL

The Case Against Charles Clayton, of Wirt County. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. PARKERSBURG, W. Va., June 20.—Charles Clayton, the Wirt county constable, who was arrested for sending obscene letters through the mail, has been practically cleared of the charge.

He was given a preliminary hearing before a United States commissioner, and the hearing, after lasting several hours, was continued until July 14. Clayton was released on his own recognizance. The case has attracted considerable interest. Clayton and his friends think it is a case of blackmail on somebody's part.

KNIGHTS OF GOLDEN EAGLE.

The State Castle in Session at Charleston. Progress of the Order. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer. CHARLESTON, W. Va., June 20.—The state grand castle Knights of the Golden Eagle is in session here. Twelve castles and three commanderies are represented.

Polson in Milk. HUNTINGTON, W. Va., June 20.—City Treasurer Scanlon, his wife and children, were stricken down with symptoms of poisoning at noon and not until late to-night were they pronounced out of danger by the attending physician.

EDWIN BOOTH'S WILL

The Bulk of His Estate Left to His Daughter—Bequests to Charities. New York, June 20.—The will of Edwin Thomas Booth, actor, who died June 7, was filled to-day. The will was executed on June 15, 1892.

After the conclusion of Mr. Campbell's address a series of short extemporaneous addresses, interspersed with music, were delivered by Captain Doyner, Presidents Palmer and Higginbotham, Judge Massey, of Delaware, and Governor Wyman, of Delaware, all highly eulogistic in tone of West Virginia and conceived in the happiest view.

AWFUL DISASTER.

Excursion Train Returning From the Suburban Race Wrecked.

A THOUSAND PEOPLE ON BOARD.

The Cars Derailed and Nine Passengers Killed and a Hundred Terribly Injured—Miraculous That the Fatality Was Not Greater—The Cars Crowded and Many People Standing—Many Women and Children Among Them—A Sad Ending of a Day's Pleasure—How the Accident Occurred.

New York, June 20.—A train on the Long Island railroad, upon which were about one thousand people returning from the Sheepshead Bay races, was derailed this evening in a tunnel a short distance from Parkville, L. I. Two persons were killed outright, seven died soon after being removed to the hospital and about one hundred were injured, many so seriously that they will not recover.

Those killed outright at the time of the accident were: Patrick Daly, a court officer of the Third district court, New York City; H. S. Pringle, New York. The following were removed to the Soney hospital, Brooklyn, and died soon afterwards: Henry Spink, marshal at Jefferson market police court, New York City; Robert Cutting, a policeman, New York.

Injured—Hiram A. Maynard, New York, leg injured; Nicholas Foster, New York, leg fractured; P. Johnson, New York, leg and body injured; Andrew Bartholomew, Sealey Creek, N. Y., left leg cut off; James Fitzsimmons, New York, foot cut off; Patrick Graham, New York, internal injuries; J. B. Childs, Elizabeth, N. J., face cut and left leg fractured; E. C. Hills, Times building, New York, hand and arm injured; Bronson J. McKenna, Central Park policeman, compound fracture of ankle; Frank J. Finn, New York, face cut and leg injured; Richard Flynn, New York, internal injuries; William Herring, Auburn, New York, leg fractured; James Bradford, Paterson, New Jersey, internal injuries; Patrick Gibbons, Brooklyn, bodily injuries; Charles Herring, New York, serious internal injuries; Henry Kuesche, New York, internal injuries; Hugh J. McGonigle, Philadelphia, cut and bruised on legs and arms; Philip Issues, New York, leg fractured; Frederick Schlemberg, New York, body injured; Quinby, internal injuries; unconscious; Addicks, New York, internal injuries, unconscious; W. contained in a pocketbook, which he carried on his person. Just as he did so one of the men seized him by the throat, bent him backward and proffered a revolver at his head, while one of the other men threw red pepper into the eyes of the jeweler. Relieving him of the diamonds and his watch and chain they quietly walked out and all trace of them was lost.

THE SUBURBAN RACE

Another Surprise—The Favorite, Lamp-lighter, Not In It—Lowlander the Winner. New York, June 20.—The suburban handicap of 1893, the tenth in the history of the event, was a most grievous disappointment to the turf loving public. Lamp-lighter, their ideal, who looked upon as a sure victor in the great race, was vanquished.

There was no crowding or jostling, as was the case in the Brooklyn handicap. The field was comparatively small, and every jockey rode to win in as fair a manner as possible. Lowlander, by Lowland Chief, dam Restless, a horse that has had rather an erratic career, won the race from end to end. He went out at the fall of the flag, set the pace to suit himself and won almost as he pleased in the fast time of 2:04.

Terrifier, father Bill Daly's candidate, was second, three-quarters of a length away, while Lamp-lighter, the even money favorite, that shrewd turfmen said could not lose, was third, four lengths back. Lowlander was at ten to one against in the betting, and all kinds of fancy prices could be obtained for the chances of Terrifier. The race was worth $18,000 to the winner, $5,000 to second horse and $2,000 to the third. The winner is owned by Bookmaker Fred Lowe, and besides the rich stake he netted many thousands of dollars in bets by the victory of his horse.

The horses in the order in which they finished, their weight and jockeys follows: Lowlander, 105, McDermott; Terrifier, 95, J. Lamley; Lamp-lighter, 129, Sims; Dr. Hasbrouck, 115, Bergen; Banquet, 130, Lamley; The Payer, 112, Overton; Mars, 112, Littlefield; Idesleigh, 105, Hamilton; Pessara, 115, Taral.

Base Ball Yesterday.

Cincinnati—Cincinnati 1; Louisville 3; earned runs, 1 and 3; errors, Cincinnati 1; hits, 7 and 9; pitchers, Sullivan and Hemming, umpire, Seward. Pittsburgh—Pittsburgh 6; Cleveland 10; earned runs, 1 and 5; errors, 3 and 6; hits, 10 and 14; home run, Childs; pitchers, Ehret and Clarkson; umpire, Gaffney.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

A revolutionary outbreak is reported from Barcelona. Sir Richard Webster, counsel for Great Britain, resumed his argument before the Bering sea tribunal yesterday.

Slight earthquake shocks were felt at Augusta, Ga., Charleston, S. C., and Savannah, Ga., at 11 o'clock last night. No damage. Cornell won the first of the series of college races on the Thames at New London, Conn. The time was 10:09, a record breaker.

In Madrid a dynamite bomb was exploded near the house of ex-Premier Castells. The dynamite was killed. Great excitement prevails throughout the city. Harvey Church, the West Virginian who killed himself in Chicago Monday, was a graduate of the Charleston Keely Institute, and brother of Mrs. H. M. Bond, of that city.

The state department will not interfere in the case of the Armenians condemned to death in Turkey, as they are not American citizens, and the sultan made reparations for the attack on the American college, thus closing the incident.
