The Wise Residence Sold.

Yesterday Real Estate Agent Haller sold for George Wise, executor, the residence of the late Jacob Wise, at the corner of Main and Eighth streets. Mrs. Kate Moffat bought it in at $8,000. It fronts thirty-three feet on Main street and runs back ninety-three feet on Eighth.

A Birthday Surprise.

Last Friday was the fifty-sixth birthday of County Commissioner Jacob Kindelberger, and he received a genuine surprise in the way of a call from about sixty friends, who brought well filled baskets with them. All had a fine time, and left Mr. Kindelberger some valuable presents, including a handsome large easy chair.

For a Nameless Crime.

Sam Cole, of the South Side, was arrested last night by Officer Trischler on a warrant issued by Squire Gillespie. The charge is that he committed a brutal assault on a seven-year-old boy named Clyde Farrell, who is said to be of weak intellect. The complainant was the boy's brother. Cole gave bond for his appearance for a hearing on Friday.

In the Poor House.

The county commissioners' committee on poor house and farm met yesterday and transacted the routine business of the month. The report of the superintendent for July showed 71 inmates. Of these 47 were white males, 20 white females, 2 colored males and 2 colored females. One white female child was born; one white male, one white female and one colored female died.

Another Small Strike.

Yesterday the men employed in repairing the space between the street railway rails on Market street and at other points struck. They claimed that they had not received all the wages due at the last pay day, and that the balance was promised Monday. Not being forthcoming at that time, they quit work yesterday morning. A little ripple of excitement was caused by the affair on the street.

Clean Out the Creek.

Now that the water in the creek is so low, the city authorities should take the opportunity to remove the old timbers, debris, and mud at the Main street stone bridge. This should have been done when the bridge was completed. The place is so unsightly, and every day it is allowed to remain in its present condition adds to the reproach to the authorities. The matter is the theme of a great deal of earnest and just criticism.

The Weather in July.

Mr. C. Schnepf's record of the weather for the past month shows that it rained ten days, was fair on sixteen and clear on five. The warmest day was the 15th—90 in the shade—and the coolest the 11th—60 degrees. The average temperature was a little higher than in the same month last year, being 77.8, as against 76.3 in '92. The rainfall was decidedly less than last year, when the gauge showed 6.07 inches, to only 2.36 this year. With all this there were seven thunderstorms last month.

Connors gets Eight Years.

In the criminal court yesterday, Judge Jordan on the bench, Anthony Connors, convicted jointly with John Sutton of robbing John Bethel, withdrew his motion for a stay to take an appeal. He goes to the penitentiary for eight years. Sutton's case was continued until Thursday. His attorney is Colonel Arnett, while S. O. Boyce was Connors's. The decision of William Groves's motion for a new trial will also be rendered on Thursday. It was postponed from yesterday owing to the inability of Groves's attorney, Capt. Doyner, to be present.

A WHEELING CONGREGATION

Remembered in Bernard Marks's Will—Its Provisions.

The will of the late Bernard Marks, who was found dead in his bed in Allegheny last week, was filed yesterday for probate, says Tuesday's Pittsburgh Post. It was found inside the ledger in his store. It directs that he be buried beside his wife and have some kind of a headstone. All his liabilities are to be paid, and of the balance $100 is given to the congregation in Wheeling, W. Va., for prayers for himself and wife, $100 to the widows and orphans' asylum in Baltimore, and $300 to the Guskus orphanage for a cot in the female department to be named the Hannah Marks cot and to be used by the one most advanced in the Hebrew language. The residue is to be divided equally between his nieces, Clara, Nora, Helena, Binny, Francy and Sibella, and "the girls of Eva Jonas and the one of Setta Mendal, of Cleveland." His nephew, Joseph S. Kauffman, is appointed executor. This will is dated September 15, 1882.

To Cleanse the System

Effectually yet gently, when constive or bilious or when the blood is impure or sluggish, to permanently cure habitual constipation, to awaken the kidneys and liver to a healthy activity, without irritating or weakening them, to dispel headaches, colds or fevers use Syrup of Figs.

CHARLES M'COY'S DEATH.

The Coroner's Inquiry Concluded—No New Facts.

Yesterday afternoon County Coroner Schultz concluded his inquest into the manner and cause of the death of Charles J. McCoy, who was killed on the P. W. & Ky. railroad track north of the passenger station Monday night, but no new light was thrown on the circumstances surrounding the fatal accident. McCoy was seen going up the track sometime before any train passed. The next son of him was when two small boys found his dead body lying beside the track. Only the engine of the Ohio River train had passed, so that it evidently killed him.

One of the boys called to the engineer and inquired: "Is this man sick?" Investigation showed that he was dead. The coroner, after hearing all the witnesses could tell, issued a burial certificate giving the cause of death as "railroad accident."

It seems strange that a tunnel boss, a man who had been in as many dangerous situations as he, whose employment was extra hazardous, should finally meet his death in such a way.

The funeral will take place from the residence of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Mary Tucker, at 74 Sixteenth street, at 8:30 a. m. to-morrow. Requiem mass will be celebrated at the Cathedral at 9.

Minor Accidents.

Last evening Mr. W. R. Donaldson, the carriage manufacturer, was driving on the Island, when the horse ran off, and he was thrown out. He received a severe cut over his eye, dislocated and cut a finger on his left hand, and injured his back bone painfully. He will be lame for some time. Drs. McGrail and Myers attended to his injuries.

A four-year-old daughter of Frank Taylor, of East Wheeling, while visiting on the Island Monday, fell and broke her right arm just above the wrist. Dr. Reed set it.

William Willets, foreman of the gang driving piles on the creek mouth for the Powkey company, fell Monday. He did not think he was badly hurt, but yesterday he was suffering so that he had to go to his home at Seio, Ohio. He will be laid up some time.

SERIOUS CUTTING AFFRAY.

Charles Nitzelt, Status Tom Ayres, and is Sorry for It.

A serious cutting affray took place at the C. L. & W. depot in St. Clairsville last evening. Charles Nitzelt stabbed Tom Ayres on the right side above the fourth rib with a barlow knife. Both parties had been drinking. Ayres was shaking a broom at some children, when Nitzelt asked, "Why don't you take the shovel?"

This Ayres did, saying, "Charlie, keep back. Nitzelt then drew the knife, and Ayres struck him with the shovel. He then started down the railroad, laughing. He ran about fifty feet, and then stumbled and fell.

Nitzelt kicked Ayres in the back, and stabbed him with the knife. Dr. West was called and found Ayres bleeding badly. The doctor says the wound may prove fatal. Nitzelt stayed with Ayres and tried to stop the bleeding until the doctor came, and then went up town and gave himself up.

Both men work at Boggs's mines. Nitzelt has but one arm and has a family. Ayres has no family. The parties have been intimate friends. Nitzelt is feeling very bad over the affair.

"I was prostrated with a severe bilious complaint," writes Erastus Southworth, of Bath, Me. "After vainly trying a number of remedies, I was finally induced to take Ayer's Pills. I had scarcely taken two boxes when I was completely cured."

The Boys' Missionary Band, of the Stone Church, at Elm Grove, will give a musical entertainment and ice cream festival at the Elm Grove Town Hall, on Thursday evening next, August 3. The West Alexander Band will furnish the music and F. W. Baumer will place a Krakauer Bros.' piano in the hall for that evening, so you may expect good music, good refreshments and a good time if you go, and at the same time encourage the boys in a good work.

I GAVE a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy to a family of ten persons and it cured them all. They say it was a good medicine. A. L. DENN, Cowen's Ford, Meclenberg Co., N. C.
