

A FINE MEETING HELD

At the Wheeling Chamber of Commerce Last Night

TO DISCUSS THE BAD SITUATION

In Reference to the Glass Industry in Wheeling—Whether to Build a new Factory or buy the Old Ones the Question—A Committee Appointed to Confer with the United States Glass Company.

There was some misunderstanding about the meeting to be held in the chamber of commerce last night in the interest of Wheeling's threatened glass industry, but there was a large attendance nevertheless.

Soon after the meeting was called to order there was scarcely a vacant chair in the room. Mr. P. B. Dobbins presided. There was a free interchange of views. The opinion was unanimous that the United States Glass Company will not run its Wheeling factories this winter, if ever again. It was also unanimously agreed that Wheeling must not lose this important industry, and business men present said they would not lose it without an effort to save it.

It was decided to ascertain whether the two plants can be bought, and at what price to consider this information in connection with the cost of new plants and then determine whether to buy the old or to build new. Some of those present were strongly in favor of building new plants. Messrs. P. B. Dobbins, Alex. T. Young and C. B. Hart were appointed a committee to confer with the United States Glass Company and report if possible at a meeting to be held at the same place next Friday evening.

Michael Owens, a graduate of the Hobbs glasshouse, who had charge of the Libby exhibit at the World's Fair, made a strong speech. Mr. Owens spoke of the fame of Wheeling glass, said he had no personal interest to serve in the matter, but his pride in his old home and his knowledge of what had been done here in the glass business made him willing to put some money in the business here and he could be counted on to subscribe to the stock.

It was shown that the two glasshouses paid out in Wheeling, chiefly for wages, the sum of $114,000 a year, all of which will be lost if the industry must go. The meeting was a great success and seemed to insure the success of the undertaking. The money paid out when the glass works run was stated as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Item and Amount. Includes Glass workers, Mold makers, Engravers, Cutters, Packers, Girls, Boys, Superintendent, Managers, Mixers, and office hands, Teachers, Laborers, Carpenters, Painters, Blacksmiths, etc.

Total $114,000. The committee expects to go to Pittsburgh Thursday, and another meeting will be held Friday night to hear its report.

FINE SPARRING EXHIBITION.

Good Sport at Elm Grove last Night and a Good Crowd.

For some time past it has been known that the members of a pugilistic club of gentlemen would exhibit their skill with their fists last night at Elm Grove, the proceeds for the benefit of their tutor. The event came off, and there was a good crowd to witness it. There were several very game contests, which entertained the audience highly. Considerable science was shown by gentlemen whom the general public would not believe capable of it if they were named, and as most of them are a little averse to having their names published in such a connection it is perhaps as well to let their friends identify them by their garb of mourning about their eyes and their other relics of the combat. The professor and his star contestant got warmed up a little, and the professor pounded some of the enthusiasm of the other man. The evening's sport is said to have been far ahead of that afforded by any of the fake fights in this vicinity this year.

Master and Man.

Realism on the stage is getting to be one of the important features in successful dramatic productions of the day, and it would seem the limit had been reached for novelty in that line. The latest bit of realistic production, and one which is even more sensational and striking than any yet seen, is the introduction of Carlton iron works, the stage being fashioned, and the effect is weirdly picturesque. Independent of this there are other beautiful scenes introduced in "Master and Man," which will be at the Grand Opera House Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

"Niobe."

"Niobe," Abbott & Tilston's great laughing success is in its fourth season. It should take many seasons to run out so good a thing. It can be seen over and over with continued, if not increasing delight, something that can be said of very few modern plays. So long as "Niobe" remains in the hands of its present managers and artists equal to those to whom the parts are now given, it should never die. It should, indeed, become a standard legitimate success. "Niobe" will appear at the Opera house on Thursday and Friday, and Friday matinee, November 9 and 10.

Lillian Lewis's Engagement.

Lillian Lewis will be seen in a production of importance next Saturday, matinee and night, November 11, at the Opera House. The novelty will be a military drama called "Lady Lil," by Lawrence Marston, who has been an actor and a manager as well as a playwright. The action of "Lady Lil" is based upon incidents of the war between Austria and Prussia in 1866. The scenes are laid in Vienna and on the Austrian frontier, and the story tells of the wrongs of Lady Colomba Lil, a circus rider. At the matinee "Credit Lorraine" will be given.

HARVEY MEYER was locked up yesterday by Officer Duch on a plain drunk charge.

THE last will of Augusta Henrietta Meissner was yesterday admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded.

YESTERDAY afternoon a number of the cars were delayed on the steel bridge on account of a broken down hay wagon.

FRANK SWIN was right in it last night—in the lockup. Officer Moran put him there for being drunk on the street.

PEOPLE should not confuse Jacob Linkert, the Fulton wife beater, with Fred Linkert, the butcher. They are different kinds of people.

WILLIAM WILSON paid $5 and costs for disorderly conduct and John O. Barnard $1 and costs for drunkenness in yesterday's police court.

LITTLE Edward Schell's pony scared at the chemical engine yesterday afternoon, and threw the rider, who escaped with a few scratches on his face.

JOHN RIGNER, an old gentleman living at 34 Thirty-seventh street, and well known all over the city, is lying at his home seriously ill with a complication of diseases.

LAST evening at the Fourth Street M. E. church, Mr. J. Elwood Hughes addressed the bible history class interestingly and instructively. The meeting was well attended.

YESTERDAY afternoon Mr. K. Hoge, the bicycle and hardware dealer, was run into by a horse and wagon at the McLure corner, and covered with mud. He was not seriously hurt, however.

NOTICES have been sent out that the sales department of the internal revenue office will be closed from 10 o'clock Thursday noon until the following Monday. Stamps enough to last three days will have to be purchased by cigar dealers on Thursday.

A MEETING of the council committee on streets, alleys and grades was called for yesterday afternoon to examine into a grade on Twenty-third street and look at a disputed street location on the Island. No quorum was obtained, but the members looked at the points in dispute.

PENSION RECORDS.

Operation of the Office—The Card Method of Keeping the Files.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—The annual reports of the record and pension office of the war department points out the satisfactory operation of the new constitution of the office. Current work in the office is kept closely up to date. Cases received and disposed of during the year were 203,704; those on hand June 30, 1893, none. The cases received show a falling off over the previous year. Many cases are arising under the act of July 27, 1892, to pension survivors of various Indian wars, the principal labor being to ascertain whether the organizations to which applicants belonged were in the military service of the United States, so as to give them a pensionable status.

During the last fiscal year, the individual military records of officers and enlisted men in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Indiana have been completed according to the index record card system and work began on the records of Illinois. The latter will be completed in a few weeks. This leaves only the veteran reserve corps and other United States volunteers besides the post detachment and miscellaneous rolls to be completed. The records of the revolution and war of 1812, which an act of Congress of July 27, 1892, required should be indexed, have not yet been transferred from the treasury and interior departments. The determination of the military status of the several classes of troops has been an important feature of the carding of the record. During the fiscal year 4,421,488 index record cards were filed. This makes a total of 35,099,785 index record cards so filed that of any one individual soldier can readily be found.

Leading Citizens Indicted.

KOKOMO, Ind., Nov. 6.—The Howard county grand jury has just been dismissed after a six days' session in which it indicted half a dozen prominent citizens of Kokomo on account of their alleged connection with an attempt to bar and feather M. L. Garrigus on the night of July 1. Ten indictments in all were returned. Among the most prominent indicted are Council H. Stewart, W. E. Ruddle, at the head of the Marion art glass company; T. B. Hodgen and James E. Bruff; the latter a leading architect. Garrigus and seriously injured, but the tar and feather project failed.

Notes for the G. A. R.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 6.—At a meeting of the Pittsburgh Passenger Agents' Association to-day a resolution was adopted promising to bring the matter of reduced rates to the annual encampment of the G. A. R., in this city next year before the Central Traffic Association, with the recommendation that the rate be one cent a mile. As two of the largest systems in the association support the resolution, it will likely prevail.

Immigration Statistics.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—Treasury department figures show that 34,519 immigrants arrived in the United States during September, and that 430,517 arrived during the nine months ending September 30; 476,846 arrived for the same nine months of 1892. Austro-Hungary furnished 3,675 of this month's aggregate; Germany, 7,621; Russia (except Poland), 3,257; Sweden and Norway, 4,053; and the United Kingdom, 11,257.

MHS Resume.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 6.—The Westinghouse Air Brake Company, employing 1,500 men, resumed operations in full to-day, after a long idleness. The Pittsburgh Forge and Iron Company, Black Diamond Steel Works, and Dilworth Porter & Co.'s spike mill were running full in all departments to-day for the first time in several months.

COULDN'T FACE A FAILURE.

Arthur E. Hill, of Parkersburg, Shoots Himself in a Fit of Despondency.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Nov. 6.—Arthur Edward Hill, manager of the big dry goods firm of Harrison & Hill, committed suicide while lying in bed at 8 o'clock this morning. After his wife went down stairs to meet the postman, she heard a sound like a gas explosion, and ran upstairs to see if Hill had heard it, and she found him dead, with a hole in his right temple. The tragedy was a profound shock to the community. Troubles weighted heavy and a crash was imminent, and rather than face a failure he had killed himself. Papers for an assignment had been drawn up. It was an honorable failure, due to hard times. He was thirty-nine years of age, and leaves a beautiful young wife and two children. He left no letters, and never gave the slightest hint of the desperate thoughts in his mind. It is thought his pride and sensitiveness over a failure prompted the deed. Mr. Hill was an energetic, well respected and honorable business man. He was connected with Frank Harrison for twenty-three years, during which time Harrison was tremendously successful with large dry goods stores in Wheeling, Parkersburg, Charleston, Huntington, Gayandotte, Gallipolis, New Lexington, Ironton, Nelsonville, Ashland, Cumberland and several other places at the same time. No inquest was held.

New Racing Association.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Nov. 6.—A large number of our most solid business men met here to-night and organized a racing association. An enthusiastic meeting was held and everyone present subscribed for stock, which is limited to $40,000 in $100 shares. A mile track will be built on what are probably the finest grounds in the state. The association expects to make Charleston the racing center of West Virginia, and even of a larger territory.

A Big Fire Averted.

PARKERSBURG, W. VA., Nov. 6.—A stable in the rear of Hotel Bienerhassett burned last night and a big fire was averted by the prompt and energetic action of firemen. One horse was burned; loss $800.

New Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 6.—Postmasters appointed: A. L. Fleisher, vice A. J. Gaskins, removed, Flint, Doddridge county; W. G. Dickinson, vice W. T. Hamilton, resigned, Hawk's Nest, Fayette county.

Fraudulent Tammany Voters.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—Supt. Byrnes said this morning that altogether less than 450 warrants had been issued for the arrest of persons suspected of falsifying out of the total registering of more than 265,000. These, he said, were only suspects, and he considered this to be a very small percentage considering that so close a watch had been kept by so many different parties. A large number of these suspects do not live at the addresses from which they registered and gave the names of Roswell P. Flower, Whitelaw Reid, Chauncey M. Depew, Cornelius Vanderbilt, Robt. Ingersoll and names of many other such prominent persons. These persons will be arrested at the polls if they attempt to vote.

Will Continue the Fight.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., Nov. 6.—President Garland of the Amalgamated Association of Iron and Steel Workers, stated to-day that notwithstanding the settlement of the wages question with the Finishers' union, the Amalgamated Association will continue the fight against manufacturers for the scale and will accept no reduction.

Six and Death.

DALLAS, TEXAS, Nov. 6.—Last night Charles Martin, one of the wealthiest, if not the wealthiest, young men in the city, shot his mistress, Patty Cole, three times, killing her. He then shot himself fatally, dying this morning.

Longfellow is Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. 6.—Longfellow the king of the turf, is dead. This morning the old horse, who has been a mere shell for several years, succumbed to the ravages of age. Longfellow was foaled in 1867 and was 26 years old. As a race horse he had few equals.

Dead in His Cell.

BERLIN, Nov. 6.—A dispatch from Hanover says that Lieutenant Von Meyrick, who was most prominently connected with the gambling fraud trials and who was recently convicted and sentenced to four years' imprisonment, was found dead in his cell to-day, having committed suicide by hanging. Lieutenant Von Meyrick was a distinguished officer of the Landwehr cavalry and was decorated with the order of the Red Eagle.

Time to Interfere.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—T. P. O'Connor, M. P., in the Sun, urges the government to interfere in the coal strike, saying that the failure of the negotiations is simply a message of starvation and despair to hundreds of thousands of people. "We are face to face with a great national emergency and in danger of a great national crisis. It is time for the nation to interfere, as the coal owners have declared war against the nation."

A Heavy Failure.

LONDON, Nov. 6.—A public examination of the affairs of Hallett & Co., navy agents and bankers, show liabilities amounting to $725,000. The Duke of Edinburgh, the Duke of New York, Prince Henry, of Battenberg, and most of the prominent naval officers are among the unsecured creditors. William Hallett attributes his failure to financing the Dalzell News Agency to the extent of over $200,000.

Ex-Congressman Buckner Stricken.

MEXICO, Mo., Nov. 6.—While at the table yesterday ex-Congressman Buckner suffered a stroke of paralysis. His condition is regarded as extremely critical.

The Best Plaster.

Dampen a piece of flannel with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bind it on over the seat of pain. It is better than any plaster. When the lungs are sore such an application on the chest and another on the back, between the shoulder blades will often prevent pneumonia. There is nothing so good for a lame back or a pain in the side. A sore throat can nearly always be cured in one night by applying a flannel bandage dampened with Pain Balm.

A LABOR SCHEME

To Provide a Method by Which Wage Workers Can Live Cheaper.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., Nov. 6.—Delegates from twenty labor organizations in this city met to-day to discuss some method by which the workmen could live cheaper. The wages of the men have been cut down from 20 to 40 per cent, and it was the sense of the meeting that landlords, grocers, butchers and other merchants should make some cut in prices. A co-operative scheme was strongly urged at first, but it was decided to appoint one member from each organization represented, the whole to constitute a committee whose duty it will be to visit the merchants and make a canvass to see which firm will make the greatest discount to the workmen represented by the labor organizations. It was decided to select one grocer, one butcher, one clothing man, etc., and throw all the trade to them; provided, of course, that they will make a reasonable discount. In case this is not done, then the men will start their co-operative store.

Contrary to Law.

NEW YORK, Nov. 6.—There is reason to believe that the vessels of Peixoto's fleet will not be allowed to leave port when the time for sailing arrives. It is now rumored that Collector Kilbreth is quite likely to refuse El Cid and other ships clearance papers on the grounds that the crews have been secured from American sailors and with the express purpose of going to Brazil to fight. This is contrary to the United States laws.

A Fatal Struggle.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Nov. 6.—While struggling for the possession of a revolver to-day John Minor and his wife, Louisa, fell to the floor, the woman underneath. In this position she succeeded in firing the pistol, the ball entering near Minor's heart, killing him instantly. The wife is under arrest. Minor is said to have been supporting another woman.
