

A PROBABLE STRIKE!

Ohio River Railroad Announces a Ten Percent Reduction

IN THE WAGES OF ITS EMPLOYEES

The Latter Say They will Not Accept the Cut but Will Go Out on a Strike. Claims of the Company and the Men—Wages Said Not to Have Been Up to the Standard—Grievance Committee's Act.

The Ohio River Railroad Company yesterday served notice on its employees, numbering between 500 and 600, that on January 1, next Monday, there would be a general all around cut in wages of 10 per cent. It was said that this cut applied to every employe on the road, but the INTELLIGENCE learns that the passenger conductors are exempted, and their wages remain what they are now. The reason for this is that the passenger trainmen did not join in the demand made two years ago that wages be raised. At that time the wages of all employes were raised 10 per cent, excepting the passenger conductors, who, as stated, did not join in the almost general demand.

President Thompson makes the claim that the reduction is caused by the general hard times, which have affected the railroad just as it hurt other industries. A trainman seen last night laughed at that assertion, saying that the road is now doing as good a business as it ever did; the local freight business, he claimed, is better than ever. But as it may, the employes seem to have decided to resist the cut, and declare they will tie up the road "as quick as a wink."

The employes in all branches are organized, including the engineers, under the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, the firemen in the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen, conductors in the Order of Railway Conductors, and trainmen the Order of Railway Trainmen. Meetings of these organizations have already been held, with the purpose in view to resist the cut.

Yesterday the engineers' grievance committee waited on the officials of the road, and to-day the employes in other branches will wait on the officials. The employes profess to know that the officials of the road will knuckle down, and drop the attempt at a cut. "The men also declare that the road never paid standard wages, until the 10 per cent advance two years ago."

Some of the local employes have received a notice of the reduction, but others have not heard of it officially. All will know when the pay car comes around on the first of next month, when the cut goes into effect.

Madama Zolla in Opera. Concerning the singing of Madama Zolla, of this city, in the opera of "Don Giovanni" at the Metropolitan opera house Wednesday evening, the New York Herald says:

When a singer is called upon at the last moment to sing so difficult and thankless a role as that of Donna Elvira it is eminently fit to make allowances. Considering these trying circumstances it may be admitted that Miss Kate Zolla acquitted herself with something like authority. She has been a stranger to the stage these last three years, yet she moved after the first feeling of nervousness was overcome with perfect freedom and asserted herself musically like a woman who knew not only her own notes but a good portion of the score besides. In the lower and medium register her voice is more agreeable than its upper tones, which sounded a trifle thin and harsh.

Powell, the Magician. Powell, the magician, who will appear at the Opera House January 1, with his wonderfully clever and mystifying entertainment, is a gentleman of rare mental grace, culture and refinement. At the age of twenty he was graduated from the Pennsylvania Military Academy, with the degree of C. E. and the rank of lieutenant, and for three years occupied the chair of higher mathematics in his alma mater. The close application to his studies made inroads upon his health, and, possessing from boyhood a genius for the study of magic, he decided to travel at the advice of his physician, and devote himself exclusively to the study of the art and the invention of scientific illusions.

Furnish and capricious appetites are best regulated by the use of Ayer's Cathartic Pills. They do not debilitate, by excessive stimulation; but cause the stomach, liver and bowels to perform their functions properly. As an after-dinner pill, they are unequalled.

Nervous Prostration

"I broke down in health, lost my appetite, had a bad cough, and suffered from nervous prostration. I read of Hood's Sarsaparilla and sent for a bottle of the medicine. After using it three days my nerves became quieted and I regained an appetite. In a short time I was able to work, and before long my health was attending to my household duties. I am now in better health than for years." Mrs. Emma Huss, Reservoir, N. C. Get HOOD'S Hood's Pills not only, but promptly and efficiently, on the liver and bowels. 25c.

CIGAR SHOP BURNED.

A Bad Fire on the South Side Yesterday Morning. A fire alarm was rung in just after 4 o'clock yesterday morning on account of a blaze in Hannon Bros' cigar store, on Chapline street south of Twenty-sixth. The origin of the blaze is not known, but it is suspected to have been the work of an incendiary. The blaze had made such headway before the alarm was given that it could not be put out until the store was gutted and the flames had burned through into a dwelling house adjoining, where Chief Healy put them out with a hand extinguisher. The loss is estimated at $800, and there was an insurance of $500.

At midnight the floor will be cleared, and the new year will be ushered in with dancing to Meister's music. TIN SEAL BREAD

More in Demand Than Ever Before. We had thought that after Christmas there would be a lull in the baking business; a kind of reaction was expected. It appeared that every boy and girl in the city was collecting Tin Seals in order to get a doll or a penknife for Christmas. Naturally we thought that the wonderful enthusiasm among our little friends would pass away with the old year. Then the idea had gotten abroad that Tin Seal Bread was to be withdrawn. All this made the manager of the Wheeling Bakery just a little anxious about his very novel scheme to sell bread which he intended to continue throughout the entire winter. Very late in the fall he bought 1,000,000 Tin Seals and an immense number of dolls and penknives, making every arrangement for an immense trade, which promised to surpass his fondest anticipation. Over 400 presents had been drawn by his little friends before Christmas. But, in place of growing cold, the interest is becoming more intense every day. Every person in the city is determined to have Tin Seal Bread. They say it is the best bread they ever ate. The great eagerness that seems to possess every boy and girl to complete their collection of 100 Tin Seals is simply astonishing. Yesterday 2,300 of the little souvenirs were presented at the office of the bakery, and just twenty-three boys and girls were astonished at the beautiful presents they received. We take pleasure in giving the names and addresses: Willie Cole, Twenty-sixth and Jacob streets; Robert Vance, 2322 Main street; Harry Beck, Martin's Ferry; Hupp McCulley, 1225 Eoff street; George Amber, Clacker, 2708 Eoff street; Spencer Hosteter, Clawson; Annie Morris, 50 Forty-third street; Annie Sprick, 4222 Jacob street; Bertha Striff, 1149 Park street; William E. Walls, Parkside, W. Va.; J. W. Irwin, Fairmont, W. Va.; Minnie Parscale, Glen's Run, W. Va.; Eula Black, Burton, W. Va.; Edwin Most, 156 South Broadway; Rena May Hohlitzel, 133 Virginia street; Lillian Hoffman, Bellaire, Ohio; Pearl Barrett, Martin's Ferry, Ohio; Wylie Parsons, Etnaville, Ohio; Philip Sewarid, Burlington, Ohio; Willametta Strela, Bridgeport, Ohio; Lilly Stewart, Benwood, W. Va.; Grace James, Bellaire, Ohio; Ella Moran, 518 Main street. All seals are promptly destroyed as soon as presented at the bakery. Please hurry in the seals; nothing gives us more pleasure than to present these beautiful dolls and penknives to our deserving little friends.

Open House and Good Cheer.

According to the time-honored custom the Young Men's Christian Association will throw open its doors Monday, January 1, and invite the young men of the city to partake of its hospitality. The usual New Year's Reception will be held from 4 to 10 o'clock. There will be entertainment of different character during these hours. As heretofore the refreshments will be in charge of the ladies of the Union Benevolent society. Young ladies will assist the reception committee of the association to receive the callers. Mayer's orchestra will furnish music and there will be a gymnastic exhibition in the afternoon. At 8 o'clock there will be an entertainment for which an attractive programme has been provided. The young men may be accompanied by their lady friends in the evening.
