Water rents now due and are subject to a discount of 10 per cent if paid before January 1. Not taking advantage of this discount is equivalent to borrowing money at the rate of 40 per cent per annum. Can you afford this?

Died of her Injuries.

About two weeks ago Mrs. Sells, wife of Lon Sells, the Bridgeport ice dealer, fell at her home and injured herself internally. Inflammation set in, and she died last evening of her injuries.

Watch Meeting.

A watch meeting for young men will be held at the Young Men's Christian Association building on Sunday night from 10 o'clock to midnight. There will be a change of topic and leader each half hour. The service will be an interesting one. All men are invited to attend.

Stolen Overcoat Recovered.

The other day E. R. Williams had an overcoat stolen from Mossgraw's hotel at Steubenville. He suspected the thief had come here, and he came to Wheeling and notified the police. Last evening Officer Scalley found Frank Kinley, a colored man, in front of the Opera House, with the coat on, and he was arrested and locked up and Mr. Williams notified.

Mackintoshes too Cheap.

Yesterday Officer West found a man named Leroy offering to sell two ladies' fine mackintoshes for a dollar apiece. This aroused suspicion and the man was locked up and the coats left at police headquarters for identification if they had been stolen. One is a plaid and the other a light grey. If no evidence can be found by this morning that the man stole them he will be arraigned for peddling without a license.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

December 16, by John and Eric Blaney, executors of Joseph Blaney, deceased, to Susan, wife of George W. Guy, for $8,000, two hundred acres of ground on the waters of Middle Wheeling creek, near the Pennsylvania state line.

December 20, by James Kennedy, jr., to William W. Kennedy, for $1,000, one-half interest in the north half of lot 1 in square 2 in Waters' addition to the city.

Reckless Kind of Business.

One of the sights on Main street yesterday afternoon for thirty minutes was a wagon load of powder in charge of a boy, who left the horse unhitched and went off some distance skylarking with some of his friends. The powder was without any cover. At the time there were twelve teams on the half square, eight of which were unhitched. The boy in charge of the powder wagon must have had great confidence in the strength of the powder kegs, in case the horse ran away and "busted them all to smith." How safe were the people on that half square? There was about 600 pounds of powder in the load.

Not the Agency's Fault.

It seems necessary to explain that in the article in the INTELLIGENCER of Thursday about the insurance on the Whitaker mill fire no reflection on Major Alderson's insurance agency was made or intended. Though all that insurance was placed through that agency, yet only two companies represented by J. C. Alderson & Co. were to be on this risk at the time of the fire, and they are not the cause of the delay in the adjustment of this loss. Major Alderson has been in the insurance business in this city nearly a quarter of a century, and during all this time his agency has been noted for the prompt and satisfactory adjustment of all losses. The blame rests elsewhere.

Coffee

is rendered more wholesome and palatable if instead of using milk or cream you use the Gail Borden Eagle Brand Condensed Milk, or if you prefer it unsweetened, then use Borden's Peerless Brand Evaporated Cream.

New Boarding House.

Mr. Howard Runyon, late chef of the McClure House, will open a first-class boarding house at No. 1008 Main street, known as the Old Grant House. Mr. Runyon has been a cook ever since he was a boy, and has worked in some of the best hotels in the country and thoroughly understands the business and solicits the patronage of the public. Everybody will find things first-class in the eating line, and at moderate prices. Call at this place of business, No. 1008 Main street.

To be in line with the times, the Wheeling Bridge Co. have adopted penny foot toll for males and will allow females to pass free.
