THE LAST WEEK

Of the Tariff Debate in the House Begins To-day.

EVENTFUL DAYS ARE PROMISED.

The Democratic Opposition to the Bill Will Develop.

THE COAL AND IRON SCHEDULES

And the Sugar Question Will Be Fought Bitterly—Republican and Democratic Opponents of Free Coal and Iron, If They Combine, Will Make the Vote Close—The Internal Revenue Features—The Federal Elections and Bond Issue Subjects of Senate Debate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The coming week will see the conclusion of the tariff debate in the house. According to the special order the voting on the bill and pending amendments will begin a week from to-morrow at noon.

During the past week no amendments of substantial importance have been voted on with any chance of adoption except that fixing the date upon which free wool would go into effect, which was carried by the radical Democrats with the aid of some Republicans over the protest of the Democratic members of the ways and means committee. The coming week, however, will witness the fight over the big amendments to be offered from the Democratic side. The full measure of the Democratic opposition to the bill will then develop and considerable bad blood will doubtless be manifested.

The first fight will come on the sugar schedule to-morrow. Three hours have been set apart for the consideration of the propositions to be offered by the sugar men. Four amendments will be offered to the paragraphs placing sugar on the free list if the present plan is adhered to. The sugar men will make a strong fight on the ground that sugar is a revenue article and in accordance with the dictates of the Chicago platform, should be made dutiable to supply the deficit, which it is estimated the custom schedules of the Willson bill will cause. They will have the support of all the Democrats who are opposed to the income tax, including Mr. Cochran, Mr. Wilson and others of the ways and means committee. While it is generally admitted that they will probably be able to muster a majority of the Democrats, the Republicans who are pledged to the free sugar feature of the McKinley law, will give them no aid. The chances of the adoption of a sugar duty for the above reasons are slim.

COAL AND IRON.

Tuesday has been set apart for the consideration of the amendments to the free coal and free iron ore schedules. The present duty on both these articles is seventy-five cents per ton. The coal men, especially of Virginia, West Virginia and Alabama, are at the back of this opposition and have the support pretty generally of the Democratic representatives from those states. The iron interest of the states of Alabama and Tennessee and of the Lake Superior district, including the vessel interests of the lakes is fighting against free iron ore. Both are willing to yield a portion of the duty and amendments ranging from thirty-five to fifty cents per ton will be offered. Raw materials are made the backbone of the Willson bill and a herculean effort will be made to prevent their defeat.

The Republicans, if they join with the coal and iron men, as they probably will, may make the vote close, but to-day the Democrats of the ways and means committee manifest no alarm. Later in the week the internal revenue bill, including the income tax, will probably be offered as an amendment to the bill, probably by Mr. McMillan, although it has not been decided upon fully. If it is, this fight will be the feature of the debate. If the advocates of the income tax are successful, as they claim confidently they will be, and it is put on the bill as a rider it will cause several Democrats, at least, to vote against the entire measure. Other amendments relating to the tobacco schedule, lead ore, etc., and other minor amendments as the committee may offer, will consume the rest of the week. When the vote is taken it is probable that a great number of amendments will have not received consideration. Mr. Richardson, the chairman of the committee of the whole, already has in his possession seventy-seven amendments.

THE SENATE.

The present indications are that the senate will divide its attention in the main this week between the federal elections bill and the policy of a bond issue as decided upon by the secretary of the treasury. There has now been a positive agreement upon the part of the Republicans to continue the discussion of the elections bill and to take it up with a view to its final disposition. Many of the Republicans having given public assurance that they would not seek to delay the final vote upon this bill beyond a reasonable time for debate, and the fact that the Republican caucus took no action looking to the decision upon a motion concerning the measure, would seem to indicate that no such course will be pursued. On the other hand, the continued postponement of the uninterrupted discussion would seem to indicate that there may be some design of quietly brushing the subject aside by pleading for delay until the tariff bill shall reach the senate and absorb its entire time. It is evident that the Democratic leaders have some apprehension of a policy of this kind and are determined that if such a purpose is entertained it shall not succeed. They will have a double reason for insisting on proceeding with the elections debate this week, first, that they are quite determined to dispose of the subject before the tariff bill is reached, and, second, that they wish to as far as possible, divert the speechmaking in the senate from the bond question.

It will be impossible to keep the bond question entirely out of the senate, and there is a possibility that it may be made the subject of a number of speeches, if not of considerable debate. Senators Peffer and Allen both have resolutions before the senate taking Secretary Carlisle to task for his course, and Mr. Allen has given notice of a speech on Thursday based upon his resolution.

QUAY ON THE BOND ISSUE.

The Pennsylvania Senate Opposed To It. Grave Responsibility.

BEAVER, PA., Jan. 21.—Senator Quay in an interview to be published tomorrow, vigorously attacks Secretary Carlisle's proposed bond issue.

He does not favor legislation for the issue of bonds to relieve the treasury, and believes any that may be issued without the explicit authority of the law should be repudiated.

"There should be no curative legislation. Takers of the loan offered on February 1 I know that the securities go out under a cloud and their redemption will be an important political issue in the future.

"To recruit the revenues and re-establish the gold reserve (which is an idea not provided for by law), it is only necessary that the administration whistle off its dogs and announce to the country that the tariff is to be let alone.

"The administration has produced a condition of affairs which has destroyed trade, foreign and domestic, and gravely diminished the revenue, internal and from customs, and urges the passage of a revenue measure which will at least $70,000,000, and goes to the country for a 5 per cent loan to relieve it of the consequences of the financial treason.

"The Republican party is not called upon by any theory of policy or duty to come to its relief."

TRAINMEN IN POLITICS.

Railroad Workers Meet to Take a Hand in the Legislative Election.

PITTSBURGH, PA., Jan. 21.—A meeting of the railroaders of Pennsylvania who formed an organization in Harrisburg some months ago for the purpose of combining in favor of state legislative candidates who would be considered worthy of their support was held here to-day, 110 delegates being present. The meeting was secret and the delegates refused to make public the proceedings.

It is claimed that the organization has a membership of $6,000 in Pennsylvania and controls nearly 100,000 votes. It embraces the Pennsylvania members of the following organizations: Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, Brotherhood of Firemen, Order of Railway Conductors, Order of Railroad Trainmen, Switchmen's Mutual Protective Association, Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Brotherhood of Railroad Conductors.

GUTTED BY FIRE.

Louisville Telephone Exchange Burned Out—Caused by Crossed Wires.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Jan. 21.—Fire at an early hour this morning completely gutted the telephone exchange in this city. The loss on the building is not great. The total loss is estimated at $100,000, about half covered with insurance. The building is the property of the Ohio Valley Telephone Company. General Manager Gifford says in his opinion the fire started from a crossing of wires with a street railway electric wire or an electric light wire.

Pillaging at a Fire.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—The Herald's special despatch from Port Au Prince, Hayti, says: The town of Jeremie was nearly wiped out by fire to-day, which was the result of an accident. Nearly half the buildings in town were destroyed.

While the fire was burning many of the peasantry came into town and began pillaging. A riot followed, in which many persons were shot.

Fire in a Silver Mine.

LEADVILLE, COLO., Jan. 21.—A fire started in the Mikado shaft in some unknown manner at 3 o'clock this morning and is still burning. The loss is $40,000.

Mr. Childs's Condition.

PHILADELPHIA, PA., Jan. 21.—The condition of George W. Childs is not so favorable. The following bulletin was issued at 11 o'clock:

Mr. Childs is not quite so well tonight. There has been some slight rise in his temperature. Dr. Leidy will remain with him during the night.

Found—A Dynamite Bomb.

GUTHRIE, O. T., Jan. 21.—A dynamite bomb charged with enough dynamite to blow up a block of buildings was found in the office of the town site board yesterday. It was a piece of lead pipe three feet long. A party of newspaper men took the deadly instrument to the suburbs of the town and built a fire over it. It exploded, tearing a large hole in the ground. It is believed the bomb was intended for Governor Renfro and special land commissioner Blinn, as it was found in close proximity to the executive building.

Our Naval Heroes Honored.

ANNAPOLIS, MD., Jan. 21.—The memory of the American naval heroes who lost their lives in the great storm at Apia in March, 1889, was honored by the unrolling of a beautiful memorial window at the naval academy to-day. This is the tribute of the United States Naval Association. Dr. Clark, chaplain of the naval academy, delivered a special sermon. Several officers who witnessed the terrible scenes involving the loss of many American and German seamen, were present.

A Big Nugget Found.

LEADVILLE, COLO., Jan. 21.—A gold nugget weighing 150 ounces has been found at Breckenridge on leased property which belongs to George Campion.

A BAD WRECK

Near Fernwood Station—One Tramp Killed and Others Injured.

STEEBENVILLE, OHIO, Jan. 21.—A bad wreck occurred near Fernwood station on the Pan-Handle last night at eight o'clock. The fourth section of No. 88 broke near Skelley's station and was noticed by the operator, but too late to stop the train. He notified the dispatcher, who ordered the watchman at the tower to stop the train, but the rear half ran into the first half at the foot of Fernwood hill, derailling and smashing nine cars.

The empty car in which four tramps were riding was crushed like an egg shell. One tramp, who is unidentified, and evidently an Irish laborer of fifty years of age, was killed instantly, his head being crushed by the timbers. His companions did not know his name. A second, James Maple, had just been released from the penitentiary. Michael Murray and P. M. Brown, colored, of Pittsburgh, were bruised considerably.

THREE KILLED, EIGHTEEN HURT.

A Bridge Gives Way Letting an Entire Train Through—Three Killed Outright.

STEEBENS, ARK., Jan. 21.—One of the most disastrous accidents that ever occurred in this section happened at Ogamaw, a lumber station three miles north of here early last night. The log train was coming into the station on its last trip from the camps, which are located several miles back in the country and a large number of the woodsmen were returning with it. Passing over a trestle, which gave way and the train with its entire crew went down, killing three outright and wounding eighteen others. The killed are: Paddy O'Brien, Melville DeWitt, Chatham.

The correspondent could not learn the names of the wounded as they were mostly new men on the works and their names were not known. All the physicians of this place are at the wreck attending the unfortunates.

AIRY FAIRY LILLIAN

Is Now Signora Perugini, or Mrs. Chatterton, Just as You are Pleased to Call Her.

NEW YORK, Jan. 21.—For the third time in her life the erstwhile airy fairy Lillian Russell, before whose shrine have worshipped the "Johnnies" of Gotham for the last decade, stood at the altar of hymen to-day and promised to "love, honor and obey" her future "lord and master" in the person of John Chatterton, whose nom de theatre is Signor Perugini.

At 10:30 o'clock Miss Russell, in company with her mother, Mrs. Cynthia Leonard; her sister, Mrs. Alfred T. Schultz, and several friends, were conveyed across the ferry to the residence of Civil Justice Moler, in Hoboken. Awaiting them were the groom-elect, Mr. Edwin Hoff, of the "Bostonians," and Thomas Daly. Then the marriage was completed within five minutes. The entire party returned to the bride's home, on Seventy-seventh street, where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served.

To-night a dinner was tendered by Signor Perugini and bride. The bride received many valuable gifts, among them being two necklaces of diamonds, a tiara of diamonds and sapphires, a diamond sun-burst, two sets of sterling silver knives and forks and two score of jewel rings and bracelets. Signor and Signora Perugini will continue their roles at the Casino.

AN OLD MAN MURDERED

By the Man With Whom His Young Wife Was in Love.

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 21.—Bryan Ritchie, aged eighty years, was murdered at Mansfield, near here, about 1 o'clock this morning by James McKeever, an oil well driller. The cause of the murder was jealousy. Ritchie's wife is a young woman, and McKeever, it is said, was deeply smitten with her. Last night the Ritchies gave a party, and during the evening the old man mistook his wife for McKeever, and a quarrel ensued, but the affair was fixed up. Ritchie then went outside and McKeever followed him a few minutes later. Ritchie was heard to cry for help and several persons ran to his assistance. When they arrived they found him lying by the railroad track with the head almost severed from his body. By his side was an axe and the distance was a freight train speeding toward the city with McKeever aboard. The murderer has not yet been captured.

SHE SAW HEAVEN;

Also, the Other Place, and Knows When She Will Die.

SELDEN, OHIO, Jan. 21.—Dora McGraw, a sixteen-year-old girl, has been going into trances for three days. She and two of her friends have been holding song and prayer meetings lately. She became much wrought up, and at 7:30 p. m. went into a trance, which lasted seven hours. She said she had seen heaven and walked the golden streets, and had seen all her relatives who are in heaven and those who are in hell. She said she and one of her friends had crowns in heaven, and that she would die in a year while in a trance. She can tell the time and not see any timepiece, and can tell when she is going into a trance to the second. She says one of her friends will die February 18, 1894. The affair is causing great excitement, and crowds for miles around in town.

The young learned man here says it is the queerest case they ever heard of. Some of the ignorant are much frightened, and think it's a sign that the end of the world is close at hand.

Ambushed by Pirates.

PARIS, Jan. 21.—A dispatch from Tonkin says that a detachment of French troops commanded by Captain Delauney was ambushed by pirates whom they were pursuing in the bush near Caihu on December 8. After the French had entered the ambush the pirates fired a volley on them, killing Captain Delauney, wounding three lieutenants and killing or wounding eighteen men.

DEMAND THE CASH.

The Duval Club's Check Must Be Turned Into Good Money

BEFORE THEY APPEAR IN THE RING

Is the Demand Made By Both Corbett and Mitchell.

NO LOOPHOLE IS TO BE LEFT OPEN

For the Club To Crawl Out Of In a Certain Emergency—Arrangements for the Fight Completed, but Its Location Not Yet Made Public—The "Hoodlum" Element Misled By Various Reports—Only Ticket Holders Will Be Given the Straight Tip Wednesday Evening.

JACKSONVILLE, FLA., Jan. 21.—It has finally been decided that the Duval Athletic Club be compelled to turn into cash the check referee John Kelly holds in trust for the winner of the big fight. Kelly to-day waited on Jim Corbett at the latter's training quarters at Mayport and had a long talk with the champion, Brady and Dolaney. Kelly showed the check he held and remarked that he had heard that Mitchell had entered a protest against fighting for a piece of paper which by injunction could be tied up and made unavailable. Kelly stated that he did not care to take part in a transaction which might terminate as Mitchell feared. He had no doubts as to the sincerity of the club in the matter, but he wanted both of the principals satisfied before he left for the scene of the contest. He then flatly put to Corbett the question:

"Are you satisfied to fight for the purse in its present shape?"

The champion thought the matter over for a moment and then answered: "I am satisfied with anything that Mr. Mitchell is. If Mitchell wants the check converted into cash, as his privilege, I see no reason why it should not be done. It is not an unreasonable demand, and it will tend to promote confidence in the contest. I shall back up Mitchell if he insists that the money be put up."

Mitchell does insist and there is nothing for the club to do but comply with the demand, which the sporting men here agree is the only proper thing to do. It is argued that if the club is "on the square" there can be no objections interposed to the proposition, which carries with it nothing more than the provisional endorsement on the back of the check, save that the money must be in the hands of the referee when he enters the ring, to be turned over to the winner at the conclusion of the battle.

To-morrow night W. A. Brady, representing Corbett, and Bat Masterson, on behalf of Corbett, will take Referee Kelly before the club and make a formal demand for the cash.

The arrangements for the fight are about completed, although the location is still being kept within the confines of the club.

In order to bewilder the mind of the "hoodlum" who is incidentally getting here, very strongly in straggling units, the emissaries have given out a dozen or more places where the fight might be pulled off. The guessing ones are at their wits' ends as to the location, and many and ludicrous are the methods employed in order to get tips. It has been decided to spirit the principals away with their parties some time Wednesday afternoon. Each will be furnished with a special train consisting of a Pullman buffet car and engine and pulled away toward a common center by circuitous routes. The most plausible theory is that the men will be taken to a point north of this city near a neck of Georgia land which puts quite a distance between two states of Florida territory. The start will be made from this city early in the morning before sunrise, it is intimated, in order to give the fighters as much time as possible in which to effect a finish.

The club has stopped selling tickets for $25 a piece and it is claimed will sell no more until 1,000 spectators are assured. If the number falls short of this mark all tickets previously purchased will be honored, but the late comers will be called upon for $50 each. Corbett has concluded to go into the ring seconded only by Americans. There will be but one American in Mitchell's corner, Bat Masterson.

An attachment will be served to-morrow on Corbett's personal property at Mayport for $1,000 alleged damages to property occupied by the party. The cottages used for training and sleeping quarters are the property of Judge Gibbons, of the municipal court, and Claus Meyer, of this city. They claim that Corbett occupied the property without the consent of the owners.

State Attorney Hartridge returned from Tallahassee to-day, after consultation with Governor Mitchell. Hartridge said that the governor had left the instruction of Sheriff Broward to the attorney-general, together with Adjutant-General Houston.

Mr. Hartridge said that should the crowd board a train, none of the railroad employes would be arrested, but he would say nothing as to whether the principals would be or not.

Among several attorneys of this city the opinion that Governor Mitchell intends an important move on the morning of the 25th is gaining strength. They have an idea that instead of preventing the fight by means of the militia the governor will order the arrest of Corbett and Mitchell on the charge of arranging for a fight, which attorney-general Ivar holds to be within the law prohibiting the arranging for a duel.

A report came up from the Mitchell training quarters to-night to the effect that the English champion, during his exercise in the evening, had sprained and wrenched his leg.

The club this evening sent a commissioner to Anasta island to notify Mitchell that a special car would be in readiness for him on Wednesday morning.

According to the commissioner when he returned, Mitchell was in a very unpleasant state of mind when he learned what was required of him. It is said that he declares he would not fight under the auspices of such a club, and that he had put up with too many of their bluffs already. The commissioner was then told of the injury which the English champion had sustained.

Al Smith, however, came out with a proposition in which he offered to bet $5,000 against $1,000 that sprained ankle or no, Mitchell would get into the ring with Corbett Thursday.

ATTEMPTED BANK ROBBERY.

The Thieves Foiled by the Timely Arrival of the Cashier.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 21.—Chief of Police Speers received a telegram between 1 and 2 o'clock this morning from Parkville, twelve miles north of here on the Kansas City, Council Bluffs and St. Joe railroad, saying an attempt had been made to rob the Park Bank at that place shortly after midnight last night. The telegram was signed by A. C. Hamilton, the cashier of the bank, and A. J. Hamilton, the president.

It appears that Mr. A. C. Hamilton had spent the evening in Kansas City and returned home on a late train. It had been the custom to leave a lighted lamp in the bank all night, and on reaching Parkville Mr. Hamilton went to the bank for the purpose of lighting the lamp. On reaching the door he unlocked it and was about to go in when he heard a noise inside and quickly retreated, suspicious of possible robbers. He went for assistance, and on returning to the bank a kit of burglars' tools was found in front of the safe and also two sticks of dynamite. A heavy clamp had been placed on the knob of the safe and things looked as though the robbers were just about to force the knob off and insert the dynamite when the cashier discovered the plans.

While Mr. Hamilton was seeking assistance a man was seen a short distance from the bank. He was in a few minutes joined by two others and all three walked quickly away in the direction of the depot. Mr. Hamilton immediately telegraphed the police authorities here to watch the bridges for the three robbers and a guard was placed at the end of both bridges. Early this morning Alonzo Zane, whose home is in Kansas City, Kans., was arrested as he was crossing the Council Bluffs bridge. He denies all knowledge of the attempted robbery but could give no satisfactory account of himself and was locked up. The police are still on the lookout for the other two robbers.

WILL CONTEST.

The Republicans Claim the Illinois Apportionment Act is Unconstitutional.

CHICAGO, Jan. 21.—At a meeting of the Republican state central committee held here to-day it was decided to contest the constitutionality of the apportionment of the legislative, senatorial and congressional districts of Illinois by the last legislature. Ex-Attorney General Hunt announced that the bill to be filed will insist that the apportionment does not meet the constitutional requirements of equality of population, compactness and contiguity of territory.

A STARTLING RUMOR.

Reported that King Alexander, of Servia, Has Been Murdered—The Cause of the Cabinet Resignation.

LONDON, Jan. 22.—A Daily News despatch from Vienna says: It is rumored here that the king of Servia has been murdered. The rumor as yet lacks confirmation.

Another despatch says that it is believed that the rupture between the radicals and King Alexander is the work of ex-King Milan and that the latter intends to help his son in forming a military government. It is no longer, says the despatch, a question of parties, but will King Alexander be able to keep the throne. With him the Obrenovitch dynasty must stand or fall and Milan has gone to Belgrade to avert the danger.

Her new Dahomeyan servant, Kerill, who attends her at rehearsals, poured some laudanum into her cup of tea by mistake. Bernhardt, however, noticed the strange taste before she had drunk enough to do her any serious harm.

STREET CAR RIOTS.

A Strike in Bridgeport, Connecticut, and Its Result.

THE ATTEMPT OF THE COMPANY

To Work Non-Union Men Met With Stubborn Resistance and the Whole City in a Turmoil—It Takes the Police All Day to Run a Car, and the Company Finally Forced to Make a Big Concession.

BRIDGEPORT, CONN., Jan. 21.—To-day has been one of the most exciting in the history of the city of Bridgeport. Not since 1861, when marching volunteers on their way to the front filled the streets, have the residents been so aroused. All day excited crowds have thronged the streets and mob law has prevailed. The police have been set at defiance and a crowd of angry men have ruled the town. The rioting was one of the result of the discharge of five employes of the Bridgeport traction company yesterday and the strike which followed.

About one hundred employes of the company stopped work yesterday, completely tying up the road. They held numerous meetings and sent a committee to the managers of the road in an effort to bring about a settlement. In this they were unsuccessful. This morning fifty men came up from Jersey City to take the places of the strikers, and it was announced that the company intended to run its cars to-day.

The report that the company was to start cars and that the strikers would try to prevent it spread rapidly through the city, and in a short time all of the strikers and hundreds of sympathizers gathered at the main stable on Main street and along the streets through which the road runs.

The yards of the New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad were raided, and railroad iron, ties, coupling pins, boxes and barrels were taken and piled on the tracks at various points. Some of the cars were moved out of the sheds but were unable to proceed but a short distance. They were surrounded by the strikers and their friends and the crews were compelled to leave them in the streets. Police were summoned from headquarters and the several cars were started with three railroad employes and a guard of three policemen.

The police were driven from the cars, and all day long a reign of terror existed. It wasn't until 3 o'clock that a car was run over the entire line strongly guarded by police. After several lively runs the mayor summoned the police commissioners, sheriffs and city officials, and a conference, lasting three hours, was had with the owners of the road.

At the conclusion of the meeting it was announced that the company had agreed to re-employ the strikers with the exception of nine men.
