His Eighty-fourth Birthday.

Yesterday was the eighty-fourth birthday of Hon. Daniel Lamb, and it was celebrated by a family gathering at his home on Chapline street, in the Fifth ward, yesterday afternoon, at which all the children and grand children and a few intimate friends extended their congratulations and wishes for many happy returns.

Accused of Burglary.

The case of Jack Devlinoy and Andy Gavin was put on trial in the criminal court yesterday to a jury. They were indicted for burglary. The offense was the stealing of a fine clock from Ada Foster's house some months ago. The hearing occupied the entire day's session. The case was not finished, and court adjourned until this morning, the jury being lodged at the Stamm house.

Seven Assorted Cases.

In the police court yesterday Louis Bachelli was dismissed on paying the costs and promising to clean up his premises at once.

John Huseman was fined $5 and costs on promising to do better in future.

Tom Duffy was fined $1 and costs for fighting and Pat Duffy was dismissed.

Joseph Cavalho was fined $5 and costs and went up for thirty days, while Pearl Cavalho got thirty days in jail, and another disorderly, George Reed, got thirty days in default of $20.

Transfers Recorded.

Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows:

November 28 by John J. King and wife to Alonzo R. Raper, for $450, the north 25 feet of lot 14 and the south 12 feet of lot 15 in square 1 in the La Grange addition.

January 18 by John Liptay and wife to John R. Walters, for $3,200, the west half of lot 97 on the north side of Virginia street, Island.

January 17 by George W. Lemmon and wife to Alonzo R. Raper, for $450, part of a lot on the south side of Virginia street east of South Penn street.

They Are Getting Ready.

The various committees in charge of the coming Masonic fair, festival and bazaar, which takes place January 30, 31,

February 1, 2 and 3, are hard at work, and it is promised this will be the greatest fair seen in Wheeling for many years. The contest committees will have several attractive schemes ready to spring in a day or two, and the decorating committee will task the resources of the town in order to make the new Masonic building a thing of beauty.

The entire second floor will be devoted to bazaar, and on the third supper will be served each day.

A novel scheme is being talked of in this connection—a daily paper to be issued during the five days of the fair.

The Work of Relief.

Though the store of the citizens' relief committee was not open to the general public yesterday, twenty-six work orders were redeemed with provisions and other necessities of life.

The following donations were received:

Ed O'Donnell, one box of baking soda.

J. L. Hawley &amp; Co., 10 pounds rice and 20 pounds sugar.

Mrs. John Wright, clothing.

The Hub, 6 pairs men's jeans pants-loons.

M. J. McFadden, two pairs same.

The store will be open to-day to dispense general relief.

Mr. A. Raymann yesterday donated 1,000 bushels of coal from Karley &amp;

Son's bank, his second donation of a similar amount.

The City's Business.

A regular meeting of the city council will be held this evening.

Last night the council committee on accounts met and examined City Clerk Thoner's annual statement, which was found correct and in good form. It was transmitted to Council with a recommendation that it be printed in all of the daily papers and 200 copies be published in pamphlet form. Bills for $81 were ordered paid.

The committee recommended that council extend a vote of thanks to the city clerk and his assistants for their able discharge of their duties and their accommodating way of dealing with all with whom they come in contact—a deserved compliment, by the way.

The committee on scales last night recommended bills aggregating $35.85 for payment, and asked the council to appropriate $800 for the scales for the coming year, this being the same amount as was appropriated last year.

The Mother Goose Reception.

All the indications now point to an unusually brilliant success for the Mother Goose reception, to be given at the Opera House this evening and to-morrow evening. The demand for seats at C. A. House's music store, where they are on sale, assures crowded houses on both nights. Last night a full dress rehearsal was held at the Opera House, and the way the performance went off satisfied those interested that so far as the artistic part of the entertainment was concerned it would be all that the most exacting could wish. It is for the benefit of the City Hospital, and the object alone ought to make a much less attractive entertainment a financial success. No doubt this will be long remembered as the star local performance of the season.

THE RUBICON CROSSED.

Islanders' Committees Meet and

TWO FERRYBOATS TO BE SECURED.

Particulars of the Proposed Arrangement by Which the Two Bridges Will "Get it in the Neck," as an Island Man Expresses It—All Negotiations With the Bridges Dropped.Yesterday afternoon a meeting of the committees appointed at the mass meeting of Island citizens to seek a reduction in the rates recently announced by the two bridge companies, was held at the law office of Mr. William H.
Hearne, which was presided over by that gentleman, while Mr. Charles Copp acted as secretary.The first matter brought to the attention of the committees was the letter received from the large stockholders and directors of the Wheeling Railway Company, in which the proposition outlined last week in an interview between a committeeman and General Manager Jolly and Superintendent Lofus, as exclusively reported in the INTELLIGENCER, is refused. The railway people give their reasons for not accepting the proposition, the main one being that the arrangement would not be practicable. That arrangement thus being out of the question the committees at once changed their course on another tack.The committee on bridges made their report, which was that the two corporations had declined to accept the propositions made by the committee, and had declined to make counter propositions.
This being the case the committee saw no other alternative and crossed the Rubicon—to ferry boats.

TO SECURE FERRY BOATS.

After considerable discussion in which it was seen that the consensus of opinion was in the direction of ferry boats, a sub-committee was appointed composed of Messrs. H. P. McGregor, chairman, Flaccus and Copp who are empowered to go ahead and make arrangements with the proprietors of two ferry boats if possible. Advertisements were inserted in the local and also in the Pittsburgh papers, asking for proposals from ferry boat owners, and there will no doubt be many responses.
The council committee were asked to appear before council and solicit from the city authorities the privilege to run ferry boats from the foot of Twelfth street to the foot of Ohio street on the Island. The ferry boat committee will meet owners of boats this week, and on Friday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a joint meeting of the committees at which the sub-committees will make their reports. Another sub-committee composed of Dr. Myers and Frank McCoy and A. O. Maxwell was appointed to secure quarters on the Island for a mass meeting of citizens for Saturday evening when the committees will make their report and if matters are in the proper shape the movement to inaugurate the ferry line will be started.The ferry committee desire that persons knowing of idle ferry boats will let them know of such instances. The plan contemplates the running of two boats—one will leave each side of the river simultaneously.

AN ISLANDER TALKS.

A prominent Island citizen was seen by a reporter, and his opening remark was that the bridge companies would "get it in the neck." "Why, the way these bridge corporations have been treating their regular patrons on the Island is ridiculous from a business standpoint, not to say shameful. Here they arbitrarily evolve a plan by which they make the man who uses the bridges five or six times a day pay as much as the transient customers who may go across the river twice a year. That is one of the most absurd propositions I ever heard of. Then, too, the bridge people have misrepresented matters to the public. They claim they went to Pittsburgh and arranged their rates according to the rates charged on the cheapest bridges there. This is not true. On the Smithfield street bridge, we have it on good authority that the rate for regular patrons is $1.50 for three months. Had the home bridges made such an offer as that there would not have been any trouble, even though every male member of a family had to have a ticket.Now by this ferry boat scheme we have it in our power to show the bridges that they cannot ignore one-seventh of the entire city. There are enough people on the Island to make the ferry boats pay, and in addition we can force every milk wagon, every grocery wagon, every meat wagon that delivers goods to Island customers, to come every on our boats. Maybe the bridges won't be weary of this fight in a month or two."

In Older Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.
