WIND-UP SALE—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

FAST AND GREATEST Wind-Up Sale OF OUR BUSINESS YEAR ENDS FEBRUARY 1, 1894

A week of reckless and profitless prices begins in our Cloak Department to-day. Our every energy will be directed towards reducing the choice lines of LIGHT AND MEDIUM WEIGHT JACKETS, etc., the season for which is now almost upon us. Many of the Black Jackets noted below are made out of that well known and staple material, Clay Worsted, of which the satin lined ones are considered heavy enough for winter wear.

- Lot 1. Ladies' All-Wool Black and Navy Blazers at 95c each, worth $2 50.
- Lot 2. Ladies' Black and Colored Jackets and Blazers at $1 95, worth $4 50.
- Lot 3. Ladies' Black and Colored Jackets and Blazers, $2 85, worth $5 to $7.
- Lot 4. Ladies' Black and Colored Jackets at $3 65, worth $7 50 to $8 50.
- Lot 5. Ladies' Black Clay Worsted and Colored Cloth Jackets at $4 35, worth $9 00 to $10 00.
- Lot 6. Ladies' Black Clay Worsted and Colored Cloth Jackets at $5 90, worth $11 00 to $14 00.
- Lot 7. Ladies' Black Clay Worsted and Colored Cloth Jackets at $7 45, worth $16 00 to $18 00.

Also a lot of extra fine Satin Lined Black Clay Worsted Jackets at proportionate reductions. Children's Long and Short Jackets, ages 2 to 5 years, at equally low prices. Our winter stock of Children's Long Cloaks, ages 6 to 12 years, will be closed as follows: Lot 1.—$2 95. Lot 2.—$3 95. Lot 3.—$4 95. Our entire stock of about two dozen Ladies' Winter Weight Jackets shares in the general demoralization of values. Ladies' Cloth Suits also less than half price. $12 00 Suits at $4 90; $15 75 Suits at $5 95; $15 00 Suits at $7 00; $19 00 Suits at $8 00, etc. These unusual prices will certainly justify purchases for future as well as present use.

A Great Big House.

The Opera House held the biggest audience last night seen there this season. The house was literally packed to the doors, upstairs and down. The attraction was "The Black Crook," and the production gave satisfaction.

For Stealing Chickens.

Hiram Burkot was arraigned before Squire Joseph Arkle on the charge of stealing chickens from George Tappan, of the South End. Officer Minkemeyer made the arrest. Squire Arkle held him for a hearing at his office next Saturday evening.

Fritz-Blick.

Wednesday evening at 6:30 o'clock Mr. Edward Fritz, son of County Commissioner Fritz, and Miss Bertha L. Blick were married at the home of the bride in South Wheeling. A reception followed the marriage, in which music and games were indulged in. Mr. Fritz is a prominent business man of the South End, where they will go to house-keeping.

The "Hempfield" Road.

The directors of the Wheeling, Pittsburgh & Baltimore railroad, which is the Wheeling division of the Baltimore and Ohio, met at Pittsburgh Wednesday and elected J. B. Washington, president; A. W. Black, secretary; W. H. Jjams, of Baltimore, treasurer, and W. T. Thein, auditor. The annual meeting was held January 8, when the old board of directors was re-elected.

The New Ice and Storage Company.

Yesterday the stockholders of the newly chartered Arctic Ice and Storage Company met and effected an organization, electing Henry Schmutzback president and William Shanley as secretary. The company's plant will be located in the old Butterfield malt house, on Water street at Twenty-third. Operations will be commenced at once and the company expects to have ice in the market by summer.

Fined for Assault.

Yesterday John Wenzel swore out warrants in Squire Gillespy's court for George Tappan, on charges of assault and battery and profane swearing, and also a peace warrant, and one for Fred Briezo for assault and battery. Each of the accused was fined $5 and costs on the assault charge. Tappan was also fined $1 and cost on the charge of profane swearing, while the peace warrant was dismissed upon his paying the costs. The penalties were all paid.

"Mother Goose" Again, Perhaps.

The committee of ladies in charge of the Mother Goose reception, which scored so brilliant a success at the Opera House Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, yesterday decided to have a matinee performance on Saturday afternoon, if the chairs can be replaced in the Opera House in time after the billiard exhibition this evening. If it is found that this can be done the announcement of the matinee will be made in Saturday morning's paper.

Sunday Night Music.

At the bi-weekly concert of the Opera House Orchestra at the Arion hall Sunday evening the following attractive programme will be rendered: March—"American Cadet"; Hall Overture—"Crown Diamonds"; Auber Waltz—"Tales from the Vienna Woods"; Strauss Potpourri—"Deutsches Lied in Song and Klang"; "To Matilda"; Wagner's "Forget Me Not"; You support "The Darkies' Jubilee"; Turner Descriptive Fantasia—"The Dance of the Goblins"; String Instrument—"Waltz-tion"; "Bravo"; Schubert; E. W. SPEL, Musical Director.

The "Rio Grande" to Open.

This evening Mr. T. B. Dolan will open his new hotel and restaurant, the Rio Grande, at Benwood Junction, with a private ball. The junction will hereafter have a very metropolitan establishment. Myer's full orchestra will furnish the music this evening. The fine new house has metal ceilings and tile floors throughout, and the bar fixtures would be a credit to any city. A first-class cook will be employed, and the place conducted in as fine a style as any hotel or restaurant in the state.

Several Accidents Yesterday.

Yesterday morning Ed Baker, of the Sixth ward, was seriously hurt at the Riverside steel plant, a heavy piece of iron falling upon his legs. Dr. Eskey dressed his injuries, which will lay him up for some time.

Henry Knoke was at work on a freight car at the Benwood shops yesterday morning when he fell off, dislocating his hip and bruising himself badly. Yesterday afternoon a farmer who lives near West Liberty fell from his wagon on McCulloch street, and one of the hind wheels ran over his left ankle, breaking it.

Mrs. Brannon, who lives with her son-in-law, E. H. Donnell, on Main street, fell on Twenty-fifth street, and broke her leg near the hip joint. As she is sixty-seven years old the injury is all the more serious.

In Olden Times

People overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well-informed people will not buy other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

SOME GOOD DONATIONS

Received by the Citizen's Relief Committee Yesterday.

GOODS GO OUT VERY FAST, THOUGH,

And the Funds and Supplies are as Low as Ever—Somewhat Over $200 in Cash Received Yesterday—Good deed of a Victorious Bowling Team. The Day at Headquarters.

The appeal of the citizens' relief committee to the public on behalf of the work for the amelioration of the condition of the unemployed, printed in yesterday's papers, bore some fruit, though not what the committee had a right to expect under the circumstances. Thirty-six dollars was added to the INTELLIGENCER's relief fund, and the treasurer of the committee, Mr. P. B. Dobbins, received contributions as follows:

- Cash: H. K. List.....$ 2
 - Citizen.....100
 - Cash: J. M. Brown.....25
 - J. J. Hawling.....5
 - J. M. Brown.....25
 - Cash.....5
 - Cash.....10
 - Total.....$174
- At the committee's store room the following donations were received during the day:
- R. R. Burt, one boy's overcoat and one pair shoes.
 - M. Marsh & Son, forty-five pounds scrap tobacco.
 - Unknown, one barrel flour and five bushels potatoes.
 - Julius Jacobs, stockings and clothing.

Over seventy orders for groceries, provisions and other necessities of life were filled during the day, and the stores naturally ran pretty short as a result. The committee had to buy quite a number of needed articles, the members becoming responsible for the bills.

Persons desiring to buy tickets for the elegant fruit picture donated to the committee by Artist J. A. Faris may get them at B. F. Caldwell & Co.'s store, on Market street just above the postoffice, where this fine oil painting is on exhibition in the show window.

"LOST IN LONDON."

Newton Beers Opens at the Grand in his Fine Play.

At the Grand last night a delighted audience saw the opening performance of Newton Beers' "Lost in London," which will be the attraction for the rest of the week. The play is put on with a wealth of special scenery, and the fete scene offers unusual opportunities for all sorts of artistic and enjoyable specialties. Mr. Beers is one of the best actors in his line on the boards, and the part of Job Armroyd, "the Swart King," suits him excellently. Miss Enlilio Carnahan as his wife is also strong. Mr. Thropp and Miss Romaine in their songs add greatly to the pleasure of the performance. The rest of the cast is all that could be desired. The story is as thrilling as any ever presented in a melodrama. The play will be repeated this evening and Saturday matinee and night, and should have large houses at all the performances. Reserved seats are on sale at the theatre box office.

"A Brass Monkey."

"A Brass Monkey" illustrates pretty thoroughly the survival of the fittest. Although "A Bunch of Keys," "A Rag Baby," and "A Tin Soldier," others of Hoyt's earlier works, have been relegated to that indefinable region sparsely designated as one of "innocuous desuetude," Hoyt's satire on superintention continues to maintain its hold on the popular affections. It is more than six years since this laughable skit first saw the light of day, but it is as popular as ever, and justly so, for nothing from Charles H. Hoyt's facile and fruitful pen has been cleverer in point of satire, construction and funmaking. It will be seen here next Thursday night.

Never defer a vital matter. A cough shouldn't be neglected when Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup will cure it at once.

A Summer Ban.

A big run in Boston of "The Flying Vulture" will be given this summer, introducing a real flying machine, great mechanical effects and a grand cast including Alfred Keley and John J. Kennedy.
