SENATORS STUMPED

Over Making Changes in the Wilson Tariff Bill

SATISFACTORY TO THE DEMOCRATS.

The Sub-Committee Has Been Wrestling with the Problem

BUT ARE NO NEARER THE END

Than When They Commenced to Scan the Measure—The Draft of a New Bill Worn Out and Replaced by Another—In a Chaotic Condition and No Report Expected for Another Week—Many Senators Demanding Concessions on Minor Items—Speaker Crisp Promises an Emergency Rule to Pass the Bland Silver Bill if the Occasion Demands It.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—The Democratic members of the senate committee on finance have decided that they will not be able to report the tariff bill to the full committee on Tuesday next, as they had announced they would be, and one of the members of the sub-committee which has had the bill under consideration said to-day that he would not attempt to say when the bill could be reported. "I shall be very well satisfied," he said, "if the bill is in shape to be reported by the beginning of the week."

The committee had been very hopeful just before the adjournment Friday night of being able to fulfill Chairman Voorhees' promise to get the bill in readiness for the full committee this week, but after putting in a long day's work at the close of the week, given up almost exclusively to the bill, the members found it still in a chaotic condition and were compelled to admit to themselves as they did later to outside inquirers, that the task they had set themselves to had been impossible of accomplishment.

The reason for the postponement is discovered in the fact that the work of satisfying Democratic senators has been found a very difficult one, and the construction of a bill that is sure to be accepted by the senate is an undertaking requiring many changes of purposes and alterations in the figures first made. When the sub-committee began their work they had before them the draft of a bill upon which it was believed it would be any easy matter to secure agreement, but this bill has been changed in some respects several times, and has become so worn from handling and erasures that it has become necessary to destroy the original copy and replace it with a new one. There is still much demand for concessions on the part of senators on minor items, and many of the most important features in the bill are entirely unacted upon. Sugar is included in this list, and it looks as if its fate would be about the last question to be determined by the sub-committee.

THE BLAND BILL

Will Undoubtedly Pass the House, Possibly During This Week.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—The fight over the silver seigniorage bill will be resumed in the house to-morrow, and Mr. Bland is confident that there will be a quorum on hand to order the previous question either to-morrow or Tuesday. Once the necessary quorum is obtained, and that is only a question of time, as the opponents of the measure have practically abandoned hope of defeating the bill, it will be brought to a vote if need be by a special order from the committee on rules, the speaker having promised a special rule if the emergency demands it.

CLEARING THE DECKS

In the Senate in Anticipation of the Debate on Tariff.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—Senators Daniels, Caffery and White, of California, have given notice of speeches on the Hawaiian resolution for this week, and it is probable that other senators will speak upon the subject before next Saturday. There will be an effort to have the resolution disposed of during the week, as there will also be to get Senator Stewart's bond resolution off the calendar. There will probably be some speeches on this question also. Indeed, the senate will make the week as far as possible, a clearing up week, so as to make way for the tariff debate, which will necessarily prevent the consideration of less important subjects when it shall once be begun.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

A New Bill Which is Alleged to Be the Solution of It.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—Just before the house adjourned yesterday Representative Hicks, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill which he believed would be an excellent plan for the settlement of the silver question. The bill is in a crude shape at present, and was drafted by John Hamer, of Philadelphia. The bill is entitled, "A bill for the encouragement of mining silver in the United States and the formation of silver guarantee banks."

It provides in brief that any person may deposit with the government $50,000 worth of silver bullion, and by depositing with it 25 per cent of the value of the bullion in interest bearing government bonds as a guarantee against any depreciation of the silver, he may receive $50,000 in legal tender treasury notes, redeemable in coin.

MRS. HARRISON'S PORTRAIT

Will Hang in the White House—Present of Daughters of the Revolution.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18.—To the interesting collection of portraits which hang on the walls of rooms of state in the white house will be added this week a fine picture of Mrs. President

Harrison. The donors are the members of the Patriotic Order Daughters of the American Revolution, who will meet here for their third congress the last three days of the week, assembling on Washington's birthday.

President Cleveland has written to the society signifying his willingness to accept the portrait. It was painted by Huntington, of New York, is five feet by seven, and is regarded by critics as an exceptionally fine work. It represents Mrs. Harrison at the age of thirty years, attired in a broad gown of cerulean blue with train held in the left hand.

The congress of the society will be called to order Thursday, February 22, by the president, Mrs. Vice-President Stevenson, who will deliver an address of welcome.

At the evening session the portrait of Mrs. Harrison will be unveiled with appropriate ceremonies, including music by the national marine band and the singing of an original hymn, "Our Western Land."

WHEELMEN'S LEAGUE.

The Color Line to be Drawn in the Election of President.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Feb. 18.—To-day was spent by the delegates to the National League American Wheelmen assembly in caucus. The Asbury Park and Denver crowds boomed their towns for the summer meet, but the attention of the majority of the delegates was devoted to the discussion of the proposed white amendment to the constitution. The fight on this question promises to be a bitter one. Both the presidential candidates, Charles F. Luscomb, of New York and Thomas F. Sheridan, of Chicago, are on the ground and electioneering is warm. Luscomb holds that faction which favors the drawing of the color line, and his supporters confidently predict his election for two reasons. They say they have a majority in the league in favor of the white amendment. The assembly convenes to-morrow morning at ten o'clock and the sessions will probably extend four days.

EVERYTHING LAID WASTE

By a Cyclone Which Passed Over Cincinnati, Ohio, Feb. 18.

HOMER, La., Feb. 18.—One of the most destructive cyclones known in the history of Creborene Parish passed seven miles north of this place at 6 p. m. yesterday, the roaring of the storm being distinctly heard here. The cyclone struck the northwest corner of the parish, travelling in a northeast direction, laying waste everything in its path. The casualties thus far are one white child and one negro killed, and many wounded. Cleveland and Taylor's store and the Beam mill were destroyed, and Mr. Taylor was seriously injured. The track of the cyclone was about 200 yards wide.

SAWED TO DEATH.

Frightful Accident to a Man Who Fell on a Portable Saw.

KROOK, Ia., Feb. 18.—John Sullivan met a horrible death on the farm of J. T. Nason, near Warsaw, Ill., yesterday. He slipped and fell against a portable saw, his head striking first. The saw ran into his skull, barely reaching the brain. In an effort to free himself Sullivan fell a second time, the saw striking the right shoulder, running down the back, tearing the ribs from the backbone and cutting into the body. The man died in a few hours.

WRIGHT HITS BACK.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Feb. 18.—A. W. Wright, ex-member of the general executive board of the Knights of Labor, made a statement to-night concerning suits brought against the order by the ex-general officers. He said: "The pretence that he and Messrs. Powderly and Devin were pressing for the money due them for the purpose of injuring the order should hardly be made by Mr. Hayes."

"If," said he, "demanding our money months after it is due be evidence that we are disloyal to the order, was Mr. Hayes' course in drawing every cent due him up to the moment evidence of care for the order's welfare?"

An Accident in Mid-Air.

KNOXVILLE, TENN., Feb. 18.—A frightful accident occurred this afternoon by which Oliver Ledgerwood, a young lawyer, was killed, and two others slightly injured. A car upon wire cables crosses the Tennessee river just below the city, and is operated by a stationary engine on the north bank of the river. A cable snapped and struck the moving car with such force as to partly demolish it, leaving the car suspended over the river 200 feet in the air. There were eight persons in the car, but all except Ledgerwood escaped without serious injury. They were rescued by being let down by ropes into a boat in the river.

Search For Entombed Miners.

WILKESBARRE, Pa., Feb. 18.—At ten o'clock to-night the foreman in charge of the rescuers in the Gaylor slope reported that the workers had advanced forty-five feet from midnight last night to 9 o'clock to-night. A number of stretchers were taken in the mine to-night. This is done as a cautionary measure and they will be used in case any of the entombed men should be found alive.

Result of a Sparring Match.

CAMBRIDGE, MASS., Feb. 18.—A. H. Linder, the young Harvard student who sustained injuries in a friendly sparring match last Tuesday, died to-day in his college room, Hastings Hall. A medical examination will be made to-morrow in the interests of the profession as this is considered a remarkable case. Young Linder was a Boston boy. He was a junior at Hartford and was prominent in the social life of the college. He was unconscious for five days.

Funeral of "No. 1."

PROVIDENCE, R. I., Feb. 18.—The funeral of Frank Byrne, the famous "No. 1" of the land league conspiracy, occurred to-day and was the largest that has been held in Providence for many years. The interment was held at the old Catholic cemetery.

STILL ANOTHER FIRE

Breaks Out at the World's Fair—Art Gallery Narrowly Escapes.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Another World's Fair fire broke out this afternoon in the east wing of the Illinois state building. It was undoubtedly of incendiary origin, but prompt response on the part of the fire department prevented damage to any great extent. The chief danger from the fire was the probability that it might extend to the art gallery, which is now used as the store house for the Columbian Museum. Fears for the safety of the art gallery were well grounded, for early in the progress of the fire flying brands alighted on its northwest dome, and in a few moments that portion of the building was ablaze. Around the base of the small dome at that corner of the art building there was a tarred roof and some canvas, and upon this the flames made rapid progress. Some guards, however, climbed to the roof, and tearing away the blazing canvas threw it to the ground. The fire on the roof was then easily extinguished. The Illinois building was sold recently for $1,650, and as only the staff was burned from about forty-five feet on the east wing the damage is considerable.

SONS OF BENJAMIN.

Eleventh Annual Convention of the Order Convened Yesterday.

BALTIMORE, Md., Feb. 18.—The Independent Order of the Sons of Benjamin convened in eleventh annual convention to-day. Nearly three hundred delegates were present from all parts of the United States and Canada. Hon. F. C. Latrobe, mayor, welcomed the convention to Baltimore, and was responded to by Grand Master Ferdinand Levy, city register of New York. The order numbers 15,000 members, and since its organization has paid endowments amounting to $1,219,769. The election for grand master and deputy grand master resulted in the re-election of Mr. Levy by a vote 157 to 74 for B. Rosenthal, of New York, and of A. A. Rosenthal, of New York, vice B. Rosenthal, by a vote of 115 to 107.

An Insubordinate Priest Apologizes.

DETROIT, Mich., Feb. 18.—Father Kolasinski, the Polish Catholic priest who has been famous for his insubordination for five years past, made his apology to the church to-day in the presence of Mr. Sbarretti, auditor to Mr. Satoli, and an immense congregation. The retraction, however, was read in an almost inaudible voice, although Mr. Sbarretti repeatedly urged Kolasinski to speak louder. Being read in this manner immediately after a powerful sermon by Father Kolasinski, his retraction was not particularly effective and the priest's Polish followers seemed to regard it as a secondary matter after all.

Troubles Over Women.

TOLEDO, O., Feb. 18.—Daniel Boone, a lusty negro, kicked in the door of Benjamin Lyons' residence this morning and attacked him with a buggy spoke. Lyons, who is sixty-five years old, retaliated with a flat iron, killing Boone. The trouble arose over a dusky widow named Emma Jones.

MORGAN CITY, La., Feb. 18.—Capt. G. M. Alden, of the steam propeller Beulah, of the Berwick Bay Fish and Oyster Company, was shot and killed on board his boat on Bayou Shane by M. Verret. The men had a row about a woman.

THE JUBILEE YEAR

Of Pope Leo Closed Yesterday with Impressive Ceremonies

CONDUCTED BY THE PONTIFF.

Mass and the Te Deum Celebrated in St. Peter's in Great State.

FIFTY THOUSAND PEOPLE PRESENT

Leo Considerably Improved in Health.

Brilliant Illumination of the Churches and Houses at Night. Trafalgar Square Demonstration Against the House of Lords—Only Fifteen People Gather to Hear the Cranks of the Autonomic Club Hunt. No Disorder Occurs, and the Meeting Quietly Disperses.

ROME, Feb. 18.—The closing ceremony in connection with Pope Leo XIII's jubilee year took place to-day, and consisted of a mass celebrated by him in St. Peter's in grand state, followed by the Te Deum. The details of this impressive ceremony were arranged by the executive committee of the jubilee fete. Sixty thousand tickets were given out for this final celebration, and it is estimated that fifty thousand people were present. The mass was celebrated at the Papal altar. Leo was borne into the basilica in the sedia gestatoria at 9:40 a. m.

He was preceded by a cortege of cardinals and bishops. His appearance was followed by the enthusiastic cheering of the immense multitude, among which were many distinguished foreigners, diplomats, Roman nobles, Knights of Malta and leaders of deputation.

At the conclusion of the mass Leo intoned the Te Deum, which was chanted by the whole congregation. The Pope then repeated himself in the Sedia and with the tiara on his head blessed the audience. He then retired into the chapel della Pietà amid prolonged cheering.

The pope appeared considerably improved in health, and he intoned in a strong voice.

To-night the facades of St. Peter's and other churches, all the Catholic institutions, and a great many houses are brilliantly illuminated. The pope's physicians say that he is much better, but they have advised him not to over exert himself.

TRAFALGAR SQUARE MEETING

Against the House of Lords—Declared a Useless Institution.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Four thousand persons assembled in Trafalgar Square to-day in answer to a call for a manifestation against the house of lords for destroying the clauses in the parish council bill, or which called for a reforming of the London vestries. The meeting, with much show of feeling, adopted resolutions condemning the house of lords for its action in this matter. The speakers were vociferously cheered time and again in the course of their remarks.

The meeting also adopted resolutions declaring the house of lords to be a mischievous and useless institution, and demanding that it should be abolished forthwith.

The amendment which came in for the most vigorous condemnation was that moved by Lord Balfour, of Burleigh, to prevent the application of the special provisions of the bill to the London vestries, on the ground that the vestries had been taken wholly by surprise by the government proposals affecting them. Lord Kimberly, on the part of the government in opposing the amendment, said he saw no reason why the House of Lords should abstain from reforming the vestries. All that the government proposed to do was to assimilate the franchise to that for the election of the district councils in other localities, to abolish the qualification now required for vestrymen and apply the ballot act and the corrupt practices act in those cases.

Lord Salisbury, in answer to Lord Kimberly, declared that it was only when the house of commons had become exhausted and reduced in its numbers that the government suddenly conceived the desire to reform the vestries themselves, or to the people of London generally, any opportunity of examining into the nature of the particular changes proposed, or into their necessity. The amendment was carried by 107 votes to 26.

The speakers were: Joseph Arch, Dr. Charles, K. D. Tanner, the Irish Nationalist, W. H. Wilson, and five other members of the house of commons.

AUTONOMIC MEETING

A Miserable Failure—Only Fifteen Persons Attend—Wild Language.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—The widely announced meeting of the Autonomic Club, under the auspices of the International Workers' Group, was attended by only fifteen persons. Fourteen of these were foreigners. The speakers who had been announced to address the meeting did not appear. Finally, after a wait of two hours, Gibbons, of the commonwealth group, arrived and made a speech, in the course of which he urged individual effort in righting the wrongs they complained of. He held up Vaillant, Pallas and "other martyrs" as worthy of emulation. Hundreds, he said, were ready to sacrifice their lives in the great cause. He, himself, was perfectly prepared to do so. They had nothing to live for, and were simply the slaves of the capitalists. When the government and Mr. Asquith, he continued, abandoned making Maxim guns for use against the people, the latter would relinquish the manufacture of dynamite bombs. The speaker advised workers to read books upon chemicals, which they would find in the public libraries, and to learn the use of chemicals.

Other speeches, similar in tone, but in foreign languages were made to the audience, which ultimately numbered eighty persons.

Many detectives in citizens clothing were present and scattered in all parts of the meeting place. This may have had its good effect, for outside of the threatening language, the meeting in every way was an orderly one.

Scene of Bourdin's Death.

LONDON, Feb. 18.—Crowds of curious persons swarmed in Greenwich Park to-day, packed the terrace in front of the celebrated observatory and filled all the other elevated positions of this popular resort for Londoners from which is obtainable so extensive and interesting a view over the river. The day was fine and cold. Stakes dotted the ground where portions of the dynamited body of the anarchist Bourdin had been found. All of these stakes were in line with the spot where the body was discovered.

At the post mortem examination a dozen pieces of metal, similar in their contents to the bombs used by Bourdin were produced.

ANOTHER BOMB FOUND

In the Streets of Paris—Anarchist Henry Makes Further Disclosures.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—A bomb, similar in its composition to that used by Vaillant and Henry, was found to-day in the staircase of the police station in the Rue du Temple, one of the oldest and busiest streets of the city, and which leads to the Hotel de Ville. In this street is the Marche du Temple, occupying the site of the Tour du Temple, which, during the revolution, was used as a prison of the royal family.

Anarchist Henry made a further confession to the police yesterday and, as a result of it, his mother's house was searched last night. The police found much chemical apparatus and a number of letters and photographs, including a group of twenty anarchists. All of these things will prove valuable to the police in their efforts to arrest the other anarchists who were implicated in the plot with Henry.

Henry also divulged the names of several of his anarchist friends, and their arrests are expected to take place in a short time.

DECEIVED BOTH.

The Cause of the Collision Between French and British Troops at Warina.

PARIS, Feb. 18.—A telegram has been received from the French governor in the Sudan stating that the collision between the British and French troops at Warina was due to Chief Korona, of Quema, deceiving both the British and French by telling each that the other was a band of Sofas. The British burnt Quema and other villages as a punishment for this deception and executed Korona.

Fuller details received here of the Warina collision says the sentinels posted outside the British camp noticed at an early hour in the morning suspicious movements in the long grass around the camp, and after watching these closely finally gave the alarm. The British troops quickly turned out, but had scarcely taken up their position when a sharp volley was fired into the camp.

Spanish Anarchists Confess.

BARCELONA, Feb. 18.—Six of the leading anarchists who have been arrested have confessed that they were accomplices in the attempt upon the life of the civil governor. This attempt they said was an act of vengeance for the death of Pallas. They declared that their comrades who have not been arrested would avenge them.

A Bold Criminal.

CHICAGO, Feb. 18.—Postoffice Inspector Stuart will arrive to-morrow evening from Buffalo with Leroy Harris, of New York, who is charged with one of the boldest and most original series of crimes in the history of the postal service.

Since January 6 Stuart and Inspectors Holmes and Leatherman, of Cincinnati, have been on the man's trail. Stuart arrested the man in Canada in spite of the treaty regulations.

Only yesterday he created a new sensation by "holding up" a number of officials in the commissioner's office at Buffalo with a revolver and making his escape, locking the door on the outside. He was, however, captured again to-day.

Hins Them on the List.

CINCINNATI, O., Feb. 18.—Chief of Police Deltsch, of this city, who caused the arrest of Anarchist Tommen last night, has in his office a complete directory giving the name, occupation, residence and personal history of every Anarchist or person of Anarchistic tendency in the city. This directory also classifies the Anarchists as extreme, moderate and semi-Anarchistic. There are all told one hundred and twenty in the city and all their movements are watched.

A DOUBLE MURDER

Occurs at a Marriage Ceremony in Allegheny Co., North Carolina.

A GUEST CREATES A DISTURBANCE

And is Ordered Out of the House—He Leaves But Returns, and in an Altercation Which Ensued Fatally Stabs Two Men Who Tried to Pacify Him—The Bride Acts as Peacemaker and is Severely Cut On the Hand and Arms.

RALEIGH, N. C., Feb. 18.—News comes of a double murder at a wedding in Allegheny county. Among those present was Daniel Slaughter, of Carroll county, Virginia. Just as the wedding ceremony ended, Slaughter passed near an old man, who seized his hand and made some remark. Slaughter spoke roughly, and was told to leave the house. He did so, but in a few minutes returned. The friends of the old man were angry and a peacemaker endeavored to keep them back while at the same time he told Slaughter to keep quiet. Suddenly Slaughter sprang at John Baro and stabbed him to the heart. Baro fell dead and Slaughter made an attempt to again stab him, but the bride seized his hand. She was cut in the hand and arms. Slaughter dashed for the door, and on the way he stabbed Ed Long, killing him instantly, and then fled. He was captured two miles away. There were threats of lynching, but he was safely taken to jail at Sparta. He claims some of the crowd struck him in the face.

A QUIANT SUICIDE.

He Leaves a Letter Telling Why He Did It.

BANGOR, MAINE, Feb. 18.—Charles D. French, peddler and hermit, of Orono, blew the top of his head off to-day. He left the following letter:

3:15 P. M., FEBRUARY 17, 1894.

To the Curious:
In two hours I shall be dead, shot through the head with a big charge of lead (no poetry intended) and be on the spook road to kingdom come. Disease and poverty is the cause. However, no one knows I am in a destitute condition, but I'm in it just the same. Burn, boil, bake, buy or send my carcass to the phosphate factory, just as the humor strikes you. I'm weak, faint and hungry, but I know how to cancel all my engagements with Mr. Trouble and Mr. Misery.

Yours respectfully,
CHARLES D. FRENCH.
