

THE SILVER QUESTION.

Few Hopes That Another International Conference

WILL BE HELD AT AN EARLY DAY.

The Attitude of Foreign Countries Discourages the Idea—The Discouraging Remarks of the British Chancellor of the Exchequer—Views of Silver Men in Congress on the Situation.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 2.—None of the silver men of the house of representatives expressed any surprise when informed of the discouraging remarks of the British chancellor of the exchequer, Sir Vernon Harcourt, on the outlook of the resumption of the monetary conference.

The outlook does not indicate that an international monetary conference will be held this year. There is, however, a growing feeling in Europe in favor of the enlarged use of silver.

Representative Bryan, of Nebraska, said: "Those in this country who are opposed to any further use of silver in the United States except by international agreement are awaiting England's consent. This dispatch indicates that England does not intend to join us."

Senator Allison, another delegate to the last conference, read the dispatch with the comment that he had known all the time that the United States would not propose another conference.

Representative Bland said the action of England was immaterial. He believed the United States should stand on its own feet. "I never took any stock in this international business," he added. "I believe it is all humbug."

AN AWFUL FATE.

A Negro Murderer and Abductor of Women Skinned Alive, While One of His Victims Builds a Fire on His Head.

BAHNSVILLE, Ky., March 2.—It is reported from Harlan county that Lan Tye, the negro who murdered Miss Bryant, near Williamsburg about a year ago, has recently visited Harlan county, where he kidnapped a farmer's daughter and kept her secreted in the woods for some time until a party of hunters found her.

It is said he confessed the murder of Miss Bryant and that he had taken three other victims in Kentucky and Tennessee and kept them in the same manner in the Harlan county girl until they died for want of shelter and protection.

HILLSBORO, Ohio, March 2.—The large wool mill of James Ellifritz & Co. has been closed on judgments taken by three banks for about $18,000. This was brought on by the mysterious disappearance of J. S. Ellifritz, the senior member of the firm.

STEAMSHIP NEWS.

SOUTHAMPTON, March 2.—The German steamer Scandia, Captain Kopff, arrived here this morning, returning with her shaft damaged.

"I've tried all sorts of blood purifiers," said an old lady to a "cutter," "and you can't persuade me that any other Sarsaparilla is as good as Ayer's." There's where she had him. She knew that Ayer's was the best—and so did he, but it paid him better to sell a cheaper brand.

TREND OF TRADE.

More Mills Starting than are Closing, But Reduction in Wages Lessens the Purchasing Power of Those at Work.

NEW YORK, March 2.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: With no more definite information than a week ago regarding the outcome of financial revenue disputes, perhaps more people have come to the belief that the end will answer their wishes.

More works have resumed or increased hours than have stopped or reduced, but numerous reductions in wages continue to lessen the purchasing power of those at work.

In all branches of the woolen manufacture the demand is yet far below the usual mark, but is somewhat improved in worsteds and dress goods and leading mills have been taking wool quite largely, so that in three chief markets the sales have been 4,898,200 pounds for the week against 5,198,200 last year.

FAILED IN INSURANCE.

He Could Not Stand the Terrible Tort and Was Rejected.

FAMILY HAD TO SUFFER.

Why It is So Many Men and Women Are Rejected in Their Applications for Life Insurance.

"I have been refused insurance, and my family must suffer!" The speaker was a well known member of the Shoe and Leather Exchange of New York.

"You don't mean to say that the company has refused to grant you a policy?" exclaimed his friend in evident astonishment.

"Yes," was the sad reply, "the medical examiner has reported against me, and now my plans for providing for my wife and children are all destroyed."

The terrible significance of this poor man's condition can be better realized by referring to the statement recently made by Dr. Lambert, General Medical Director of the Equitable Life Assurance Company.

"We reject 10 per cent of the applications made to us for life insurance, and I have saved the entire expense of this medical department by the rejection alone of applicants who have diseased kidneys, and who have died within two years after I rejected them."

The startling importance of these words cannot be too widely proclaimed. The fact that such an awful condition exists in this land should arouse thoughtful men and women to a sense of the great danger that threatens them.

Mr. Edson L. Weston, a well-known resident of Port Henry, N. Y., recently said: "Some years ago I suffered from pains in my back and throughout my body, but thought it nothing serious until about that time I desired to obtain a life insurance policy, and of course had to undergo a medical examination. My application was promptly rejected by the doctor who pronounced it a 'badly developed kidney disease.' My case was considered dangerous, and I at once looked around for the best cure. I decided what that was, began taking it, and I am pleased to say I am to-day a well man, and the doctors say so, too, for since then, without any trouble, I have taken out a life insurance policy. The medical examiner pronounced me 'sound as a trout,' and I owe it all to the remarkable power and efficiency of Warner's Safe Cure, which restored me to health, and enabled me to pass a perfect medical examination."

These facts show the insidious nature of kidney or Bright's disease. It has often no symptoms of its own, but, unfortunately, the symptoms of almost every known disease. The victim of Bright's disease goes along unsuspecting until in many cases it is too late!
