SPRING JACKETS—GEO. M. SNOOK & CO.

HERE'S A LINE OF Spring Jackets THAT MUST BE SOLD

Here are the Prices that are going to do it.

HERE are about one hundred of these Jackets—Light, Dark Colored and Black; many of them lined throughout with Fine Satin. None of them but worth THREE times the price quoted!

WE HAVE ANNIHILATED VALUES BEFORE, BUT NEVER SUCH AN UTTER DEMOLITION OF VALUES AS THIS:

FIVE LOTS: Lot No. 1 will be sold for.....	95 each.
Lot No. 2 will be sold for.....	$1 95 each.
Lot No. 3 will be sold for.....	2 95 each.
Lot No. 4 will be sold for.....	3 95 each.
Lot No. 5 will be sold for.....	4 95 each.

Just reflect for a moment, 95c will not pay for the making of the cheapest kind of a Jacket, yet 95c buys a good Jacket complete at this sale, in fact gives you choice of Jackets that have sold from $3 00 to $4 00 each. Take the line at $4 95. There are fine Black Satin Lined Clay Worsted Jackets among them, which have sold from $15 00 to $20 00 each. When you consider that $4 95 is about the price of an ordinary shawl, you will more fully realize what an unusual opportunity is now presented. To those who care for comfort and would save much money, we say come, come and attend this great sale of Spring Jackets. Our word for it, you will secure three to four dollars worth of value for every dollar invested.

Wanted in Ohio for Robbery.

Night before last G. G. Davis, of Sherradville, Jefferson county, Ohio, was robbed of $200 and an overcoat.
He suspected a man named Joseph O'Brien and an unknown who was with him, and telegraphed to the police here to arrest them. Yesterday Officer Car-tensen, of Steubenville, and a constable from Sherradville came to the city and captured O'Brien on the street. He was locked up, and will be taken to Steubenville this morning. The other man is supposed to have left town. At any rate he was not caught.

Marshall Malefactors.

Thirty-five indictments were found by the Marshall county special grand jury yesterday at Moundsville after one day's session. Thirty-one were whiskey indictments against saloon keepers in Moundsville and Benwood. Three were found against Homer Logan and Jesse Logan for breaking into residences in Moundsville some time since, and one against the three parties who stole a skill at Benwood and who are now in jail at Moundsville. All the cases will be tried at the term of the circuit court which is now in session. T. B. McFarland was foreman of the jury.

side wrapper of each set. The books

Preston-Thompson.

Miss Elizabeth, the only daughter of Col. W. P. Thompson, president of the National Lead Company, was married Wednesday at noon at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal church, New York, by the Rev. David Greer, to Ralph Julius Preston, of Colorado. A delicious wedding breakfast was served at the residence of her parents, No. 15 West Fifty-first street, immediately following the wedding. Colonel Thompson, as is generally known, is a native of this county, and a son of the late Judge George W. Thompson, and brother-in-law of Senator Camden. His mother still resides at the family home, Steensrod Place, National road.

Simpson-Pipes.

A pretty home wedding occurred last evening at the residence of Capt. J. M.
Pipes, 810 N. Jersey avenue northwest, says the Washington Post of yesterday, in which his accomplished daughter, Miss Pearl Hervey, and Mr. Frank Henderson Simpson, of Illinois, were the principals. The parlors were beautifully decorated with palms and flowers. Rev. George O. Little, D. D., pastor of Assembly Presbyterian church, performed the impressive ceremony.
Messrs. Elmer Shane and William H.
Matthews were the groomsmen. The wedding march was rendered by Miss Julia McDowell. The bride wore a very becoming traveling gown. A delectable collation was served at 10 o'clock, and at midnight Mr. and Mrs. Simpson left over the Baltimore and Ohio for Parkersburg, Ill., their future home, followed by the well wishes of a host of friends in this city. The presents received by the bride were handsome and numerous.

Among those present were Capt. and Mrs. J. M. Pipes, Mr. and Mrs. J. H.
Simpson, Mr. Leroy Pipes, Mr. Saul Simpson, Mr. Hal F. Pipes, Mrs. Rev.
J. H. Flannigan, of Grafton, W. Va., Mrs. Jane Hill, of Triadelphia, W. Va.

WILL MAKE THEIR ICE.

The Consumers Have a Largely Attended Meeting to Decide

WHAT TO DO ABOUT THE BIG PRICES

Mr. Conner, of the Ice and Storage Company, is Present and Talks Plainly—Another Meeting to be Held, at Which a New Ice Plant Will, in All Probability, be Decided On.

Saloon keepers, hotel keepers, butchers and other large consumers of ice held a largely attended meeting in Mc-Laughlin's hall yesterday afternoon.
Mr. Henry Dieberson presided and Charles Amick acted as secretary. The object was to decide what course to pursue in view of the increase of the price of ice from $2 50, which consumers say is what they paid last year, to $4 for eight months in the year and $5 for June, July, August and September.

Mr. Conner, of the Wheeling Ice and Storage Company, was present. Some of the consumers objected to this, but no action was taken. He said the company proposed to charge the prices announced in yesterday's INTELLIGENCER, as printed above. Ice was like any other commodity—when scarce consumers may expect to pay more for it.
He said he had the capacity to make all the ice needed by this market, and practically announced his determination to sell it. He said if another plant were to start he would sell ice as cheap as to keep out its competition.

A committee was appointed to ascertain what an adequate plant would cost.
It was stated one could be put in for $15,000. It is a general impression that at another meeting a consumers' ice company will be formed, all those interested pledging themselves to buy ice from that company.

It was asserted in the course of the pretty lively proceedings that the highest cost to the Ice and Storage Company for making ice in its entire career was $1 25 a ton, and a gentleman prominently connected with the company was quoted as authority for this statement.

One consumer present asserted that Mr. Conner had offered last year to sell him ice at 20 cents a hundred, which he denied. After a warm passage between them, however, he said perhaps he did.

A prominent saloon keeper says Mr.
Conner sometime ago told him if anybody else offered to sell ice at 75 cents a ton he could make it to sell at 70.

Mr. Conner said in the meeting yesterday that the newspapers broke out about this time every year with a lot of unreliable figures and statements, and that they were responsible for the feeling of the consumers. Considering the way the consumers are stirred up just now, Mr. Conner must have a high opinion of the influence of the newspapers.

is drawing over the earth her velvety carpet of green. The silver streams have burst their icy shackles and joined their Fashion has set the styles of the departed season on the shelves of memory, bringing in their stead the lighter, brighter, newer, comelier conceits to welcome back the days of sunshine, and where should you look to find them but HERE? Such a satisfaction as you well know, this season has no precedent. 'Twas us who brought the Ready-Made Clothes up to that level of superior excellence that overshadows the toiling of the merchant tailor. We're persistent plodders—progressors sole successors to our own past successes. Our made Clothes have long been on a par with the best that could be made. At last they are better.

EXCELSIOR better, because the Styles are the Latest, the Variety three times the Greatest; because the Fabrics are the Finest, the Trimmings the Richest, the Fit the Truest, the Prices the Lowest. Certainly the crown of excellence rests largely on our head.
