W. C. T. U. Convention

On Tuesday, June 5, the annual state convention of the W. C. T. U. will meet in the Fourth Street M. E. church, and remain in session two days. An unusually large attendance is expected.

Change of Time Table.

Passenger Agent J. G. Tomlinson, of the Pan Handle & Elm Grove Railroad, has received information that there will be important changes in the passenger schedule of his road, to go into effect to-morrow. He had received no specific information last night.

His Eye Destroyed.

John J. O'Kane, a son of the postmaster, came home yesterday from St. John's College, at Fordham, N. Y. Recently while playing ball there he was struck in the eye, and so seriously injured that he was afterwards attacked with hemorrhage in the eye, which will destroy the sight of one eye.

Bought a Stallion.

Dr. Reifer returned from Pittsburgh yesterday afternoon, where he closed a deal for the purchase of the famous stallion, Claudius Denmark. This is quite an acquisition in horse flesh for Wheeling. Claudius Denmark, it will be remembered, took the premium at the World's Fair for saddle purposes.

Union Veteran Legion.

Encampment No. 119 held a well attended meeting at the G. A. R. hall at its last session. Business pertaining to memorial services to be held at their hall on June 14 was perfected.
Arrangements were made to attend services at the Thomson M. E. church Sunday evening, May 27. All old soldiers are cordially invited to meet with them at G. A. R. hall at 6 o'clock p. m. and participate.

Pittsburgh Postal Employees.

The Pittsburgh postoffice employees who are to visit their brethren of the Wheeling force will arrive here at 10:20 to-morrow forenoon, and will be taken to Mozart park for a day's outing. There will not be so many of them as was at first expected, the late storms and floods having caused such an accumulation of mail that many of them will have to remain on duty over Sunday. It is now thought fifty or seventy-five of them will be here.

In Clerk Hook's Office.

Catherine Aul yesterday qualified as executrix of the will of Conrad Aul, deceased, and gave bond in $8,000, no surety being required by the terms of the will.

Rev. D. B. Updegraff's Funeral.

The funeral of the late Rev. David B. Updegraff was held in the yearly meeting house at Mt. Pleasant yesterday afternoon, and was one of the largest in the history of the county. The large church was crowded. The eight children attended the funeral. Rev. Dr. Dongan, of Indianapolis, Joseph Smith, the evangelist, and Rev. S. W. Pringle and A. H. Hussey, of Mt. Pleasant, officiated. The music rendered was "Haven of Rest," "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name," "God Be With You Till We Meet Again," and "Shall We Meet Beyond the River?" The pall bearers were I. K. Hatchette, William White, Oliver Plummer, Capt. James G. Theaker and Robert Lawrence. The interment was at the family burying ground near Mt. Pleasant. The memorial sermon will be preached in the Friends' meeting house at Mt. Pleasant to-morrow at 2:30 by Joseph Smith, the evangelist.

The Republicans of the Different Wards Active.

TWO GOOD CLUB MEETINGS HELD.

The Fifth Ward Night in it, with a Fine List of Officers and Delegates. The Third Ward Also has a Rousing Meeting and Chooses Influential Men as Delegates to Fairmont.

The Republicans of the city are evidently awake and eager for the coming fray. All the club meetings so far held, even so early in the season, have been attended by large and enthusiastic crowds, and everybody regards the outlook as unprecedentedly bright.

This was particularly so of the Fifth Ward Republican club meeting, held at 1010 Market street last evening. There was scarcely standing room for those present. It was an unusually and unexpectedly large attendance at such a meeting.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year as follows: President, Dr. D. H. Taylor; vice president, G. W. Mabis; secretary, John D. Hall; treasurer, John E. Reed; executive committee, J. K. Hall, S. H. Kasley and Charles Bachmann.

Delegates to Fairmont were chosen as follows: Hon. N. E. Whitaker, P. Bachmann, Thomas A. Little, Dominick Morris and George Kemple.

Alternates, W. D. Robertson, Dr. A. F. Gasmiro, G. W. Mabis, John H. Reed and R. M. Williamson.

An unusually large number of voters also attended the meeting of the Third ward club, at the office of S. G. Smith, on Chapline street. Mr. Smith presided, and William H. Hornish acted as secretary. Messrs. John Kindelberger, Howard Atkinson and William H. Hornish were appointed a committee to report on a new plan of organization.

The following were chosen delegates and alternates to the convention of the State League of Republican Clubs: Delegates—John Frew, John Kindelberger, William H. Hornish, George Johnson, S. G. Smith. Alternates—G. E. Mendel, Harry McLure, Howard Atkinson, I. E. Freese, Frank Nesbitt.

The Railroad Company Lost.

In Squire Caldwell's court last evening the jury in the case of Mrs. Elvira Ripley (now Mrs. Weishart), whom the Pan-Handle railroad tried to eject from the lot she now occupies and which is part of the site of the proposed new passenger station, gave a verdict in favor of Mrs. Weishart. The suit will be taken to a higher court.
