THE GROCERS' DAY

Was Observed for the Sixth Time at Mozart Park Yesterday

AND WAS A GREAT BIG SUCCESS.

The Parade Early in the Afternoon Attracted Lots of Attention and Was Quite Creditable—The Afternoon at the Breezy Hill-top Resort. Results of the Various Speed Contests—Notes of the Day.

The grocers have a winning and glib way of doing things up brown—sometimes in brown paper—and the sixth annual picnic and outing of the Wheeling fraternity was no exception to the rule.

As a newly arrived stevedore would arise to remark, the affair "was a'owlin' an' bloomin' success." Nearly five thousand people who passed up the Mozart Park incline to that breezy resort, will, with one accord like the King of France's ten thousand men, take a breath and echo the sentiment.

The grocery stores of the city closed their doors for the afternoon and at 1 o'clock the grand street demonstration took place, and was one of the finest in the history of Grocers' Day in Wheeling.

The line formed at I. O. O. F. hall at the corner of Twelfth and Chapline streets. C. K. Smith was the efficient grand marshal and Henry W. Schrobo was assistant marshal. The line formed as follows: Grand Marshal Smith and Assistant Marshal Deibel of police under command of Lieutenant Lehner.

The demonstration attracted universal interest and admiration, the festive drummer with step so jaunty monopolizing most of the attention of the spectators. The line of march was as follows: Dawn Chaplins to Fourteenth, to Market, up to Twelfth, down to Main, down to Twenty-second, up to Chapline, down to Twenty-seventh, up to Eolk, down to Thirty-ninth, up to Jacob, down to Park incline.

For several hours there was a waiting multitude at the foot of the incline plane railway, the facilities being far below the necessities of the occasion. At 6 o'clock 4,000 people had passed up, and after supper a thousand others went up for the evening's entertainment, making the picnic the most successful ever given by the grocers.

The afternoon on the hill tops was as most enjoyable one, the oppressive heat felt in town being a welcome absence. Ten-plus was the game that caught most everybody that could get within breathing distance of the alleys, and some good—and bad—scores were made. At the dancing pavilion those who had an inclination for the light fantastic were strictly in it, thirty-two numbers being on the programme.

A number of speed events were on the afternoon card, and all were witnessed by large crowds. The bicycle race took place on the quarter-mile cinder track round the crown of the hill, and was warmly contested by four riders, Henry Hoffman, Monahan, A. I. Ulrich and Howard Schaefer. The latter proved to be both speedy and lucky, avoiding the falls that fell to the others. Hoffman's friends claim that but for a fall he would have been the winner.

The walking match (opposite directions) was one of the most enjoyable features, and resulted as follows: John Waterhouse, first; Jerry Ellenberger, second; Mr. Hubbard, third; William Ellingham, fourth. The gentleman who finished fourth and last was a hot favorite, and his poor showing was a great disappointment.

The scene in the park last evening with the myriad of air lights illuminating almost every spot was brilliant indeed. During the evening a prize bowling contest took place and was hotly contested. William Knoke, of the South Side team, made the best score, 203; Harry V. Arko, second, 200; Will B. Day, third, 195, and a number of others not far behind. The winter took down a dozen brooms.

The brilliant success scored by the grocers yesterday is in a great measure due to the indefatigable efforts of the committees, composed of the following gentlemen: Committee on Dancing—John W. Herbert, P. Vieweg and Ed Schrolner. Committee on Amusement—Adam Feirenbach, Charles F. Gilligan, Gus Mager, Charles B. Miller, Leo Wolf, John B. Rickus, J. Finny, Ed Steele, William Steinbecker, Ed C. Bayha, Daniel Wagner, Joseph Dudley, Fred Steinbecker, Charles Klein.

Committee on Arrangements—J. C. Stroebel, chairman; H. W. Schrobo, John Mehlmann, J. F. Vieweg, Thomas Killeen.

THE CATHOLIC PICNIC.

A Number of Valuable Prizes Have Been Put Up.

Arrangements for the united Catholic picnic that will take place at Wheeling Park next Monday are progressing finely, and the affair will no doubt be a great success. A number of athletic events are on the program, including the bicycle road race, putting the shot, throwing the hammer, standing broad jump, three-legged race, sack and potato races, candle race, sausage contest, etc. Already the prize list is of respectable proportions, and more will be added. It is as follows:

Dinger Bros. fine hat; Jacob Good, fine hat; Guinan & Co., shirt; Gundling & Co., shirt; G. A. Bentler, hat; O'Kane & Co., bicycle shoes; James Divine, slippers; "Hub," sweater; Hess & Sons, two silk umbrellas; M. J. McFadden, silk umbrella; D. Schambra & Sons, tailor made bicycle pants; P. J. Donahue, silver cup; Helmer Hardware Co., razor; G. Rosenhain, dress shirt; McCoy Shoe Co., pair of shoes; Boxes of cigars from P. J. Gavin, Hugo Loos, J. H. McKee, J. J. Sheekey and William McLaughlin; Lukins & Higgins, shaving brush; J. A. White, pocket pen-knife; Alexander & Co., pair Russia calf shoes; Locke Shoe Co., pair patent leather shoes; Joseph Hasenauer, pair russet shoes; Geo. M. Saook & Co., silk handkerchief.

The road race will be started probably on Fifteenth street and an Elm Grove train will leave at the same time. The passengers can witness the race from start to finish. The prizes will be classified to-day.

LINCOLN SCHOOL PICNIC.

An Enjoyable Day Spent at Wheeling Park Yesterday.

Yesterday, at Wheeling Park, the annual picnic of the Lincoln school scholars took place and was one of the most successful ever held under the auspices of the school. To Prof. Jones much credit is due for the smooth manner in which the affair was conducted.

The scholars, parents, friends and teachers went out on a motor train early in the morning and remained until evening. There was a number of athletic events which resulted as follows: Foot race, 100-yard dash—Harrison Sluans, first; John Redman, second; Ben Jackson, third; Ed. Jones, fourth; Cal Foster, fifth. Time 15 seconds.

One-mile running race—Joseph Franklin, first; Charles Williams, second. Time 7 minutes.

Running race, 50 yards (juniors)—Morris Carpenter, first; Crawford Berry second; Cecil Lee, third; Earl Baldwin, fourth. Time 10 minutes.

Running race, 100 yards (junior time)—John Williams, time 11 seconds. Broad jump—Donnie, 13 feet 3 inches; Ben Jackson, 14 feet; John Williams, 17 feet.

One-half mile bicycle race—John Williams, first; Charles Haymond, second. Time, 1:10.

High sticking—Charles Williams, 9 feet 7 inches; Ben Jackson, 9 feet.

A FIREMAN KILLED.

Otto Howers Meets his Death on the Railroad.

Yesterday forenoon Otto Howers, a Baltimore & Ohio fireman, met his death on the railroad track at Twenty-fourth street. He lived at McLechee, and he boarded a freight train to ride to the city. At Twenty-fourth street, while the train was going at a pretty rapid speed, he undertook to alight. He carried with him a shot gun, and this in some way caught on the car, throwing him to the ground on his head in such a way that his skull was crushed, the brain issuing from the fracture. His right foot was also caught beneath the wheels and he was dragged a considerable distance. He died in a few minutes.

Howers was about thirty years old, and leaves a wife, one Miss Connelly, and two children, the older less than two years of age. He was a brother of Harry Howers, a former electrical railway employe, now in the penitentiary for passing counterfeit money.
