

BUTCHERS' BANQUET.

The Wheeling Association Presented With a Banner

BY LADIES OF THE ASSOCIATION.

Over One Hundred and Fifty Attended, and a Very Enjoyable Time Was Enjoyed—Presentation Speech by Mrs. Adolph, and Response by President Ochsenshein—A Banquet and a Dance Follow the Presentation.

A very enjoyable social event took place at the Odd Fellows' hall, at the corner of Chapline and Twelfth streets, last evening. It was a banner presentation and banquet, in which the Butchers' Protective Association and the ladies' auxiliary society figured in the foremost roles.

The formal presentation was followed up by a social session and a banquet was then in order. This was furnished by VanKeuren, and was a credit to that well known caterer.

After the banquet the hall was cleared and dancing was the order of the evening, until an early hour this morning.

"YOM KIPPUR" CELEBRATED. The Jewish Holiday Duty Observed here Yesterday.

Yesterday the Jewish people of Wheeling, in common with their brethren all over the world, observed the solemn fast day of Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement. Services were held in the synagogue, and Rabbi B. A. Bonheim preached a very able sermon in the forenoon.

As the name of the feast implies, the Day of Atonement affords an opportunity to atone for sins committed and to forgive even the worst enemies. No food, either solid or liquid, was partaken of from sundown to sundown.

The feast of the tabernacle falls on the 15th inst., and lasts for eight days. This feast is one of rejoicing, and in many places booths are built in the open air and covered with leaves and boughs.

Next Saturday at Mozart park a benefit picnic will be given, the proceeds to go to James Coulter, of the South Side, a former puddler at the La Belle mill, who has been stricken with blindness.

LEWIS DEMOCRATS

Do Not Appreciate the Oratorical Feast Spread for Them—The Speakers Contradict Each Other.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

WESTON, W. Va., Oct. 10.—A meeting addressed by M. D. Post and W. W. Brannon, chairman of the Democratic executive committee of Lewis county, was held last night in a boot and shoe shop at Gaston, in Skin Creek district, which heretofore has been a Democratic stronghold.

The speakers openly and flatly contradicted each other as to the cause of the hard times. Post said they came because the Republicans hoarded all their money and shut down all their mills and factories in order to embarrass and break the back of the Democracy at once upon its assuming control of the government.

Brannon declared that the hard times came as the natural result of Republican legislation. Post wanted to go back to the old Hamiltonian idea of pure government.

Brannon denounced Hamilton as the founder of Republicanism and as opposed to free government, and spent much time in showing up the virtues of Thomas Jefferson. The vital issues were entirely evaded, and such was the dissatisfaction and the lack of interest and attention that at seven different times the speakers were compelled to stop and demand order, and finally to threaten to take the names of those who persisted in talking aloud and bleating like sheep as often as the words "sheep" and "wool" were pronounced.

THE LATEST RITES

Performed Over the Body of Andrew Gregg Curtin, Pennsylvania's War Governor.

BELLEFOUNTE, Pa., Oct. 10.—This town is draped in mourning to-day in honor to the memory of Andrew Gregg Curtin, who was laid at rest this afternoon. At 10 o'clock this morning a memorial meeting was held in the court house, a great number of distinguished men being present.

Touching addresses were made by Colonel Mann, of Philadelphia; Governor Pattison, ex-Senator John Scott, of Philadelphia; A. K. McClure, of Philadelphia; ex-Senator Wallace, Hon. John Bailey, of Huntington, and General J. P. S. Gobin, of Lebanon.

At 12 o'clock the ex-governor's body was borne from the family residence to the court house, where it remained until 1:30, thousands of people viewing the remains while they lay in state. The body was then taken back to the Gregg mansion, where, at 2 o'clock, the funeral services were held.

The casket was of red cedar, covered with black broadcloth, lined with black satin, the plate containing only the name, "Andrew Gregg Curtin." The funeral cortege was as follows:

Military escort, consisting of battery of artillery, troop of cavalry and nine companies of infantry; special escort of G. A. R.; clergy in carriages; the honorary pall bearers, consisting of Governor Pattison, John Dean, John Scott, ex-Senator Wallace, General Bevier, General Hastings, General Taylor, of Philadelphia, A. B. McClure, Colonel W. B. Mann, Judge Furst, Morton McMichael, Judge Craig Biddle, Thomas Collins and E. C. Humes; the hearse and carriers; family and friends; representatives of Pennsylvania Reserve Association; representatives of the Union League; general officers of the N. G. P.; governor's staff and staffs of the general officers of the national guard; representatives of the Centre county veteran association; battalion of Pennsylvania state college cadets; president and members of the town council of Bellefonte and the citizens.

COMPARATIVELY QUIET

Is the Condition of the Wool Market—No Improvement Noticeable.

Boston, Oct. 10.—The American Wool and Cotton Reporter will say to-morrow of the wool trade:

We have had a comparatively quiet market since last writing, although considerable more domestic wool has been sold than in the previous week. Most kinds of domestic are selling in a quiet way. Fleeces are moving some, especially the coarser grades at quotations. Fine wools, while not quite so active, are being taken in a small way.

Anything in desirable parcels is selling at current rates. The coarser grades of domestic pulled wool are in good demand. Fair sales of foreign wool have been made this week, although the quantity taken shows a considerable falling off from last week. This signifies nothing; manufacturers generally realize that they can find, as they may want it, a better Australia here and more of it, cheaper than it can be obtained abroad.

Scoured wools of various sorts have had a good week. Wools are being held in Ohio above this market. The sales of the week amount to 2,363,000 pounds domestic and $89,000 foreign, making a total of 2,522,000 pounds against a total of 3,224,950 for the previous week and a total of 1,691,500 for the corresponding week last year. The sales since January 1, 1894, amount to 115,125,335 pounds against 91,308,000 pounds a year ago. The aggregate sales for the week in Philadelphia were 1,207,940.
