The First Night's Entertainment at Odd Fellow's Hall

MEETS WITH PHENOMENAL SUCCESS

The Attractions for To-day Insure a Large Attendance—An Afternoon Lunch and a Session for the Children—Last Night's Opening Attended by a Large Number of Delighted Visitors—The Programme for To-day.

The opening night of the City Hospital benefit at Odd Fellow's hall surpassed in attendance the most sanguine anticipations of the promoters and participants. The number in attendance was variously estimated at from five to eight hundred people, and all left with a sense of gratification that testified in more complimentary manner than scores of neatly turned phrases the appreciation of the guests of the charming manner of their entertainment. The supper table was the first attraction, and the dining room with its wealth of flowers and decorations, added to the gleam of the silver and the snowy table draperies, presented a scene of beauty, and the appetite was appealed to by the tempting cookery and the attention of the obliging ladies in charge. The supper committee, under the able generalship of Mrs. John Frew, and the entire committee in charge of the dining room are certainly entitled to credit for the excellency of the cuisine and the perfection they have attained. To-day a business men's lunch will be served from 12 to 2 o'clock. The following is the menu: Oyster soup, potato-salad, turkey, ham, baked beans, biscuit and rolls, jelly, pickles, coffee, pie and doughnuts. This will be an opportunity for the business men to get a fine lunch and will no doubt receive a liberal patronage. At 5 in the evening the regular supper will begin and continue until 8 p. m. The following ladies have the dining room in charge: Mrs. John Frew, Miss Mary Vance, Miss Cooke Wilson, Mrs. Joseph Metcalf, Mrs. Rebecca Harden.

The seven tables are each presided over by a sub-committee as follows: Mrs. N. E. Scott, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Mary Franzheim, Mrs. A. Mabie, Mrs. J. J. Jones, Mrs. H. B. Giffen, Miss Mary Dickey, Mrs. Laura Lawson. Mrs. Alfred Paul, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Howard Hazlett, Mrs. John Lynch, Mrs. D. C. List, Jr., Miss Sadie Bates, Miss Hettie List, Miss Ada Jenson.

Mrs. Dr. H. H. Harrison, chairman, assisted by Mrs. G. H. McMecheon, Mrs. A. M. Stevenson, Mrs. Henry Baer, Mrs. William Tierman, Mrs. James Rhodes, Mrs. Bertha Baer, Mrs. Eliza Hoge. Miss Mary Frew, chairman, assisted by Miss Gussie Wright, Mrs. J. M. Weisling, Miss Janie Good, Miss Fannie Wells, Miss Allie Brown, Miss Minnie Bowie.

Mrs. James Cummins, chairman, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Mrs. William Caldwell, Mrs. J. Brillios, Mrs. Lawrence Sands, Miss Ann Cummins, Miss Lill Cummins, Miss Kate Allison. Mrs. Julius Pollock, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Charles B. Taney, Mrs. Jacob Grubb, Mrs. John P. Glass, Mrs. William McCoy, Miss Myrtle Finnell, Miss Julia Wilson, Miss D. Pollock.

Mr. Alex Campbell, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Cecil Robinson, Mrs. F. H. Lange, Mrs. J. Gardner, Mrs. J. H. Littell, Mrs. Walker Friswell, Miss Emily Campbell, Miss Sarah Hare. After securing a bounteous repast in the dining room the guests strolled up to the bazaar rooms and the expressions of delight upon entering the rooms were such as to fill the managers with a sense of gratification over the results of their labors. Upon the left hand as the stairs were ascended was the home of the Edison doll. The sign announces the startling fact that it "is an orphan and without either father or mother" and whether from a feeling of charity or out of curiosity the numbers that paid their respects to this interesting piece of mechanism were great. The room is tastefully decorated in pink and a large lamp sheds a mellow light throughout the room making it one of the prettiest spots in the bazaar. The doll sings, "Little Tommy Tucker sings for his supper," and other nursery rhymes. A photograph is also in this room and both are for one admission.

The refreshment room is to the north of the Edison doll booth and in it are the tables of the refreshment committee, the booths of the candy, flower and fruit committees. This room is decorated with evergreens and Japanese fans, and the different booths, with their red, white and yellow drapings add brightness to the scene. The candy booth is on the right hand side of the room and is draped in yellow. The display of candy and confections is a tempting one and the patronage bespoken the favor with which the committee's selection of sweetmeats was regarded. This booth was presided over by Miss Hare, chairman, assisted by Mrs. Barr, Mrs. Franzell, Mrs. Frank Hoffman, Mrs. Lutz, Mrs. John List, Misses Mary Dickey, Blanche Hoge, M. B. Hart, Mary Paul, Jennie Jenson, Martha Ott, Stella Eckhart, Mary Stifel, Blanche Hare, Bird Wilson, Elizabeth Mendel, Laura Conner, Alice Bates and Julia Savage.

In the right hand corner, facing Twelfth street, is the gipsy tent in which "La Zingarella" foretells the future, interprets the past, casts horoscopes and explains the mystery of the comings and goings. The numbers who had their secrets laid bare and received instructions regarding their future lives were sufficient guarantee of the correctness of the fair fortune teller's ability as a prophetess.

To the left of the gipsy tent are the flower pagoda and the fruit market. Here may be found the choicest collection of rare flowers. The chrysanthemum display is very beautiful and the cut and artificial flowers are very tastefully arranged. Here also are all the luxuries in domestic and tropical fruits, lemonade and the famous "Love Cure." The signs displayed are all original and show artistic composition. Among them are:

"To make your lass love you for hours, Fetch her in here and buy some flowers." "If you would see your future bright Consult 'La Zingarella' to-night." "To forget some little maiden sure Buy a bottle of our 'Love Cure'."

"Our flowers are fresh and long will keep, And, strange to say, we sell them cheap." "Lemonade so pure and sweet, Come and give your girl a treat."

"Each orange contains a prize— Something to delight the eyes." This booth is in charge of Mrs. A. M. Rice and with the assistance of Misses Sarah Horkheimer, Hattie Reed, Ella Steinfield, Marie Heymann, Belle Jacobs, Cora Gutman and Madeline Lou Swabacker, Ralph Klein and Ernest Baer did a thriving trade.

The rest of the room is occupied by the refreshment committee, where they serve ice cream, cake, lemonade, and other delicacies. Last night the room was well filled at all times and the committee's receipts were very good. This is under the management of Mrs. W. F. Butler, and with the aid of the following corps of assistants, Mesdames M. E. Metcalf, A. W. Kelley, S. L. Jenson, George K. Wheat, Morris Horkheimer, John Lutz, William Stifel, Edmund Becking, Fred Williams, J. D. Stanton, Heber List, Gibson Lamb, William Fee, B. W. Peterson, George E. House, J. E. Jones, L. E. Sanda, Mary Allison, M. J. Irwin, R. M. Baird, T. C. Moffat, Virginia Shaffer, H. B. Baguley, Mary Delaplaine, Misses Barclay, Belle Mendel, Sue Metcalf, Adelia Pollack, Sus Marsh, Hettie List and Miss Pryor attended to the wants of the large throng that at all times filled the room.

The room to the right was occupied by the doll, fancy table and other attractions and was filled at all times with an immense throng of admiring visitors and purchasers. The ante-room was fitted up as a smoking room and here the different kinds of tobacco were exhibited for sale and a neat divan arranged for such as wished to enjoy a fragrant Havana. Miss Florence Ott had charge of this department and for her assistants had the following ladies: Mrs. W. C. P. Muir, Misses Mary McMecheon, Lou Rinehart and Nellie Topping.

The fancy articles for sale were of a character which aroused the enthusiasm of all ladies interested in embroideries, hand painted china, table linens. All the exhibits were of hand decoration and met with a ready sale. The ladies having this department in charge were all kept busy dispensing the different wares. This department received the attention of the following ladies: Mesdames John L. Dickey, Jacob Grubb, Joseph Spindel, A. A. Wheat, William Isett, Misses Kate Hunter, Agnes Wilson, Nellie Frew, Emma Wheat, Jessie Berger, Lottie Johnson, Minnie Gilchrist, Janie Good, Ida Updegraff and Anna Johnson.

Miss Zoe McClure, chairman, and the following ladies: Mrs. K. R. Swope, Frank Hearne, Mrs. Ella Turner, Mrs. C. W. Franzheim, Mrs. Albert Whitaker, Miss Martha Caldwell, Miss Jessie Turner, Miss Nan Fisher, Miss Mary Moffat, Miss Elsie Whitaker, Miss Mamie Grubb, Miss Holly Patterson, Miss Bessie Lamb, Miss Virginia Hoge, Miss Gertrude List, Miss Lou Hubbard, Miss Sara Cecil, Miss Bessie Jenson, Miss Sue Baker, Miss Nellie Craddock, Miss Huida Delaplaine, Misses Brock-unny, Miss Mary Irwin, had a very pretty booth in the extreme end of the room, at which the doll representatives of the known world congregated. They were of all kinds and conditions and the success of the display was a credit to the committee.

In the east room of the bazaar the following programme was presented at 8:30 p. m., and was listened to with great attention:

Vocal Duet, "No Farnace, No Fire" Mrs. Flora Williams and Mr. Charles Zaluski. Recitation, "The Next Morning" Mr. Charles B. Ott. Vocal Solo, "Flowers of the Deep" Mrs. Flora Williams. Vocal Solo, "Out on the Alps" Mr. Charles Zaluski. Mrs. Charles Roemer, accompanist.

The numbers on this programme were all rendered in the finest manner possible and each performer received loud applause. To praise individual work to the exclusion of the others would be impossible, as the rendition of each of the numbers left nothing more to desire.

The work of the executive committee under the management of Mrs. Robert J. Reed, assisted by Mrs. W. J. V. Gowden, Mrs. W. A. Wilson, Mrs. George Wise and Mrs. John Moffat was so thorough that nothing less than a success could have been possible. The systematic organization of the different departments could not have been better arranged to facilitate the work.

To-day's bazaar will begin at 12 o'clock with a lunch and from 2 to 5 p. m. will be especially devoted to the children. The admission this afternoon for children will be but 5 cents and a large number of them will be present. For the children's benefit will be ten cent saucers of ice cream, candy bags, and a grab bag. The Edison doll will be present and repeat its part of the entertainment. The attractions at the doll booth will be an afternoon tea, a doll wedding, a May pole dance and a tennis party.

In the evening's entertainment selections will be given by Mrs. Nellie Sweeney-Palmer, Mrs. Charles Roemer, Mr. Ralph Heyman and Dr. Eugene Warren.

A MOTHER'S THANKS

The following letter was received by a lady prominently identified with the management of the Wheeling City Hospital from Mrs. Susie C. Bullock, of Brooklyn, Conn. Mrs. Bullock's son came to Wheeling and took charge of a local insurance office. Soon after his arrival here he was stricken with typhoid fever and was taken to the City hospital, where the disease proved fatal. The mother thanks the management and attendants for their care for her son and expresses her gratitude for the attention shown in her son's sickness. The following extract is taken from her letter.

"God bless you, and make His face shine upon you and give you peace for all you have done. Try to think what a refuge that beautiful hospital was to us—perfect strangers—without a home, and what you did for my precious boy, having him laid in that beautiful room, so homelike and refined. Think what a comfort it all was to us, and toil on in the interest of that beautiful spot—there can be no more beautiful work. I think of all the nurses, especially Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Johnson, with tenderest love. I wish you would tell all the managers and the secretary what that hospital was to us, that they may be inspired to labor on in its interests. I wish it were in my power to do something as a memorial for it, but, alas, this is a hard year for the widow."

The Play To-morrow Night.

The new play entitled "On the Mississippi" is the work of William Hawthorn, and its production is one of the enterprises of Thomas H. Davis. It is a drama marked by an abundance of stirring incidents and by rapid changes of scene. As a presentation it is full of animation and color. It deals with the attempts of two members of the Ku Klux Klan to make use of that once formidable body in furthering their private invidious schemes against the hero of the play. Several of the scenes are played in New Orleans at the time of the Mardi Gras carnival. A floating theatre also is shown, and the piece abounds in comedy and specialties. This play will come to the Opera House Thursday evening.

The Pan-Handle Dyeing establishment, owned by John Heilmor, at No. 1431 Market street, is the best equipped house of its kind in Wheeling. In addition to the dyeing and cleaning departments a corps of first-class tailors are employed, who can do repairing as neat as it is possible. Clothes and ladies' garments, cleaned or dyed, can be made to look like new. Satisfaction guaranteed.

IS OLD AGE PITIABLE?

Not While Vigor and Zest in Living Lasts.

Bismarck, Gladstone and Holmes Full of Years and Honor.

They Keep Their Blood Well Stocked—Their Nerves Well Fed.

Some people carefully disguise the fact. But a coat of paint on an old building only makes it look smart; it doesn't keep the rickety old staircases from creaking nor make the framework stronger. What is needed is fresh bricks and mortar.

Fresh blood and new tissues are the building materials that tired human bodies need. Paine's celery compound supplies all the elements for building up the worn-out, exhausted nerves and tissues.

One is never older than he feels. Many are young at seventy, and the world is full of men and women who are old in heart and spirits at thirty. Nothing "ages" one like illness. To keep young, keep well; keep the nerves calm, the blood ruddy, the system well fed. And when the sudden attack of fever or the heavy cold comes thesturdy, because well-nourished, body will resist and prevent calamitous results.

All over the country there are hard-worked business men, and men in public offices, subjected to incessant criticism and fearful nervous strain, who appreciate the saving power of Professor Phelps' remarkable discovery, Paine's celery compound. In the thousands of cases where overwrought brains have at last refused the sleep that they so vitally needed, this great modern nerve nutriment has brought the happiest results. Multitudes of women reduced in strength, half sick and on the road to becoming life-long invalids, have sent in heartfelt stories of their rapid gain in vigor after a trial of Paine's celery compound.

"It takes years off their aching shoulders."

As the years go on, the regular tick-tick of the heart and the rhythmic action of the digestive organs and the brain slow up and the strength must be economized. The important organs need more frequent assistance and encouragement. Paine's celery compound gives just the needed stimulus to digestion and assimilation that the system requires. It purifies the slowly moving blood of any bad humor that its stagnant flow is apt to engender, and thus removes rheumatism, neuralgia, heart palpitation, nervous weakness, sleeplessness and troubles with kidneys, liver and stomach.

It was a favorite remark of the famous Dr. Parr when 106 years old, that he had always taken care to keep his body well nourished. Pure blood and healthy activity of the nervous system makes a happy, hopeful, useful old age. Paine's celery compound makes people well.
