LOCAL INCIDENTS.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

EIGHTY-EVEN criminals have been sent to the penitentiary from Belmont county during the past four years.

LAST evening the Island club gave a very enjoyable "stag" whist party for the members and friends. The evening was highly enjoyed by all.

A power of attorney was yesterday filed with Clerk Hook, made by the Canton Hedge Fence Company to W. A. Wilson.

NEXT Monday evening the beautiful and talented Marie Wainwright will appear at the Opera House in a new and successful society drama, "Daughters of Eve." She has a great company.

In the police court yesterday Ella Wheeler was fined $1 and costs for disorderly conduct, and Charles Kelly, a stranger, was let go on promising to leave town. This was all there was of the court.

A PITTSBURGH exchange says that President Garland of the Amalgamated Association, believes that before another month all the tin plate mills will be in operation at the union rate of wages. It is reported that several mill owners are ready to pay the scale.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the First Christian church, of this city, are making extensive preparations for their bazaar, to be held on Thursday, December 6, in the L. O. O. F. Assembly hall, corner Twelfth and Chapline streets. The menu for luncheon and dinner, to be served in connection therewith, includes all the delicacies and substantial of the season.

Ohio River Summer Resort. E. H. Dellenbach, one of the owners of the Hotel Schlosser, intends to make a summer resort of the well known Half-Moon Farm near Steubenville, recently purchased by him, says the Pittsburgh Dispatch. A hotel will be built, ready for occupancy next season.

Another Fine Improvement. Mr. Charles Loedler is having plans prepared for a new six-story brick business block on Main street, near South, over the building formerly occupied by the McCoy Shoe Company. It will be occupied by W. A. Wilson & Co. It is intended to make it as fine a "skyscraper" as there is in Wheeling. It will add much to the appearance of the business part of the town, which has already taken on a very metropolitan appearance.

Council Finance Committee. Last evening the council committee on finance met to dispose of a few small remnants of appropriations left over after the improvements were paid for. There was a great deal of discussion, and finally the re-appropriation of the funds was left to the councilmen from the wards where the balances existed. Mr. Maxwell desired to apply a part of it to paving with brick a roadway leading to the Island ferry, and the members of the committee seemed to favor this, but declined to take final action until the councilmen most directly interested could give their views on the subject.

In the Circuit Court. In the circuit court yesterday, in the case of William G. Clator and James McDama vs. Green B. Jefferson et al., the priority of liens was settled and the sale of the property ordered.

On petition of Sheriff A. A. Franzheim he was allowed to dispose of a portion of the estate of Mary Heinrich, for whom he was appointed committee by the court, the proceeds to be applied to her maintenance.

Deputy Clerk John Walton has designed a new form for printing the court docket, which is convenient and attractive. He is receiving many compliments on it, and the idea will no doubt be widely copied. He should have copyrighted it.

To-day's Features at the Bazaar will be a lunch from 12 to 2 o'clock with this menu: Oyster soup, potato salad, turkey, ham, baked beans, biscuit and rolls, jelly, pickles, coffee, pies and doughnuts; lunch tickets, 25 cents. A Household Treasure. D. W. Fuller, of Canajoharie, N. Y., says that he always keeps Dr. King's New Discovery in the house and his family has always found the very best results follow its use; that he would not be without it, if procurable. G. A. Dykeman, Druggist, Catskill, N. Y., says that Dr. King's New Discovery is undoubtedly the best cough remedy; that he has used it in his family for eight years, and it has never failed to do all that is claimed for it. Why not try a remedy so long tried and tested. Trial bottles free at Logan Drug Co.'s drug store. Regular size 50c, and $1 00. 3

IS IN TROUBLE AGAIN.

"Roxey" O'Neal Arrested Over the River Yesterday.

IS CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY.

He Stole a Roll of Money from a Roommate and a Suit of Clothes from the Hotel Keeper—The Suit Recovered, but he Refuses to Come Back without a Requisition.

"Roxey" O'Neal is again in custody, and on the same old charge, stealing. This time he may not get off so fortunately as he has heretofore. He has been convicted of petit larceny before, and that fact, if alleged in an indictment for the present offense will make this a felony, even if grand larceny cannot be proven this time, as it seems probable it may. The arrest was made at Martin's Ferry, and after he was locked up O'Neal said he would come back to Wheeling without a requisition. Lieut. Lukins at once went over to bring him here, but after consideration he refused to come, and still languishes in the Martin's Ferry lockup. Night before last Roxey was at Bierey's hotel, in the bar with a crowd of men, when the proprietor said it was time to shut up. Several of the men went up to bed, Roxey and Charles Smith being in the party. There were four or five men in the room. When they got up yesterday morning Mr. Bierey found that he had had a suit of clothes stolen from his bedside and Smith that he was poorer by $24, that being the value of a roll he carried in his pocket.

O'Neal was quickly located in Martin's Ferry, and arrested. When he refused to come back to the city the stolen suit and a pair of shoes he had taken from another man were taken from him. He had no money. Requisition papers will be obtained for him as soon as possible, and he will have to come whether he wants to or not.

There are two warrants out besides this one for O'Neal, one for larceny and one for obtaining money under false pretenses.

HE WAS FOUND GUILTY.

Former Reports were Erroneous as to Squire Arkle's Case.

The INTELLIGENCER and all the other Wheeling papers have printed the statement that Squire George Arkle was acquitted of the charge of larceny in North Carolina, but the following from a special telegram to the Baltimore Sun would indicate that the information was incorrect:

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 12.—A trial which has attracted much attention in two states has ended in Whitville, N. C., in the conviction of George Arkle, a prominent citizen of Wheeling, W. Va., of larceny. The case is a strange one. Nearly two years ago J. B. Harrelson, treasurer of Columbus county, N. C., lost his pocketbook on a train near Wilmington. Arkle and wife were on the train. She showed him the pocketbook lying on the floor. He picked it up and found it contained $140 in money, a $390 check, $2,500 in certificates of deposit and a railway pass in Harrelson's name. Arkle took the book to Wheeling. There he wrote to a Wilmington bank and asked if any of its depositors had lost anything of value. He was told of Harrelson's loss. Arkle then wrote to Harrelson asking for a description. This was given. Then Arkle informed him that on the receipt of $200 the pocketbook would be sent him. He sent Harrelson later the book and contents, except the money. Harrelson declined to pay the reward, considering it excessive, and took legal steps to get the money. Arkle defied him and told him West Virginia's governor would not grant a requisition. The grand jury of Columbus county, N. C., indicted Arkle for larceny. Governor Carr made a requisition for him, he was taken to Columbus county and tried and promptly convicted. Arkle was astounded at the verdict, and with penitentiary imprisonment staring him in the face gave up the money. It is said to-day that perhaps the verdict will be set aside if Arkle pays the costs, which are $500.

Squire Gillespy's Court.

Besides issuing a warrant for Roxey O'Neal yesterday Squire Gillespy had before him three cases against Mrs. Hattie Jackson, colored, brought by her husband, Howard Jackson. On a charge of assault and battery, she was fined $5 and costs, for profane language $1 and costs, and a peace warrant was dismissed at the costs of the complainant.

A Lunatic Escapes.

Not long ago A. D. McIntyre was arrested here as a lunatic, but on examination was dismissed. Later he tried to commit suicide, and was again arrested, and Squire Gillespy sent him to the state asylum at Spencer. Yesterday a telegram was received from there saying that McIntyre had escaped. His friends fear that he will kill himself if not soon caught.
