

ELECTED OFFICERS.

Trades Assembly Organizes for the ensuing Twelve Months.

W. H. RILEY ELECTED PRESIDENT

And "Old Reliable" T. V. Salisbury Secures the Honor of a Re-election as Secretary Unanimously—Mr. Tighe is the Vice-President—List of the New Delegates to the Assembly. Business Transacted.

Yesterday was the first regular meeting of the newly elected members of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, the local representative labor organization. The attendance of delegates was very good, nearly every new delegate being present. It was noticeable that a good number of the old delegates are now retired, and an equally large number of new faces are seen. President Robertson presided, and Secretary Salisbury was at the desk. The following...

PRESIDENT RILEY.

ing delegates elected for the ensuing term of twelve months were obligated: Knights of Labor, Local Assembly No. 255—William LaTouche, Ed Collins. Journeymen Butchers' Association, No. 5502—August Messler, Josef Bellville and George Bauer. Carriage and Wagon Workers' Union—F. F. Farrell. Wheeling Typographical Union, No. 70—Richard Robertson, Ned Sims and A. H. Stephenson. United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, Union No. 3—G. W. Clifton, Louis Balkey and J. W. Harmon. Hod Carriers' Union No. 5023—Gabriel Jackson, Edward Strautman and Thomas Thompson. United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners, Union No. 14—Thomas V. Salisbury, J. P. Faust and J. Wilson. Coopers' Union No. 27—H. A. Uthman. United Mine Workers, No. 146—Jere Mead, John Donohue and H. A. Foster. Operative Potters, No. 6—Samuel Henderson, John Gundlach and William Hughes. National Progressive Union, No. 17—William H. Blau, John Thorablaizer and George Ackerman. Garfield Assembly, Knights of Labor—W. H. Riley, A. W. Welsh, J. W. Norington, F. C. Darby and Harry Templeton. Bricklayers' Union No. 1—John Dillon, Burk Watson. Friendship Lodge, A. A. O. F. & S. W.—M. F. Tighe, S. H. Engel and Herman Knoke. Crescent Lodge, A. A. O. F. & S. W.—Joseph Purcell, Fred Williams and Raymond Bauer. The several boycotts that are supposed to be pushed by the assembly, were reported "still on."

The committee having in charge the amendment to the by-laws regarding the conduct of strikes and troubles of that character reported the amendment again. The amendment introduced some time ago, providing that the local unions shall first exhaust all possible means of settlement before the assembly was passed. The amendment places a good portion of the responsibility on the local unions. The West Virginia legislative committee made its report, to the effect it had placed the proposed labor legislation in the hands of Delegate S. G. Smith, who is to present the several bills in the house of delegates. A delegate referred to the portion of Governor MacCorkle's message in reference to the West Virginia State Guard, with its recommendation for its being strengthened and increased numerically. The delegate wanted the assembly to take action expressing its disapproval of such a course, but no action was taken excepting to refer the matter to a committee. The arbitration committee reported nothing new, and the organization committee was in the same boat. The finance committee reported its quarterly examination of the books of the secretary, treasurer and trustees of the assembly; the affairs of the assembly were found in good shape. The following letter was read, from Gov. MacCorkle's private secretary:

STATE OF WEST VIRGINIA, EXECUTIVE CHAMBER. Thomas V. Salisbury, Secretary, etc. In reply to your favor of recent date, laying complaints before the governor in regard to the efficiency of Miss Inspector Hair, I would say that the governor has taken the matter under advisement and has written to the inspector calling his attention to the matter and directing that there be no further ground for complaint. He has also directed the inspector to make full investigation and report as to the Branch mine disaster.

Private Secretary. President Robertson—As the governor praises the mine inspector in his message, this does not amount to much. An appeal was received from the officials of the American Railway Union, asking help for Debs and the other imprisoned officers. On motion the sum of ten dollars was voted for this purpose. The legislative committee of the American Federation of Labor wanted an endorsement of the Maguire bill freeing merchant seamen from "involuntary servitude." The request was complied with. Secretary Salisbury read a supplementary report on the financial condition of the assembly, which was adopted. The election of officers for the ensuing term of twelve months was the next business. On motion, the salaries of the various officials remain the same as heretofore. Nominations for president were made, as follows: Mr. Strautman named Mr. W. H. Riley, of the Garfield Assembly (cigar-makers.) President Robertson took the floor and in a vigorous speech named M. F. Tighe. The nominations were then closed and the ballot resulted as follows: Riley 10, Tighe 14. Mr. Riley was declared elected.

For vice-president Mr. Tighe was named; he started to decline, but decided to accept and was elected unanimously. President Robertson spoke of the necessity of electing a competent secretary, and referred to the condition which provides that a man to be re-elected to an office in the assembly, must have unanimous support of all delegates present, and closed by asking unanimous consent to the re-election of the present very efficient secretary, Thomas V. Salisbury. This was done with a rush. For treasurer Raymond Bauer and P. F. Farrell were nominated. There was objection to Mr. Farrell running again, but Bauer withdrew, leaving the field open to Mr. Farrell, who received the unanimous vote of the assembly. For trustees, Fred Williams, H. A. Uthman, Gabriel Jackson, William LaTouche, H. A. Foster, Donohue and A. W. Welsh were named and the following were elected: Messrs. Williams, Donohue and LaTouche. Nominations for finance committee were as follows: Raymond Bauer, G. W. Clifton, H. A. Uthman and George Darby. The three first named were elected.

The newly elected officers were then duly obligated and assumed their various positions. Ex-President Robertson made a short speech, in which he extended thanks for the consideration with which he had been treated throughout his term. He called attention to the successful year of the assembly, notwithstanding the hard times. He asked the members to extend the same loyal support to the new officers and predicted an increase in the assembly's membership. The lesson of the past year, he said, has been one of organization. In a short speech the new presiding officer took the chair. Mr. Strautman asked that a vote of thanks be extended President Robertson for the efficient manner in which he has discharged his duties. Secretary Salisbury thanked the assembly for the honor of re-election in the following words. DELEGATES:—Upon this occasion I have indeed reason to feel proud of being re-elected to the office of secretary, more so from the fact, first, that it is the beginning of my eleventh term, and second, notwithstanding the strictures of the new law, requiring unanimous consent to be nominated and elected, I have again been chosen. Yet, brother workmen, with all that pride, and the fact that you have once more confided in me the trust of that office, I am free to say that I think the present section, in reference to a second term of any officer, is an unjust and uncalled for law, for by it there is no freedom of franchise guaranteed to the delegates of this body, and the law of former years bearing on this matter should be again placed in our constitution, thereby leaving it to the will of this body of delegates to choose from their number such officers as they desire, let them be past, present or aspiring ones. And I do trust it will be the pleasure of this body, on the next annual election takes place, to repeal the present section and choose officers as in olden time, which law gave no guarantee to any officer; he could be re-elected, thus allowing one and all his liberty to present his choice for the several positions within the gift of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly. Again, fellow delegates, I thank you, and will endeavor to improve in my efforts to perform my duty as your humble secretary. Mr. Farrell, who had been re-elected treasurer, thanked the assembly for the honor bestowed on him. Ex-President Robertson in speaking of the rule that financial assistance shall not be extended local unions who have not held membership in the assembly for sixty days, thought the machinery of the assistance of the various assembly committees should be extended in the meantime. President Riley announced that the various standing committees would be appointed at the next meeting of the assembly.

THE NEW MAGNATES, Of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, Just Elected. The term of Mr. Richard Robertson, as president, of the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly, the local representative labor organization, has been one of the most successful in the history of the assembly, notwithstanding the fact that the prevailing hard times bore particularly heavy on the people who make up its membership. During the year the membership has increased and the work of the body been done with more system than ever before. To the retiring president much credit is due. It was of such importance, therefore, that the new officers should be of the proper calibre, and it is generally conceded that the assembly made no mistake, when it elected to the presidency Mr. W. H. Riley, of the cigar-makers' local union, Garfield Assembly, Knights of Labor. Mr. Riley has had plenty of experience, having once served one term as president of the assembly, and

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: 'I had been in poor health for a long time. For years my appetite was very poor. Supper was my best meal, but even then I could not sleep nights and I had to walk the floor a great deal at night. I was very nervous and had frequent dizzy spells and headaches. I suffered with pains in my bowels.

I Did Not Think I Could Live three months when I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla for my blood. Before I had used one bottle I began to feel better and my appetite improved. I was troubled with constipation, so I got a box of Hood's Vegetable Pills. Soon I passed a knotted tape worm 25 feet long. At once the pains in my bowels ceased and though very weak, I began to pick up in appearance.

VENO, The Great Healing Power!

Veno's Remedies Effect Another Surprising Cure—John Hinds, Bank Boss at the Pittsburgh Coal Works, at Bellaire, is Cured on the Spot—Has Not Been Free From Pain for Months—Is Cured in Five Minutes by the Veno Medicines—Meeting With Wonderful Success in the Treatment of All Diseases of the Eye—Lectures This Afternoon to Ladies Only at Odd Fellows' Hall—His Last Lecture in Wheeling.

On Friday evening the Veno representatives at Bellaire effected one of the most wonderful cures in the case of John Hinds, a bank boss at the Pittsburgh Coal Works. He has been afflicted for years with rheumatism, and for the past seven months has been unable to work. He had tried many doctors and was about to give up in despair, believing his case incurable, when he was induced to consult the Veno representatives. He came upon the stage, suffering in every limb, reeking in every joint with most excruciating pains. He described his condition to the audience and was then treated with the Veno Remedies. At the end of five minutes he stood upon his feet and declared himself free of pain, for the first time in months. He expressed the deepest gratitude to the Veno representatives for his release from pain. Veno's third lecture, to ladies only, will be given this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock at Odd Fellows' Hall. Admission ten cents. So many were unable to gain admittance to the two previous lectures that he has been requested to deliver a third lecture, so that all may have an opportunity to hear him. This will positively be his last lecture in Wheeling. Owing to the large number of patients who have daily thronged to the Veno Hotel, to see Veno, he has been compelled to remove to more spacious quarters. He has secured a suite of rooms at the corner of Eleventh and Main streets, over Let's jewelry store. Entrance to Veno's office on Eleventh street. Consultation and advice free for this week only.

since that he had held various others responsible positions, including the chairmanship of the important arbitration committee. The executive chair of the assembly is sure to be filled with ability during the coming twelve months. Mr. M. F. Tighe, the new vice president, has served several terms as a delegate to the assembly, but never before held an official position. His elevation from the "high private" degree to the second high position in the assembly comes in the way of deserved recognition. Thomas V. Salisbury has served eleven years as secretary of the assembly, and it would look unnatural to see anyone but "Old Reliable Tom" at the secretary's desk. The new constitution of the body stipulates that a re-election to any office requires the unanimous consent of all the delegates, so that his continuance in office is a high compliment to the faithfulness and ability with which he discharges the very onerous office of secretary. "Long may he wave" is the hearty wish of all who do business with the assembly.

The same true of Mr. Peter F. Farrell, who was re-elected treasurer; his faithfulness to the trust imposed on him has been steadfast, and evidently is appreciated by the delegates.

At G. Field's Minstrels. The A. G. Field minstrels will be at the Opera House this evening. The seats are on sale at C. A. House's music store. The Dallas, Tex., News says of these minstrels: The vocal features of the first part were very good, considering that some of the troupe were unable to take part on account of sickness, and the specialties that followed the adjournment of the semi-circle were exceedingly lively and interesting and merited, and elicited hearty approval. Mr. Field has surrounded himself with the best available minstrel talent and artists in the specialty line. The performance is first-class in its line.

"Jane." Messrs. H. Nichols and W. Lostock have mastered the faculty of adaptation more thoroughly than any American playwrights, and "Jane" is the best of their efforts. Whoever it has been presented it played to the capacity of the theatre. "Jane" will be played at the Opera House beginning Tuesday night. It has proven itself to be a perfect gale of fun. There is that state of morriant abroad in which, while everybody is grinning, one man begins to laugh, then another, then the whole house roars, and when it seems literally to tire down, a man who has been hitherto silent, suddenly "sees it" and breaks out with perfectly fresh hilarity and starts everybody going again.

Jarbeau Comedy Company. What promises to be a great attraction is the Jarbeau Comedy Company, which comes to the Grand the last three nights of this week, presenting the funny farce comedy, "Starlight." Many new features have been added since its former production here, the dialogue brightened and many new specialties will be introduced, such as new songs, new dances, now and catchy music. The company numbers fifteen artists, including Miss Eloise Willard, Charles P. Morrison and others of equal note. Reserved seats are on sale at the Grand box office.

Charles T. Ellis. Charles T. Ellis, the best of the present-day singing German comedians, will be the attraction at the Grand Opera house the first three nights of this week, presenting his well known and extremely popular comedy drama, "Casper, the Yodler." It will be presented in spectacular form and strongly cast. Mr. Ellis has a number of new songs, and as usual during the rendition of his famous Santa Claus song will distribute toys among the children present.

Physicians recommend Smith Browning Co.'s also as a wholesome beverage.

Pileal Piles Itching Piles. SYMPTOMS—Moisture; intense itching and stinging; most at night; worse by scratching. If allowed to continue tumors form, which often bleed and ulcerate, becoming very sore. SWAYNE'S OINTMENT stops the itching and bleeding, heals ulceration, and in most cases removes the tumors.
