ST. JOSEPH'S ACADEMY.

A Very Fine Entertainment Given By the Pupils There.

MUSICAL AND LITERARY NUMBERS

Rendered in a Very Creditable Style. The Right Reverend Bishop and Other Prominent Members of the Local Clergy Present to Enjoy the Exercises.

Yesterday afternoon at St. Joseph's Academy a very fine entertainment was given by the pupils. Great preparation had been made for the occasion, and it was looked forward to with pleasant anticipation by the friends and patrons of the school, who were present in large enough numbers to crowd the spacious hall. The programme was as follows:

- Piano Duet, Lustful (op. 78).....Kela Bela
- Misses Della McFadden and Gertrude Riester.
- Song, Changeless.....Froster
- Miss Annie Beltz.
- Selection, The Barefoot Boy.....Whittier
- Miss Annie Baumert.
- Piano Solo.....
- Miss Neita Troff.
- Song, {a Memories.....Niedlinger
- {b Night.....
- {c Morning.....
- Miss Gertrude Riester.
- Song, The Postman.....
- Kindergarten.
- Piano Solo.....
- Miss Lizzie Gundling.
- Song, Thine Eyes so Blue and Tender.....
- Miss Mary Dotabine.
- Selection, Trial of St. Cecilia.....
- Misses Lizzie Gundling and Agnes O'Leary.
- Vocal Solo, Crook's Love Song.....D. Buck
- Miss Cora Mathews.
- Kindergarten Exercise.....
- The Class.

The smallest pupils delighted all present with their performance of kindergarten exercises, while the efforts of the older ones evoked hearty applause. The entertainment was honored by the presence of Right Rev. Bishop Donahue, D. D., and several members of the reverend clergy of the cathedral.

THE STREETS IN BAD SHAPE.

Slush Makes Some of Them Practically Impassible.

The thaw of yesterday was followed last night, as predicted by the weather bureau, by local rains. As a result the streets, including the sidewalks where they had not cleaned up the snow, were covered with water and slush, and at some corners the gutters were six inches deep in slush. The thin crust of ice and snow over these pools made the way of the pedestrian very unpleasant, as he was more than likely to step into the little lakes, thinking he was on sound ice. The night was about as disagreeable as it ever gets, and there was not much promise for any improvement to-day. The board of public works should see that the gutters are cleaned out, so as to let the accumulation of slush and water into the sewer openings.

"Monte Cristo" O'Neill.

The appearance of Mr. James O'Neill as "Monte Cristo" is an event commanding the attention of all theatre-goers. Mr. O'Neill's place at the top of the list of romantic actors has not yet been usurped by any abler actor in this country. He is without doubt the representative American romantic actor. This is the eleventh season with "Monte Cristo," a record unsurpassed in the annals of American stage history. His company is an able one, and all the scenery and costumes are complete and correct. Will be at the Opera House Monday next.

Charles T. Ellis.

Charles T. Ellis and his excellent company have proved to be a very strong drawing attraction at the Grand, as "Caspar the Yodler" was witnessed by another very large audience last night. The same bill will be presented at the matinee this afternoon, and to-night's performance will close the engagement. Every lady attending the matinee this afternoon will be presented with a handsome souvenir.

If you want pure ale always insist on having Smith's.

NO USE FOR A DOG.

What Governor MacCorkle Wants is a Ferret, and a Good one.

The following good-natured comment from the Charleston Evening Mail will be appreciated by the many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Will A. Delaplaine, formerly of this city, now of Grayville, Ohio:

Governor MacCorkle is just in receipt of a queer and very animated present, being nothing more nor less than a Cuban grayhound, with a pedigree a yard or so long. Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Delaplaine, of Grayville, Ohio, being the donors. Just what use those people imagine Governor Mac has for a Cuban, or any other species of bloodhound, we are at a loss to determine. Perhaps they imagine the governor can use this sharp scented hound in locating the whereabouts of the late Democratic party. Now, if this hound purp can scent the cold trail of the defunct party he is a daisy and should be provided with a choice niche in the rooms of the historical society, and be catered to by some of the few faithful Democrats who still remain as silent witnesses of what once existed. These good people of Grayville, Ohio, should have sent a large ferret with this beautiful Cuban grayhound, for in case the hound should locate the Democrats the governor would naturally want to know whether the purp was lying or not. Let some loyal Democrat (if any there be) send the governor a ferret. Send it at once; let it be large—the larger the better; should it be as big as an elephant, all the better, for it will take courage and considerable force to dislodge the Democrats from their burrows, provided they can be found at all, which we very seriously doubt. We are inclined to the opinion that the governor's present is an art treasure, an ornamental piece of animated statuary—nothing more. This purp should be endowed by the legislature, and held as a nucleus for the formation of a zoological society, for as a hunter and finder of the Democratic party he can't succeed, the trail is covered and cold.
