Tried to Rob a Bank. An unsuccessful effort was made to rob the National bank at Smithfield on Sunday night. Attempts to drill the vault were made in four places and the knob of the door was knocked off. The telephone wire was cut.

Mrs. B. Zook Dead. Mary H., widow of the late Barney Zook, died last night, aged 72. Her husband died less than two months ago, and this is the third death in the family within a year. The family has the sympathy of a wide circle of friends.

At Clerk Hook's Office. The last will of August Helmbrecht was yesterday admitted to probate and ordered to be recorded. A marriage license was issued to Jake Levin, aged 23, of Pittsburgh, and Bianche Ostrowski, aged 19, both natives of Russia.

Transfers Recorded. Clerk Hook yesterday admitted to record transfers of real estate as follows: February 10 to E. W. Schafer by the Greenwood cemetery, for $260, several lots in that cemetery. January 14 by L. A. Rolf and wife to Laura, wife of James D. Shepherd, for $250, lot 11 at Park View.

An Iron Worker Hurt. John D. Davis, of Etnaville, who is engineer in the new tin plate mill at Cambridge, met with a serious accident yesterday. He was in the act of looking down into the fly wheel pit, thinking there was water in it, when he was struck on the forehead by one of the spokes of the wheel and knocked down. His head was badly cut and his leg hurt. He was unconscious for a time. He will be unable to work for several weeks. His wife went out on the first train.

In the Circuit Court. In Judge Paul's court yesterday the case of Amelia C. Plate vs. George L. Durst to recover $1,000, as ten years' wages in his store, was put on trial to a jury, and is still in progress. In the case of Mary Todd vs. Daniel H. McDonald et al. the cloverseed attached by the sheriff was ordered to be sold as perishable and the proceeds held until the case is settled. The case of Amelia Graves vs. Sononfeldt & Shalenski was argued and submitted. Leopold Harbinger, a native of Germany, was admitted to citizenship.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Beyond Comparison. Are the good qualities possessed by Hood's Sarsaparilla. Above all it purifies the blood, thus strengthening the nerves; it regulates the digestive organs, invigorates the kidneys and liver, tones and builds up the entire system, cures scrofula, dyspepsia, catarrh and rheumatism. Get Hood's and only Hood's.

Hood's Pills cure all liver ills, biliousness, jaundice, indigestion, sick headache. 25c.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

- MATINEES at both theatres to-day.
- OPERA House this evening—"Jane."
- THE GRAND this evening—Hills in "Casper, the Yodler."
- The South Side Pioneers will give a supper at Westwood's hall this evening.
- The Steubenville Gazette says the Mingo steel plant will start up again to-night, but the length of the run is uncertain.
- The Four Young Society Gentlemen, of the South Side, will give a hop in the North End Literary and Athletic club rooms next Thursday night.
- The case against Mrs. George Livingston was dismissed in the police court yesterday morning, the trouble having been compromised out of court.
- The Calumet club will entertain at their rooms Friday evening. The affair will be entirely informal, and the hours 8 until 12. An enjoyable time is assured.
- Last evening a meeting of the Arion society stockholders was held to attend to some financial and other business matters, after which an enjoyable social time was had by all.
- DAVID TAPLIN will take charge of the tin mills at the Etna-Standard, succeeding David Evans, who goes to New Lisbon. Oliver Howells now has charge of the roll turning department.
- Next Monday evening the Wheeling Turnverein will give its annual masque carnival at its hall on North Market street. A fine time is assured. The Opera House orchestra will furnish the music.
- NIGHT before last the natural gas came on strongly at the residence of Dr. J. C. Hupp, after it had been turned low, and the floor was set on fire. A timely discovery of the blaze prevented a serious fire.
- The Henry W. Cummins property was sold yesterday by the sheriff at the front door of the court house to Andrew Hamilton of Wheeling for $750. This is $100 more than the appraisement.—Baltimore Independent.
- C. W. RIXBY, the coal dealer, and James Stanton, colored, were arrested by Lieutenant Lukins for fighting. They had a quarrel about their coal teams, which led to blows. They will be up in the police court this morning.
- At a meeting held yesterday by the directors of the Fire and Marine Insurance Company, a cash dividend of 3 per cent, payable on demand, was declared. The insurance companies have evidently not done so badly in the past year.
- Rev. Mr. W. H. LESLIE will lecture at the second Presbyterian church this evening at 7:30. His subject will be Chile. His long residence in the country, and his familiarity with his subject will insure a profitable talk for his hearers. All are welcome.
- In the criminal court yesterday the case of Charles Steele, indicted for the larceny of a watch, was put on trial to a jury. When the evidence for the prosecution was completed, a motion was made to exclude it and declare the prisoner not guilty, which Judge Hugus did.

Directors Elected Yesterday. The stockholders of the Wheeling Ice and Storage Company met in annual session yesterday and re-elected the old board of directors, as follows: J. A. Miller, Dr. L. D. Wilson, C. P. Brown, Joseph Paul, R. K. Friend, C. W. Conner and Christian Schnepl.

The Standard Fire Insurance Company was to have met yesterday, but did not get a quorum, and the old board of directors therefore holds over. The Jefferson Insurance Company's stockholders met yesterday and re-elected the old board of directors, which is composed of Messrs. Dr. R. W. Hazlett, J. J. Jones, S. S. Bloch, J. D. Culbertson and E. W. Ogilby.

The South Side Bank stockholders' meeting elected the former board of directors, as follows: Messrs. R. M. Gilleland, Charles Horstman, Michael Loftis, H. F. Behrens, F. J. Hearne, W. W. McConnell, W. H. Hearne, W. S. McCulloch and C. Kalbitzer.

They Plead not Guilty. Patrick and Michael Pryal and Frank Wood and Henry Abbey, charged with breaking into and robbing the grocery of Joseph Williams at Martin's Ferry, pleaded not guilty yesterday and will have a preliminary examination tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. George Duncan has been asked to defend them.

In Olden Times. people overlooked the importance of permanently beneficial effects and were satisfied with transient action; but now that it is generally known that Syrup of Figs will permanently cure habitual constipation, well informed people will not buy any other laxatives, which act for a time, but finally injure the system.

The (New York) Wall Paper Trade Journal states that Ross T. Chaw, of Wheeling, is the only dealer in the entire state of West Virginia that handles wall paper exclusively.
