Yesterday's Proceedings at the State Capital.

NEW MEASURES MADE AND MAKING

By the Solons of the State Legislature—The Bills Introduced Yesterday and the Reports of the Committees—A Bill Introduced to Conduct all Capital Punishments at the Penitentiary—Senate Adjourns Until Monday.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Jan. 18.—The house judiciary committee reported favorably on house joint resolution No. 5, raising a joint committee to inspect the insane asylums at Weston and Spencer, and house bills No. 20, concerning the appointment of notaries public; No. 23, to repeal chapter 45 of the acts of 1893; No. 24, to amend the law relating to the action for trespass; No. 25, relating to the authentication of deeds and other writings; No. 42, providing that promoters and instigators of vexatious and frivolous prosecutions may be held liable upon a rule for costs incurred in the name of the state; No. 59, authorizing judges of the first judicial circuit to employ shorthand writers; No. 66, concerning the appointment of special constables; No. 69, requiring the examination of state engineers and others in certain cities; No. 73, concerning the filing of stay bonds in justices' courts; No. 80, to prevent offensive substances from being thrown into wells, cisterns, springs, or running waters; No. 82, relating to offenses against property; No. 67, providing for the appointment of local boards of health.

The committee reported adversely on house joint resolution No. 3, proposing an amendment to the constitution concerning elections; house joint resolution No. 8, proposing an amendment to the constitution providing for the office of county treasurer; house bills, 33, relating to Sabbath breaking and making contracts made on Sunday void; 75, relating to the trespassing of stock; 81, to repeal the license tax on sewing machine peddlers. The committee also reported substitutes for house bill No. 2, authorizing married women to convey real estate by an attorney in fact. The committee also recommended that house bill No. 9, to prevent the spread of contagious diseases among domestic animals, be referred to the committee on agriculture, and that house bill No. 31, amending the code in relation to allowance of witnesses, be referred to the committee on finance.

OTHER COMMITTEES REPORT.

The penitentiary committee reported favorably on house bill No. 48, repealing the provision of the statute providing that only one guard from each county can be employed at the penitentiary.

The committee on education reported adversely on house bills No. 95, amending sections 78 and 82 of chapter 45, of the code, and No. 115, establishing the independent school district of Sistersville. The committee reported favorably on house bill No. 113, concerning county boards of examiners; 114, to empower the board of education of Lincoln district, Tyler county, to issue bonds.

The committee on railroads reported favorably on house bill No. 100, to punish trespassers on engines and cars standing or running on tracks.

The committee on labor reported favorably on house bill No. 110, creating a state bureau of labor, to also act as a board of arbitration when necessary.

The committee on taxation and finance reported recommending that house bills No. 101, relating to the collection of delinquent taxes be referred to the committee on forfeited and unappropriated lands, and favorably on bill No. 120, for the relief of taxes erroneously assessed.

The committee on mines and mining asked that house bill No. 76, the eight-hour law, be referred to the committee on labor. The committee on immigration and agriculture reported favorably on house bill No. 37, amending game laws; No. 117, amending game laws without recommendation, and reported adversely on No. 111, concerning division fences.

NEW BILLS INTRODUCED.

New bills were introduced: 139, by Greer, providing that all executions of the death penalty shall be conducted at the penitentiary; 137, by Smith, of Hancock, amending the charter of New Cumberland; 138, by Smith, of Hancock, providing for arbitration between employers and employees; 139, by Glover, relating to the duties of the secretary of state; 140, by Ford, providing for taxation of twenty cents for general purposes and fifteen cents for school purposes on the $100 valuation; 141, by Jones, concerning the taking of bonds for fines imposed by circuit courts and other courts of record; 142, by Kimes, to prevent the spread of noxious weeds and plants; 143, by Purdy, providing for the purchase of a burial ground for convicts outside of the corporation of Moundsville; 144, by Morris, by request, relating to the posting of delinquent tax list, and that such list be published two consecutive weeks in two newspapers of opposite politics in each county; 145, by Jones, extending the time for the correction of erroneous assessments; 146, by Hill, of Boone, establishing assessment districts in certain counties; 147, by Smith, of Ohio, making officers of houses where liquors are illegally sold liable for maintaining public nuisances; 148, by Smith, of Ohio, relating to the removal from office of county and district officers; 149, by Corbett, requiring county records of births and deaths; 150, by Corbett, providing for the education of children at poor houses; 151, by Mc-

NEW RESOLUTIONS.

Resolutions were introduced: By Callip, directing the committee on taxation and finance to investigate the collection of taxes from express, telegraph and telephone companies. By Clark, requesting the committee on education to report as to the advisability of a compulsory school law. By Jones, directing the committee on counties, districts and municipal corporations to inquire into the advisability of amending the code so that county courts may provide places for the treatment of the sick. By Kwoer, directing the judiciary committee to report as to a bill requiring judgment creditors to file a bond with the justice to entitle him to an order for a suggestion upon his judgment. All were adopted.

A LIST OF PETITIONS.

Petitions from Andrew H. Fox and others, of Monongalia county, asking for the passage of a bill for the protection of skunks; from S. M. Steel and others, asking for the abandonment of the convict cemetery at Moundsville; from John R. Domlines and others, asking for the passage of a bill relating to stenographers for the first judicial circuit, and from Andrew H. Fox, asking that the law relating to powers and duties of boards of education be amended, were presented.

Leave of absence was granted Messrs. Morris, Crisp and Smith, of Hancock. Mr. Campbell offered a joint resolution providing for the appointment of a commission to examine into and report upon the fee system in state, county and district offices. The resolution lies over.

Senate bills No. 1, amending the act establishing the criminal court of Mercer county, and 60, to protect riparian owners, were passed to the third reading; also house bills No. 1, amending the divorce laws; 5, establishing the criminal court of Mason county; 6, amending the charter of Huntington.

DEMOCRATS FILIBUSTER.

Considerable time was spent on the latter bill, it meeting with general opposition from the Democratic side, and a number of minor amendments and parliamentary points calculated to delay action on it were raised, but all were voted down or overruled. The house then adjourned.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The Business Transacted Yesterday in the Upper Branch.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

CHARLESTON, Jan. 18.—The senate judiciary committee reported favorably on senate bill No. 21, concerning suits before justices, and recommended it as a substitute for senate bill No. 21, establishing a criminal court for McDowell county, and adversely on No. 26, providing for the appointment of deputy clerks for criminal courts.

The committee on public buildings reported adversely on the bill amending sections 4, 5 and 9, of chapter 71, of the acts of 1871.

The committee on counties and municipal corporations reported favorably on No. 37, amending section 15, of chapter 39, of the code, and No. 56, establishing the county of Mingo.

Mr. Young offered senate joint resolution No. 7, proposing an amendment to the constitution relating to jury trials. The resolution lies over. Resolution by Mr. Reed, authorizing the president to appoint a stenographer and one additional journal clerk and two additional pages, was amended by adding "and that Will A. Strickler be retained as an assistant clerk." Adopted.

Mr. Catlett offered a resolution requesting senators and representatives in Congress to favor an amendment to the federal constitution providing for the election of United States senators by the people. Lies over.

BILLS ACTED UPON.

Senate bill No. 8, describing lawful fences, passed, and bill Nos. 22, concerning ejections, and No. 35, repealing the act providing for the state board of health, were rejected.

Bills No. 56, establishing the county of Mingo; 16, relating to fees of officers; 45, relating to cities, towns and villages, and 33, amending the school law, were read for the first time and ordered to a second reading.

NEW BILLS.

Bills were introduced: 57, by Lockney, making six months of school the minimum in all counties; 58, by Whitaker, concerning titles to church property; 59, by Lockney, to reform the judiciary; 60, by Lockney, to establish a weather crop service in connection with the state board of agriculture; 61, by Hansley, the compulsory school law; 62, by Catlett, establishing hog laws; 63, by Patton, relating to the making up of land books; 64, by Catlett, concerning allowances to county officers; 65, by Farr, amending the charter of Wellsburg; 66, by Young, concerning costs, expenses and fees; 67, by Finley, rendering women eligible as notaries public; 68, by Patton, concerning the authentication of deeds and other writings.

The senate then adjourned to Monday at 11 o'clock.

SOUTH CAROLINA'S GOVERNOR MAY HAVE TROUBLE IN ENFORCING THE DISPENSARY LAW.

COLUMBIA, S. C., Jan. 17.—Governor Evans, in the enforcement of the state dispensary law, is likely to involve the country in international complications if he carries out his announced intention of seizing an Italian bark now lying in the Charleston harbor.

Several days ago Italian Consul Costello refused to allow state dispensary constables to search the bark Fortunata, it being claimed that the crew was selling liquor to persons on shore contrary to the dispensary law. The captain and mate of the vessel both deny that any liquor was sold from the vessel, but one of the constables swears that he bought wine from a member of the crew, and, moreover, saw numbers of negroes purchasing liquors also.

The governor is greatly incensed at the action of Consul Costello and said today: "I am satisfied in my opinion that the consul has made himself obnoxious; that he has gone beyond the pale of the law, and that he is simply protecting a floating bar-room. He rendered himself persona non-grata to the state, and I will likely ask the United States government to have him removed."

He said further that in case the attorney general's opinion coincides with his own he would seize the vessel and arrest such of the men as he thinks have been guilty of violating the laws of the state.

"She won't be allowed to leave," he continued, "until we find out what the situation is. She is being attached. We will see whether or not South Carolina is a sovereign power and can protect and uphold her laws. It is coming to a pretty pass if any little scow of a foreign nation can come into this state and violate our laws with impunity, and it shan't be done. If we convict any of the officers of the boat of selling whisky, I will confiscate the boat."

DAILY HINTS TO HOUSEKEEPERS.

SUNDAY, Jan. 10. Yet this one thing I learn to know, Each day more surely as I go, That doors are opened, ways are made, Burdens are lifted or are laid By some great law, unseen and still, Unfashioned purposes to fill, Not as I will.

Biting Noises

In the ears, sometimes a roaring, buzzing sound, are caused by catarrh, that exceedingly disagreeable and very common disease. Loss of smell or hearing also result from catarrh. Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, is a peculiarly successful remedy for this disease, which it cures by purifying the blood.

Hood's Pills are the best after dinner pills, assist digestion, prevent constipation.

The secretary of the treasury has about completed his regulations for the government of vessels employed in fur seal fishing during the coming season. These regulations, it is said, will not materially differ from those in operation during the last season.

KNOWLEDGE

Brings comfort and improvement and tends to personal enjoyment when rightly used. The many who live better than others and enjoy life more, with less expenditure, by more promptly adapting the world's best products to the needs of physical being, will attest the value to health of the pure liquid laxative principles embraced in the remedy, Syrup of Figs.

Its excellence is due to its presenting in the form most acceptable and pleasant to the taste, the refreshing and truly beneficial properties of a perfect laxative; effectually cleansing the system, dispelling colds, headaches and fevers and permanently curing constipation. It has given satisfaction to millions and met with the approval of the medical profession, because it acts on the Kidneys, Liver and Bowels without weakening them and it is perfectly free from every objectionable substance.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all druggists in 50c and $1 bottles, but it is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only, whose name is printed on every package, also the name, Syrup of Figs, and being well informed, you will not accept any substitute if offered.

IT'S ENOUGH TO MAKE A FROG LAUGH!

THE CHILDREN JUST GO CRAZY OVER THE LATEST, BRIGHTEST,

JOLLIEST JUVENILES! ENTITLED:

Queer People!

By PALMER COX, Author of "The Brownies,"

And widely famous as the PRINCE OF JUVENILE ARTISTS

This new production from the pen and pencil of Palmer Cox—whose world-wide fame as the greatest Juvenile Artist of his age—is literally crammed from cover to cover with ROLLING FUN for LITTLE FOLKS and BIG FOLKS too. It tells of the most remarkable and ludicrous experiences of FAIRIES, GIANTS, KINGS, CLOWNS, PIRATES, PEASANTS, FOXES, RATS, MICHE, HILLS, INSECTS, ELEPHANTS, etc., describing their strange adventures and their quaint conversations, their FROLICS, ESCAPADES, FLIRTATIONS, COURTSHIPS, WEDDINGS, etc., all of which are illustrated in that unapproachably humorous and grotesque style peculiar to our gifted author, PALMER COX.

THE INTELLIGENCER saw a chance to give the children of its readers a great treat by securing an option on 25,000 of these books, and determined to distribute them to the first that came at 10 cents each, to cover cost by the 25,000 lots. They are genuine Palmer Cox books, and beautiful, speak quick for they won't last long. Each book is complete in itself. Each part contains thirty-two pages, about fifty unique pictures printed in a variety of colors on a superior grade of paper, very highly colored, and they are bound in beautifully illuminated covers, executed in the highest style of the art, from designs by Palmer Cox. A lovely set, complete in EIGHT BOOKS Thirty-two pages each, about fifty pictures, illuminated covers, issued weekly. Price to Our Readers Only WORTH 50c EACH. 10c EACH.

The price of this wonderful series (just funny enough to make a frog laugh) if sold to the stores (they can't get it) ought to be at least 50c each, but as you are one of our readers you shall have them, if you speak quick, for only 10c each.

NOS. 6, 7 and 8 NOW READY. These Numbers will be Distributed This Week.—CALL EARLY.—

HOW TO GET THEM: Come or send to our office 10 cents and we deliver or mail to your address, as you wish. No extra charge.
