Ex-Queen Lili May to Given Five Years for Treason.

PROBABLY WILL BE GIVEN CHOICE

Between Imprisonment and Banishment From the Country—Death Penalties May Not be Executed. Many Abused Rumors Denied—Minister Willis Not Bothering the Government.

SAN FRANCISCO, Feb. 24.—The steamer Gaelic arrived last night from Yokohama and Honolulu, bringing the following advices from Honolulu, dated February 11:

A more contagious fever of rumor never struck this community than that which swept over the town previous to the departure of the Mariposa. The story, as it passed from mouth to mouth, was rather feasible and ran something like this:

The government has decided to deport some ten prisoners, among them being Widemann, Greig and Marshall. The presence of Judge Widemann on the wharf with a hand satchel and guitar added credence to the Widemann part of the story. The government was prepared to carry out its plan when Minister Willis protested against men convicted of political crimes being put on board a vessel carrying the American flag.

NOTHING IN THE DEPORTATION STORY. Furthermore, continues the rumor, the recent immigration laws of the United States would not allow any such men to enter the country. In pursuance of this idea, Consul Mills had held the clearance papers of the vessel until assurance was received that no attempt would be made to put these men on board.

King and Smith were on the steamer and got together in the captain's cabin. There they were rumored to have come to the decision that they had better let the matter lay over until some more auspicious season. When asked regarding the alleged deportation Attorney General Smith said:

"I cannot see how such a thing got started. We have not thought of such a thing as deporting any men who have been before the court. I think we have more use for Greig and Widemann here than in the United States. There is no foundation whatever for the rumor."

When Minister Willis was asked whether he had received any notice of an intended deportation of prisoners, he replied:

WILLIS NOT BOTHERING THE GOVERNMENT. "No; I was informed quite to the contrary. I did not enter any protest or make any request to hold the steamer. In fact, I have not yet filed the protest consequent to the deportation affair last Saturday. It is not my purpose or desire to take any action which would tend to embarrass this government. I have the most friendly feeling toward the officers. Of course, it is my duty to look after the interests of American citizens, but I most certainly have no intention of making any unnecessary trouble for the representatives of the government in so doing."

From all accounts, it was very fortunate for the peace of the community that no attempt was made to send these young men out of the country. Armed men belonging to the Citizens' Guard were on the wharf to prevent the deportation of either Greig, Widemann or Marshall.

The government caused the arrest of 381 persons since January 6, of whom 91 have been tried before the military court. Sentences in but twenty-four cases have been made public, twenty-three natives charged with treason and V. V. Ashford charged with misprision of treason.

ADMITTED THEIR GUILT.

Thirteen persons are at liberty, with the understanding that they leave the country within a reasonable time and not return without permission from the government. British Commissioner Hawes gave the men to understand he would not interfere in their behalf, as they admitted their guilt.

V. V. Ashford, charged with misprision of treason, was found guilty and sentenced to one year in jail and fined $1,000. Ashford has practiced law in Honolulu since about 1834. He was banished several years ago for conspiracy against the monarchy. Twenty-three natives convicted of treason have received sentences varying from five to ten years. In one case a fine of $5,000 was remitted by President Dole.

The military court is still sitting and its work drags along slowly. About 200 cases are yet to be tried. Prince David has been found guilty, his sentence not having been made public.

It is understood the queen's sentence will be five years for the part she has taken in the trouble. Probably she will be allowed to leave the country without serving the sentence if she so desires. Twenty-four natives have been sentenced to prison for terms ranging from seven to eight years.

AN EFFORT TO SAVE RICKARDS' NECK.

The Hawaiians have commenced to work in earnest for annexation. They have been informed that all present prisoners will be freed in the event of close relations with the United States. Martial law is still in force.

A strong fight is being made to save the neck of W. H. Rickards, one of the condemned men. He is a Mason, and that body has interested itself in his behalf.

Since the overthrow of the monarchy, the American League has been a power, but events of the past two weeks have proven its prestige has gone. Its president, Timothy Murray, is now suspected, and a watch is kept upon his movements. He and his men assisted the government in the late rebellion, but now their loyalty is questioned. Murray denies he is disloyal to the government, and has sent a protest to President Dole. It is understood the authorities will put a stop to the league's secret meetings.

There is much talk of internal dissensions, which leads friends of Princess Kaiulani to hope that she will some day be placed upon the throne. It is a remote possibility, however.

REWARD SAFE FOR A LITTLE WHILE.

In regard to the dispatch sent by Secretary Gresham to Minister Willis about demanding a delay of execution, Attorney General Smith stated this morning that the government had no intention of executing the condemned men until the military court concluded its labors and every fact bearing on the case is brought out. Mr. Smith intimated that nothing would be done until the United States government is in possession of the facts in each case. According to the attorney general, the queen will be sent out of the country.

The steamer Australian, leaving here on the 23rd inst., will carry away a number of the men who took part in the rebellion, and who are leaving on their own accord rather than stand trial.

FRID DOUGLASS' MEMORY.

Arrangements for the Funeral—The Body to Lie in State—A Notable Funeral.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—The arrangements for the funeral of the late Frederick Douglass are practically completed, and it is expected it will be a notable demonstration of the respect and esteem felt for the man. Early Monday morning the remains will be removed from the Douglass residence in Anacostia to the Metropolitan A. M. E. church, in this city. There the remains will lie in state from 9 a. m. until 2 p. m. The services will be conducted by the pastor of the church, Rev. J. G. Jenifer, assisted by other clergymen. Bishop Turner will announce the hymn, prayer being offered by Rev. Alexander Crummell, Bishop Wayman, of Baltimore, reading the Scriptures. Moses Hodges, of Boston, will render a vocal solo, and the choir will sing appropriate selections.

The list of honorary pall bearers is as follows: B. K. Bruce, W. H. A. Wormley, John R. Lynch, John F. Cook, Prof. E. F. Measer, P. B. S. Pinchback, Capt. D. L. Pitcher, Representative George H. Murray, Dr. C. B. Purvis and L. C. Bailey. The active pall bearers will be composed of negro letter carriers of the District.

The remains will be sent to Rochester, N. Y., promptly after funeral services Monday, and it is expected that they will be received by a committee from the Rochester city council. The colored people of the District of Columbia are proposing various forms of manifestations of respect, and among other things the colored public schools have been closed, and it is expected that the children will wear mourning badges.

TO LIE IN STATE.

The Memory of the Great Colored Leader to be Honored in New York.

New York, Feb. 24.—The body of Frederick Douglass will lie in state in city hall Tuesday. A committee of colored men called at the mayor's office to-day to ask for this privilege. They said they represented the entire colored population of New York, who desired this to honor their dead leader.

A messenger was sent to the mayor's residence, and the permission was readily granted. The board of aldermen will doubtless concur in the mayor's action. Douglass' body will lie in state on the very spot where thousands paid their respects to Ulysses S. Grant, and where the bodies of many distinguished American personages have temporarily resided.

The casket will rest in front of the large center arch, just inside of the main entrance of the historic old building, and directly below where the casket containing the body of President Lincoln rested in April, 1865, which was on the large iron plate at the top of the stairs leading to the second floor of the rotunda and immediately in front of the entrance to the governor's room. Lincoln's body lay in state in City Hall for 30 hours, and during that time a quarter of a million people saw it. The line extended up to the head of Chatham square, and all through the night the slow tread of the column was heard going up the marble steps. The whole building was muffled in crape. When General Grant's body lay there much the same scenes were presented.

A BLACK FRIEND

Confesses, at His Death, to Committing Five Murders.

HALEY, Ky., Feb. 24.—The statement of the negro who died here yesterday has created quite a sensation in this little place. Just before he passed away the negro confessed to having committed five murders, two of them in Alabama, two in Tennessee and one in Georgia.

He said that three of his victims were white women. He also said that one man had been tried, convicted and hanged for one of his fiendish acts. The man was not guilty, and was convicted on purely circumstantial evidence. He would not tell the exact towns or localities where he had committed these crimes, but seemed to fully realize that he would get his just deserts for his acts, and was in prayerful converse with the Rev. James Smith, a colored preacher here, just before he died.

The black fiend carried in his pocket the skeleton of a female hand, which he kept about him, and claimed that it had been his luck piece for five years in crap games. The hand is that of a young woman or girl, and is now in the possession of the Rev. Smith. The negro has gone under the name of Frank Wood while working here, but it is thought that his right name is Thomas Allen.

RANSOM IS NAMED

For the Mexican Mission to succeed Mr. Gray—A Popular Selection.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 24.—The President yesterday nominated Hon. Mat M. Ransom, senator from North Carolina, for minister to Mexico, to succeed the late Hon. Isaac P. Gray. The nomination was received by the senate at 12:20 o'clock, but the fact that the name was to be sent in yesterday had become known early in the session. Few nominations have been sent to the senate which have been received with greater favor. An old-time member of the senate and personally popular with all its members, the entire senate, with two or three exceptions, and those exceptions because of relations with the executive, had joined in the recommendation of the appointment.

Mr. Ransom has been a member of the senate continuously for the past twenty-three years, being first chosen in 1872. He was first chosen to fill the office to which Hon. Z. B. Vance had been elected, but which he was not allowed to fill because his war disabilities had not been removed, and the fact is now pleasantly recalled by Mr. Vance's friends that Senator Ransom devoted himself zealously during the early part of his senatorial career to securing the removal of the bar which had been created against Mr. Vance. It is also recalled by some that he divided his first year's salary with Mr. Vance.

During his career in the senate Mr. Ransom has kept well abreast of public affairs. During the war he filled in succession the grades of lieutenant colonel, colonel, brigadier general and major general, which latter rank he held when he surrendered with Lee at Appomattox.

Senator Ransom is sixty-nine years of age, but is well preserved and does not show his age. He is a man of polished manners, and of much tact, and his colleagues unite in the opinion that he will make an ideal diplomat. The senate went into executive session immediately after receiving the nomination and confirmed it by a unanimous vote. The confirmation was moved by Senator Sherman, who, in making the motion, addressed the senate briefly as to the fitness of the nomination, of which he spoke in every way deserving and appropriate. When the vote was taken there was a general response in the affirmative. The executive session lasted five minutes.

Senator Ransom said after his confirmation that he would not qualify until after the 4th of March, and therefore would serve out his term in the senate. After that time he would be prepared to proceed to Mexico as soon as the secretary of state desired him to go.

VIRGINIA FLOOD ENDED.

Three Members of Two Families Killed and a Fourth Man Mortally Wounded.

SERGEANT, Ky., Feb. 24.—According to reports just received here, three men were shot to death and a fourth mortally wounded in a fight between Smith-Cox factions near Osborn's Gap, Dickenson county, Va., on Wednesday afternoon last.

The men involved in the difficulty had long been regarded as terrors in the neighborhood in which they resided, and for years the families have been deadly enemies. According to the best information obtainable, Robert and Sam Smith had been at the Gap, and were on their way home, when they met Ben and Lem Cox on the road, about two miles from town. All four were under the influence of liquor, and were literally boiling for a fight.

The Smiths, it is said, drew their revolvers first and commanded their enemies to surrender. Instead, the Cox boys jerked out their weapons and then a general fight was begun. The battle, it is said, lasted for nearly half an hour, and when the smoke cleared away Robert and Sam Smith and Ben Cox were found lying dead on the road, while Lem Cox is so badly wounded that his death is expected hourly.

The killing of the men, if subsequent accounts near out the report in full, puts an end to two families that had long been prominent in criminal circles in this section of the country. There were originally eight Smith boys, and all of them met their deaths in fights similar to the one of Wednesday. Two other Coxes were also killed several years ago in a battle between men of their stamp. Ben Cox enjoyed the reputation of having killed five men, and his brother Lem had twice been tried for murder. They all resided back in the mountains and were regarded as very dangerous men, a reputation to which they were certainly entitled.

When so many people are taking and deriving benefit from Hood's Sarsaparilla, why don't you try it yourself? It is highly recommended.

Mrs. Emily Thorne, who resides at Toledo, Washington, says she has never been able to procure any medicine for rheumatism that relieves the pain so quickly and effectually as Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and that she has also used it for lame back with great success.
