

THE RESCUE HOME.

Two Evangelists Here to Create a Sentiment in Its Favor.

LAST NIGHT'S SERVICES ATTENDED

By a Large Number of People, Who Responded Generously to the Plea for the Establishment of the Home.

The effort now being made by the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, of this city, to establish a Rescue Home for women, seems likely to be successful.

After prayer by Dr. Bickley, that gentleman introduced the gentlemen who are here for the purpose of creating a general interest in the rescue work, stating that all had heard of the work of these men who have consecrated their lives to Christian work, and that he had the pleasure of seeing the work of Mr. Greenwood in Cincinnati several years ago.

He announced the programme of the other rescue meetings as follows: This afternoon Mr. Greenwood will occupy the pulpit; in the evening Mr. Crittenton will speak; on Wednesday the same will be repeated.

A HIGHWAY ROBBERY

On the Back River Bridge at an Early Hour this Morning.

Shortly after 1 o'clock this morning, J. M. Schenk, the well-known cigar manufacturer and secretary of the Wheeling Turverein, was returning from Bridgeport, where he had spent the night in a social and business way combined.

Mr. Schenk fell and was firmly held by one of the men, while the other took a pocket book from his hip pocket. It contained about $55. The robbers ran down into the old fair grounds. In an inside pocket Mr. Schenk had about $70 more, and he wore a gold watch and chain, but these were not taken.

Cigar Store Robbed.

At a late hour Sunday night an unknown thief or thieves entered the Musee bowling alley establishment on Market street, by the side door, and then opening a window entered George B. Herry's cigar store and got away with $100 worth of cigars and smokers' articles.

THE SONS OF VETERANS.

Interesting Points from General Order No. 1 for this Year.

Wilbur H. Brand, division commander of the Sons of Veterans of West Virginia, has issued his first order for this year. He notes the suspension of the camps at Parkersburg and Charleston, for one quarter each, for failure to make proper returns, and announces that the ninth annual encampment will convene at Charleston April 3, and remain in session two days.

Sad Death of a Baby.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welshan, of the Island, will sympathize deeply with them in the loss of their infant son, Harry, who died Sunday evening, aged six months. The funeral services will be held at the parents' home at 10 a. m. to-day, and the interment will be in the family burying ground at Short Creek.

The Value of a Package.

The contents of a 25-cent package of Simmons Liver Regulator will cure many a sick headache. It's the woman's friend. "It cured me permanently of sick headache."—C. S. Morris, Brownsville, W. Va. Take it dry on the tongue, or make a tea.

A FALLING RIVER.

It Will Continue to Recede Slowly Until the Gorge Lets Go—Notes on Navigation.

As announced in the INTELLIGENCER yesterday morning, the maximum height of the river on the late rise was reached here Sunday night, when 22 feet 0 inches was registered. A morning paper had the river still rising, and an evening journal gravely announces that the river kept on its march up the bank until yesterday morning. The moral is obvious.

For the first time in over a month the familiar whistle of a steamboat yesterday announced that navigation had once more been resumed. The first boat to run her nose up on the Wheeling wharf was the veteran John K. Booth's Clarrington packet Liberty, that arrived from her winter quarters at Clarrington in the morning and departed at 3:30 p. m., with a good trip both in freight and passengers.

The first tow of coal from Pittsburgh passed Wheeling in the afternoon at 1 o'clock. The boat was the George Shiras and she had five coal boats, bound for Louisville. As soon as the Kittanning gorge is out of the way there will be immense shipments of the black diamonds from Pittsburgh, aggregating, according to the coal exchange estimate, about 7,000,000 bushels. Sunday the Shiras struck the Pan-Handle bridge at Stoenbville, and lost three coal boats in the wreck. The loss is covered by insurance.

The ice from the lesser gorges in the Allegheny river began to pass this city about 3 o'clock in the afternoon, but there was not enough of it to arouse the fears of the rivermen. Captain Crocker said that when the Kittanning gorge breaks Wheeling will not see a great deal of the ice, for the reason that it will become gradually weighted with sediment from the muddy river and sink below the surface of the water.

WILL RESUME WEDNESDAY.

The Ferry Board of Directors Arrange For Resumption.

Last night a meeting of the board of directors of the Wheeling Island Ferry & Packet Company was held, at which arrangements were made for the resumption of navigation by the ferry boat Charleston between the Island and the city. It was reported that very fair progress is being made by the solicitors for stock in the auxiliary company that has been put on foot to help the original ferry company out of its financial difficulties.

NOTES ON NAVIGATION.

Stage of Water and Movements of Boats. The River Interests.

YESTERDAY'S DEPARTURES. Liberty, Booth, Clarrington, 3:30 p. m. Ben Hur, Kemple, Parkersburg, 7 p. m.

BOATS LEAVING TO-DAY. Lexington, Kline, Matamoros, 10:20 a. m. Liberty, Booth, Clarrington, 3:30 p. m.

Captain Kline's new Matamoros packet, Lexington, goes out on her first trip, leaving from the foot of Twelfth street at 10:30 a. m. to-day.

The marks at the public landing at 6 p. m. showed 21 feet 3 inches in the channel and slowly falling, although it was expected the river would shortly become stationary.

The C. C. Martin, a packet that was brought to Steubenville to run in a local trade, goes back to Parkersburg to resume in her old trade on the Little Kanawha. She passed down yesterday morning.

Among the tow boats that passed up yesterday with empties were: Valiant, 9 a. m.; Henry De Bus, 10 a. m.; Raymond Horner, 4 p. m. Their tows were all in good shape, but if they strike the ice from the Kittanning gorge before reaching Pittsburgh they will have to lay up.

The following is a concise and interesting sketch of Captain Phillips, the commander of the Iron Queen, who has been appointed hull inspector at Pittsburgh: There are few better known men about the rivers than Capt. John M. Phillips, who has been appointed local inspector of hulls to succeed Capt. John M. Neeld. Captain Phillips was born on Neville island in 1849, and knows something about raising cabbage as well as commanding a steamer. He is related to the families bearing the same name on the island, which is known as the garden spot of western Pennsylvania. Captain Phillips did his first steamboating in 1881, when he came out in command of the L. C. McCormick and commanded her several seasons in the excursion trade. In 1888 he went west, and being a lover of live stock, bought a ranch in Arizona, which he still owns. He returned in 1890 and assumed command of the steamer Scotia, of the Pittsburgh and Cincinnati packet line. When the steamer Iron Queen was being built he personally superintended its every detail, and she is recognized as the finest vessel afloat on the Ohio. When she was entered in the trade he was placed in command.

Scrofula From Childhood

"My mother has been afflicted with scrofula in her head since her childhood. She is now in her 51st year. She has also suffered from weakness in her back for which she never expected any relief. She has faithfully tried Hood's Sarsaparilla and it has freed her system from scrofula, cured burning pains in her feet and limbs and also a pain in her left breast which prevented her from lying on that side for fourteen years. It has made her feel many years younger.

VENO'S

WONDERFUL CURES

Dumbfound Doctors and Surprise Everybody.

A WRITTEN LEGAL CONTRACT!

Ministers, physicians and intelligent people all over the world have tried Veno's. Dr. A. P. McNutt sent the following affidavit:

BRADNER, OHIO, August 28, '91.

This is to certify that I have been a great sufferer from rheumatism in my back, stomach and limbs, the larger half of my life, and I am now almost 55 years of age. I have tried everything I could hear of and a goodly number of doctors, and failed to get permanent relief. On the 23d day of July, 1891, I called at Dr. Veno's office in Toledo, and took treatment of him—the Curative Syrup and Electric Fluid, and I found almost instant relief. I have used Veno's medicine now for five weeks and have had four weeks' solid comfort. I am now free from pain, and can now return to my work feeling well, which, for the last two years, I had to abandon, not being able to preach on account of the above named disease. I have so much confidence in the medicine for what it has done for me, and what it is doing for others here, that I am acting as agent in selling the Veno medicine, and can guarantee to get it here fast enough to supply the demand.

Rev. A. P. McNutt, Methodist Protestant Church, State of Ohio, Wood County, J. S. S.

Personally appeared before me, a notary public in and for the said county, the Rev. A. P. McNutt, who being duly sworn, declares that the above statement is true, and he subscribes in and to my presence this 29th day of August, 1891.

JOHN W. WYANT, Notary Public.

Veno's Curative Syrup is the quickest cure in the world for nervousness, dyspepsia, liver, kidney, blood and stomach disorders, weakness, poor appetite, sleeplessness and female weaknesses, and all ailments with which electric fluid will certainly cure rheumatism, lumbago, sciatica, neuralgia, and all aches and pains. Price 50c per bottle. Sold with a guarantee to cure or refund the money by Goetze, the druggist.

and she has carried more people than any other boat of the line. Capt. Phillips is very popular among the traveling public on the river, as his genial manners have made him friends everywhere. He is regarded as a careful riverman, which well qualifies him for the position to which he has just been chosen. He is married, is the father of seven children and a brother-in-law of Capt. James A. Henderson. He resides in a pretty home at Breckinridge and Reed avenues.

ALL DANGER OVER

At Port Deposit—The Waters Backed Up by the Ice Gorge Recede.

BALTIMORE, March 4.—A dispatch from Port Deposit says the danger threatening the town from the gorge in the Susquehanna river no longer exists. The waters have receded, giving a much needed relief to the inhabitants, who have now no more dread of the destruction of their homes, and possibly of their lives.

WESTER'S ADVICE TO WINTHROP.

A Lesson of Experience—In the Harsh School of Experience Man Learns the Ripest Wisdom and is Best Qualified to Teach—Every Human Life Bears Testimony to This Fact.

Daniel Webster, the greatest man cradled on New England soil in any century, at the goal of his career, looking backward and remembering his own experience, thus advised Robert C. Winthrop, then at the very threshold of that public life which sheds such imperishable lustre on his name.

"Winthrop, if I were as young as you are, and just beginning my congressional career, I would adopt a different course from that which we are all pursuing in regard to speeches.

"I have lost my faith in long, labored efforts, to be printed a week after their delivery, and to be scattered over the country in pamphlets which nobody ever reads. I would speak short and often. I would take some part in every important discussion, and I would prepare every word which I proposed to say, and write it out beforehand, so as to give a copy to the reporters the moment I sat down. In this way the next morning's paper would let my constituents and the country see and read precisely what I had said."

Can this advice not be given with equal emphasis in relation to advertising? If the great orator makes one mighty effort on some stated occasion and then lapses into silence, he is lost in the swift tide of events the remainder of the time. Heard often, he is constantly in the public thought. So, if the merchant has one grand display and does nothing the rest of the year, or only appears in print occasionally, people forget and turn elsewhere the rest of the year. But let the daily columns proclaim his bargains in an attractive and novel manner, and the tide of trade to his counters is ceaseless in its flow. It is never permitted to ebb; is charged with constant success.

As Webster said to Winthrop, "Speak, speak," we say to business men, "Advertise, advertise." Be heard often in the right places and thousands of readers will become your daily audience, never forgetting when to trade.

ADVERTISE: IT PAYS.

It has helped make the "merchant prince" of our land, as oratory has proclaimed its foremost status.

Where is The Opera Company?

The Louise Beaudet Opera Company, booked for the Opera House last night and to-night in "The Dragon's Daughter," failed to appear yesterday and no performance was given last night. No explanation was received by Manager Riestor, but from the fact that there had for some time been rumors afloat that the company was about on its last legs, it is pretty certain that it broke up at Columbus. News has been received from New York that some of the members of the company have already arrived there. There will be no show at the Opera House till Corianno comes Friday night.

Mr. Bayard Recovers.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

THE GRAND this evening—"Tim, the Tinker."

CARL A. GOETZE, aged twenty-eight, and Emma M. Biberson, aged nineteen, both of this city, were yesterday licensed to wed.

The last will and testament of Ninian Beal was yesterday probated. E. M. Atkinson gave $2,500 bond as executor, with George Rice as surety.

The certificate of incorporation of the Ames Hair Garden Co., was yesterday filed with Clerk Hook. It is a Pennsylvania concern formed to go into the business of growing hair on bald heads.

In the police court yesterday Joe Baird, on charges of disorder and carrying concealed weapons, got sixty days on the hill. Pat Mahoney, for resisting, got thirty days. Three disorderlies paid and three went to the hill.

TENNESSEE is a great deal of kicking among the people living below Fortieth street because the gas is still off there, presumably on account of water in the pipes. It has been off several weeks now.

The music in "Hendrick Hudson" possesses to a marked degree the claim of originality. It is not a melody, begged, borrowed or stolen from the popular operas of the day; but every bar of it has been written especially for "Hendrick Hudson." It has more than a dozen airs, bright and catchy, which are likely to become lasting favorites. Corianno will give it at the Opera House Friday evening.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

The "Tim, the Tinker" company is at the Behler.

Miss R. F. Robinson and J. S. Robinson, of Mannington, are guests at the Stamm.

James S. Rinehart, of East Liverpool, was among yesterday's arrivals at the Windsor.

W. H. Nichols and James Gartlan, of Mannington, were guests at the McLure yesterday.

Miss Lou Hubbard and Miss Elsie Whitaker left yesterday for California for an extended visit.

A. S. Carr, a Barnesville man, who is interested in the "grease" down at Sistersville, registered at the Windsor.

G. B. Bradfield, a well known business man of Barnesville, was in the city yesterday, and autographed at the McLure.

J. F. Frame, of Sistersville; W. G. Snodgrass, of Denton, and J. Crandall, of Sistersville, are among the West Virginia people at the Behler.

Mr. George Manderback, one of the most popular dramatic men on the road, is in town arranging for the appearance of Loder's Comedians next week. He has many old friends here.

Mr. Richard C. Campbell arrived last night on his way home to New York from an extended visit in the southwest. He will leave for Washington this evening. He says when he left Arizona the thermometer there marked 95 in the shade.

Corianno is meeting with great success in "Hendrick Hudson," in which she will appear at the Opera House next Friday evening, March 8. The song "La Paloma," sung by her in Spanish, is one of the most artistic features of her new role.
