Spring Millinery.

Still snow on the hillsides, but the bluebirds and robings are here and everyone is thinking of the new Hats and Bonnets.

Our Preliminary Opening Begins To-day.

and will continue for the rest of the week, being the first glimpse at the newest ideas in Spring Millinery. There will be a grand showing of

Trimmed Hats and Bonnets

at medium prices, specially designed for early Spring wear in place of the late Winter Hats of which you have become so tired. There will also be a great display of

Untrimmed Hats and Sailors

in every imaginable shape and color—probably more than we have ever shown so early in the season. And one or two of the big cases will be filled with

Hats for the Little Tots

and their older sisters. This exhibit of early Spring styles for children will be one of the most attractive features of the Opening.

Of course everything, new and fashionable in Flowers and Ribbons and Trimmings will be shown this week for the first.

THE CHINESE PEACE COMMISSION.

European Powers Will Watch the Developments Closely—Russia's Attitude is Not Clearly Defined and the Japanese Anxious to Avoid Her Ill Will—The United States Ministers Largely Responsible for the Success of the Negotiations.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 12.—The brief cable announcement from Japan that China has accepted the terms on which Japan is willing to conclude peace, has renewed keen interest in the situation in the far east. Neither the Japanese nor Chinese legations have as yet any information that the negotiations have reached this advanced stage. It is stated by the officials at both legations that Prince Li Hung Chang, the Chinese peace envoy has not left Tientsin. His trip to Japan is to be accompanied with great power and ceremony, and until he puts his signature to the treaty there will be no actual conclusion of peace and no cessation of hostilities. It is believed, however, that the general understanding on the terms of peace, is for the purpose of paving the way to Prince Li's trip, in order that it may not result in the humiliating failure which met the efforts of the late Chinese peace envoys. This is the view expressed here by the officials and diplomats most conversant with the situation.

United States Ministers Dunn, at Tokio and Dumb, at Peking, have been in constant communication, with a view to bringing the two belligerents together, and it is not doubted that the general understanding of terms is through this mediation. These terms have taken wide range, although Japan has never stated officially what she expected to do. It is known, however, that two of the conditions are the independence of Korea and a cash indemnity. The third condition refers to territorial extension, and as to this there has been great difference of opinion even in Japan. The radical press demand the permanent cession to Japan of all the territory she has overrun by her army and navy. This would include the great naval stations of Port Arthur and Wai Hai Wei and the valuable stretch of territory along the north of the Gulf of Pechili. The more moderate element in Japan limits its territorial demands to the Island of Formosa.

Should the radical demands be pressed it is believed the great powers of Europe will not be heard before the treaty is concluded. Russia has grown menacingly late at the suggestion that her eastern possessions were about to be hemmed in by a circle of Japanese territory. It is understood here that Japan has earnestly tried to learn Russia's purposes but without entire success. It is believed, however, that Russia is chiefly concerned in securing a harbor in the northeast of Korea, as her present harbor at Vladivostok is closed by ice half of the year, while a Korean harbor would give her an outlet to the sea the year round. Such an outlet is considered imperative as a part of the great Siberian railway. The cash indemnity to be paid Japan is variously estimated at from one billion to five hundred million yen. At the present rate of exchange the silver yen is worth about fifty cents and the gold yen about one dollar. It is not yet determined what coin will be used in payment. In either case it will make heavy inroads on the money metals of the world, as the total will be ten or twenty times greater than the proceeds of the United States bond sales. It is expected that China would have little trouble in borrowing the money, as the great creditor nations of Europe appear to be ready and anxious to advance funds on oriental securities.

CLAIM A VICTORY.

The Pittsburgh Miners Produce the Figures to Support Their Claims.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 12.—The miners of the Pittsburgh district claim that victory is theirs, that they have won the strike for higher wages, and they produce the figures to prove their claims. With the capitulation of the river operators to the demands for sixty-nine cents per ton, 8,000 miners went back to work at union wages. But in the rush of a resumption of work these 8,000 men were not sufficient and 2,000 miners from the railroad mines have been furnished work. Besides this, there are 6,000 men at work at the union rates in the railroad mines, according to the figures of the miners' officials. Thus 16,000 men out of a total of 22,000 in the district, are now at work at the sixty-nine cent rate and the miners claim that the battle is practically won, as the remaining operators cannot afford to keep their mines closed and let their trade go to their competitors.

The strike is not yet a week old and the miners feel that their bold, decisive action has won for them the victory. The demand for coal is good and the visible supply is very short. Lake shipments will begin next month and the operators are in no condition to meet the orders which the opening of the lake trade will bring them.

William B. Wilson, the general master workman of the Independent Order Knights of Labor, the new labor organization, is in the city and is jubilant at the prospects of the miners. He feels that the first fight of the new order will be a winning one and if such proves the case it will receive a big boom.

TEXAS CATTLE RAIDERS.

A Monster Meeting at Fort Worth Pass Appropriate Resolutions.

FORT WORTH, TEXAS, March 12.—The nineteenth annual convention of the Northwest Texas Cattle Association convened at 10 o'clock this morning. It is the largest gathering of stockmen ever held in Texas. Five hundred and twenty came in one train last night and 450 on another this morning. It is estimated that over 5,000 are now in the city. Large delegations are here from St. Louis, Kansas City, Chicago and Omaha. The meeting will continue two days.

The following resolutions will, it is understood, be presented in the convention and adopted without material change:

Resolved, That we, as producers and dealers in live stock in the state of Texas, thoroughly, heartily and unreservedly, without any reservation, command and support the present rigid method of cattle and meat inspection, which we believe is thoroughly enforced by the agents of the bureau of animal industry of the United States department of agriculture.

Resolved, That we insist upon the continuation of the said governmental inspection, tagging and certification of all domestic animals intended for inter-state or export trade, to the end that the whole world may be guaranteed that the domestic animals of the United States are free at this time from all infectious, contagious or communicable diseases.

Resolved, That we demand of our representatives in Congress, that they enact laws requiring a rigid inspection and certification by foreign governments of edible commodities exported by them (wines, liquors, etc., inclusive) to the United States, as they require from the government of this republic, as to the wholesomeness and healthfulness of American cattle, swine and other products in whatsoever shape they may be exported.

Resolved, That the president and secretary of this meeting be and are hereby requested to furnish those resolutions to our county papers and also semi-certified copies of the same to the United States department of agriculture.

And Further be it Resolved, That it is the sentiment of the meeting which passes these resolutions that these demands are non-partisan, and are made with the request that there will be a general concurrence of expression on the part of all the producers and dealers in live stock by counties throughout the country.

SIX PEOPLE INJURED

In a Destructive Fire at Waupun, Wis., Yesterday Morning.

WAUPUN, Wis., March 12.—A destructive fire occurred at this place this morning. During its progress six persons were injured. The pecuniary loss aggregates $40,000.

During the progress of the fire there was a general panic when a terrific explosion occurred in the Butterfield building, causing the walls to fall and crush a number of people. It appears that the hot air ignited and created a sudden and violent expansion, which wrecked the burning structure and injured the firemen. For a time it was feared the firemen had been caught beneath the falling walls, but when the smoke cleared away it was discovered that they were safe. There were many spectators, however, who were caught under the walls and six of them were badly injured. There were also many others who received severe wounds and scratches from flying debris. Dr. Russell was sent for from Oshkosh and he assisted in relieving the sufferings of the unfortunate. They are all doing well at present with the exception of young Meiklejohn, who, it is feared, will die.

The injured are as follows: Hortia Sargent, compound fracture of the leg above knee and a broken ankle. John Meiklejohn, hurt internally and badly cut about the face. His head was cut open. He cannot recover. Alfred Jefferson Jones, injured about head and hurt internally. A. C. Scott, badly cut about the head with glass. John Peters, cut about the head with glass and also injured internally. Joe Weinberger, injured in the spine. He will recover. The losses range from $200 up to $5,000, and include tradesmen of all kinds. The business portion of the city is practically wiped out.

A Sensational Case Revived.

JOLIET, Ill., March 12.—A year ago a sensation was started in the village of Wilmington by Father O'Gara, alleging that Father Noonan, his under priest, was too liberal with members of the Protestant church. The matter is revived by Father Noonan filing two suits in the circuit court against Father O'Gara, one for slander, with damages placed at $20,000, and another for assault and battery, with damages placed at $5,000. He has also begun suit for damages against Archbishop Foshan, of Chicago, for $50,000, for damages in depriving him of his life support.

Actor Injured.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., March 12.—A. S. Lipman, of the "War of Wealth" company and formerly of the "Burglar" and "Aristocracy" casts, fell on Fifth avenue yesterday and sustained a compound fracture of his leg. He will not be able to appear with the company for two months at least.

PARKERSBURG TICKETS.

The Democrats and Citizens Nominates Candidates—A Notable Wedding. Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 12.—The Democrats have nominated the following city ticket: For mayor, H. S. Wilson; for city collector, E. O. Hishig; councilmen, First ward, James P. Morrison; Second ward, Dan Gardway; Third ward, Simms Powell; Fourth ward, James Ruhrig; Fifth ward, A. J. Minx.

The Citizens' party of Parkersburg hold a city convention last night and put up the following ticket: For mayor, C. D. Merrick; for city collector, W. F. Johnson; for councilmen, Stephen Davidson, L. H. Boyd, H. H. Dils, Dr. Price and J. H. Wise. The Citizens' party last year put up a ticket and carried a few votes. Their platform is principally, down with the saloon.

The wedding of Mr. Edward Nelly, assistant cashier of the Wood county bank, to Miss Ida Bekora occurred today at 10 o'clock. Mr. Nelly is a brother of Mrs. Eiz. of Wheeling. Judge Jackson, in the United States court, yesterday overruled a motion for a new trial in the case of Mrs. A. E. Hill, of Charleston, vs. the Endowment Bank, Knights of Pythias, and rendered judgment for the amount of the verdict, $3,210.
