

SPRING SUITS—M. GUTMAN & CO.

YOUR MONEY'S WORTH FOR YOUR MONEY.

If it rains on Easter Sunday it will rain for seven succeeding Sundays, but we hope it won't rain, for it will seriously interfere with the sale of our Men's, Boys' and Children's Spring Suits.

We never had a finer collection, and we never felt so confident of pleasing everybody as now, for the styles are so varied that all can be satisfied, no matter what cut or pattern you desire. Our window is full of 50c Easter Neckties. Like everything we show, their quality remains unquestioned. It will be a great pleasure to show these new goods, even if you do not care to purchase just now.

DRESS SUITINGS—GEO. E. STIFEL & CO

A GENTLE REMINDER AT A SEASONABLE TIME FROM A RELIABLE SOURCE TO THE WISE

IS WORTH MUCH.

Think of the days passing by, each one carrying some of those elegant Dress Suitings (as far as your possessing it) out of sight. If you do see it again some one else will be the owner, and you can only say, "It might have been." How many will then be up and about before more gems are lost? Certainly there are others, but you should be ready to appear Easter with your new outfit. There are special Easter offerings all this week in every line. Saturday we received another lot of Black and Colored Crepons, and Black Satins and Taffeta Silks. Come in, hear our prices, see the goods. If they are not big bargains, don't buy.

Striped, Checked and Figured Silks and Satins for Shirt Waists. Some are washable, come are not, but in either we have hundreds of pieces, and we know out of this lot one, if not more, will suit you. Our made-up Shirt Waists are up to date in style and finish, perfect fit, and a class of goods that speak for themselves. See the line for 48c each.

They are using trimmings, and lots of them. That's why we have such a variety. You buy a dress from us you are sure to find a suitable trimming for it right here, be it Band, Point or Buckle, in Jet, Steel, or Jeweled. Buttons are also playing some important parts on dresses. All sizes of pearl, cut steel and gilt. Also l'ainted Novelities that will improve any suit.

Ladies' Blouse Sets, Studs, Collar and Cuff Buttons. A great variety in Plated Ware from 25c per set up. Sterling Silver, warranted sets, at 85c each.

JEWEL, That's the name given a bar of soap that makes half the labor of housecleaning turn into joy. Leaves your carpet bright and new, not ripped or shrunk up. It's only 20c a bar. If you are wise you will try it.

THE PRESBYTERY

Of Washington Met at Burgettstown in the Spring Session.

MANY MATTERS OF MUCH INTEREST

To the Church People Were Considered—A Presbyterian Church to Be Organized in Glendale—The Claysville Trouble Was Brought Up, and the Pastor Was Victorious—Details of the Business Transacted.

Rev. Dr. Cooke, of the Second Presbyterian church; Dr. Cunningham, of the First church; Judge G. L. Cranmer, and the other Wheeling delegates to the annual spring business meeting of the Washington presbytery, which took place on Tuesday and Wednesday at Burgettstown, Pa., returned home yesterday afternoon. The attendance at this session was up to the standard of past sessions, and a considerable amount of business was transacted. Wednesday's session did not adjourn until midnight.

At the Tuesday session the presbytery organized temporarily by selecting Rev. Robert T. A. Alexander, of Washington, as moderator in place of Rev. Mr. Doyle, late of Moundsville, who recently removed to another presbytery. Rev. J. C. Garver was next elected moderator of the presbytery for the ensuing term of six months. Mr. Garver is the pastor of the West Liberty Presbyterian church. Messrs. D. A. Young and Judge G. L. Cranmer, the latter of Wheeling, were elected clerks of the meeting. Rev. Henry Woods, D. D., was re-elected stated clerk of the body, a position that he has held for a number of years.

Rev. R. R. Bigger, who recently assumed the pastorate of the Third Presbyterian church, of Wheeling, was received into the presbytery by letter from the Shenley presbytery, of Illinois. Until he came to Wheeling Mr. Bigger was pastor of a Presbyterian church in Sidney, Ills. The presbytery set May 10th as the date of his formal installation.

The next event on the presbytery programme was an eloquent sermon by Dr. Cunningham, of Wheeling, in connection with the receiving of Mr. Bigger.

Dr. Cooke gave the charge to the people and Mr. Montgomery, of Cameron, delivered the charge to the pastor. Rev. Leonard Iwinum, late of the St. Clairsville presbytery, who has lately been called to the Moundsville church pulpit vacated by Mr. Doyle, was received by the presbytery.

A petition was received from a number of persons in Glendale, Marshall county, just below Wheeling, asking for the organization of a Presbyterian church there. Dr. Cunningham, Dr. Cooke, Rev. Mr. Montgomery, and Elders Cranmer and W. R. Simpson, were appointed as a committee to visit Glendale, look over the field, and if the situation is favorable proceed with the organization of the church.

Messrs. A. J. W. Atkinson, S. V. Bebbinson and J. A. Kelso, were examined by the presbytery and licensed to preach the Gospel.

Statistical reports, annual settlements with pastors and Sunday school reports were received from the various churches and acted upon.

Rev. George McDonald, of West Alexander, and Dr. W. H. Cooke, D. D., of Wheeling, were elected ministerial commissioners to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church, together with Elders P. S. Carothers, of Holliday's Cove, and S. D. Lockhard. The general assembly meets in Pittsburgh this year.

At the Wednesday night session of the presbytery the Claysville trouble was considered. The petition from members of the church there that the pastor, Mr. Fish, should hand in his resignation within a year, was acted upon unfavorably. The friends of the pastor handed in a petition asking that the church call a congregational meeting for the purpose of electing additional elders; this petition was signed by 245 members of the church, and was granted by the presbytery. The meeting for the election of the elders will take place on May 4.

The Burgettstown church trouble was also considered at the extra night session. Mrs. Riddle and other members of the First church, presented a petition asking that her husband, Mr. Riddle, the pastor of the church, be forced to resign. The matter was referred to a commission, which will sit and decide in the near future. The difficulty grew out of a complaint made by Mrs. Riddle and her sister, Mary Dingham, that Mr. Riddle was too friendly with the wife of another man.

The request of certain suspended members of the church at Upper Buffalo, for restoration, was laid on the table after a lengthy discussion. The multitudinous items of routine business incident to the spring meeting of the presbytery were transacted during the two days' session. The next session will be held at Claysville, on the first Tuesday in September, 1895.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Mr. Charles H. Wheeler Wedded to Miss Blanche Hare Last Evening.

Last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Twentieth street, occurred the wedding of Mr. Charles H. Wheeler, of the tailoring firm of C. W. Wheeler & Son, and Miss Blanche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Hare. The ceremony occurred at 8 o'clock in the presence of the relatives of the contracting parties and friends of both from this city, Pittsburgh and other cities. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. McClure and Rev. Mr. Littell, of the United Presbyterian church. The parlor where the ceremony was performed was beautifully and very tastefully decorated with flowers and other decorative objects, forming a bow of beauty suitable to the joyous occasion.

The bridesmaids were Miss Martha Hare, the sister of the bride, and Miss Hodge, of Pittsburgh, while the groom's attendants were Mr. Andrew Hare and Mr. Will H. Hare, brothers of the bride. The notable costumes were those of the bridesmaids. The bride looked radiantly beautiful in white crepon and chrysanthemums. Miss Hodge wore silk crepon with white and pink ribbon trimmings, while Miss Martha Hare was attired in pink silk with white lace trimmings. The newly married couple left at midnight for the east, and on their return will be at home at their residence on South Huron street, Island.

Among the out-of-town people who attended the wedding were the following: George M. Bole and wife, of Pittsburgh; W. A. Bole, of Pittsburgh; T. H. Bole, of Butler; John Bole and wife, of Pittsburgh.

UNITED STATES COURT.

Three Liquor Cases Tried, and Only One Conviction—A Counterfeiting Case Prosecution Also Failed.

In the United States courts yesterday there was a decided odor of whisky, whisky sold in the way that makes the occupation of the United States marshals. There were three cases of unlawful peddling of the fire-water, and of the lot but one conviction resulted, and in that instance the accused confessed. In the others the government's testimony was not conclusive, and the jury gave the prisoners the benefit of the doubt.

The first case was that of the government against Lon and T. F. Henry, who hail from Monongalia county, near classic Morgantown. They were accused of passing counterfeit coin at a church festival. The testimony was not conclusive against the pair, so the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty.

Everest Koen, of Mannington, entered a plea of guilty of selling whisky without a government license, and was fined $100 and sentenced to serve thirty days in jail.

L. E. Schenck, of Mannington, was accused of the same offense, but Attorney Fick, who was appointed by the court to conduct his case, did it so well that the jury brought in a verdict of not guilty of the offense alleged.

Frank Stanton, of Mannington, was tried for peddling whisky around Mannington without a government license, but he also was found not guilty, his case being handled ably by Mr. Atkinson. One of the witnesses was Mannington's town marshal, who testified that there have been fully fifty or one hundred "blinds," "speak-easies" and other contrivances to evade the local option law in Marion county, running in Mannington, but that many of these are now closed. Most of these places take out United States government licenses, but of course try to hide their operations from the town and county authorities.

The present session of the United States courts in this city now seems likely to extend into next week. It was thought at first that the docket would be cleared before the end of the present week.

Samuel Martin Dead.

Samuel Martin, aged sixty-seven years, one of the oldest and most respected citizens of Bridgeport, died Wednesday night at his home on Front street after a short illness. He had been in ill health for the past year or two, but was confined to his bed only about a week. His wife has been dead for a number of years, but six children besides a wide circle of friends mourn his death. He was a soldier and had a record of which anyone would be proud. He served all through the Mexican war, and at the outbreak of the late war was among the first to offer his services. He enlisted October 1, 1861, for three years; was first made first lieutenant of Company A, Forty-third O. V. I., and after a month of faithful service he was promoted to the rank of captain. He resigned from the service September 25, 1864. The funeral will likely take place Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. All the old soldiers will likely turn out and assist in laying another of their honored comrades among the dead. The interment will be made in Weeks' cemetery.

Eminent Lecturer to be Here Saturday.

Dr. W. Clark Robinson will give a complimentary lecture on "Robert Burns" Saturday evening at 8 o'clock at the Young Men's Christian Association Hall. Dr. Robinson has been working for three years under the direction of the American Society for the Extension of University Teaching, and has lectured with brilliant success in a large number of its centres. He has received hundreds of letters from practical teachers, professional men and scholars of the highest rank in America and Europe, commending his public lectures, his work in the university extension field and his popular presentation of Shakespeare and other English poets.
