

EASTER CELEBRATED

In Nearly all the Wheeling Churches Yesterday.

MUSIC AND FLOWERS THE FEATURE.

Some Incidents of Special Interest in the Various Services—The Day at the Cathedral and in the Catholic Churches—The Late Disaster Saddened Many of the Worshippers' Hearts.

The celebration of Easter Sunday yesterday was as general in Wheeling churches as on any past anniversary, and in spite of rain at intervals and the raw, chilly air nearly all of the churches were crowded at each service. The fatal accident of last Tuesday was the only thing that saddened the otherwise joyous observances, and the feeling references to it in the discourses of the day were very general.

Each year the observance of the day in evangelical churches seems to become more common. Yesterday nearly all the Protestant churches had special services, and in most of them the main features were profane floral decorations and the elaborate Easter music.

At St. Joseph's cathedral the usual impressive celebration of the day was given. Pontifical high mass was celebrated at 10:30 a. m. The celebrant was Right Rev. Bishop P. J. Donohue, assisted by the cathedral clergy and George Hamman, Will Gundling and Gus Weitzel. The altar was beautifully decorated with an array of natural flowers and candles.

The sermon was preached by the Rt. Rev. Bishop, the music, under the direction of Mrs. M. E. Whitaker, was of a high order. La Hache's mass, "Pro Pace," was sung. The voices were Miss Emma Connolly, Mrs. H. Keller, Misses Josephine Flading, Margaret O'Kane, Maggie Byrnes, Patronella Devleiger, Mrs. George Updegraff, Mrs. George S. Feeney, Miss Emma Yahn, Kate Gaster, Agnes Lowry, Julia Flading, Gustie Hamman, Ella Waterhouse and Messrs. Jacques Front, Henry Paul, T. J. Miller, Charles Miller, Adam and Julius Young. The leading soloists were Miss Emma Connolly, "Incarnatum," by Miss Maggie Byrnes; "Visibilium," by Mr. Front; "Et in Spiritum," by Mr. Young. Other beautiful solos were sung by Misses Tucker, O'Kane and Flading.

In the evening Rosary's Vespers were sung by the same choir.

Rt. Rev. Bishop Donohue was celebrant at the vespers. All the beauty of the Roman ritual was displayed. The altar in its gorgeous decoration added much to the grandeur of the ceremony. At St. Matthews church the floral adornments were especially beautiful. Communion service was held early in the morning, and another service at the usual hour. In the afternoon Rev. Dr. Swopes conducted services at St. Paul's chapel at Elm Grove. There were no services last evening, except the singing of "The Crucifixion," a fine composition by Dr. Stainer.

The special musical programme was excellently rendered by the vested choir, as follows:

- 1. Processional hymn—"Jesus Christ is Risen Today"
2. "Christ Our Passover"
3. "The Resurrection"
4. Jubilate in A
5. Hymn—"Welcome, Happy Morning"
6. Kyrie eleison
7. Gloria
8. Hymn—"The Strife is over"
9. Offertory anthem—"Awake Up My Glory"
10. Sanctus
11. Communion hymn—"At the Lamb's High Feast We Sing"
12. Gloria in excelsis
13. Recessional hymn—"Jesus Lives, Thy Terrors Not"

At St. Luke's very elaborate musical programmes were rendered, one in the forenoon and one at night. The choir is made up as follows: Soprano—Isabel Henry, Belle McGranahan, Miriam McClelland, Blanche Chapman, Daisy Eberlein and Mrs. J. M. Hammond. Alto—Misses Bessie McGranahan, Brodie Lewis, Helen McCoy, T. J. Danner, A. C. Stewart and Allen H. Robinson. Basses—Arch Taylor, John Crawford, Wylie Irwin, K. H. Parker and J. M. Hammond.

At the English Lutheran church the fine choir rendered with the most complete satisfaction to two large congregations a beautiful service. The choir is composed of the following:

Soprano—Misses Eva Phillips, Kate Phillips, Ida Schaefer, Blanche Schaefer, Rosie Brost, Louisa Maurer, Cora Dailey. Alto—Laura Serig, Kate Ebeling, Lily Reddall. Tenor—Will Nesbitt, Joseph Link, Charles Hersel, Charles Murrin, Mr. Acker, Wallace H. Smith.

Basso—Frederick Danvers, Charles Juergens, Albert Meyer, Chester Bell, Ambrose Woods, Harry McGuire. W. M. Clemons, leader; Miss Annie Israel, organist.

At the Fourth street church the services were of the deepest interest all day. Rev. Dr. Riker preached two sermons of special application to the anniversary. In addition a cantata was sung last night. In addition to the Easter celebration it was missionary Sunday, and the Sabbath school raised the very creditable sum of $285.83.

The morning services the anthem, "The Lord is risen indeed," was sung, and it was stated that it was first sung in the old church which stood on the same site on Easter, 1856.

In the Second Presbyterian church the choir, composed of Mrs. George B. Caldwell and Misses Florence Phillips and Jennie Bradshaw, soprano; Bessie, Mr. Charles Zulauf; tenor, H. R. Bell, Prof. Hartman, director and organist, acquitted itself with more than usual credit. Mrs. Caldwell and Mr. Zulauf were never in better voice, and all the music, especially the solos, was rendered with much feeling and expression.

Prof. Hartman's organ solo and accompaniments were also played with exquisite skill. In the evening Dr. Cooke took for his theme the idea that Jesus was the same Christ before and after the resurrection. Many looked upon him and exclaimed, "Rabboni!" "My Master." Thomas when his doubt was removed cried, "My Lord and my God!" So when we see Christ as he is, we, and not Christ, are changed.

At the First Presbyterian church the day was also fittingly celebrated, the following musical selections being given:

very large, and Rev. Dr. Cunningham preached sermons appropriate to the day.

At nearly all the other churches more or less attention was given to the character of the anniversary, although the celebration was not so elaborate as at those referred to above.

In all the churches here yesterday morning the ministers preached sermons with special reference to the festival of the resurrection and in the evening in nearly all of them there was a children's Easter service. The day was dark and dismal most of the time, yet the attendance at the services was good and in the afternoon there was a fair sprinkling of fine flowers displayed.

MERCURIAL POISON

Is the result of the usual treatment of blood disorders. The system is filled with Mercury and Potash remedies—more to be dreaded than the disease—and in a short while is in a far worse condition than before. The common result is for which S.S.S. is the most reliable cure. A few bottles will afford relief where all else has failed. I suffered from a severe attack of Mercurial Rheumatism, my arms and legs being swollen to twice their natural size, causing the most excruciating pains. I spent hundreds of dollars without relief, but after taking a few bottles of S.S.S. I improved rapidly and am now a well man, completely cured. I can heartily recommend it to any one suffering from this painful disease. W. F. DALEY, Brooklyn Elevated R. R.

GETTING GOOD MEN.

White Signs Two More Good Players for the Ball Team.

The Penitent is About Our Size

If the Men Show Up as Well as Their Past Records Justify Expectation, A Left Fielder and a Centre Fielder are the Late Accessions—The Musee League Bowling Records—Saturday's Bowling Games.

Wheeling's Inter-state ball team will soon be complete. Outside of the batteries the team is now complete with the exception of the third baseman. White has an excellent man in view for that important infield position, whom he expects to sign before the week is over. The six men already signed for positions on the regular team are thought to be better than any signed by the other Inter-state teams. The following is the roll, with batting and fielding averages for last season:

Table with columns: Player and Position, Batting, Fielding. Lists players like White, short stop; Hamilton, left field; Kerr, centre field; Keele, first base; Trotty, second base; Brown, right field.

Yesterday's mail brought Manager White the contracts of two players, Hannavan, of Hartford, Ct., and Kerr, of Guelph, Ontario. Hannavan was one of the stars of last season's New England association. He played short field in the crack Pawtucket team, and in fielding ranked third among the short stops. White being the second best fielder. He was twelfth in batting. Kerr played with the Canadian association last year, and as will be seen by the figures above he was a good one both in field and at the bat. White will put Hannavan in left garden. Should the manager be disabled, however, the Hartford man will be a good one to be run into short field.

White said last night that he is now negotiating with two or three pitchers, one of whom is a cracker-jack, whom he expects to have under contract before many hours have passed. The team will start the season with no less than seven pitchers, four of whom will be local men, who are to be given a thorough trial. The men will report to the manager the latter part of this week.

THREE GAMES WERE WON Saturday by Pen and Pencil on Very Different Kolling.

Table with columns: Club, W. L. cent, Club, W. L. cent. Lists bowlers like Weitzel, 113 110 126; Zimmmer, 127 111 125; Manning, 149 130 118; Archer, 127 152 136; Hild, 121 137 128.

Saturday night Pen and Pencil met the Independents, and although the pencil pushers did not maintain their standard of playing, the Independents were unable to declare their independence of the strong hold "old holloway defeat" has on the team. The scores:

MUSEE LEAGUE RECORDS.

What the Players Have Been Doing—An Improvement all Along the Line is Noticed—Hervey Still in the Lead.

The fourth week of the season of the Musee Bowling League closed Saturday and on the whole the work of the players has shown considerable improvement, though in one or two instances there was a sudden, disheartening drop. Two weeks ago there were sixteen players who had averages of 140 and above. Now the number has increased to twenty-three, divided among the teams as follows:

Brownies—Hervey, Adams, O'Neill, Dahinden. Bowlers—Scott, Ribheldaffer, Statler, Whitaker. Daisies—Stevenson, W. R. Wells, J. L. Day. Nameless—Carenbauer, Campbell, J. H. Wells. Eldorado—G.
