Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City.

The Grand this evening—"A Baggage Check."

HARRY GRUBER has been appointed administrator of the estate of Frederick Gruber, deceased.

The new ice plant of the Schmuibach brewery, on the South Side, is nearly completed, and will be in operation before the end of the week.

The stockholders of the newly organized Trimble & Lutz Company will meet on May 18 to elect directors, adopt by-laws and transact other business.

EX-MAYOR WHARTON, of Fulton, wishes it announced that the report published that he was "fired" by council there is incorrect. He resigned, he says, because persons whom he arrested were allowed to go unpunished by the mayor.

The Butchers' Protective Association has appointed the following named gentlemen, Councilmen Christian Kalbitzer and Herman Hess, G. H. Medick, Louis Zoelker and President Albert Schenk, of the board of public works, a committee to oppose the resolution offered by Mr. Farrell at a recent meeting of council in regard to farmers being allowed to retail their beef in Wheeling.

The United Council, American Mechanics, will give a moonlight steamboat excursion to Steubenville and return on Captain Booth's steamer Liberty on Wednesday evening. The music will be furnished by the Wheeling City band, and the boat is scheduled to leave the wharf at 7:30 p. m. The advance sale of tickets has been very heavy and the excursion will be a great success.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

J. Harvey Long, proprietor of the Huntington Herald, is a guest of the McClure.

Mr. J. E. Kirtz, of E. Cohen & Sons, Baltimore, has returned from a very successful trip.

C. R. Allender, of Mannington, and P. D. McConnell, of Sistersville, are stopping at the McClure.

George H. Bailey and L. M. Graham, of Parkersburg; A. B. Stathers, of Alma, W. Va., and several members of the "Baggage Check" company are guests of the Stamm.

M. N. Dickerson, of Fairmont; O. T. Whitacre, of Bethany; Charles T. Blaney and several members of the "Baggage Check" company are registered at the Windsor.

Madame Kate Rolla, the prima donna, now visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George K. Wheat, North Main street, will give a song recital in Carnegie hall, Pittsburgh, next Friday evening.

Fred Wagner and J. M. Kaiser, of Walter Main's circus, several members of the "Baggage Check" company, John Hendershot, of Huntington, and H. G. Ewing, of Wellsburg, are at the Bähler.

Mrs. Valentine's Death.

Yesterday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock Mrs. Abigail Valentine, relict of the late Benjamin Valentine, died at the home of her son-in-law, Conrad Bachman, on the South Side, in the eighty-fourth year of her age. She had been ill for some time, but the news of her demise was received with general sorrow, as she was an estimable woman, held in high esteem by numerous friends. She was the mother-in-law of both Peter and Conrad Bachman. She was for thirty years a member of Chaplins M. E. church. The funeral will take place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of Conrad Bachman, Eoff and Twenty-second streets, South Side. Services will be held at Chaplins M. E. church and the interment will be at Pinnacular cemetery.

Mrs. Medick's Funeral.

One of the largest funerals that has ever taken place in this city, was that of the late Mrs. Gustavo H. Medick. She was very popular in the circles in which she moved, and the regard in which she was held was attested by the long procession of carriages which followed her remains to their last resting place.

Mr. Craft's Engagements.

At the regular monthly meeting of the ministerial association of Wheeling and vicinity, to be held at the Y. M. C. A. this afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. Wilbur F. Crafts will speak on "What Wheeling May Learn from Reform Victories in Other Cities." He will preach next Sabbath in the Second Presbyterian church on "Liberty on the Sabbath," and in the evening at the Fourth street M. E. church. It is understood that he will be at Bellaire this week.

The Evolution

of medicinal agents is gradually relegating the old-time herbs, pills, draughts and vegetable extracts to the rear and bringing into general use the pleasant and effective liquid laxative, Syrup of Figs. The Trades Assembly Will Try to Secure Aid from Council.

TO LET THE FARMERS COME HERE

And Retail Their Beef in the Plan of the Assembly, or of Mr. Farrell—A Committee Appointed to Appear Before Council—Dr. Swope to Deliver His Address in May—Other Business Transacted by the Assembly.

Yesterday afternoon the Ohio Valley Trades and Labor Assembly held a regular meeting at its quarters on Market street, at which there was a large attendance of delegates. At the opening Vice President Tigho was in the chair in the absence of President Riley. Secretary Saulsbury was at the desk.

Delegate Sims, of the typographical union, reported that the Pittsburgh Dispatch is selling an encyclopedia published by a non-union publishing house. Union labor men were requested not to buy this work.

The West Virginia legislative committee, in whose hands was placed the matter of making arrangements for the meeting to be addressed by Rev. H. H. Swope, D. D., made its report. It had been the intention that the address should have been delivered yesterday, but the arrangements were not completed, so the committee has arranged with Dr. Swope for the meeting which will take place in Assembly hall on the second Sunday in May, at 3 p. m. The report of the committee was accepted. The committee was also empowered to secure other speakers for meetings in the near future.

Delegate Farrell reported to the assembly what he had done as a member of council. He had offered a resolution, the effect of which was to abolish the section of a city ordinance which provides that the farmer cannot come into the city and retail his beef. This resolution, he said, had been referred to the committee on ordinances, but as yet nothing had been done. Mr. Thomas Butt, a member of the second branch of the city council, and a member of the bricklayers' union, was present and spoke briefly on the subject. The reason for this agitation is the greatest advance in the price of beef to the consumer. By letting in the farmer it is thought the workmen will get their beef cheaper. Mr. Farrell's resolution in council has already aroused the opposition of the butchers' association, which was instrumental several years ago in having the ordinance passed which excludes the Ohio county farmer from retailing his beef in this city.

Finally Mr. Riley moved that the matter be placed in the hands of the West Virginia legislative committee with power if deemed advisable to appear before the city council in support of Mr. Farrell's resolution changing the ordinance mentioned.

The resolution brought out a lengthy discussion of much interest and finally the resolution was passed unanimously. The meeting adjourned before 4 o'clock.

The Church Calendar.

The second number of the Church Calendar of West Virginia has been issued. It presents a bright appearance and is full of news of interest to the Catholics of West Virginia. Since the first number was printed it has been enlarged to eight pages of six columns each, and it is to be published monthly in the interest of the diocese, and the proceeds, if any, are to go toward the maintenance of the two homes for orphans, the St. John's Home for Boys, on Thirteenth street, and the Orphan's Home for Girls, at Elm Grove. It is ably edited by members of the clergy, assisted by contributors throughout the state. The editorial on the death of Very Rev. Father Parko in the current number is especially able and very touching. On the whole the Calendar fulfills a mission long in need.

A Good Medicine.

"I have used several bottles of Hood's Pills, and am still using them. They have benefited me very much and I would not hesitate to recommend them to the public as a good medicine in every respect."—Frank A. Jenkins, 419 Thirteenth street, Parkersburg, W. Va.

FINE SUITS—THE HUB CLOTHIERS.

At Last the Deed Is Done!

All things comes to him who waits. But ours hasn't been an idle waiting. We never worked harder—more persistently. But now in the bright dawn of a new season comes the crimson sun of success. Close your account at the cheap tailors. You can forever turn your back on the troubles and trials of bothering with measures and putting up with vexatious delays. The high of our ambition has been realized. We have just received from the manufacturers a line of SUITS you would never dare to think could sell for less than $15 to $18—Garments that if the to-order shops offered to produce their like at $18 or even $20 you'd think it a dirt cheap bargain—and our price is only—

$10.00 and $12.00!

We'll confess a sacrifice of part of the profit, to the end that we might command better fabrics—we'll confess to the employment of the same skill, talent and patterns that have made our fine grades the peers of all tailoring possibilities. What concessions cold cash and large orders could command from the manufacturers we have turned into bettering the linings and the trimmings. We want every man's honest and candid opinion of these SUITS. No matter if you've already supplied yourself, pass judgement on them. If you're still on the hunt for the biggest money's worth, you've struck the scent—brought the game to bay—you've only to single out your preference from the immense variety—and go forth clad in garments that will disarm criticism, wring astonished praise from tongues that know value and appreciate the worth of it.
