SPRING SUITS—D. GUNDLING & CO.

Do You Want a Doctor?

Not for the grip, but to put your body inside of one of our ELEGANT SPRING SUITS. THE STAR CLOTHING is to-day as far ahead of the ready made clothing shown elsewhere as electricity is of tallow dips. If a man doesn't care for looks he needn't care how, or of what his clothing is made. Any conglomeration of shoddy or low grade wools, slighted at every stage of its manipulation for the sake of cheapness, will do. It won't hold its shape. If it holds its color, that's luck, and if it holds together for the season, that's more luck.

But if you DO care for looks, and want Reliable Clothing, of materials selected and treated in the manufacture with LOOKS and LASTING always in view, the "STAR" CLOTHING is entitled to your consideration.

INTERESTING CASE

That Will Come to Trial in a Local Court in Near Future.

DESTRUCTION OF SOME LUMBER

In the Famous Johnstown Flood of 1889, That was Shipped Over the Ohio River Railroad, is the Basis of the Suit, in Which the Railroad Company is Defendant—The Case was Postponed, However.

A very peculiar piece of litigation was to have come up for trial yesterday in the Ohio county circuit court, before Judge Paul, the decision of which would have been a precedent for decisions in cases of similar circumstances in the future. However, as Judge Paul had other cases on hand which will occupy his attention for a longer time than was expected, this case was postponed until the next term of court.

Just before the famous Johnstown, Pa., flood of the spring of 1889, which sent a thrill of horror over the country and throughout the world, a firm of Jackson county lumber jobbers, Stender & Clendinning, shipped a big consignment of lumber to Philadelphia. The lumber came up over the Ohio River road to Wheeling, where it was transferred to the Pennsylvania and went east through Pennsylvania. The lumber and cars were caught in that fearful rush of the waters in the valley of the Conemaugh and entirely destroyed.

Since that time litigation arose and has been pending ever since. Stender & Clendinning, through their attorney, Colonel W. W. Arnett, of this city, brought suit for $10,000 damages against the Ohio River company, the basis of their suit being the bill of lading which was given the shippers. The railroad people object to paying $10,000 or part of that sum for two reasons, first, that the lumber was not destroyed while in their hands, and, second, that the disaster was the "act of God," as the legal phrase has it, for which the railroad is not responsible. When the case comes to trial it will attract general attention.

The Ohio River company's general counsel, Colonel V. H. Archer, of Parkersburg, was in the city yesterday to represent the company, together with Mr. J. B. Sommerville, as co-counsel. The civil engineer of the Pennsylvania company and other witnesses from Philadelphia were also here to testify, but as stated they had their trip for nothing, as the case does not come to trial for the present.

Held as Suspicious Characters.

Two strangers, supposed to be crooks, were found in the rear of Lichtig's general store, in the Second ward, Bellaire, yesterday morning about 3 o'clock. They had been watched and were seen sneaking up to the rear of that store by the officers, who followed them. They were standing by a window and a coupling pin from the Baltimore & Ohio yard nearby was found at their feet. They gave their names as Edward Wilson and John Lyons, but they gave half a dozen places as their home. They are strangers here and will be held for a trial as suspicious characters.

SMALLPOX SITUATION.

No New Cases Reported Yesterday—All Patients Getting Along Nicely.

The city health committee held another session yesterday afternoon to consider the smallpox situation. Health Officer, Dr. J. G. Waldon, was present and reported that no new cases had developed since his last report. The case of Mrs. Kindelborger, which is not the Mrs. Kindelborger who resides on Moyston street near Twenty-eighth street, but is located across the run, was discussed by the committee, and the city health officer was directed to give medical attendance and provide the necessary provisions for the patient and her husband, who is nursing her.

Dr. Waldon, in answer to a question by a member of the committee, replied that all of the cases now under his care were getting along nicely.

Dr. Stathers, chairman of the committee, stated that number of teachers had requested the privilege of hearing the members of the graduating classes of the several public schools recite at their homes, and that it was his opinion that the request should be granted, for the reason if the studies of these pupils were interrupted they would be unable to graduate this year. The committee were of the same opinion as the chairman, and agreed to allow the arrangement to be made—to hear the pupils either at the homes of the teachers, or in the school.

The cases of Drs. John W. Morris and J. E. Belleville, whose arrest was ordered by the city health board on Sunday, for failing to report a case of smallpox under their care, were heard in police court yesterday morning. Both physicians claimed that the patient did not have smallpox, but the chicken pox. Drs. Waldon, Stathers, Schwinn and Jopson testified on behalf of the city, stating that they had visited the patient, and pronounced it a genuine case of smallpox. After considering the testimony the mayor imposed a fine of $10 on Dr. Morris, and dismissed the charge against Dr. Belleville, on the ground that he had only been called in as a consulting physician. On the request of Dr. Morris the mayor raised his fine to $20, and it is his purpose to take an appeal.

The article in the INTELLIGENCER yesterday morning was construed by Dr. Waldon as intimating that in ordering the arrest of Drs. Morris and Belleville he acted on his own responsibility. No such impression was meant to be conveyed, as Dr. Waldon was ordered to take the steps he did by the health committee.

Yesterday there were many wild rumors floating about in regard to new cases of smallpox, which were without the slightest foundation.

A case of smallpox developed at West Wheeling, Ohio, yesterday, and is now under treatment of a skilled physician.

To Vaccinate Railroaders.

Freight Agent J. V. Braden, of the Pan Handle railroad, has made arrangements with the company's physician, Dr. Custer, of Wellsville, Ohio, to come to Wheeling one day this week, and vaccinate all of the employes of the company in this city and vicinity. Dr. Custer is doing this work all along the line of the road. It is a precautionary measure that might be followed with profit by other corporations.

THE STATE BANKERS' Association Will Meet in Annual Session Here in June.

When the Bankers' Association of West Virginia met in Charleston last year, Wheeling was a candidate for the 1895 meeting and was successful. The date of the meeting is June 5 and it is believed that fully as large a representation as was at Charleston will come to Wheeling. About one hundred were at the Capital City.

A meeting of the local bankers will be called in a few days, at which committees on entertainment, reception, etc., will be appointed. The Wheeling bankers are enthusiastic in this matter and propose to give their brethren of the state such a reception as will warm their hearts—bankers have hearts, some people to the contrary, notwithstanding—to Wheeling and her citizens. The business sessions will take place on the 5th and 6th, and visits will be made, probably, to both the parks, Wheeling and Mozart, as well as to other points of interest.

It is not improbable, says a Wheeling member of the association, that the bankers will pass resolutions touching on the money question, and the sentiment is very strong against anything in the line that was passed the other day at the Georgia bankers' meeting, who came out unqualifiedly for free silver. In fact, the West Virginians are what is expressively called, a lot of "gold bugs."
