

GOFF'S BOMBSHELL.

The Judge Orders South Carolina Officials Before Him

TO ANSWER CHARGE OF CONTEMPT

In Disregarding the Injunction Restraining the Dispensary Officers From Interfering With Inter-State Commerce--A Question of State Rights Involved--The Decision in the Registration Cases Expected Tomorrow--The Expected Clash of Official Authority Precipitated.

COLUMBIA, S. C., May 6.--A bomb was exploded at the outset of the hearing in the cases involving the constitutionality and validity of the dispensary law this morning, Judge Goff and Judge Simonon being on the bench.

Recently, on the ground that the dispensary law was in violation of the United States inter-state commerce law, Judge Goff issued an order restraining the state commissioner and all the employees and officers of the state from interfering in any way with liquor shipped into the state from a point in another state while in transit or at the destination, and even while in the hands of the consignee.

The state authorities disagreed on the order and Commissioner Maxson issued a circular of instructions to the constables ordering them to proceed with the seizure with the greatest vigilance. When the court met this morning Dr. Pope, attorney for the complainants in the case pending, said:

"Your honor, I am sorry to interfere, but your temporary injunction order has been disobeyed in all particulars." He then read Commissioner Maxson's circular letter and handed it to the judge. He also read a proper affidavit. Judge Goff whispered a few moments to Judge Simonon and very sharply said: "A rule may issue at once against Maxson, the party issuing this order, to appear before me, requiring him to show cause why he may not be attached and punished for contempt of court."

An affidavit was then presented from D. H. Gable, alleging that some liquor he had shipped to him from Augusta, Ga., had been seized by State Liquor Constable A. T. Davis.

Judge Goff--"Let the same rule issue in this case."

A similar affidavit was made in regard to State Liquor Constable S. G. Lafar and the same order was issued in his case.

There were on the docket the case from Newberry and that from Charleston, in which injunction orders had been issued. There were also some four or five cases from Charleston on demurrers. As they all involved the same issue it was decided to hear them all together, Judge Goff allowing unlimited time for argument.

NO CALL FOR TROOPS.

Everything Quiet in the Norfolk & Western Mining Region.

CHARLESTON, May 6.--Nothing of importance has been received from Elk Horn at the state house to-day. This morning Marshal Garden received word from one of his deputies, D. H. Harmon, who is on the ground, that all is serene, and no outbreak is feared at this time. Adjutant General Holley is on the ground, but nothing has been received from him, which is regarded as a good omen. Business on the Norfolk & Western road is practically dead as far as freight traffic is concerned. One local freight train is running district a day, and that is usually well laden with provisions for the strikers. No attempt has been made lately to ship any coal from Pocahontas.

FIRST REGIMENT READY.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., May 6.--Col. R. E. Fast has notified the governor that he can place very nearly the First Regiment in the field at a moment's notice if the troops should be needed to quell rioters engaged in the coal strike. The governor ordered him yesterday to hold his regiment in readiness for active service, and he has given orders to the companies' commanders, all of whom have replied satisfactorily. It is not probable that they will be called out, because no further advice has been received from the governor at the headquarters here.

FIRST VIOLENCE.

In the Pocahontas Region--The Miners in an Indignant Mood. POCAHONTAS, VA., May 6.--Last night about 10 o'clock two policemen, Baldwin and Mike Rupert, went to the home of Joe Farkas and calling him out asked him if he intended to go to work. He said he would not work unless others worked. He was then told he must work and he responded that he would not, whereupon he was struck. At this, seven men in sympathy with the police, rushed in and Farkas was arrested and is now in jail.

WHI Apply for Pardon.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 6.--The members of the board of pardons have been verbally notified that the friends of John Bardsley, the defaulting ex-city treasurer of Philadelphia, will soon make a formal application for his pardon. The application, which will probably be presented at the next meeting of the board, is said to have the indorsement of many prominent Philadelphians, chief among whom is ex-Magistrate Durham. The grounds for the application will be that Bardsley was made a criminal by circumstances rather than by inclination.

ROANOKE, VA., May 6.--A special to the Times from Pocahontas, Va., says the situation is critical and complicated. Nearly all the employees of the South-west Virginia Improvement company and Browning mines have gone out on strike. President Bullitt, of the first named company, has issued an address to his employees, saying no reduction has been or will be made in their wages, and that therefore they have no cause

A TOWER OF FIRE

On Quintuple Hill in the Bradford Oil Region.

IMMENSE DAMAGE ALREADY DONE

And the Flames in the Forest Not Yet Under Control--Rain Badly Needed to Subdue Them--The Loss Already Fought Up to Over a Million Dollars--The Destruction in the Vicinity of Glen Hazel--The Vain Effort to Fight the Fire.

BRADFORD, PA., May 6.--The losses from yesterday's fire at Glen Hazel will mount up to an enormous sum. They include a large saw mill owned by D. S. Dolliver, of Ridgeway; a lumber yard, owned by Elias Deemer, of Williamsport, together with ten million feet of lumber. Insurance understood to cover about half the loss. The fire caught under the gang saw and was discovered about 2:45 a. m.

The cause is unknown, but as it followed so closely upon the Weed & Company mill, a week ago, it is thought by some to have been the work of an incendiary. This theory is strengthened by a statement of a man returning from work in the chemical factory, who says he saw three men prowling around the mill about 2 o'clock. The New York, Lake Erie & Western lost fifteen gondolas, the Cleveland, Akron & Columbus lost two. It was impossible for the Ketcher, St. Mary's & Shawmut locomotive to pass the burning mill. The Ketcher, St. Mary's & Shawmut road had about one-eighth mile of track burned. Traffic will be closed for several days. The loss on lumber, coal and freight revenue will not fall short of $1,000,000. Last night the forest fire died out, but are expected to spring up any minute.

THE PUDDLERS' STRIKE.

All the Non-Union Men in the Pittsburgh District Now Out.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--There is little change in the miners' strike to-day and conditions seem to favor the operators in their efforts to break the strike. Several mines on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio are running in part and some of the old men have gone back to work at the 50 cent rate. Though but little coal is being gotten out, the force of men is being increased gradually.

Situation at Pittsburgh.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--There is little change in the miners' strike to-day and conditions seem to favor the operators in their efforts to break the strike. Several mines on the Wheeling division of the Baltimore & Ohio are running in part and some of the old men have gone back to work at the 50 cent rate. Though but little coal is being gotten out, the force of men is being increased gradually.

THE PUDDLERS' STRIKE.

All the Non-Union Men in the Pittsburgh District Now Out.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--The puddlers in all the non-union mills except the Clinton are now out on a strike for the $1 rate. The strikers now number 2,000 men, and all of them have been taken into the Amalgamated Association. All the employees of the Monongahela Tin Plate Company also went out to-day on a demand for an advance of 10 to 25 cents a day.

The puddlers at Spang, Chantant & Company had threatened to strike on Wednesday, but had made no formal demand. The firm voluntarily agreed to the $1 rate. The finishers at the Keystone mill made a demand for the Amalgamated scale, and will go out in the morning unless it is granted.

All their furnacemen in the Shenango Valley have asked for an increase of 15 cents a day.

The men in the Marble and Douglases furnaces went out this morning because the demand was not granted, and in the other furnaces at Sharpville and Sharon the men have given the manufacturers until May 10 to grant the advance. Dispatches from here indicate that the Mahoning Valley men will join in the movement.

High School Commencement.

MORGANTOWN, W. VA., May 6.--The high school closed a very successful year with beautiful commencement exercises in the university commencement hall to-night. There were seven graduates--Miss Louise Farrow, Miss Edith Grant, Miss Lillian Jamison, Miss Hannah Jones, Miss Vinnie Sanders, Miss Ellen Utt and Miss Daisy Wood. Commencement hall was crowded, and the girls looked very sweet in becoming new gowns. Essays on interesting subjects were read by Miss Grant, Miss Wood, Miss Jones and Miss Jamison, and original recitations were delivered by Miss Utt, Miss Farrow and Miss Sanders. Musical solos were sung by Paul McCoy and Miss Zearly.

A Terrible Accident.

TERRA ALTA, May 6.--This morning at 11 o'clock a very serious accident happened at Hazenors & Company's saw mill, two miles east of this place. Mr. S. S. Cochran, who was helping to truck logs on train road, in jumping off to open a gate, while the engine was in motion, slipped and fell under and was run over by two trucks and part of the engine, breaking his right arm in two places and eight ribs. He also received internal injuries. Drs. Dally and Shaffer were summoned and rendered medical aid. His recovery is doubtful.

The Methodist Chautauqua Grounds.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., May 6.--Governor MacCorkle and Col. R. S. Carr left Saturday for Parkersburg by way of Cincinnati. A party of Methodist ministers who have the location of the state Chautauqua in charge, will go to meet there, and the party will go to Sutton, thence down the Elk river valley. The governor has strong hopes of yet leading the camp grounds for this section.

Will Apply for Pardon.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 6.--The members of the board of pardons have been verbally notified that the friends of John Bardsley, the defaulting ex-city treasurer of Philadelphia, will soon make a formal application for his pardon. The application, which will probably be presented at the next meeting of the board, is said to have the indorsement of many prominent Philadelphians, chief among whom is ex-Magistrate Durham. The grounds for the application will be that Bardsley was made a criminal by circumstances rather than by inclination.

ROANOKE, VA., May 6.--A special to the Times from Pocahontas, Va., says the situation is critical and complicated. Nearly all the employees of the South-west Virginia Improvement company and Browning mines have gone out on strike. President Bullitt, of the first named company, has issued an address to his employees, saying no reduction has been or will be made in their wages, and that therefore they have no cause

INCOME TAX HEARING.

The Arguments Before a Full Bench of the Supreme Court Begun.

THE KENTUCKY DERBY

Witnessed the Greatest Race Ever Run on Famous Churchill Downs. The Winner Was Almost a Prohibitive Favorite--Martin's Good Work on Basso Did Not Avail--Halma Finished Four Lengths Ahead Without Being Pushed--A Graphic Description of the Race.

LOUISVILLE, May 6.--Fair ladies waved their handkerchiefs and sturdy men joined in the lusty cheer that greeted the son of a great sire when Halma passed under the wire winner of the twenty-first Kentucky Derby this afternoon. Such enthusiasm was never before witnessed in a race course for the historic Churchill Downs presented a scene which will go down to posterity. It will never be known just how many pairs of eyes centered on "Soup" Perkins, when he guided Halma under the wire an easy winner, but the most conservative place the number at 25,000.

Halma won the Derby as he pleased and not once did Perkins find it necessary to use the raw-hide, for the colt assumed the lead from the very fall of the rag and set the pace to the finish. He was not urged a foot of the route and when he passed the stand for the last time, there was four good lengths of daylight between the son of Hanover and the hard-riden Basso, who was second.

There was enthusiasm when the first two events were run, but when the winners were posted in the second race there was augmented activity, for the twenty-first Kentucky Derby would soon be a thing of the past. The sound of the saddling bell had hardly died away before Curator, with Overton up, came out of the paddock and cantered around the front of the stand. The Bashford Manor colt was applauded, but with the appearance of Laureate increased, and when Halma, with Perkins up, appeared in front of the vast crowd, it gave vent to its approval with one long, continuous cheer that lasted almost until the candidates had reached the half mile pole, where Starter Pettigill, with flag in hand, awaited them.

Halma on performance was entitled to be favorite, and he was, in the judgment of both the speculators and bookies, for the first odds posted were 2 to 5. Even at these prohibitive odds, there was a rush to place money on him and when the flag went down, the best obtainable was 1 to 3, while several books had rubbed him off the board. Basso was not without friends, for early in the day the information was freely circulated that he was the winner and loads of money went on him at 4 to 1 and win and 3 to 5 for the place, but not once did the odds change after they had once been posted. Laureate, too, had a big following at 9 to 2, and 4 to 5, for place, while Curator at 15 to 1, was not altogether tireless.

At 3:35 all eyes were turned toward the half-mile pole, for there were the four Derby candidates awaiting the order to start on the journey which was to make one of their number famous. They lined up, and in the first attempt were sent away well bunched, with Halma, the favorite, showing in the front by a neck. Basso second, Laureate third and Curator last. There was not a length difference, however, between the four horses. Martin wanted to save Basso for the final struggle, and as they rounded the first turn he drew the Falsetto colt up, and at the quarter was last, but he took good care that the distance which separated him from the black colt Halma did not become too great. Halma had the lead by a head from Curator, who had moved up to second, while Laureate was third and half a length back. Halma and Laureate went neck and neck around the lower turn, and when they reached the third quarter Perkins' mount was leading by a head, with Laureate still after him and Curator a head in front of Basso.

"Basso has quit," was the cry that passed from lip to lip and the Falsetto colt was showing signs of failing, but when they had passed the mile, Martin began riding and when they showed in the stretch for the final run, Basso was second.

"Basso wins," was shouted almost simultaneously from a thousand or more throats as Martin, riding with might and main and plying the whip vigorously, went after Halma, who, apparently, was running with the same ease as when he went by the stand for the first time. The bay colt, however, had run his race, and although Martin rode him to the very wire, the best he could do was to finish four lengths behind Halma, with Laureate third, and Curator last by five lengths from Laureate. It was a hollow victory for Halma and the greatest son of Hanover landed the coveted prize without a struggle. Summary: First, 6 furlongs--Potentate, 1; Sister Mary, 2; Innomina, 3; 1:13. Second, 4 furlongs--Reprieve, 1; Ream, 2; Forget, 3; 49.

Third, the Kentucky Derby, for three-year-old colts and fillies, closed with five nominations, stake worth $3,300, one mile and a half--Byron McClelland's black colt Halma, by Hanover-Julia L., 122 (Perkins) 1 to 3, won easily by four lengths; C. H. Smith's b. c. Basso, by Falsetto-Ethelred, 122 (Martin), 4 to 1, second by two lengths; Pastime Stable ch. c. Laureate, by Volante Imp Laureate, 122 (A. Clayton), 4 to 1, third; time, 2:37. Curator, 122 by Alarm-Hattie Creel (Overton), also ran. The fractional time was: Quarter, :26; half, 51; three-quarters, 1:17; mile 1:44; mile and quarter --; mile and half 2:37.

Fourth, 1 mile, purse--Cattaraugus, 1; La Creole, 2; Fred Gardner, 3; 1:42. Fifth, 5 furlongs--Hormani, 1; Rondo, 2; Ohio, 3; 1:03.

On a Serious Charge.

DOYLESTOWN, PA., May 6.--The Rev. S. T. Bienen Crocker, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, was arrested to-day and held in the sum of $800 for trial to answer a criminal charge preferred by a young woman, who is a member of his congregation.

Japan's Complete Surrender.

YOKOHAMA, May 6.--The Japanese government has unconditionally relinquished all claim to the Liao-Tung peninsula in accordance with the treaty made by Russia, France and Germany.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, May 6.--At the wool auction sales to-day 12,723 bales were offered, of which 1,500 were withdrawn. A good catalogue was offered and bidding was spirited, especially by German buyers. Prices are hardening and are now partially five per cent over the opening rates. American buyers bought several hundred bales of Victoria wools at extreme figures.

MURDER AT PITTSBURGH.

A Hotel Night Clerk Mysteriously Killed. A Porter Charged With the Crime.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--Isaac Jope, night clerk at the First avenue hotel, was found murdered in the basement of the hotel this morning. He had been beaten on the head with an iron bar, and though still alive when found, he died soon after. He carried the money of the hotel in his pocket, and this was no doubt the object of the crime, as he robbed and left dying on the floor.

Frank Ross, a negro porter at the First Avenue hotel, was arrested for the crime and it is expected he will make a confession. He was not in his room when called this morning. His clothes have blood spots on them and there is blood on his underclothing. In his room bloody finger marks were found on the window blind. The police have discovered that Ross was drinking at a negro saloon most of the night. It is thought the murder was committed as the result of a quarrel.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Another Case at Minneapolis--An Operator Found Dead.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 6.--Early this morning two young men found in the gutter the dead body of H. W. Thomas, an operator on the "Soo road." There was a bullet hole in his head. Thomas last night called on Mrs. F. L. Williams, a divorcee at the home of her father, R. L. Berglund. He left, and soon after a shot was fired. The murdered man's valuables were found on his person, thus precluding the idea of robbery. Mrs. Williams is a young woman who ran away to Hudson, Wis., to marry Williams. He turned out a worthless character, and Mrs. Williams obtained a divorce. Williams was arrested early this morning.

Delaware Deadlock.

Masscy Withdraws His Name But the End Is Not Yet.

DOVER, DEL., May 6.--A sensation was caused to-day by the announcement that a letter had been received, addressed to the senate, from George V. Masscy declining to allow further use of his name in the balloting for a United States senator. For more than a week Masscy has been polling six votes on each ballot, but even his six votes cannot elect a senator unless there is a break from either Higgins or Addecks, which is doubtful.

Longest Lens in the World.

BUTLER, PA., May 6.--Dr. Penle to-day cast lens for the big telescope for the American University at Washington, D. C. It is the longest lens in the world, being sixty inches in diameter. The cast was perfect and it is considered a great achievement at the Standard Plate Glass Works, where the work was done. Heretofore all the big lenses have been made in Paris.

BRITISH INFLUENCE

At Work in Hawaii--Alleged Conspiracy to Restore the Monarchy.

MURDER AT PITTSBURGH.

A Hotel Night Clerk Mysteriously Killed. A Porter Charged With the Crime.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--Isaac Jope, night clerk at the First avenue hotel, was found murdered in the basement of the hotel this morning. He had been beaten on the head with an iron bar, and though still alive when found, he died soon after. He carried the money of the hotel in his pocket, and this was no doubt the object of the crime, as he robbed and left dying on the floor.

Frank Ross, a negro porter at the First Avenue hotel, was arrested for the crime and it is expected he will make a confession. He was not in his room when called this morning. His clothes have blood spots on them and there is blood on his underclothing. In his room bloody finger marks were found on the window blind. The police have discovered that Ross was drinking at a negro saloon most of the night. It is thought the murder was committed as the result of a quarrel.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Another Case at Minneapolis--An Operator Found Dead.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 6.--Early this morning two young men found in the gutter the dead body of H. W. Thomas, an operator on the "Soo road." There was a bullet hole in his head. Thomas last night called on Mrs. F. L. Williams, a divorcee at the home of her father, R. L. Berglund. He left, and soon after a shot was fired. The murdered man's valuables were found on his person, thus precluding the idea of robbery. Mrs. Williams is a young woman who ran away to Hudson, Wis., to marry Williams. He turned out a worthless character, and Mrs. Williams obtained a divorce. Williams was arrested early this morning.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, May 6.--At the wool auction sales to-day 12,723 bales were offered, of which 1,500 were withdrawn. A good catalogue was offered and bidding was spirited, especially by German buyers. Prices are hardening and are now partially five per cent over the opening rates. American buyers bought several hundred bales of Victoria wools at extreme figures.

MURDER AT PITTSBURGH.

A Hotel Night Clerk Mysteriously Killed. A Porter Charged With the Crime.

PITTSBURGH, May 6.--Isaac Jope, night clerk at the First avenue hotel, was found murdered in the basement of the hotel this morning. He had been beaten on the head with an iron bar, and though still alive when found, he died soon after. He carried the money of the hotel in his pocket, and this was no doubt the object of the crime, as he robbed and left dying on the floor.

Frank Ross, a negro porter at the First Avenue hotel, was arrested for the crime and it is expected he will make a confession. He was not in his room when called this morning. His clothes have blood spots on them and there is blood on his underclothing. In his room bloody finger marks were found on the window blind. The police have discovered that Ross was drinking at a negro saloon most of the night. It is thought the murder was committed as the result of a quarrel.

MURDER MYSTERY.

Another Case at Minneapolis--An Operator Found Dead.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., May 6.--Early this morning two young men found in the gutter the dead body of H. W. Thomas, an operator on the "Soo road." There was a bullet hole in his head. Thomas last night called on Mrs. F. L. Williams, a divorcee at the home of her father, R. L. Berglund. He left, and soon after a shot was fired. The murdered man's valuables were found on his person, thus precluding the idea of robbery. Mrs. Williams is a young woman who ran away to Hudson, Wis., to marry Williams. He turned out a worthless character, and Mrs. Williams obtained a divorce. Williams was arrested early this morning.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, May 6.--At the wool auction sales to-day 12,723 bales were offered, of which 1,500 were withdrawn. A good catalogue was offered and bidding was spirited, especially by German buyers. Prices are hardening and are now partially five per cent over the opening rates. American buyers bought several hundred bales of Victoria wools at extreme figures.

THE KENTUCKY DERBY

Was Won by McClelland's Halma at Louisville.

TWENTY-FIVE THOUSAND PEOPLE

Witnessed the Greatest Race Ever Run on Famous Churchill Downs. The Winner Was Almost a Prohibitive Favorite--Martin's Good Work on Basso Did Not Avail--Halma Finished Four Lengths Ahead Without Being Pushed--A Graphic Description of the Race.

LOUISVILLE, May 6.--Fair ladies waved their handkerchiefs and sturdy men joined in the lusty cheer that greeted the son of a great sire when Halma passed under the wire winner of the twenty-first Kentucky Derby this afternoon. Such enthusiasm was never before witnessed in a race course for the historic Churchill Downs presented a scene which will go down to posterity. It will never be known just how many pairs of eyes centered on "Soup" Perkins, when he guided Halma under the wire an easy winner, but the most conservative place the number at 25,000.

Halma won the Derby as he pleased and not once did Perkins find it necessary to use the raw-hide, for the colt assumed the lead from the very fall of the rag and set the pace to the finish. He was not urged a foot of the route and when he passed the stand for the last time, there was four good lengths of daylight between the son of Hanover and the hard-riden Basso, who was second.

There was enthusiasm when the first two events were run, but when the winners were posted in the second race there was augmented activity, for the twenty-first Kentucky Derby would soon be a thing of the past. The sound of the saddling bell had hardly died away before Curator, with Overton up, came out of the paddock and cantered around the front of the stand. The Bashford Manor colt was applauded, but with the appearance of Laureate increased, and when Halma, with Perkins up, appeared in front of the vast crowd, it gave vent to its approval with one long, continuous cheer that lasted almost until the candidates had reached the half mile pole, where Starter Pettigill, with flag in hand, awaited them.

Halma on performance was entitled to be favorite, and he was, in the judgment of both the speculators and bookies, for the first odds posted were 2 to 5. Even at these prohibitive odds, there was a rush to place money on him and when the flag went down, the best obtainable was 1 to 3, while several books had rubbed him off the board. Basso was not without friends, for early in the day the information was freely circulated that he was the winner and loads of money went on him at 4 to 1 and win and 3 to 5 for the place, but not once did the odds change after they had once been posted. Laureate, too, had a big following at 9 to 2, and 4 to 5, for place, while Curator at 15 to 1, was not altogether tireless.

At 3:35 all eyes were turned toward the half-mile pole, for there were the four Derby candidates awaiting the order to start on the journey which was to make one of their number famous. They lined up, and in the first attempt were sent away well bunched, with Halma, the favorite, showing in the front by a neck. Basso second, Laureate third and Curator last. There was not a length difference, however, between the four horses. Martin wanted to save Basso for the final struggle, and as they rounded the first turn he drew the Falsetto colt up, and at the quarter was last, but he took good care that the distance which separated him from the black colt Halma did not become too great. Halma had the lead by a head from Curator, who had moved up to second, while Laureate was third and half a length back. Halma and Laureate went neck and neck around the lower turn, and when they reached the third quarter Perkins' mount was leading by a head, with Laureate still after him and Curator a head in front of Basso.

"Basso has quit," was the cry that passed from lip to lip and the Falsetto colt was showing signs of failing, but when they had passed the mile, Martin began riding and when they showed in the stretch for the final run, Basso was second.

"Basso wins," was shouted almost simultaneously from a thousand or more throats as Martin, riding with might and main and plying the whip vigorously, went after Halma, who, apparently, was running with the same ease as when he went by the stand for the first time. The bay colt, however, had run his race, and although Martin rode him to the very wire, the best he could do was to finish four lengths behind Halma, with Laureate third, and Curator last by five lengths from Laureate. It was a hollow victory for Halma and the greatest son of Hanover landed the coveted prize without a struggle. Summary: First, 6 furlongs--Potentate, 1; Sister Mary, 2; Innomina, 3; 1:13. Second, 4 furlongs--Reprieve, 1; Ream, 2; Forget, 3; 49.

Third, the Kentucky Derby, for three-year-old colts and fillies, closed with five nominations, stake worth $3,300, one mile and a half--Byron McClelland's black colt Halma, by Hanover-Julia L., 122 (Perkins) 1 to 3, won easily by four lengths; C. H. Smith's b. c. Basso, by Falsetto-Ethelred, 122 (Martin), 4 to 1, second by two lengths; Pastime Stable ch. c. Laureate, by Volante Imp Laureate, 122 (A. Clayton), 4 to 1, third; time, 2:37. Curator, 122 by Alarm-Hattie Creel (Overton), also ran. The fractional time was: Quarter, :26; half, 51; three-quarters, 1:17; mile 1:44; mile and quarter --; mile and half 2:37.

Fourth, 1 mile, purse--Cattaraugus, 1; La Creole, 2; Fred Gardner, 3; 1:42. Fifth, 5 furlongs--Hormani, 1; Rondo, 2; Ohio, 3; 1:03.

On a Serious Charge.

DOYLESTOWN, PA., May 6.--The Rev. S. T. Bienen Crocker, pastor of the M. E. church of this city, was arrested to-day and held in the sum of $800 for trial to answer a criminal charge preferred by a young woman, who is a member of his congregation.

Japan's Complete Surrender.

YOKOHAMA, May 6.--The Japanese government has unconditionally relinquished all claim to the Liao-Tung peninsula in accordance with the treaty made by Russia, France and Germany.

London Wool Sales.

LONDON, May 6.--At the wool auction sales to-day 12,723 bales were offered, of which 1,500 were withdrawn. A good catalogue was offered and bidding was spirited, especially by German buyers. Prices are hardening and are now partially five per cent over the opening rates. American buyers bought several hundred bales of Victoria wools at extreme figures.

CORBETT'S PROTEGE.

Steve O'Donnell, Knocks Out the Veteran Kilrain at Coney Island--Story of the Rounds.

NICARAGUA REBELLION.

The News Not Confirmed at Washington. A Significant Aspect.

WASHINGTON, May 6.--Dr. Guzman, the Nicaraguan minister, had not been advised up to 2 o'clock to-day of the reported revolution in Nicaragua. He has expected that the sailing of the British fleet would have a quieting effect on public sentiment. This expectation was strengthened when word came that Vice Admiral Stephenson fired a salute to the Nicaraguan flag when it was again hoisted over Corinto yesterday.

In other quarters the fact that the revolution is along the east shore is regarded as significant. This is the Mosquito region, in which British influence has long been dominant and which has recently been created a state under the name of Zelaya. One of the best posted diplomats from that section says he considers it inevitable that the Mosquito natives will rebel and attempt to restore Chief Clarence to the throne. This would be a denial of Nicaragua's sovereignty over the new state of Zelaya, and in the judgment of this diplomat, Great Britain would support Clarence.

REPORTED OUTBREAK

In Nicaragua on the Mosquito Reservation. Fighting Begun.

NEW YORK, May 6.--A special cablegram to the World from Tegucigalpa, Honduras, to-day, says: "Fighting has begun in Granada, Nicaragua."

Disorder is reported from Leon also. Word comes from there that the followers of Ortiz, Zorala, and Machero have united to make war on Zelaya. The Honduran troops concentrated at Cape Gracias will remain there, as it is feared that the threatened outbreak on the Mosquito reservation may extend here.

TELEGRAPHIC BRIEFS.

The police census of Buffalo, N. Y., shows a population of 335,700.