

THE SIXTH BIRTHDAY

Of Epworth League Celebrated at Fourth Street Church.

A SERMON BY REV. DR. A. B. RIKER

Was Preached in the Morning—Interesting Services Last Evening—Mr. Cartwright's Remarks—The Papers Read by Others—A Fine Musical Programme—Celebration at Wesley Church—Lutheran Confirmations.

Yesterday was Epworth League day at the Fourth street M. E. church, the occasion being the celebration of the sixth anniversary of the organization of the Epworth League, the faithful band of young people who have come to be recognized in the Methodist church as a powerful factor in church and Christian advancement.

At the morning services the pastor of the church, Dr. Riker, preached on "The Epworth League; Its Origin and Mission," taking as text I Tim., 4:12: "Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity."

In the evening the congregation was fully as large as that of the morning. Dr. Riker opened with a few remarks relative to the Epworth League, whose members he said, are a band of loyal young people who refrain from the pleasures of the world that they may advance the cause of Christ.

The president of the league, Mr. F. T. Cartwright, made a few introductory remarks of quite an interesting character. He was glad of the opportunity of speaking of the work of what he termed the most wonderful organization of the nineteenth century.

The activity in other churches at this time was taking away from Methodist churches many young people, and the situation was such that a meeting was called at Dayton to evolve some plan that would stop this.

THE GRAND CONCERT

Of the Opera House Orchestra This Year Will Beat 'em All.

Next Friday evening the annual grand concert of the Opera House orchestra will be given in the casino at Wheeling Park. The orchestra on that occasion will be augmented to thirty-five pieces, the largest local orchestra ever heard here.

The vocalists will be Mrs. Flora Williams, Mr. W. B. Day and Mr. H. W. Hughes. Prof. Spiel will, of course, direct the concert in his usual able manner, and the following attractive programme will be rendered:

Overture—"Obéron"—C. M. von Weber. Vocal Solo—"Song of the Hybrid Crean"—S. W. Elliott. Grand Selection from "Rob Roy"—R. De Koven.

ABOUT PEOPLE. Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad. Mr. Clarence L. Smith, of the Fairmont Index, was in the city Saturday evening.

The Famous soprano. Of Miss Electa Gifford, who sings at Mozart park to-morrow afternoon and evening, Music and Art, of St. Louis, says: "The soloist, Miss Electa Gifford, of Chicago, made a most pronounced impression, her first number, the Staccato Polka, by Mulder, rendered faultlessly, captured the audience at once."

Deafness Cannot be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube.

Special cars will leave Tenth street at 7:30 p. m. to-morrow evening, and cars will be on hand after the concert.

WHAT a minister says: Rev. R. N. Payne, New Haven, Mo., writes: "Please add my name to the long list of friends to your excellent De Witt's Witch Hazel Salve, its use in my family for several cases of skin eruptions and sores proved it a perfect healer."

It Did the Business. Mr. J. H. Cobb, publisher of the Mirror, at Brocton, N. Y., says: "For nearly two years the Mirror has been publishing the advertisements of Chamberlain's Remedies. A few days ago the writer was suffering from a bowel trouble and resorted to an old remedy, which did not prove efficacious; finally he tried Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and two doses did the business, checking it completely."

Tired Women

Should stop and consider the dangers which threaten them because of their weakness, languor and lack of ambition. Thousands of women find their strength unequal to the demands of duty. And yet there is no escape from the incessant round of care and toil. They must have strength. How shall it be given? By building up their systems through purified, enriched and vitalized blood.
