WHEELING, JUNE 13, 1895.

Partisanship Item Mad.

The esteemed Register, which affects to be horrified when any other newspaper drops a hint regarding politics in connection with our state institutions...

A case in point is the malicious and unwarranted references, by our neighbor's staff correspondent at Morgantown, to the visit of Senator Ekins and Congressman Dayton to the commencement exercises at the University.

Senator Ekins and Congressman Dayton are manifesting a sudden and intense interest in educational matters, and, singularly enough, they are often found in the company of the Republican members of the board.

Senator Ekins and Congressman Dayton arrived this morning, and a great deal of quiet speculation is being indulged in relative to the object of their visit. It is generally believed that they are here to use their influence towards capturing some plums for their political friends...

Mr. Ekins is a United States senator-elect from West Virginia, and as such, as well as a foremost citizen, it is his right and duty to take an interest in her educational institutions. His interest is not "sudden"; it has been manifested in many ways since he became a resident.

Archbishop Ireland's address at the golden jubilee of Notre Dame University will be commended throughout the country by the friends of the public school system, no matter what their religious creed.

When lovely woman takes to wheedling, And finds, alas, that woman's wiles, What they should scarcely be revealing, She puts on bloomers right away.

WHEELING'S response to Cameron's cry for aid to the sufferers from Sunday night's calamity has been prompt and generous. There is no further contribution, however, and the INTELLIGENCER is sure the good people are not yet weary of well doing.

THE fact that Mr. Olney is now the head of the cabinet is coincident with the equally prominent fact that he has never done anything at all remarkable in public office except as he showed originality and vigor in flouting extraordinary reasons for not enforcing the anti-trust law.

Hon. A. J. Stensson finds himself in about the same position as the youth who yoked himself up with the frisky steer. He has no idea where those free silver fellows propose to take him, and he will be under great obligations to those persons who will be so kind as to attempt to head off the outfit.

THE gift of Detroit to the warship named in her honor was a punch bowl, and the gift of St. Louis to her steamship namesake is a library, including 400 hymnals and prayer books.

THE man who can't tell the difference between a nomination boom and the enemy's buzz saw is likely to come to grief.

debts; nor can it get one of these gentlemen to say that the obligations that were over-due and should have been paid long ago were not left unpaid for the present council to meet, thereby creating a deficit that must be provided for sooner or later.

This is the whole question and the Register knows it. Will it any longer engage in the absurd attempt to deceive its readers regarding the real truth of the matter? Figures can be juggled to make an apparent surplus on paper, but facts will knock out the jugglery every time.

If the Register were to conduct its own business on the plan it defends past Democratic councils for adopting it would soon find itself in a financial hole and its credit impaired.

Doesn't Want Much. Pittsburgh doesn't want much. Last year that city had the national G. A. R. encampment and several other national gatherings.

As a well-wishing neighbor of Pittsburgh Wheeling rejoices with her in what she has secured in the past, and sincerely hopes that her ambitions for the future may be gratified.

Last year Pittsburgh ably vindicated her claims as a convention city of the first class, but there are other towns in the country with similar claims and there is a long, hard campaign in prospect before the national Republican convention is located.

The INTELLIGENCER simply makes itself ridiculous by trying to make it appear that this discrepancy is anything but the regular annual discrepancy between departmental estimates and receipts.—Editor.

The INTELLIGENCER is doing nothing of the sort. It is simply showing that the "annual discrepancy," which was caused by debts overdue and unpaid, and carried over by past councils, should be provided for.

Even the Register must admit that such a policy would be business-like, notwithstanding its abuse of the present council for desiring to manage city affairs as a business man would conduct his private affairs.

ARCHBISHOP IRELAND'S address at the golden jubilee of Notre Dame University will be commended throughout the country by the friends of the public school system, no matter what their religious creed.

When lovely woman takes to wheedling, And finds, alas, that woman's wiles, What they should scarcely be revealing, She puts on bloomers right away.

THE President Cleveland missed a sensational opportunity to worry David B.

Have you used THE BEST? NICOTINE the active principle, NEUTRALIZED MAIL POUCH. It will delight YOU as a chew or a smoke. ANTI-NERVOUS ANTI-DYSPEPTIC.

Will when he appointed Judson Harmon attorney general. What has become of Wheeler H. Peckham and William B. Hornblower?

Yes, He Winks the Other Eye. Every time a Democratic state convention is held nowadays there is good cause for Mr. Cleveland to assume a "view-with-alarm" expression.

Makes the Heart Sick. The friends of the Wilson bill are hoping for a surplus for the month of June. Thus far they have had to struggle along with hope deferred.

Nothing Chills Them. Though the frosts nipped the flowers that bloom in the spring, they had no apparent effect upon the bloomers that flow in the bicycle parade.

MOMENTS OF MIRTH. "Now, sir," said the professor of medicine, "you may tell me to what class of maladies insomnia belongs."

"Why-er-," replied the indolent youth, "it's a contagious disease." "I never heard it so described. Where did you learn this?" "From experience. Whenever my neighbor's dog can't sleep, I'm just as wakeful as he is."

"Father," said Johnny Ironside, "how big a fish did you ever catch?" "I caught a fish once, Johnny," replied Deacon Ironside, "that weighed—" The good man stopped short, looked fixedly at his younger son, and resumed in an altered tone: "Johnny, this is Sunday."

Freddy—I told Mr. Loveman that you said you were going to kiss him the next time he came to the house. Maud—You horrid boy. What did he say? Freddy—Said he wouldn't believe it till he had it from your own lips.—Truth.

Teacher—This is 1895. Now if your sister said she was born in 1873, how old should you say she is? Johnny—Twenty-eight, Teacher.—But how could that be? Johnny—That's what always puzzled me.—Boston Transcript.

Scene: Bishop's breakfast table. Bishop (to timid curate on a visit): Dear me, I'm afraid your egg's not good. Timid Curate—Oh, yes, my lord, really—er—some parts of it are very good.—London Judy.

SHOES—ALEXANDER.

THE WEATHER MAN

Played us a shabby trick. Just as we began to sail into our stock of up-to-date SUMMER SHOES he makes it necessary for people to get out their winter cork-soles. He has promised us, however, that from now on we shall have no cause to complain of the cold, as he means to even up by piling it on EXTRA HOT. Go ahead, say we. We are prepared to take care of our people. We have 3,000 pairs Hot Weather Shoes, 62 styles. NEVER SO NICE, NEVER SO CHEAP, and the probabilities are they never will be again.
