To-DAY'S GAMES-Findlay at Whoeling, Lims at Chrichwille, Kenton at Columbus.

The Wheeling ball club celebrated its return home vesterday afternoon by defeating the Findlays who are now flying high up in the first division with championship aspirations of the worst kind. White's boys took some of the conceit out of them in yesterday's which was a pretty game, one of the most exciting in finish seen on the home grounds. Anderson was in the box for the home team and he showed his friends that his pitching arm has not lost its old-time cunning and strength. The hard hitting Findlays only got eight hits, with a total of nine bases. The hits were kept well scattered and aided by the sharp fielding of "Ours" the visitors did not convert hits into runs with the marming rapidity they did on a former visit to Reidy, the Gas-town twirler, who goes through the hundred and one motions of twisting himself into a knot before delivering the sphere, was in the box for the Findleys and the game he pitched would be good to win eight out of ten times. His support in the first part of the game was very ragged and contri-buted materially to Wheeling's run get-

Out in center field "Thad" Troy, the Clarington boy who played on the famous Martin's Ferry team of '94 and played his first professional engagements with Clevelaud and New Bedford this year, appeared. He did some very quick and clever work in the field and cracked out a single in the second that scored two runs. Kane played at short field, and in the absence of the regular umpire, Catcher Kalkhoff officiated. His decisions were not partial to Wheeling; if there was any one-sided business the bias was toward the Findlay side of the fence.

the ience.

As usual Wheeling scored a run in the opening inning. Regan made a beautiful two bagger and on Davis' sacrifice the third-baseman cantered over to third. Kane sent a grounder down to Cooke at short and on Kihm's error in handling the ball, an easy out, Regan scored.

In the second inning Kerr was safe at first on Cooke's error; then Crotty made a single, Kerr going to third, Crotty immediately stole second and the crowd enthused. Donovan and Anderson disappointed everybody by striking out. With two out the outlook for runs was bad, but both runners came in on Troy's liner to right that bore the trademark of a single. Regan flew out to Grey ending the inning.

Whesling went out in onn-two-three order in the third and fourth innings and in each Findlay scored a run, making the game very close. In the third Ganes led with a base hit and sailed down to second on Grey's sacrifice. On Brandenberg's single he scored. No more runs were made, Kihm striking out and Cooke flying out to Donovan in left. The only other run made by the visitors was that in the fourth. Wheelings increased their lead in the sixth. Pritchard sent a hot one to deep short and test out the throw, a clean base hit. Kerr, one of the most reliable hitters on the team, strack out, and Crotty went out to Cooke on a fly. Donovan singled, sending Pritchard to third, Anderson hocked a grounder to Cooke, who fumbled, and Pritchard second.

No more runs were made until the ninth, when Wheeling clinched her victory by soring two. After Anderson had been retired, Troy was sent to first on four bad balls. He went over to third on a great sprint on legan's timely single. The latter stole second and both men scored on Davis' hit, the latter both men scored on Davis' hit, the latter being put out in attempting to stretch the hit into a two bagger. Kane re-tired the side by sending an easy pop-up fly to Brandenberg.

Findlay made the contest interesting in the ninth. The bases were filled, but no scores made. After Grey and Brandenberg had been retired on infield

A home run would have tied the score. This was a 50 to 1 contingency, but many a spectator was on the anxious seat, front row. Zane ended the agony by sending up an ensy one for Troy in center, which he accepted. The score:

"OLD ELPS" BOYS WIN

In the Yale-Harvard Boat Race at New London Yesterday.

New London, Conn., June 28 .- Yale won the fourth consecutive victory over Harvard in the university boat race here to-day and won easily by nine lengths, the official time being 21:30. The conditions of the water and wind could not have been more favorable. Harvard had a slight advantage at the start, but when a mile had been rowed Yale was a length and a half in the lead, Ell's crew rowing with a surer strake than the Harvard men, who spiashed a little over the entire course. The story of the race is told in the record of the official time, which is as follows:

First unite—Yale, 5:04; Harvard, 5:20.

Second mile-Yale, 10:21: Harvard. 10:37

Third mile-Yale, 15:59; Harvard, 16:21. Fourth mile-Yale, 21:30; Harvard,

Two members of the Harvard crew were badly exhausted by the time the course had been rowed, but the Yale men appeared fit for a continuation of the work and rowed a quarter of a mile without easing up their stroke.

THE DETAILED STORY.

Promptly at 4:43 the signal was given and both crews caught the water at the same moment. Harvard started with a quicker stroke, but the Yale boat soon forged ahead, rowing about forty strokes a minute, while Harvard was forty-one. Jennings, who was substituted for Holister in the Harvard crew, rowed remarkably well, and the critics who watched his work from the referee's and press boat were loud in praise of his rowing. It was quickly seen that No. 4 in the Harvard boat was doing years poor, work. He targed on the No. 4 in the Harvard boat was doing very poor work. He turned on the catch before the rest of the crew. When the half mite point was reached the Yale boys had a lead of two lengths and they slowed down to a stroke about forty. The water was smooth and the conditions were everything that could be desired for a goal race. The body work of the sons of Eli was excellent, while that of the Harvard crew became worse.

worse.

When the three-mile flag was reached Yalo had a load of five lengths and was gaining steadily. Harvard was six lengths behind at the beginning of the last half raile and showad signs of the wear and tear of the race. The Yalo men, however, hit up their stroke from this point and rapidly gained another length by their increased clorts. The Harvard crew held on pluckily, but they were outclassed. The Yalo men with each movement of their oars seemed to get further ahead and amid the firing of cann n, blowing of whistles and cluers of the spectators which and cheers of the speciators which made a perfect pandemonium, the New Haven catsman passed the winning flag three oursman passed the winning mag easy winners by nearly ten lengths. The beaten crew showed signs of dis-tress and some of them were meen to weaken as they finished thirty-five sec-onds later.

IA YOUNG GIRL'S TRIALS.

Nervous Troubles End In st. Vitua Dance.

(From the Reporter, Scinerart, Ky.) Among the foot hills of the Camberland Mountains, near the town of Flat Rock is the happy home of James Mc-Phetron. Four months ago the daughter of the family, a happy girl of sixteen, was stricken with St. Vitue' dance, The leading physicians were consulted but reading physicians were consulted but without avail. She grow pale and thin under the terrible nervous stain and was fast losing her mental powers. In fact the thought of placing her in an asylum was seriously considered. Her case has been so widely talked about that the report of her cure was like modernizing a miracle of old. To a reporter who visited the home the mother said:

said:

"Yes, the reports of my daughter's sickness and cure are true as you hear them. Her affliction growinto St. Vitus' dance from an augravated form of weakness and nervous trouble peculiar to her sex. Every source of help was followed to the end, but it gesmed that physicians and medicine were poweriess. Day by day also grew worse until we despaired of her life. At times she almost went into convulsions. She got so that we had to watch her to keep her from wandering away and you can imagine the care she way.

"About this time, when our misery was greatest and all hope had fied, I read of another case, almost similar, that had been cured by a medicine known as Dr. Widlams' Pink Pills. Almost in desperation I secured some of the pills and from that day on the wornderful work of restoration commenced; the nervousness left, her cheeks grew bright with the color of health, she gained flesh and grew grong both mentally and physically, until to health, she gained fiesh and graw strong both mentally and physically, until to-day she is the very picture of good health and happiness.

"It is no wonder that I speak in glowing terms of Pink Pills to every ailing person I meet. They saved my daughter's life and I am grateful."

TROTTERS AND CYCLISTS.

A Possible Union of the Protting Associa-

New York, June 28.-For the past wo weeks a movement to interest the leading members of the National Trotting Association in bleyeling races, chiefly in a professional way, has been on foot and culminated in a meeting on foot and calminated in a meeting to-day at the Turf, Field and Farm office. Hamilton Burby presided, Johnson, Sanger, Tyler and other professionals were represented by T. W. Eck and David Staffer (of Wheeling). The proposition is to form an association for the government of professional cycling and use the grounds and influence of the trottine men wherever acceptable. Mr. Burby thought the scheme quite feasible and named several millionaire trotting horse owners whom he was in communication with on the matter. He said many of the trotting tracks, both half and mile in circumference, would make record breakers, and he believed that with a union of the trotting would make record oresters, and no pelieved that with a union of the trotting men and cyclists the venture would be a sporting and financial success.

W. J. Morgan was seen at his office after the meeting and made the following statement:

"Yes, it is true that there is such a scheme on foot and we had a meeting

"Yos, it is true that there is such a scheme on foot and we had a meeting to-day. It is my desire to see professional bicycling properly handled. I have had several consultations with the trotting association people, and believe that with a combination of hicycling and trotting races a first class organization will result."

The next event was the Spendthrift stakes in which Bright Phoebus was well backed at olde-on and Monaco was the second choice. Taral was upon him, but this popular lockey, however, seems to be out of luck this year. At the fall of the dieg, Miraco took the track and held it to the last eighth, with the others in line about two-lengths. Monaco then went after the Morris colt, but at a sixteenth of a mile Bright Phoebus shot out of the bunch and left them as it they were standing still, winning very easily by three lengths, while Mirage lasted long enough to take the second place from Monaco.
