Reductions! Makes You Cool to Think of Them,

And to hear the very low temperature of the prices, is chilling. Every paper contains ad's about SHIRT WAISTS. We've mentioned them on several occasions ourselves, but we've had such a hard time keeping up with our sales as it was, there was no need of pushing, as the Fit, Quality and Style of our Waist sell them. Our stock just now contains about 500 dozens, and if you are or will be interested in Shirt Waists soon, come in, see the goods, hear the prices, and we are satisfied we will make the sale.

You May Not Want a Duck Suit,

But you ought to have at least a DUCK SKIRT. We have them separate from the coat, and sell them that way, so you can wear any light wrap for evening with them. We're not short on DUCK SUITS though, and also BOX COAT LINEN SUITS, the very latest.

We can and will save you Money on White and Colored Parasols and Sun Umbrellas.

ABOUT THOSE PARDONS.

Mager and Harrison Are Not Out of Jail Yet, Anyhow.

THE OFFICIAL PAPERS EXPECTED

To Reach the Sheriff of Marshall County To-morrow—in the Meantime the Two Men Were Required to Give Bond on the Charge of Rioting on a Railroad Train.

The pardon of George Mager and William Harrison, which the Intelligencer chronicled yesterday morning, was the talk of the town yesterday. The two men followed Thomas O'Brien, jr., to the Baltimore & Ohio station, attempting to keep him from getting aboard the train, and falling in that, boarded the same train, and when they were, as they supposed, safely outside of Wheeling, they assaulted and beat him. They had their trial by a court and jury against which the charge of partisan bias certainly could not be fairly brought, were convicted and sentenced to a term of imprisonment regarded at the time as very mild.

Gov. MacCorkle for some reason saw fit to pardon them. A telegram to the Intelligencer's Charleston representative brings the information that the governor is not at home, but telegraphed the pardon. So far no reason has been assigned.

The sheriff of Marshall county received the telegraphic order to release the men, but did not do so. In addition to the sentence of imprisonment for sixty days, there was a fine of $250 each, and the telegram from the governor said nothing about this fine. The sheriff therefore refused to release the prisoners until the official papers are received, which it is expected will be tomorrow.

S. O. Boyce, attorney for the men, appeared at the sheriff's office at Moundsville yesterday morning, very indignant that the prisoners had not already been set free. He demanded to know why they were not released. The sheriff told him the reason was that no papers had yet arrived. Mr. Boyce said he had met the governor on a train soon after the trial and was promised that the matter would be all right. He appealed to Judge Paull, who said the matter was entirely in the hands of the sheriff, and that official could exercise his own judgment in the matter.

The prisoners were yesterday brought before the circuit court and required to give bail for their appearance at the next term to stand trial on the indictment for creating a riot on a railroad train.

The people of Moundsville generally, in common with the best people of Wheeling, regardless of politics, are quite indignant at the governor's interference under the circumstances. The petition for a pardon was not signed by a single member of the jury, officer or attaché of the court, nor was anybody concerned in the conviction of the men consulted about the matter. This is very unusual, to say the least, and naturally causes surprise. Friends of the prisoners were quoted yesterday as saying the cases under the indictments still pending had been "all fixed up," but this is not credited.

Sent the Pardon by Telegraph.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., July 3.—Governor MacCorkle has been away several days. Nothing is known here of the Mager and Harrison pardon except through a telegram received from the governor, giving instructions to telegraph the sheriff to release the men. The governor is expected home tomorrow. The pardon will not be made out officially until his return.

A DEMOCRAT'S VIEWS.

He Wants to Know the Reason That Influenced the Governor.

To the Editor of the Intelligencer. Sir:—I see by your issue of this date, that W. A. MacCorkle, the governor of the state, has extended executive clemency to Mager and Harrison, two notorious law breakers of this county, recently convicted in Moundsville for savage and unprovoked assault committed on the person of a Baltimore & Ohio railroad passenger near Benwood. This pardon was granted at the instance, it is said, of the prosecuting attorney of Ohio county and the city attorney of the city of Wheeling. These law breakers, Mager and Harrison, were tried before a democratic judge of high standing and found guilty by a jury (as I am informed) composed of six Democrats, four Republicans, one Populist and one prohibitionist. The sentence was considered light in view of the unprovoked and brutal character of the assault. One of these pardoned brutes, Mager, is now under indictment in Marshall county, and in May 1894, was indicted in this county for felonious assault, for which assault he has this far (because of some pull somewhere) never been called to account. This community would like to know the governor's reasons for this pardon. Won't your enterprising correspondent at the seat of government, procure for publication a copy of the petition, together with the executive order? Usually the governors of this state file in the secretary of state's office the reasons influencing the gubernatorial mind for the pardoning power. O.P. Prosecuting Attorney Howard's action in this and other matters, I will have something to say another time. A DEMOCRATIC SUPPORTER OF THE GOVERNOR. Wheeling, July 3, '95.

Celebration of Sedan's Capitulation.

The German Krieger Verein held a meeting last evening and made arrangements for the twenty-fifth anniversary of the capitulation of Sedan, September 2. The anniversary of the organization of this society of German veterans falls on an earlier date, but they decided to combine it with the surrender of Napoleon on the memorable day of September 2, 1870.

HE WILL LOSE A FOOT.

John Love, of East Wheeling, Hurt on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad.

Last night John Love, a young man of East Wheeling, employed at the Whitaker iron works, was severely hurt on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad on Seventeenth street near Woods. He and several companions had boarded a freight train east of the Hemfield tunnel to come down town. The others got upon the caboose, while he mounted the third car from it. At Woods street the train was running pretty slow, and the other men jumped off, calling to Love as they did so to come along. He jumped, but slipped and fell with his right foot beneath one of the wheels.

His foot was crushed and mangled terribly, and a large hole was cut in his leg near the ankle. The force with which he was thrown to the ground rendered him unconscious, and his head was badly cut, and possibly the skull slightly fractured.

He was picked up and taken in the city patrol wagon to his home near Baker street. Officers McGuigan and Holmes assisted in caring for him. A physician brought him to, and on examining his injuries decided that his right foot would have to be amputated.

Love is a son of Alex Love, and is aged about twenty-one. He will be crippled permanently even if it is found that his leg can be saved. He was fortunate under the circumstances to escape with his life.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

City Superintendent of Schools W. H. Anderson, Mrs. Anderson, Miss Emma Anderson and a number of teachers from Martin's Ferry, Wellsburg and other near-by towns, will leave to-day for Denver to attend the National Teachers' Association meeting which opens there next week. Prof. Anderson and party will spend some time making a tour of the west after the meeting is over.

Prof. William H. Seamon, son of Mr. Henry Seamon, who has been a member of the faculty of the Missouri school of mines, at Rolla, Mo., for several years, has resigned. Recently he spent his vacation in New Mexico and while at Socorro visited the New Mexico school of mines. Each side was so favorably impressed with the other that an offer of the principalship of the institution was at once accepted by Prof. Seamon. His Wheeling friends will be glad to hear of his advance.
