Outlook for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons Battle in Texas Gloomy.

NATIONAL LEAGUE PENNANT RACE

Is Getting Very Exciting—Baltimore Loses Again and the Spiders Won From Pittsburgh—The Kenney-Bayliff Glove Contest a Fizzle—Bicycle Races at Wheelburg This Afternoon. Other News of Sport.

USTIN, TEXAS, Sept. 20.—It is learned here today that Judges Davidson and Henderson, of the court of appeals, refused to sit with Judge Hurt in the prize fight habes corpus case on ground that the court cannot hold legal session during vacation and further that the proper tribunal to hear the case was the county judge of Dallas county.

The meeting for the purpose of selecting a referee for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight was without result. No referee was chosen and the matter was deferred at the instance of Fitzsimmons' manager until October 20, one day before the fight.

At a later meeting it was decided to hold another meeting to-morrow morning. Brady will probably then be on hand and have a say in the proceedings, but as Manager Julian is firm in his decision not to select a referee until the day before the fight, unless "Yank" Sullivan be chosen, the matter will probably stand as it was decided earlier.

THE KICKING IS OVER. New York, Sept. 20.—The meeting this morning for the purpose of selecting a referee for the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight was without result. No referee was chosen and the matter was deferred at the instance of Fitzsimmons' manager until October 20, one day before the fight.

IT WAS A FIZZLE. The Keeny-Bayliff Battle Does Not Count Off—Has a Queer Look.

TOLEDO, O., Sept. 20.—The Keeny-Bayliff prize fight, which was to have come off at North Baltimore last night, was a complete fizzle. Some six hundred spectators were present. All conceivable tactics for delay were put in practice, and finally Sheriff Briggs appeared, and refused to allow the fight to proceed.

BIRDS LOSE ANOTHER. Stein Was in Good Form, and McMahon's Delivery Was Easy.

W. L. P. W. L. P. Baltimore, 32 45 Pittsburgh, 56 38 Cleveland, 32 45 New York, 54 29 Philadelphia, 29 43 Cincinnati, 59 60 Chicago, 57 35 St. Louis, 29 41 Boston, 57 35 Louisville, 31 37

TO-DAY'S GAME—New York at Boston; Baltimore at Brooklyn; Pittsburgh at Cincinnati; Chicago at St. Louis; Washington at Philadelphia; Louisville at Cincinnati.

Brooklyn, Sept. 20.—The Brooklyn hit the rejuvenated McMahon hard enough to-day to defeat the Orioles. Stein, who was in the box, was at his best and with proper support his opponent would never have been dangerous.

BASES ON BALLS AND ERRORS. CLEVELAND, Sept. 20.—Cleveland played a good game in the field to-day and a good game at the bat, though the players did not hit hard. They sacrificed when necessary. Hawley, of the Pittsburghs, gave six bases on balls, and the men behind him made errors at inopportune moments.

ST. CLAIRVILLE WON. The tennis tournament between the St. Clairville boys and Martin's Ferry's crack team, was won by St. Clairville.

GENERAL SPORTING NOTES. "Billy" Dooley, the lightweight, has taken up his quarters at Pittsburgh. He will quit the ring.

THE CLEVELAND, CINCINNATI AND PITTSBURGH LEAGUE TEAMS WILL PLAY THE ALL-WHEELING HERE IN OCTOBER.

KOHM, THE CATCHER, LATE OF THE FINLAYNS, IS A PUGILIST. He knocked out a Detroit fighter Tuesday evening.

An Otcogenaria Tells a Wonderful Story of His Remarkable Cure.

John J. Gill, residing at 31 North Grant avenue, Columbus, O., aged eighty-eight years, says: "I suffered from rheumatism for over thirty years. The pains were very severe and often I was unable to move around. Within twelve hours after taking the first dose I was free from pain and am now completely cured."

Munyon's Rheumatism Cure is guaranteed to cure rheumatism in any part of the body. Acute or muscular rheumatism cured in from one to five days. It never fails to cure sprain, shooting pains in the arms, legs, sides, back or breast, or soreness in any part of the body in from one to three hours.

Those who are in doubt as to the nature of their disease should address Professor Munyon, 1505 Arch street, Philadelphia, giving full symptoms of their disease. MAIDENHOOD.

The Young Girl's Life Like a Flowing Brook.

Its Course Obstructed by Many Obstacles.

Some Timely Suggestions Regarding a Serious Subject.

"Brooks make rivers, rivers run to seas," says the poet Dryden in his Worship of Eccelesiastus, the poet laureate physician. The poet little thought as he penned his verse in praise of the ancient practitioner, how aptly his beautiful line would apply to the life of a woman.

The chattering brook as it flows to merge itself in the largest stream represents the careless, unthinking young girl. The wild and turbulent stream, sometimes flowing smoothly, then dashing over rocks and down into unbroken depths, at last becoming a mighty river, bearing ships upon its bosom is the woman with her broadening and deepening possibilities.

But how many girls "standing with reluctant feet Where the brook and river meet Womanhood and childhood meet," are at this time of their lives the objects of great solicitude to their parents. The young girl is sad, does not like company, has palpitation of the heart after slight exertion, dyspepsia, constipation, pains in the head and limbs and along the spine, and her face is pale with a greenish tinge. She is the victim of green sickness.

This is a case in which the nervous system is impaired and the blood is impoverished. A good tonic is needed to bring her back to health and strength, and parents should be careful to choose the best remedy. Here is what Mrs. Howard, of 215 Allen street, Springfield, Mass., selected for her seventeen-year-old daughter Mary, with an account of its marvelous results.

Mrs. Howard says: "About two years ago my daughter became so nervous that I had to take her out of school. Her condition caused grave apprehension. She lost in flesh; was possessed with a nervous thirst and clutched everything on which she laid her hands, with the grip of a lion in the throes of death. Worse than all, she was not only unable to sleep herself, but her restlessness would keep the other members of our family awake. She grew worse rapidly and we finally went to a physician, but the remedies he prescribed did her no good; on the contrary, they only made her worse.

"The old saying of a 'drowning man clutching at a straw' came to my mind, and remembering that I had read of some wonderful cures made by Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy, I decided to try it. I must say that the effect was magical, and results were apparent after the first bottle had been partly used. My daughter slept that night for the first time in months, and you can believe that to us it was like a ray of sunshine from a cloudy sky. Her condition improved steadily and she was able to resume her studies.

"Piano practice formerly had a peculiarly bad effect upon her, but she now practices regularly without becoming nervous. Two years ago we feared that Mary had reached her growth, but since taking Dr. Greene's Nervura her nervousness has been so greatly dispelled that she has grown considerably and regained the flesh she had lost."

It is wonderful what benefit this young girl derived in so short a time from Dr. Greene's Nervura, the great blood and nerve remedy. If you have a daughter who is suffering in such a manner, can you doubt that this grand medicine is just what she needs? You can make no mistake in giving her this great blood and nerve remedy, for it is the discovery of a noted and experienced physician, Dr. Greene, of 35 West Fourteenth street, New York City. He not only positively promises a good effect from the medicine, but allows all who wish to consult him free of charge, either personally or by letter, so that in using his remedy you make him your physician and receive the benefit of his great skill."
