

to suffocation. The following candidates, who were present, addressed the meeting: Mayor B. F. Caldwell, C. H. Henning, S. O. Boyce, Alex Campbell, H. C. Richards, E. P. Wheat, J. D. Elson, W. C. Meyer, W. H. Travis and T. M. Garvin. The best of feeling prevailed, and every speaker announced his intention of cordially supporting the nominee.

Triadelphia Delegates. In the report of the suggestion meeting last Tuesday morning, the Intelligence inadvertently omitted to mention that Charles Sample had been suggested as a delegate to the two Clarksville conventions. He was fifth in position.

Is Not a Candidate. Mr. A. C. Wagener desires it stated in the Intelligence that he is not a candidate for the office of justice of the peace in Washington district.

Nuptial Ties. Marriage of Rev. Brittingham, Rector of St. Luke's Church, and Mrs. Sallie Beaumont—Other Weddings.

Yesterday morning a very quiet wedding took place at St. Luke's Protestant Episcopal church, being the marriage of the popular rector, Rev. Jacob Brittingham, to Mrs. Sallie Beaumont, daughter of the late Dr. Sample Ford, of the Eighth ward. The services were very simple but impressive, and were performed by the Rt. Rev. G. W. Peterkin, bishop of the diocese of West Virginia. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock, and was only witnessed by Mrs. Ford, the mother of the bride, Mrs. W. E. Caldwell, a sister, Philip, the young son of the groom, Thomas Meek and Mrs. John Ochsenuhn, who was united in marriage to Mrs. Annie Shaffer. Rev. Strahl, pastor of the West End M. E. church performed the ceremony. An elegant supper was heartily discussed by those present, after which Mr. Ochsenuhn and his wife left for their home in this city, on South Market, where they at once went to housekeeping. Mr. Ochsenuhn has for many years been connected with Mr. C. W. Seabright, merchant tailor.

Last evening at the residence of Mr. William L. Dowler, six miles east of the city, on the Fairmont pike, occurred the marriage of Mr. Richard S. Meek and Miss Clara R. Dowler. Miss Dowler is the daughter of Mr. J. P. Dowler, of the Sixth ward, and is well known in society. Mr. Meek is in the employ of the Daily News of this city. Dr. Riker, of Fourth street M. E. church, performed the ceremony before about fifty invited guests. Among the relatives of the contracting parties the following were present: Mr. and Mrs. W. H. James, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Meek and Mrs. Meek, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Dowler, Mr. and Mrs. J. N. Dowler, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Stewart, Messrs. J. F. Dowler, J. M. Dowler, Jr., E. H. Dowler, J. H. Lancaster and wife and P. W. Dowler, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. Phil Cox and Miss Pearl Dorsey, of Moundsville; Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Dowler, of Powhatan, Ohio, and Dr. Dowler and wife, of McMechen.

Mr. and Mrs. Meek will board until next fall, when they will go to housekeeping at 241 Eoff street.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad. Thomas McClintock, figures on the McClure register.

Madame Kate Rolla, of Wheeling, the singer, is spending a few days in town, with quarters at the Thorndike.—Boston Traveller.

The St. Clairsville Gazette speaks in the highest terms of Col. Roy W. Halls' lecture "The Foundation of Faith Still Standing," delivered in that town on last Sunday evening.

Griffith Berhringer, of Steubenville, has taken his mother to Wheeling to place her under the care of Dr. Rau, who will give her the Edison consumption treatment.—Steubenville Herald.

Mrs. Charles A. Reed, of Wheeling, arrived Monday on a visit to her father, Capt. G. W. McVicker. Mrs. Reed's visits home are always a pleasure to her host of friends.—Morgantown New Dominion.

William L. McMorris, chief clerk in the office of General Passenger Agent Robinson, of the Ohio River Railway Company, was here yesterday enroute to Parkersburg, after attending a rate sheet meeting at Pittsburgh.

James D. Crawford, the hustling reporter of the Toronto Tribune, has resigned and accepted a position as salesman for a large Wheeling house. Mr. Crawford's excellent work on the Tribune is to be commended, and his many friends wish him continued success in new line of work.—Steubenville Star.

LOCAL BRIVITIES.

Matters of Minor Moment in and About the City. Four cases, all drunks, were on the police docket last night for trial this morning.

Health Officer Japson reports that the spring sanitary inspection is progressing in a very satisfactory manner.

Council has been called to meet this evening, and it is very important that a quorum in both branches should be present.

A marriage license was issued yesterday by Clerk Hook to John Kuntz, aged 25 years, and Rosa Singer, aged 19, all of Wheeling.

Yesterday was five dollar day in police court. There were four cases before Mayor Caldwell, and fines of $5 and costs were assessed in each case.

In another column, Clerk T. C. Moffat, of the board of county commissioners, asks for bids on the various items of county road work to be done this summer.

The Wheeling & Elm Grove railroad is beautifying a section of the lawn in front of the city building and adjacent to its offices. A mound is being prepared for flowers, and the surrounding ground nicely sodded.

Widow Rebekah Lodge No. 1 I. O. O. F. gave a hot chicken supper and ball at Odd Fellows' hall last night, which drew a large and greatly pleased crowd. There was a mock election held and the following were elected: Sheriff, D. H. Taylor, fourteen votes; clerk of the county court, Richard Robertson, thirty-eight; clerk of circuit court, A. H. C. Davis, thirty-three.

To Eighth Ward Inquirer. In response to an inquiry from an Eighth ward Republican the Intelligence replies that the legal qualifications of a voter are one year's residence in the state and sixty days in the county. The voter inquired about will have to vote at his primaries in the ward in which he now lives, but he is eligible for justice of the peace if he lives in the Eighth ward at the time of his election, and can also vote in that ward in November, even if he is not a resident there until October 1st.

TWENTIETH COMMENCEMENT

Of the Moundsville High School—An Interesting Programme Rendered. The twentieth commencement exercises of the Moundsville high school took place in the Opera House of that town last night. The hall was elaborately decorated for the occasion. The members of the school board occupied seats on the stage, and the house was crowded to the doors. The programme was creditably rendered by the graduates. Miss Lillian Gertrude Martin, one of the graduates, has a record that is doubtful if it can be surpassed in any state. She entered school twelve years ago and during that time to her graduation she had never been absent or tardy a day. The programme rendered follows: Music, Rev. G. W. Grimes; Prayer, Rev. G. W. Grimes; Poem—Reflections, Harold Francis Rogers; Essay—The Student's Hope, Alice A. Poyle; Oration—The Golden Age, Lulu E. Turner; Music; Essay—Possibilities of Girlhood, Lella M. Dick; Oration—Our Government, Hadzial W. Manning; Essay—Times Change and our Duty with Them, Lillian Gertrude Martin; Music; Essay—Incentives to Study, Katharine C. Holt; Essay—The Fading Leaf, Mary Ingram Scott; Oration—Honors Wait at Labor's Gate, Pearl Beatrice Criswell; Presentation of Diplomas, President of Board of Education, Music; Address to Class, Rev. C. E. Clark; Class Song.

The class song for this occasion was composed by H. F. Rogers and was sung to the air of "Maryland, My Maryland."

THE LICENSE ORDINANCE

The Ordinance Committee Recommends Changes to Council. Last evening at the office of the committee of the city clerk the city council committee on ordinances met to consider the annual license ordinance. The city clerk was authorized to issue brass stamps which are to be affixed to all peddling wagons licensed by the city. The ordinance provides that peddlers were made $30 per year and $15 for three months. The committee also made a special provision for licensing the "Wild West" show. Last year the license ordinance prevented the city from charging more than $10 for each exhibition. This year the city will get $100. The committee members present were: Chairman W. E. Stathers, Messrs. Butts, J. E. Britt and Thomas Britt.

BELLAIRE

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City. The marshal and Officer Johnson pulled a house in the Third ward Wednesday afternoon, and caught two women and two men. The women were charged with keeping a disorderly house and the men with frequenting it for immoral purposes. The women were fully and were let off with a fine of $2 and costs, but the women pleaded not guilty and are to have a hearing.

Mr. A. C. Danford, superintendent of the county jail, and Mrs. Sarah Roderer were married here yesterday by Rev. H. A. L. King, of the First Presbyterian church, and left in the evening for East Richland, where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Danford are excellent people and have a host of friends who wish them well.

E. P. Armor, a Wheeling "policy" man, was caught by Marshal Bahr in this city and he pleaded guilty to a charge before Mayor Williams and was taxed $5 and costs, amounting to $10. He paid the bill and then decided it was good policy to leave town.

The Republican county central committee is called to meet in this city on May 5, the day of the congressional convention, to fix the time and place for the county convention. They will meet immediately after the congressional convention.

Wednesday was the anniversary of the tornado that swept over St. Clairsville and tore its way through to Martin's Ferry in 1885, and the people who live along the pathway of that fury of the elements breathe easier since the date is past.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Hapsard Missippi in the Thriving City Across the River. The cantata of "Ruth" will be presented at the Martin's Ferry opera house to-night for the first time, and the audience will witness a very large audience. There is no truth whatever in the report that Mrs. Flora Williams will appear in the leading character only one night. She will positively take part both to-night and to-morrow night. The cast is made up of the very best singers in town. Much practicing has been done, and the rehearsals were very satisfactory. The cantata is a beautiful one, and is to be given for the purpose of raising money to buy a town clock for the new Central school building. Mr. C. C. Gray has charge of the cantata. The opera house should be packed both nights. The sale for to-night is the largest for years. For Saturday night reserved seats will be put on sale in the morning at 6:30.

The funeral of the late Harry Hood, who died at Fairmont, will take place from the residence of his father, Alexander Hood, this morning at 10 o'clock. Rev. J. W. Robinson, pastor of the M. E. church, of which the deceased was a member, will officiate. The Knights of Pythias will attend in a body. They meet at 9 o'clock.

Shortly after 8 o'clock last night Mr. George C. Burrow and Miss Berta Jones, two popular young people, were married at the M. E. church parsonage by Rev. Dr. Robbins. Miss Eloise Lott, cousin of the bride, was the only attendant.

Word from Portland yesterday stated that David Conaway, who was assaulted by his step-son, will hardly recover. The unfortunate man is a brother of Charles Conaway, of Martin's Ferry.

The "dippers" and "catchers" of the Aetna-Standard mills will play a game of ball to-morrow at 2:30.

Mrs. M. Jordan, of Sisterville, came up last night to visit her friends, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cox.

Rev. Kitter, of Columbus, will preach for the English Lutherans Sunday morning and evening.

Boils

It is often difficult to convince people their blood is impure, until dreadful carbuncles, abscesses, boils, scrofula or salt rheum, are painful proof of the fact. It is wisdom now, or whenever there is any indication of blood, to take Hood's Sarsaparilla, and prevent such eruptions and suffering. "I had a dreadful carbuncle abscess, red, fiery, fierce and sore. The doctor attended me over seven weeks. When the abscess broke, the pains were terrible, and I thought I should not live through it. I heard and read so much about Hood's Sarsaparilla, that I decided to take it, and my husband, who was suffering with boils, took it also. It soon purified our
