AND COMMITTEEMAN N. B. SCOTT

Keeps It Up Rather than Be Out of Fashion—Mark Hanna Chosen Chairman of the National Committee—Vacancies Occasioned by the Secession of the Free Silverites—Joseph H. Manley Elected Temporary Secretary of the Committee—West Virginians Left for Home Last Night.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 19.—The election of Mark A. Hanna to be chairman of the national committee is what was expected and demanded, and gives great satisfaction. Mr. Hanna acquiesced reluctantly, but there will be no reluctance in his manner of handling the campaign.

He looks as fresh and chipper to-day as though he had not had a thing on his mind for a year. West Virginia has a good friend at the head of the national committee.

NATIONAL COMMITTEE.

Mark Hanna Elected Secretary—Vacancies Filled—Other Business Transacted.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 19.—The Republican national committee elected Marcus A. Hanna chairman of the committee, filled the vacancy on the committee caused by the silver bolt and then adjourned, subject to the call of the chairman.

The committee held its session at the Southern Hotel. It was called to order by Joseph H. Manley, of Maine; Powell Clayton, of Arkansas, was made temporary chairman.

On motion of Hon. N. B. Scott, of West Virginia, the committee proceeded to fill the vacancies on the committee, caused by the silver bolt, as follows:

The cases of the District of Columbia and Alaska were referred to the executive committee. On motion of H. C. Payne, of Wisconsin, Mark A. Hanna, permanent chairman of the committee and Joseph H. Manley, of Maine, temporary secretary.

Senator Thurston offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the chairman of the committee is hereby authorized and empowered after consultation with the candidates for president and vice president, to appoint an executive committee of nine who may or may not be members of the committee and the chairman of this committee shall be the chairman of the executive committee.

The matter of a treasurer was left to the chairman.

The committee then adjourned, subject to the call of the chair. Nothing was done with relation to proposals of a change of headquarters.

Chairman Hanna's Appearances. ST. LOUIS, Mo., June 19.—From an authoritative source it is learned that the Republican national committee has decided upon the secretary and treasurer of its executive committee, both of which positions will be filled by the state in which that Major Charles L. Dick, of Akron, Ohio, will get the secretaryship, while Sylvester Ewart, of Cleveland, will be made treasurer. It is HARRITY TALKS.

He Discusses the Platform Adopted at St. Louis.

DEMOCRATS MUST MEET IT

With an Unequivocal Endorsement of the Present Gold Standard—He Says He Does Not Believe that the Free Silver Element in the Party will Control the Convention—The Consideration of Teller as the Possible Nominee is Not Worth Serious Consideration—Affects a Cheerful Attitude in Regard to Democratic Prospects.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 19.—Chairman W. F. Harrity, of the Democratic national committee, passed through en route to Philadelphia from St. Louis, while in St. Louis, Mr. Harrity declined to be interviewed on the subject of politics, for the reason that his visit there was of a purely personal and social character, and that it seemed indelicate for him to discuss politics from a Democratic standpoint while the Republican party was the guest of St. Louis.

When asked about the platform adopted yesterday, Mr. Harrity said: "In my opinion the action of the Republican national convention makes it even more important that the Chicago national platform shall declare for sound money than if an equivocal financial plank had been placed in the St. Louis platform. I am on record as predicting that the Democratic national platform will not declare for a free coinage of silver, and I am still quite hopeful that the sound money element of the Democratic party will prevail in the convention."

What effect will the withdrawal of Senator Teller and his free silver associates from the Republican national convention have upon the Chicago convention? "It ought to give no encouragement to our party to adopt a free silver policy. It will be found that the gentlemen who bolted the St. Louis convention will not take any active part in the Democratic party. They would doubtless co-operate with Democrats, providing the Democrats would follow where they lead. The suggestion that Senator Teller may be nominated for president is not worthy of a moment's serious consideration."

"I believe," continued Mr. Harrity, "that the Democracy can enter the campaign with much better confidence if they will unequivocally declare for the existing gold standard. If they will do so and nominate candidates in harmony with such a declaration, the artificial break ten days ago, wheat and cotton are in better demand, there is more confidence in monetary circles, and the tendency toward speculation is lessened. In some measures, at least, to be checked. While the outcome of the Democratic convention is uncertain and the great crops are not yet wholly beyond danger, the price of wheat is improving, and hardly to be expected, but the tone in business circles has grown distinctly more hopeful."

Beyond the influence of this general optimism, nothing appears to justify the advance of 1/2 cent in wheat, 5c in corn and 5-10c in cotton, and reaction started in all these with taking of profits Thursday.

In finance in cotton had no visible cause in crop prospects or movement, though receipts at port have been light. Accounts still indicate a large yield.

Textile manufacturers are not gaining, and the general market is not so good as it was. The mill is thought to be due to special causes rather than to the general influences which curtail or temporarily stop production of many articles. There is a change in quotations. Beams are quoted delivered instead of at mills, but numerous contracts are kept back; consumption of wire nails at current prices has so declined that American mills are now in a position to compete in England; scarcely anything is done in iron bars because steel bars at 1 1/2 take the business; and the biller pool still undermired by the market.

Steel works are putting up steel plants of their own. Plates are weak and also sheets and orders for rails, though numerous, are not large. Southern No. 1 is offered at 10c, and the market for Grey Forge is 10c lower at Pittsburgh.

Since coke was advanced to $2 per ton, the ovens at work have decreased 25 per cent.

Failures for the week have been 278 in the United States, against 228 last year, and 23 in Canada, against 31 last year.

For this reason it was deemed best to not effect any formal organization as yet and informally it was decided to have Senator Daboll, of Idaho, look after the interests of the bolters until such time as it is decided to be advisable to perfect a regular organization. Nearly all the silver delegates have left the city. Those now remaining are Teller, Carter, Teller, Daboll and Congressmen Towne, of Minnesota, is also still here and will remain a few days, as will the feature of another demonstration when he passes through. The mining camps are especially jubilant. At Aspen last night the bills were vibrating with the boom of imaginary cannon, and at Cripple Creek the streets were thronged by enthusiastic crowds all night. At Pueblo the company of the national guard fired a salute of five guns when the news of the bolt was received, and in the northern and southern Colorado towns the enthusiasm was unconfined.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 19.—The local papers have the following to say with regard to McKinley's nomination: The Chronicle (Rep.)—There were other worthy candidates, but another nomination would have been a mistake. For the last sixty days it has been manifest that he was the choice of the Republican electorate by an overwhelming preference, and the convention has simply ratified the pronounced will of the party in placing his name at the head of the national ticket. The friends of silver cannot be ignorant of the fact that Mr. McKinley is not owned by Wall street, and that he will be kindly treated by him. He has always been friendly to silver. As their servant, not as their dictator, will he enter the white house, and their general judgment is manifest. The Call (Rep.)—It is an ideal ticket. The candidates suit the platform, the emergency and the need of the country as well as they could be desired and the general judgment is manifest. The Examiner (Dem.)—It is noticeable that McKinley was not the choice of the great Republican states. The failure of the Democratic states, which will send him no electoral votes, an opportunity to force him upon them. The most eloquent significance of the situation is that his name is not on the platform of the Democratic states, which would have resulted had they agreed upon and named a candidate of their own. It is a wonderful spectacle to see the solid Republic on the field of battle as to defend its industries in the hall of legislation. To the majority of the workmen of America his name is synonymous with progress.

THE TRADER. Continued Signs of a Gain in Business. A Waiting Iron Market.

NEW YORK, June 19.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade, which issues to-morrow, will say:

There are continued signs that a gain in business has begun. Stocks have advanced a moment to speculate on the approach of the New Yorkers and returning Cantonians as well as a special train load of 500 people from the Mahoning valley, where Governor McKinley spent his boyhood days.

An escort committee with bands and drum corps including fifty persons, met other delegations at the stations. The streets were densely crowded for blocks in all directions leading to the governor's home. The crowds crushed through the fences and crowded into the doorways of the houses in their excitement. It was necessary for the governor to be escorted by a police returning fellow citizens, as it was impossible for him to reach the front veranda where he has been speaking.

Congressman R. W. Taylor, of the Eighteenth, the old McKinley district, mounted a box when Governor McKinley appeared, and said:

A Happy Return. "Governor McKinley—While we have not the good fortune to be the first to congratulate you in person upon the honor which the Republican party has bestowed upon you, we rejoice to know that we are from the van car of the returning hosts that yesterday witnessed that splendid demonstration whereby you were nominated for president. The recollection of that scene can never be effaced from our memory. There we saw the Republicans place you in nomination, and while it honored you it honored the party and the permanent expression to the wish and desire that have been in the hearts of the American people for many months. (Prolonged cheering.)

Twenty years ago Stark county gave you the congressional district which you have made famous. Five years ago this splendid district gave you the state of Ohio, and now our glorious state has given you to the nation whose true son you are, and whose interests have been your constant care. (Loud applause.)

Governor McKinley may your heart be thrilled when you recall that you are first in the hearts of your countrymen, not because you are a presidential nominee, but best and most glorious of all, because you are first in the hearts of your countrymen. (Cheers.) May every blessing that a life well spent always attend you is the wish of these, your friends about you. (Loud and continued applause.)

Congressman Taylor was followed by Judge George E. Baldwin on behalf of Stark county, and Judge William R. Day, who brought with him from Richmond, Va., a large box of beautiful flowers, sent to Mrs. McKinley as a souvenir of the entertainment given the Canton party on its return from St. Louis.

"I speak to you, sir," said Judge Day, "not as the governor of Ohio, or the President of the United States that surely shall be, but I claim the great privilege on behalf of these, your friends, of addressing you as a 'neighbor,' for we have not forgotten that in all these years of success, and while your fame has spread to the uttermost corners of the civilized world, you have never stood on Fortune's crowning slope, to us you have always been the companion, the counselor, the guide and familiar friend. Those who know you best love you most. To-day we had a very pleasant surprise in a gift of these flowers from some ladies of Richmond to your most gracious and noble wife. (Cheers.) I am proud, sir, that this representative of whom the brought this in said that Governor McKinley is in the heart of every good mother and every good wife in all this broad land (continued applause.) He is the friend of the noble wife as some might express our appreciation of him and good will to her. These flowers are typical of the purity of his life and character, as unspiced as his honor, and as fragrant as his good name. (Loud applause.)

Governor McKinley accepted these flowers for Mrs. McKinley from the ladies of Richmond, Ind., with their best wishes for her health and prosperity and your continued success. (More cheers.)

McKinley's Response. "To-day we had a very pleasant surprise in a gift of these flowers from some ladies of Richmond to your most gracious and noble wife. (Cheers.) I am proud, sir, that this representative of whom the brought this in said that Governor McKinley is in the heart of every good mother and every good wife in all this broad land (continued applause.) He is the friend of the noble wife as some might express our appreciation of him and good will to her. These flowers are typical of the purity of his life and character, as unspiced as his honor, and as fragrant as his good name. (Loud applause.)

Florida Democrats. Ocala, Fla., June 19.—The Democratic state convention did not adjourn until a late hour last night, nomination of a ticket being delayed by the deadlock on the nomination for comptroller. The gold men had a majority, but not the necessary two-thirds, which by a compromise W. H. Reynolds was named for comptroller. The rest of the ticket follows: For governor, W. D. Bigham; for secretary of state, J. L. Colwell; treasurer, C. B. Collins; attorney general, W. D. Lamar; superintendent of agriculture, Mr. Wombwell (re-nominated).

Stoll's Success. LONDON, June 19.—A dispatch to the Times from Rome, says that it is believed in well informed circles there that Mr. B. Stoll will be appointed apostolic delegate to the United States to succeed Cardinal Satoli, but this is not finally settled.

Shouldn't Wonder. MADRID, June 19.—The news published here that a Cuban flag was hoisted in the St. Louis convention and was given to the club, has excited unfavorable comment.

Weather Forecast for To-day. For West Virginia, Western Pennsylvania and Ohio, showers and cooler on the lakes; fair in the interior; light to fresh southerly to westerly winds.
